RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR CUSTODY REDETERMINATION AND REQUEST FOR RELEASE ON RECOGNIZANCE OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, BOND

Pursuant to section 236(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA"), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), and 8 C.F.R. §§ 1003.19 and 1236.1, the Respondent, Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa ("Mr. Disho Sisa" or "Respondent"), identified in DHS records as "Heriberto Disho-Sisa," through undersigned counsel, respectfully moves this Court to conduct a custody redetermination hearing in his case at the earliest possible date. Mr. Disho Sisa is currently in the custody of the Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") at the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility, located at 4250 Federal Drive, Batavia, New York 14020. See Exhibit 2 (Online Detainee Locator Information). Because undersigned counsel has been informed that DHS intends to transfer Respondent to a detention facility in Louisiana, Respondent respectfully requests that this Court hear this Motion on an expedited basis and retain jurisdiction over this custody redetermination request notwithstanding any transfer. See Section IV.A, infra.

On September 15, 2026, while unrepresented, Respondent indicated on the Form I-286 that he requested review of DHS's custody determination by an Immigration Judge, and bond proceedings were initiated on that basis. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-286, Notice of Custody Determination). At the hearing held on October 5, 2026, Respondent, through newly retained counsel, withdrew that request without prejudice so that a complete written request, supported by evidence, could be presented. The Court did not rule on Respondent's custody, and no bond redetermination has been made. Because there has been no prior bond redetermination, the requirement of 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(e) that a subsequent request be accompanied by a showing of materially changed circumstances does not apply. See EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(c)(4) (requirement applies where "an Immigration Judge or the Board has previously ruled in bond proceedings"). In any event, Respondent's circumstances have changed materially since that request was made: he has retained counsel, filed his Form I-589, identified a bond obligor, and assembled the documentary evidence submitted with this Motion. See Exhibits 4–8.

For over ten years, Respondent's life has been in the United States. He arrived in June 2016 after fleeing Ecuador, where he and his family were targeted because of their Indigenous Kichwa identity. See Respondent's Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, attached herein as Exhibit 4; see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). For most of that decade he lived in Brockton, Massachusetts, where three of his siblings also live, and since May 2026 he has lived in Brockport, New York, in the home of Willian Efrain Castro Guaman, a lawful permanent resident who has known him since 2016, who owns that home outright, who owns his own business, and who has sworn that he will serve as Respondent's sponsor and obligor. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589); Exhibits 5, 7, 8. Respondent has no criminal history of any kind, in the United States or in Ecuador, a fact confirmed by DHS's own database checks, and DHS itself found that he has no gang affiliation. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213, Record of Deportable/Inadmissible Alien); Exhibit 9 (Respondent's Criminal Records (Ecuador)); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). He was not the target of the enforcement operation that led to his arrest, and he was taken into custody without incident. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213).

DHS has detained Respondent under section 236 of the Act, see Exhibit 1 (Form I-286, Notice of Custody Determination), and binding Second Circuit precedent confirms that this Court has authority to redetermine his custody. See Barbosa da Cunha v. Freden, 175 F.4th 61 (2d Cir. 2026). On October 16, 2026, by the deadline set by this Court, Respondent filed a Form I-589 seeking asylum, withholding of removal, and protection under the Convention Against Torture. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589). That application is the only path by which he can obtain the protection he seeks, and he has a genuine and invested interest in pursuing it.

Because Respondent has demonstrated that he is neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk, Respondent respectfully requests that this Court order his release on conditional parole or, in the alternative, set bond in the statutory minimum amount of $1,500. See INA § 236(a)(2).

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND CUSTODY STATUS

Respondent is a 46-year-old native and citizen of Ecuador, born April 3, 1980, in the canton of Riobamba, Chimborazo Province. See Exhibit 3. His identity is fully documented by his valid Ecuadorian passport, his birth certificate, and a driver's license issued by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, all in his full legal name, Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa. See Exhibit 3. He is a member of the Kichwa Indigenous people. He grew up in the rural canton of Pallatanga, where he attended school until the age of fourteen, when his family relocated to Quito. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Parts A.III and B); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa).

Respondent departed Ecuador on April 11, 2016, and entered the United States without inspection on or about June 11, 2016. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part C); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). He has resided in the United States continuously since that time, for more than ten years. DHS's records reflect no prior encounter with immigration authorities and no prior removal order; the "Immigration Record" field of his Form I-213 reads "NEGATIVE." See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213).

For nearly all of those ten years, Respondent lived in Brockton, Massachusetts. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part A.III). His Massachusetts driver's license, issued on May 9, 2025, lists his address at 88 Fuller Street in Brockton. See Exhibit 3 (Driver License). Throughout that time he supported himself through his work as a roofer, and DHS documents April 1, 2020, as the start date of employment. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213). On May 1, 2026, Respondent moved to 26

Cloverwood Drive, Brockport, New York 14420, the home of Willian Efrain Castro Guaman, where he lived until his detention and where he will return to if released. See Exhibit 5.

On September 15, 2026, officers of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Enforcement and Removal Operations ("ICE ERO") conducted surveillance at a residential roofing jobsite at 18 West Canon Drive in Rochester, New York, after receiving an anonymous tip about a roofing crew in the area. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213). Respondent was not the subject of that operation; according to the Form I-213, record checks on a vehicle at the site led officers to a different individual, whom they identified as their target. Id. Respondent and two other workers were taken into custody, served with a Form I-200, Warrant for Arrest of Alien, and then transferred to the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility. Id.

DHS's database checks, including the National Crime Information Center (NCIC), IAFIS, TECS, and CIS, all returned negative results. The Form I-213 states expressly that Respondent "does not have a criminal history" and "does not have any gang affiliations." See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213).

That same day, an ICE Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer issued a Form I-286, Notice of Custody Determination, and ordered Respondent detained. Respondent acknowledged receipt and requested review of that determination by an Immigration Judge. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-286).

On September 16, 2026, DHS personally served Respondent with a Notice to Appear (Form I-862), initiating removal proceedings under section 240 of the Act. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-862, Notice to Appear). DHS designated Respondent as "an alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or paroled" and charged him as inadmissible under sections 212(a)(6)(A)(i) and 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Act. Id. The Notice to Appear does not allege when or where Respondent entered, stating only that he entered at an unknown place on an unknown date. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-862, Notice to Appear). DHS filed the Notice to Appear with this Court on or about September 22, 2026, and jurisdiction over the removal proceedings vested upon that filing. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.14(a).

This Court held master calendar hearings before Immigration Judge ("IJ") Johnson-Papillo on October 5, 2026, and October 19, 2026. At the latter, the IJ established a deadline for filing the asylum application and directed Respondent to submit it before the next scheduled hearing. On October 17, 2026, Respondent filed his Form I-589. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589). At the October 19, 2026 master calendar hearing, Respondent, through counsel, entered pleadings, and the Court scheduled the case for a merits hearing on December 8, 2026. The relief requested here concerns custody alone, and the record of these bond proceedings is separate from the record of the removal proceedings. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(d); EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(e)(4)–(5).

Respondent has a well-founded fear of returning to Ecuador. Respondent and his family suffered life-long discrimination, harassment, and violence on account of their race and nationality as members of the Indigenous Kichwa people. Their Kichwa identity has exposed them to both societal hostility and institutional discrimination, including physical attacks and the denial of access to essential services and fundamental rights. This longstanding pattern of targeted mistreatment demonstrates that Respondent has been singled out because of his Indigenous identity and would remain vulnerable to further harm on the same basis if returned to Ecuador. Additionally, soon before his departure, his family was targeted, threatened, and harassed by the criminal gang known as Los Lobos, from which the Ecuadorian police failed to protect them. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part B and Supplement B); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). Respondent fears that, if returned to Ecuador, he will again be targeted because of his Indigenous identity and by the gang that holds him as a direct threat to their control, with the certainty that the Ecuadorian authorities will be unable and unwilling to protect him. See id.

On the basis of that fear, Respondent filed his Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, seeking asylum, withholding of removal under INA § 241(b)(3), and protection under the Convention Against Torture. See Respondent's Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, attached herein as Exhibit 4.

Respondent is detained under INA § 236(a), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), and is therefore eligible for a custody redetermination by this Court.

II. JURISDICTION

A. Respondent Is Detained Under INA § 236(a)

An Immigration Judge may review a custody determination made by DHS under 8 C.F.R. part 1236 and may release the noncitizen and determine the amount of bond, if any, for such release. 8 C.F.R. §§ 1003.19(a), 1236.1(d)(1). Section 236 "authorizes the Government to detain certain aliens already in the country pending the outcome of removal proceedings," and "aliens detained under § 1226(a) receive bond hearings at the outset of detention." Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281, 289, 306 (2018).

Respondent was arrested in the interior of the United States, more than ten years after his entry, on a Form I-200, Warrant for Arrest of Alien, and DHS made its custody determination under section 236 of the Act. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213; Form I-286, Notice of Custody Determination). His detention is therefore governed by section 236(a).

B. INA § 235(b)(2)(A) Does Not Apply Under Binding Second Circuit Precedent

In Matter of Q. Li, 29 I&N Dec. 66 (BIA 2025), the Board held that an applicant for admission arrested while arriving in the United States is detained under INA § 235(b) and is ineligible for release on bond under INA § 236(a). In Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025), the Board extended that reasoning to noncitizens who are present in the United States without admission, concluding that Immigration Judges lack authority to redetermine their custody.

The United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit has rejected that interpretation. In Barbosa da Cunha v. Freden, 175 F.4th 61 (2d Cir. 2026), reh'g en banc denied, No. 25-3141 (2d Cir. Sept. 25, 2026), the petitioner, a Brazilian national who had entered the United States without inspection some twenty years earlier, was arrested by ICE on an administrative warrant, charged with inadmissibility under sections 212(a)(6)(A)(i) and 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Act, and transferred to ICE custody in Buffalo, where an Immigration Judge denied bond on the ground that he was subject to mandatory detention under section 235(b)(2)(A). Id., slip op. at 8–9. The Second Circuit held that section 235(b)(2)(A) reaches only noncitizens who are both "applicant[s] for admission" and presently "seeking admission"; that it does not apply to noncitizens who entered without inspection and are present in the interior; and that the detention of such noncitizens is governed by section 236(a). Id., slip op. at 7–8, 18. After the Western District of New York granted habeas relief, an Immigration Judge held a bond hearing, found that the petitioner was neither a danger nor a flight risk, and released him on bond; the Second Circuit affirmed. Id., slip op. at 8–9.

The Board and the Immigration Courts follow the precedent of the federal court of appeals in cases arising within that circuit. See Matter of Anselmo, 20 I&N Dec. 25, 31 (BIA 1989) ("[W]e have historically followed a court's precedent in cases arising in that circuit."); Matter of Garcia, 28 I&N Dec. 693, 703 (BIA 2023) (controlling circuit law is that of "the geographic location of the Immigration Court where venue lies"). This Court sits within the Second Circuit, and Respondent is detained in Batavia, New York. Barbosa da Cunha, not Yajure Hurtado, therefore controls. The Second Circuit reaffirmed that decision when it denied rehearing en banc on September 25, 2026, and the Supreme Court's subsequent grant of certiorari in Rhoney v. Barbosa da Cunha, No. 26-104 (U.S. Oct. 1, 2026) does not alter its force: unless and until the Supreme Court rules otherwise, Barbosa da Cunha remains binding law in this circuit.

Respondent's circumstances fall squarely within Barbosa da Cunha, and the parallels are direct. Like the petitioner in that case, Respondent entered without inspection and lived in the interior of the country for many years; he was arrested on an administrative warrant; DHS charged him under the same two grounds of inadmissibility; and he is detained by the same ICE field office, within the Western District of New York. Compare Barbosa da Cunha, slip op. at 8–9, with Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 2 (Online Detainee Locator Information). He was not apprehended at or near the border, did not present himself at a port of entry, and has not applied for admission; he was arrested at a residential jobsite in Rochester, New York, more than ten years after his entry. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213); Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part C). He is not "seeking admission" within the meaning of section 235(b)(2)(A), and his detention is governed by section 236(a).

Nor is Respondent an "arriving alien" as that term is defined at 8 C.F.R. § 1001.1(q). DHS did not designate him as one, see Exhibit 1 (Form I-862, Notice to Appear), and the regulatory bar on custody redetermination for arriving aliens, 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(h)(2)(i)(B), is therefore inapplicable.

To the extent this Court were to conclude otherwise, Respondent respectfully preserves his arguments that Matter of Yajure Hurtado misconstrues the statute and that his continued detention without an individualized custody hearing would violate the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.

C. Respondent Is Not Subject to Mandatory Detention Under INA § 236(c)

Respondent has no criminal convictions, no criminal arrests, and no criminal history of any kind, either in the United States or in Ecuador. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213); Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part C); Exhibit 9 (Respondent's Criminal Records); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). He has not been charged under any provision that triggers INA § 236(c), and none of the categories set out at 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(h)(2)(i) applies to him. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-862, Notice to Appear). Although DHS has charged Respondent under sections 212(a)(6)(A)(i) and 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Act, he has never been charged with, arrested for, or convicted of, and has never admitted committing, any of the offenses enumerated in INA § 236(c)(1)(E), as added by the Laken Riley Act, Pub. L. No. 119-1, 139 Stat. 3 (2025). See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213); Exhibit 9 (Respondent's Criminal Records). Therefore, Respondent is not subject to mandatory detention under INA § 236(c).

D. Venue Is Proper Before This Court

A request for custody redetermination is made, in order of preference, to the Immigration Court having jurisdiction over the place of detention. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(c)(1). Respondent is detained at the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility in Batavia, New York, which is within this Court's jurisdiction, and this Court also has administrative control over his removal proceedings. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-862, Notice to Appear); Exhibit 2 (Online Detainee Locator Information); see also EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(c)(3).

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Respondent is detained under INA § 236(a), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), which grants discretion to continue detention or to release a noncitizen on bond or conditional parole during the pendency of removal proceedings. That discretion is exercised against the backdrop of a fundamental principle: "Freedom from imprisonment—from government custody, detention, or other forms of physical restraint—lies at the heart of the liberty that [the Due Process] Clause protects." Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001).

Section 236(a)(2) of the Act affords this Court two distinct means of releasing a noncitizen from custody: release on bond of at least $1,500, or release on conditional parole, the mechanism by which a noncitizen is released on his own recognizance, without the posting of a monetary bond. INA § 236(a)(2)(A)–(B), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2)(A)–(B). Conditional parole under section 236(a)(2)(B) is a distinct statutory procedure, separate from parole under section 212(d)(5)(A) of the Act. Matter of Castillo-Padilla, 25 I&N Dec. 257, 258–63 (BIA 2010).

The showing required is the same for either form of release. The respondent must demonstrate that his release "would not pose a danger to property or persons" and that he "is likely to appear for any future proceeding." 8 C.F.R. § 1236.1(c)(8); Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. 37, 38 (BIA 2006). Section 236(a)(2)(B) imposes no additional requirement, and conditional parole is not conditioned on the "urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit" showing that governs parole under section 212(d)(5)(A) of the Act. Matter of Castillo-Padilla, 25 I&N Dec. at 258–63. Where a respondent satisfies the danger and flight-risk inquiry, release on conditional parole is available to him on the same terms as release on bond.

That reading accords with the Board's longstanding view that a noncitizen "generally is not and should not be detained or required to post bond except on a finding that he is a threat to the national security or that he is a poor bail risk." Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. 666, 666 (BIA 1976) (emphasis added). Patel treats detention and the imposition of a monetary bond as two forms of the same restraint, each requiring the same predicate finding. The Board has since extended the dangerousness inquiry beyond national security to the general criminal context, taking into account a respondent's criminal background. See Matter of Fatahi, 26 I&N Dec. 791, 793–94 (BIA 2016); see also Matter of Andrade, 19 I&N Dec. 488, 490 (BIA 1987); Matter of Drysdale, 20 I&N Dec. 815, 816–18 (BIA 1994).

The Court first determines whether the respondent has established that he is not a danger to the community; only if that showing is made does the Court proceed to assess risk of flight and the amount of bond necessary to secure his appearance. Matter of Urena, 25 I&N Dec. 140, 141 (BIA 2009). In making that assessment, the Immigration Judge may rely on "any information that is available to the Immigration Judge or that is presented to him or her by the alien or the Service." 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(d). Bond hearings are less formal than removal hearings, and the facts relevant to custody may be established through documentary evidence, sworn statements, and counsel's proffer. See EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(e), (e)(6).

In assessing flight risk, an Immigration Judge "has broad discretion in deciding the factors that he or she may consider in custody redeterminations" and "may choose to give greater weight to one factor over others, as long as the decision is reasonable." Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. at 40. The factors that may be considered include: whether the respondent has a fixed address in the United States; his length of residence; his family ties, and whether they may entitle him to reside permanently in the United States in the future; his employment history; his record of appearance in court; his criminal record; his history of immigration violations; any attempts to flee prosecution or otherwise escape from authorities; and his manner of entry into the United States. Id.

The Board has recently clarified that the flight-risk inquiry also considers whether the respondent is likely to comply with future orders of the Immigration Judge, and that "speculative future eligibility for relief based upon conjecture or hypothetical future events does not materially diminish flight risk." Matter of A-L-S-, 29 I&N Dec. 794, 797 (BIA 2026). Likewise, a proposed sponsor mitigates flight risk when the record establishes a verifiable relationship and a demonstrated ability to provide support. See Matter of M-S-V-, 30 I&N Dec. 130, 134–35 (BIA 2026). Respondent addresses each of these considerations below with record evidence.

IV. ARGUMENT

A. Request for Expedited Hearing and Retention of Jurisdiction

Undersigned counsel has been informed that DHS intends to transfer Respondent from the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility to a detention facility in the State of Louisiana. Respondent therefore respectfully requests that this Court schedule his custody redetermination hearing on an expedited basis, at the earliest possible date and, if possible, before any transfer occurs. See EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(d) (after receiving a request for a bond hearing, “the immigration court schedules the hearing for the earliest possible date”).

The consequences of that transfer for this request would not be merely logistical. Under EOIR policy, when a detained respondent whose bond redetermination request is pending is transferred to a facility outside the Immigration Court's geographic area, the request is not withdrawn; it remains pending and is clerically transferred to the Immigration Court with jurisdiction over the new facility, which must then schedule a custody redetermination hearing. See EOIR Policy Memorandum 25-49, Clerical Transfers of Bond Redetermination Requests (Sept. 15, 2025). That policy is designed to preserve a respondent's request for a bond hearing, but in Respondent's case such a transfer would be futile. Louisiana lies within the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, which, unlike the Second Circuit, has held that noncitizens who entered without inspection remain subject to mandatory detention under section 235(b)(2)(A) regardless of how long they have resided in the interior. Compare

Buenrostro-Mendez v. Bondi, No. 25-20496 (5th Cir. 2026), with Barbosa da Cunha v. Freden, 175 F.4th 61 (2d Cir. 2026). If Respondent's request were transferred to and heard in Louisiana, it would almost certainly be denied at the threshold for lack of jurisdiction, without any consideration of whether he poses a danger or a flight risk. A transfer would thus do more than change the location of Respondent's detention: it would extinguish the very custody hearing to which binding Second Circuit precedent entitles him, solely because DHS chose to move him after he requested one.

Should Respondent nonetheless be transferred before the hearing is held, Respondent respectfully requests that this Court retain and adjudicate this request. The regulations expressly authorize a custody redetermination request to be made to "the Immigration Court having administrative control over the case." 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(c)(2); see EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(c)(3). This Court has administrative control over Respondent's removal proceedings: the Notice to Appear was filed here, this Court has held two master calendar hearings, Respondent has entered pleadings, and his individual merits hearing is scheduled before this Court on December 8, 2026. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-862, Notice to Appear). A transfer does not change venue over those proceedings, which remains with this Court unless and until an Immigration Judge grants a motion to change venue. See 8 C.F.R. § 1003.20(b); Matter of Garcia, 28 I&N Dec. at 703 & n.14 ("The filing of a Form I-830 "in itself is not sufficient to effect a change of venue request"). Every person and document relevant to this request is likewise connected to this jurisdiction: Respondent's sponsor and obligor and his release address are in Brockport, New York, and this request was filed while Respondent was detained within this Court's jurisdiction and within the Second Circuit. See Exhibit 2 (Online Detainee Locator Information); Exhibit 5 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Respondent's Residence); Exhibit 7 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Assumption of Responsibility as Obligor).

A detained respondent whose request for a custody hearing is pending should not lose the opportunity for that hearing, or the protection of the law of the circuit in which he was arrested, detained, and placed in proceedings, merely because DHS moved him to another facility after he sought it. To permit this would allow the government to circumvent applicable legal constraints and procedural safeguards by strategically transferring detained individuals to jurisdictions it considers more favorable to its position. Such a result would effectively place the availability of judicial review and the enforcement of a detained respondent's legal rights within the unilateral control of the very agency whose detention decisions are being challenged. The government should not be permitted to defeat a respondent's pending request for custody redetermination, evade binding circuit precedent, or frustrate the exercise of jurisdiction through its own unilateral actions. Allowing such transfers to dictate the availability or scope of legal protections would create an impermissible incentive for forum manipulation and undermine the fundamental principle that the government must comply with the law regardless of its enforcement objectives.

B. Respondent Is Not a Danger to the Community

There is no evidence that Respondent poses any danger to the safety of persons or property. In more than ten years in the United States, he has never been arrested for, charged with, or convicted of any crime. DHS's own records confirm as much: every criminal and immigration database DHS searched, including NCIC and IAFIS, returned negative results, and the Form I-213 states that Respondent "does not have a criminal history." See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213). Respondent has attested to the same under penalty of perjury. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part C); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). He likewise has no criminal record in Ecuador, as confirmed by the certificate of criminal records issued by the Ecuadorian authorities. See Exhibit 9 (Respondent's Criminal Records).

DHS specifically examined whether Respondent has any gang affiliation and concluded that he "does not have any gang affiliations." See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213). That finding is consistent with Respondent's history: his experience with organized crime in Ecuador is that of a victim, not a participant. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part B and Supplement B); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa).

DHS has not alleged any conduct on Respondent's part bearing on dangerousness. Respondent has never been accused of violence or of any offense involving controlled substances or alcohol. He holds a valid Massachusetts driver's license, see Exhibit 3 (Driver License), and when ICE encountered him, he was taken into custody without incident. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213).

The contrast with the cases in which the Board has recently found that a respondent failed to establish that he is not a danger confirms the point. In Matter of Kamalov, 30 I&N Dec. 34, 35 (BIA 2026), the respondent had engaged in street racing, resisted arrest, driven on a suspended license, and been arrested for possession of contraband after keeping a cell phone in jail. In Matter of M-S-V-, the respondent worked as a long-haul truck driver without a valid commercial driver's license and was arrested for failing to stop at a port of entry on an interstate highway. 30 I&N Dec. at 130–32. Respondent's record contains nothing comparable: no criminal arrest, no violence, no alcohol- or drug-related conduct, and no conduct that placed any person at risk.

Likewise, nothing in the record raises any national security concern, and DHS has made no such allegation. See Matter of Fatahi, 26 I&N Dec. at 793–94.

To the contrary, the record reflects a decade of peaceful, law-abiding life among friends and family. Those who know Respondent describe him as "a kind, respectful, and genuine person," as someone who "treats people with respect and is willing to help others whenever he can," and as a person with a "willingness to lend a helping hand whenever needed." See Exhibit 6 (Support Letters from Brittany Dostman, Michael Dougherty, and Coralis Rivera). His sponsor, who has known him for approximately ten years, attests that he is "a responsible, hardworking, and caring person" and "a very loyal friend who is always willing to help," and that throughout his decade in the United States "he has always maintained good moral character." See Exhibit 7 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Assumption of Responsibility as Obligor).

Respondent has therefore carried his burden on the threshold question of dangerousness, and the Court may proceed to consider risk of flight. Matter of Urena, 25 I&N Dec. at 141.

C. Respondent Is Not a Flight Risk

Every relevant consideration points in the same direction. Respondent's home, his family, and his friends are in the United States; he has a pending application for protection that he can pursue only by appearing before this Court; and he has a sponsor of demonstrated means who has sworn to support him and to ensure his appearance. A person whose entire adult life for the past decade is rooted in this country, and whose only hope of protection depends on his appearance, does not abandon both to live as a fugitive. Considered together, the factors identified in Matter of Guerra, and the record evidence described below, establish that Respondent is likely to appear for his hearings and to comply with the orders of this Court. 24 I&N Dec. at 40.

A decade of continuous residence in the United States. Respondent has resided continuously in the United States since June 11, 2016, more than ten years and almost a fourth of his life. Each piece of evidence in the record points to that same history. Respondent has described, under penalty of perjury, the date of his departure from Ecuador, the route of his journey, and the date of his arrival in June 2016. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part C); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). His sponsor, a lawful permanent resident, has attested under penalty of perjury that he has known Respondent since 2016. See Exhibit 5 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Respondent's Residence); Exhibit 7 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Assumption of Responsibility as Obligor). DHS's own Form I-213 lists April 1, 2020, as the start date of Respondent's current employment in the United States. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213). His Massachusetts driver's license, issued in May 2025, reflects his residence in Brockton, where he lived for nearly all of the past decade and where three of his siblings live today. See Exhibit 3 (Driver License); Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part A.III and Supplement B). Nothing in the record suggests otherwise: DHS does not allege that Respondent entered recently, the Notice to Appear lists his date of entry as "unknown," and DHS's records reflect no encounter with Respondent at or near the border at any time. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213; Form I-862, Notice to Appear).

Length of residence is among the core considerations the Board has identified. See Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. at 40. During this extensive period, Respondent has built deep, irreversible ties to this country. His life is here: his home, his family, and his community. This lengthy, continuous presence reflects deep integration into American society and strongly favors his release.

Fixed address in the United States. Since May 1, 2026, Respondent has lived at 26 Cloverwood Drive, Brockport, New York 14420, the home of his sponsor, Willian Efrain Castro Guaman, who owns the property and lives there. See Exhibit 5; Exhibit 8 (Real Estate Closing Statement). Mr. Castro Guaman has attested that Respondent will return to that home if released. See Exhibit 5 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Respondent's Residence). Respondent's release address is not a temporary arrangement, but a home owned by a lawful permanent resident and documented by public records, utility records, and sworn statements. See Exhibits 5, 8.

Therefore, Respondent has presented a stable, verifiable fixed address in the United States, underscoring both his deep and long-term ties to his community and his transparency with immigration authorities.

Family and community ties. Respondent's ties to this country extend well beyond his home. Four of his siblings live in the United States: his sister Anita María Disho Sisa, his brother Edison Manuel Disho Sisa, and his half-brother Abraham Ilvay Sisa live in Brockton, Massachusetts, where Respondent lived near them for nearly a decade, and his brother José María Disho Sisa lives in Seattle, Washington; and each of his siblings in the United States has a pending application for asylum. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Parts A.III and C; Supplement B). Over the past decade, Respondent has also built a circle of friends who know him as a kind and considerate person, one of whom has come to know members of his family, "including his sister and nephew." See Exhibit 6 (Support Letter from Coralis Rivera). These are precisely the family ties that the Board has recognized as anchoring a respondent to his community and to his obligations. See Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. at 40.

Manner of entry. Respondent acknowledges that he entered the United States without inspection in 2016, when he fled Ecuador. Manner of entry, however, is one factor among many. See Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. at 40. In the decade since his entry, Respondent has not incurred any other immigration violation, has no criminal history, and has never attempted to evade immigration authorities. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213).

No criminal record. Respondent has no criminal record of any kind, in the United States or in Ecuador. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213); Exhibit 9 (Respondent's Ecuadorian Criminal Records); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). A respondent's criminal record is among the factors the Board considers in assessing flight risk, Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. at 40, and the complete absence of any criminal history over more than a decade in this country confirms that Respondent respects the legal obligations imposed on him.

A concrete, non-speculative claim for protection. Unlike the respondent in Matter of A-L-S-, whose asserted eligibility for relief rested on conjecture and on future events that had not occurred, 29 I&N Dec. at 796–97, Respondent has already filed his application for protection, and it is grounded in specific events he personally experienced and has described in detail under penalty of perjury. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part B and Supplement B); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). Respondent seeks protection on account of his race and nationality as an Indigenous Kichwa man, as well as his membership in a particular social group and political opinion, and the record reflects that the Ecuadorian police failed to protect his family when they sought help. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589, Part B); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). His claim is not hypothetical; it is documented and already before the Court, with recognized prima facie eligibility, such that it was scheduled for a resolution on the merits.

Every incentive to appear. It is in Respondent's own interest to appear at every hearing. His application for protection can be adjudicated only if he appears to present it; if he were to fail to appear, he would be ordered removed in absentia, INA § 240(b)(5)(A), and would forfeit the very protection he is seeking. The Board has recognized that an Immigration Judge "may also consider the likelihood that relief from removal will be granted in determining whether an alien warrants bond," because a respondent with a greater likelihood of obtaining relief has a greater motivation to appear. Matter of A-L-S-, 29 I&N Dec. at 796; see also Matter of Andrade, 19 I&N Dec. at 490. For a man who fled Ecuador out of fear and who has spent the last decade building a life in this country, appearing before this Court is not merely an obligation, but the only means of pursuing lawful protection in the United States. Respondent has, for the first time, invoked the legal process available to him, and he has every reason to see it through.

No Attempt to Flee. Respondent has not lived in hiding. He has never fled prosecution, never absconded, and never concealed his whereabouts. He obtained a driver's license from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in his own name, holds a valid Ecuadorian passport, and lived openly in the same community for nearly ten years. See Exhibit 3. He has never previously been placed in removal proceedings, has never been ordered removed, and has never been the subject of an in absentia order. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213). He has never used a false identity; his identity is established by his passport, his birth certificate, and his state-issued driver's license, all of which bear the same name and date of birth. See Exhibit 3 (Passport; Birth Certificate with English Translation; Driver License). When ICE officers encountered him at the jobsite, he was taken into custody without incident and gave officers his true name and date of birth. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213).

History of Compliance and Commitment to the Outcome of Proceedings. Respondent has already demonstrated that he takes these proceedings seriously. His arrest on September 15, 2026, was his first contact with immigration authorities, and he immediately requested review of DHS's custody determination by an Immigration Judge. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213 and Form I-286); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). He secured counsel before his first hearing, has appeared at every appointment scheduled in these proceedings, and filed a complete Form I-589, together with a personal declaration, by the deadline set by the Court. See Exhibit 4 (Form I-589); see also Evidence (Declaration of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa). That is demonstrated compliance with a court-ordered deadline, and his conduct in these very proceedings is the best available evidence of how he will conduct himself if released. Respondent's obligations do not end with appearing at hearings, and he understands that. He is committed to the full development of his proceedings and willing to comply with all connected obligations. His obligor has likewise sworn that he will assist Respondent "in complying with all requirements imposed by the Department of Homeland Security, the Immigration Court, and any other applicable authorities." See Exhibit 7 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Assumption of Responsibility as Obligor). These commitments speak directly to the compliance inquiry described in Matter of A-L-S-, 29 I&N Dec. at 797.

Willingness to comply with conditions of release. Respondent is prepared to comply with any conditions this Court or DHS may impose, including reporting requirements, electronic monitoring, enrollment in an Alternatives to Detention program, travel restrictions, and continued residence at 26 Cloverwood Drive, Brockport, New York 14420.

An obligor of demonstrated means. Respondent's obligor, Willian Efrain Castro Guaman, meets every element of the "rigorous standards" the Board has articulated for a sponsor who mitigates flight risk. See Matter of M-S-V-, 30 I&N Dec. at 134–35. First, his lawful status is documented: he has been a lawful permanent resident of the United States since June 3, 2017, as his permanent resident card reflects, and his identity is established by his Ecuadorian passport. See Exhibit 7 (Passport; Permanent Resident Card). Second, his relationship with Respondent is long-standing and verifiable: he has known Respondent since 2016, considers him a close friend, and has shared his home with him since May 2026. See Exhibit 5 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Respondent's Residence); Exhibit 7 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Assumption of Responsibility as Obligor). Third, his financial ability is documented, not merely asserted. Mr. Castro Guaman owns his home at 26 Cloverwood Drive outright: he purchased it on February 24, 2025, for over $230,000, paid in full by certified check, without a mortgage. See Exhibit 8 (Real Estate Closing Statement). He owns and operates his own business, Great Lakes Roofing Inc., a New York corporation he incorporated on March 23, 2026. See Exhibit 8 (Certificate of Incorporation of Great Lakes Roofing Inc.). His bank statements reflect regular payroll income and combined account balances of $8,383.25 as of August 10, 2026, $15,242.27 as of September 9, 2026, and $9,634.24 as of October 8, 2026. See Exhibit 8 (Bank Statements, July to October 2026). Fourth, he has assumed enforceable responsibility: he has sworn that he is "willing and able to serve as the bond obligor and to post the bond ordered by the Immigration Judge," that he will pay the bond from his own income "without relying on [Respondent] to provide any of the funds," and that he understands "that if he fails to do so, the bond will be breached" and that he will lose the funds he paid. See Exhibit 7 (Declaration of William Efrain Castro-Guaman Regarding Assumption of Responsibility as Obligor). He has also committed to provide Respondent with a stable residence, to remind him of every hearing, to ensure that he has transportation to every hearing and ICE check-in, and to provide ongoing support throughout these proceedings. Id.

This is precisely the kind of sponsor the Board found lacking in Matter of M-S-V- and Matter of R-A-V-P-. In M-S-V-, the Board explained that, "[u]nlike a visa sponsor or bond obligor, who assumes enforceable financial or legal responsibility," a person who merely offers to support a respondent assumes no obligation toward him, and it found the support offered by the respondent's sponsor insufficient because it was "unclear how the respondent's sponsor will provide financial support or otherwise guarantee that the respondent will appear at future immigration hearings." 30 I&N Dec. at 134. In Matter of R-A-V-P-, 27 I&N Dec. 803 (BIA 2020), the sponsor's letter did not verify his immigration status, his ability to provide support, or how he knew the respondent. Id. at 805–06. Here, each of those elements is established by documentary evidence: a permanent resident card, a sworn declaration describing a ten-year relationship, a closing statement reflecting the cash purchase of his home without a mortgage, a registered business, three months of bank statements, and a sworn declaration in which Mr. Castro Guaman, as bond obligor, assumes responsibility for guaranteeing Respondent's appearance. See Exhibits 5, 7, 8.

The Board's decisions, by contrast. The cases in which the Board has found that a respondent failed to establish that he is not a flight risk illustrate why release is warranted here. In Matter of R-A-V-P-, the respondent had entered the United States shortly before his detention, and the record reflected no family, employment, or community ties. 27 I&N Dec. at 805. In Matter of M-S-V-, the respondent had overstayed a visitor visa issued only a few years earlier and had limited ties. 30 I&N Dec. at 133. In Matter of A-L-S-, the respondent's claimed eligibility for relief rested on speculation. 29 I&N Dec. at 796–97. In Matter of A-W-M-K-, 29 I&N Dec. 805, 807–08 (BIA 2026), the record contained unresolved inconsistent representations to immigration officials and evidence suggesting possible involvement in human rights abuses. And in Matter of Sugay, 17 I&N Dec. 637, 638–39 (BIA 1981), the Board found the respondent to be a poor bail risk where he had no fixed address, no stable employment, and limited family ties, had been arrested in the United States, had fled his home country while an appeal of a criminal conviction was pending, and had eluded immigration officials for years, at one point jumping from a window to avoid apprehension. Respondent's case presents none of these features. He has lived here for a decade; he has a fixed address, family, and friends in this country; he has no criminal record; he has a filed application for protection grounded in specific facts; and he has an obligor whose status, relationship, and means are fully documented.

Respondent's circumstances closely parallel those presented Barbosa da Cunha v. Freden, 175 F.4th 61 (2d Cir. 2026), reh'g en banc denied, No. 25-3141 (2d Cir. Sept. 25, 2026), which ultimately resulted in a favorable bond determination. Like the petitioner in Barbosa da Cunha, the Respondent has resided in the United States for an extended period, compounding over a decade, established a stable life in the country, and developed substantial community ties, while holding no adverse criminal history or other negative character considerations. Taken together, these circumstances strongly support the conclusion that the Respondent poses no meaningful risk of flight and has compelling reasons to appear for all future proceedings.

D. Release Without Bond Is Appropriate in This Case

Section 236(a)(2) of the Act affords this Court two means of ordering Respondent's release: bond of at least $1,500, or conditional parole, meaning release on his own recognizance, without the posting of a monetary bond. INA § 236(a)(2)(A)–(B). The showing required is identical for both, and Respondent has made it: he is not a danger to persons or property, presents no threat to the national security, and is not a flight risk.

The Board has long held that a noncitizen "generally is not and should not be detained or required to post bond except on a finding that he is a threat to the national security or that he is a poor bail risk." Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. at 666 (emphasis added). Neither predicate is present here. Respondent has no criminal history of any kind, in the United States or in Ecuador, and DHS itself found that he has no gang affiliation. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-213); Exhibit 9 (Respondent's Criminal Records (Ecuador)). DHS has alleged no fact bearing on dangerousness, and it has charged grounds of inadmissibility that involve no conduct beyond the manner of Respondent's entry more than ten years ago. See Exhibit 1 (Form I-862, Notice to Appear).

What binds Respondent to this jurisdiction is not money but the life he has built over a decade: his home, his siblings, the friends who have come to know him, and a pending claim for protection that he can pursue only by appearing before this Court. Respondent is prepared to accept any condition of supervision this Court or DHS may impose, including reporting requirements, electronic monitoring, travel restrictions, and continued residence at 26 Cloverwood Drive, Brockport, New York 14420.

Respondent therefore respectfully requests release on conditional parole pursuant to INA § 236(a)(2)(B), subject to such conditions of supervision as the Court deems appropriate.

E. A Reasonable Bond of Not More Than $1,500 Is Appropriate

Bond is not punitive. Its function is to secure the respondent's appearance at future proceedings. See Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. at 666–67. Where a respondent has ten years of continuous residence, a fixed address in a home owned by his obligor, siblings and friends in this country, no criminal record, no prior immigration proceedings, a filed application for protection, and a sponsor of documented means who has sworn to support him and guarantee his appearance, a bond in the statutory minimum amount of $1,500 is sufficient. INA § 236(a)(2)(A).

A bond set beyond what is necessary to secure Respondent's appearance would operate as an order of detention while serving no legitimate regulatory purpose. Thus, in the alternative, Respondent respectfully requests that the Court set bond in the minimum amount permitted by law, subject to any reasonable conditions the Court may impose.

V. CONCLUSION

For ten years, Respondent has lived and built his life in the United States. He has no criminal history in this country or in Ecuador, and DHS's own records confirm that he has no gang affiliation. His home, his family, and his friends are here. His obligor, a lawful permanent resident who has known him for a decade, owns the home to which Respondent will return, owns his own business, has documented funds, and has sworn under penalty of perjury to support Respondent and to ensure that he appears. He has filed a concrete claim for protection that he can pursue only by appearing before this Court, and he has every reason to do so.

On this record, continued detention is not justified under INA § 236(a). Respondent has established that he is neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk.

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that this Court: (1) grant this Motion for Custody Redetermination; (2) schedule a custody redetermination hearing on an expedited basis, at the earliest available date and, if possible, before any transfer of Respondent; (3) retain jurisdiction over this custody redetermination request notwithstanding any transfer of Respondent to another detention facility, and permit Respondent to appear by video if necessary; (4) order Respondent's release on conditional parole pursuant to INA § 236(a)(2)(B); (5) in the alternative, set bond in an amount not to exceed $1,500, or in the minimum amount permitted by law; and (6) grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully,

the 18 W Canon Drive, Rochester, NY 14624 after receiving an anonymous tip of a roofing crew in the area. The company was Graves Construction; a company ERO has previously encountered and known to hire illegal aliens. ICE/ERO officers ran record checks on a New York plated van on site bearing plate 33338NH that resulted in the development of target: LEMA-LALA, Mayra D.O.B 12/28/2000 A#216 662 880 C.O.C Ecuador who is currently in proceedings with an administratively closed case with no final decision on 12/6/2023. At approximately 1100 hours ICE/ERO officers observed the New York with two individuals in the back of the vehicle grabbing tools. While witnessing a female on scene matching the description of the target; female, late twenties, black hair, around 5'5- 5'8 in the dumpster of the jobsite. At approximately 1100 hours ICE/ERO officers approached the target vehicle and identified themselves as ICE/ERO officers with ICE/Police identifiers on their outer clothing and announced that this encounter was being recorded via body worn cameras. The third subject began to flee through the backyard of the house and apprehended by an officer on the street behind the target. The individual admitted to being in the United States illegally. The two other suspects climbed up the ladder and back onto the roof. While on the ground the subjects one and two admitted to being present in the country illegally. After the two individuals came off of the roof further records checks utilizing ICE/ERO systems revealed the following; PONCE, Edin Naun A# 245 827 998 DOB: 07/29/1987 COB/COC: Honduras( In Proceedings), QUINALOA-DISHO, Anderson Franklin A# 220 442 150 DOB: 09/26/2003 COB/COC: Ecuador, DISHO-SISA, Luis Heriberto DOB: 04/03/1980 COB/COC: Ecuador Reason: EWI. At this time, all three subjects were taken into custody and placed into a government vehicle without incident. The three subjects were then transported to a secure location approximately three minutes away located at 4150 Buffalo Rd #3, Rochester, NY 14624 and served a signed I-200 Warrant of Arrest due to the nature of the scene. Furthermore, the subjects were then transported to the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility in Batavia, NY for further processing.

I, Deportation Officer R. DeFranco, was not the arresting officer. I was issued this unprocessed case to finalize the disposition.

Notice to Respondent

Alien Registration: This Notice to Appear serves as evidence of your alien registration pursuant to INA § 262. If you are 18 years or older, failure to carry this Notice to Appear, or other evidence of alien registration as provided in 8 C.F.R. § 264.1(b), on your person at all times is a criminal offense pursuant to INA § 264(e), for which you may be subject to a criminal penalty of $5,000 and imprisonment of up to 30 days.

Notification to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) of Change of Address: All aliens aged 14 years or older, and all parents and legal guardians of aliens under the age of 14, must report a change of address to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, a component of DHS, within 10 days of moving, pursuant to INA § 265(a). Failure to notify DHS of your change of address is a criminal offense pursuant to INA § 266(b), for which you may be subject to a criminal penalty of $5,000 and imprisonment of up to 30 days. More information is available online at https://www.uscis.gov/addresschange. This obligation is in addition to your obligation to notify the Immigration Court of your change of address.

Representation: If you choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to INA §§ 240(b)(4)(A) and 292. Unless you request otherwise in writing, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than 10 days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost is provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in this Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or deportable. You will be advised by the immigration judge of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible, including the privilege of voluntary departure. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge. At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross-examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. The Form I-589, Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/i-589. Failure to file the Form I-589 within one year of arrival may bar you from eligibility to apply for asylum pursuant to INA § 208(a)(2)(B).

Notification to the Immigration Court of Change of Address: You are required to notify the Immigration Court, in writing, of your full mailing address and telephone number (if any). You must also immediately notify the Immigration Court whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding by using Form EOIR-33/IC, Change of Address/Contact Information Form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you file a Form EOIR-33/IC with the Immigration Court, you must serve a copy on the ICE Office of the Principal Legal Advisor. If you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding and do not submit Form EOIR-33/IC, the Immigration Court shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. This obligation is in addition to your obligation to notify DHS of your change of address.

Failure to Appear: If you fail to attend the hearing at the date, time, and place designated on this notice, or any date, time, or place later directed by the Immigration Court, the immigration judge shall order you removed in your absence upon determining that you were provided written notice and are removable. If you are arrested by ICE after being ordered removed in your absence by the immigration judge pursuant to INA § 240(b)(5), you will be required to pay a minimum fee of $5,000, adjusted for inflation, or a greater amount as established by the Secretary of Homeland Security.

Mandatory Duty to Depart the United States: If you become subject to a final order of removal as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 1241.1, you must depart the United States within 90 days of the order. If you do not depart, you may be subject to a civil penalty under INA § 274D(a) of $500 per day, adjusted for inflation, and imprisonment of up to 4 years (or 10 years if you belong to certain specified classes described in INA § 237(a)(1)(E), (2), (3), or (4)). If you are granted voluntary departure, you must comply with the terms of the voluntary departure order. If you fail to voluntarily depart within the time provided, you will be subject to a final order of removal, may be ineligible for certain immigration benefits for a period of 10 years from the date you overstayed the order, and may be subject to a civil penalty from $1,000 to $5,000, adjusted for inflation. For additional information, refer to the order granting voluntary departure, as well as INA § 240B(d).

Sensitive Locations: To the extent that an enforcement action leading to a removal proceeding was taken against Respondent at a location described in INA § 239(e)(1), such action complied with 8 U.S.C. § 1367.

Authority:
The Department of Homeland Security through U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), U.S Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) are authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to Sections 103, 237, 239, 240, and 290 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended (8 U.S.C. 1103, 1229, 1229a, and 1360), and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Purpose:
You are being asked to sign and date this Notice to Appear (NTA) as an acknowledgement of personal receipt of this notice. This notice, when filed with the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), initiates removal proceedings. The NTA contains information regarding the nature of the proceedings against you, the legal authority under which proceedings are conducted, the acts or conduct alleged against you to be in violation of law, the charges against you, and the statutory provisions alleged to have been violated. The NTA also includes information about the conduct of the removal hearing, your right to representation at no expense to the government, the requirement to inform EOIR of any change in address, the consequences for failing to appear, and that generally, if you wish to apply for asylum, you must do so within one year of your arrival in the United States. If you choose to sign and date the NTA, that information will be used to confirm that you received it, and for recordkeeping.

Routine Uses:
For United States Citizens, Lawful Permanent Residents, or individuals whose records are covered by the Judicial Redress Act of 2015 (5 U.S.C. § 552a note), your information may be disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b), including pursuant to the routine uses published in the following DHS systems of records notices (SORN): DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefit Information System, DHS/ICE-011 Criminal Arrest Records and Immigration Enforcement Records (CARIER), and DHS/ICE-003 General Counsel Electronic Management System (GEMS), and DHS/CBP-023 Border Patrol Enforcement Records (BPER). These SORNs can be viewed at https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorns. When disclosed to the DOJ's EOIR for immigration proceedings, this information that is maintained and used by DOJ is covered by the following DOJ SORN: EOIR-001, Records and Management Information System, or any updated or successor SORN, which can be viewed at https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records. Further, your information may be disclosed pursuant to routine uses described in the abovementioned DHS SORNs or DOJ EOIR SORN to federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement agencies for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

For all others, as appropriate under United States law and DHS policy, the information you provide may be shared internally within DHS, as well as with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement; other government agencies; and other parties for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

Disclosure:
Providing your signature and the date of your signature is voluntary. There are no effects on you for not providing your signature and date; however, removal proceedings may continue notwithstanding the failure or refusal to provide this information.

Part B. Information About Your Application

(NOTE: Use Form I-589 Supplement B, or attach additional sheets of paper as needed to complete your responses to the questions contained in Part B.)

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

USCIS may adjudicate your application without conducting an interview and without issuing a request for evidence. Your application and any supporting evidence that you provide now may be your only opportunity to meet your burden of proof to establish eligibility for asylum before USCIS.

Refer to Instructions, Part 1: Filing Instructions, Section II, "Basis of Eligibility," Parts A - D, Section V, "Completing the Form," Part B, and Section VII, "Additional Evidence That You Should Submit," for more information on completing this section of the form.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? Check the appropriate box(es) below and then provide detailed answers to questions A and B below.

I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on:

- ☒ Race
- ☐ Religion
- ☒ Nationality
- ☒ Political opinion
- ☒ Membership in a particular social group
- ☒ Torture Convention

A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail:

1. What happened;
2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred;
3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and
4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.

I belong to the indigenous Kichwa people. At the age of 14, my family and I moved from the rural area of Pallatanga to Quito seeking better opportunities. My family and I suffered systematic racial discrimination and harassment due to our ethnic origin and indigenous identity, which intensified in Quito. Neighbors and locals insulted us by calling us "indios," telling us we were not welcome in the city, demanding that we go back to the countryside, and even denying us access to drinking water. When I was around 14 to 15 years old, while walking to the store with my family, local residents violently attacked us by throwing stones at us while yelling racial slurs. Due to severe racial prejudice, my father was denied formal employment, forcing me to work from age 14 collecting fallen fruit in local markets for resale and doing temporary construction work to help us survive. Racial discrimination was a constant part of our daily lives. As members of the Indigenous Kichwa community, we faced not only social prejudice and harassment but also institutional discrimination that deprived us of access to basic services and fundamental rights. Institutions that should have provided essential services and equal protection instead denied us access to resources and opportunities available to others due to our race and indigenous ethnicity. My wife was denied necessary medical care, and my children were denied enrollment in schools, obstructing their access to education. These incidents were not isolated occurrences but reflected the persistent discrimination we experienced as an Indigenous family. Continued on additional information.

B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail:

1. What harm or mistreatment you fear;
2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and
3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.

As a member of the Indigenous Kichwa community from the rural area of Pallatanga, Ecuador, I fear continued racial persecution, discrimination, social marginalization, and severe physical harm because of my Indigenous identity. Throughout my life, my family and I have been subjected to racial hostility and denied access to basic services and rights because we are Indigenous people from the countryside. We were physically attacked with stones, denied drinking water, my wife was refused emergency medical care, and my children were denied access to education. My indigenous ethnicity is a core part of my identity and makes me a permanent target in my home country. If I return, I fear that I will once again face discrimination, exclusion, mistreatment, and severe harm because of my Kichwa identity. In addition to this, I fear being threatened, kidnapped, beaten or murdered by members of the gang "Los Lobos". After they ransacked my home in Quito and injured my 14-year-old son when we refused to let him join their gang, they continued to harass and threaten us. If I were in Ecuador speaking out about what they did, they would immediately have me kidnapped, forced into doing things against my will, or killed. Los Lobos operate throughout Ecuador with total impunity, and I do not believe I could find a place in the country where I would be safe from them. As my past experience has shown, reporting Los Lobos would expose my family and me to further violence rather than protection, especially given the corruption and collusion between the police and criminal gangs. My distinct facial scar makes it impossible for me to hide anywhere in Ecuador without being recognized and targeted. Further details are incldued in my declaration.

2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action.

N/A

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.

I, my parents, my siblings, my children and my other immediate family are members of the Indigenous Kichwa ethnic group in Ecuador. I have been a member of the Kichwa ethnic group since birth and I will continue to carry this identity throughout my life. My identity is deeply rooted in the traditions, values and history of the Kichwa people, and this connection is an integral part of who I am.

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.

I, my parents, my siblings, my children and my other immediate family members will always be members of the Indigenous Kichwa ethnic group. The connection to its values, traditions and history is a core part of our identity and will remain so for the rest of our lives.

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.

Indigenous Kichwa people have historically been subject to State-sanctioned torture in Ecuador. When my family moved to Quito, we were constantly targeted with racial hostility. When I was a teenager, a hostile crowd and local gang members attacked my family and me in the street, throwing heavy stones at us while shouting racial slurs and demanding that we leave the city. We were nearly killed. Throughout my life in Ecuador, I have always faced this constant danger of racial violence, institutional rejection, and denial of basic services. The State itself perpetrates violence against my community by denying us the exercise of our civil rights, restricting our freedom, and subjecting us to arbitrary detention and physical abuse. If I am forced to return, I will face heightened, severe levels of ethnic discrimination and physical violence that amount to torture, as racial violence against indigenous people in urban centers continues to escalate without state protection. These acts of state-inflicted harm constitute torture.
In addition to racial persecution, I face an immediate threat of torture and execution by the criminal gang "Los Lobos". "Los Lobos" previously invaded and ransacked my home, repeatedly threatened my family, and severely beat my 14-year-old son when we refused to allow him to be forcibly recruited into their gang. Because I reported their act, defied their extortion and recruitment, and subsequently fled the country, returning to Ecuador puts me at direct risk of being kidnapped, beaten or executed in retaliation. Criminal organizations operate with near-total impunity in Ecuador, and the State is unwilling to protect those who oppose their operations and further denies protection to people like me because of our Indigenous origin. And my prominent facial scar from a 2012 accident makes me easily identifiable and unable to hide or safely relocate anywhere in the country. Further details are included in my declaration.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application

You should ensure that your explanations are complete and detailed. An asylum officer may adjudicate your application without conducting an interview or requesting additional evidence.

(NOTE: Use Form I-589 Supplement B, or attach additional sheets of paper as needed to complete your responses to the questions contained in Part C.)

1. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents or your siblings ever applied to the U.S. Government for refugee status, asylum, or withholding of removal?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain the decision and what happened to any status you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents, or your siblings received as a result of that decision. Indicate whether or not you were included in a parent or spouse's application. If so, include your parent or spouse's A-number in your response. If you have been denied asylum by an immigration judge or the Board of Immigration Appeals, describe any change(s) in conditions in your country or your own personal circumstances since the date of the denial that may affect your eligibility for asylum.

My siblings Anita Maria Disho Sisa, Jose Maria Disho Sisa, Flavio Orlando Disho Sisa, Edison Manuel Disho Sisa, and Habraan Ilbay Sisa have filed Applications for Asylum and Withholding of Removal (Form I-589). They entered the United States individually and filed their applications separately. To the best of my knowledge, all of their asylum applications remain pending a final decision.

2.A. After leaving the country from which you are claiming asylum, did you or your spouse or child(ren) who are now in the United States travel through or reside in any other country before entering the United States?

☐ No ☒ Yes

2.B. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), or other family members, such as your parents or siblings, ever applied for or received any lawful status in any country other than the one from which you are now claiming asylum?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes" to either or both questions (2A and/or 2B), provide for each person the following: the name of each country and the length of stay, the person's status while there, the reasons for leaving, whether or not the person is entitled to return for lawful residence purposes, and whether the person applied for refugee status or for asylum while there, and if not, why he or she did not do so.

On April 11, 2016, I fled Ecuador alone. I traveled overland by bus from Quito, Ecuador to the border town of Ipiales, Colombia. From Ipiales, I took a 24-hour bus ride to Bogotá, Colombia. I stayed in Bogotá for approximately 15 days, where I met up with other migrants heading north. From Bogotá, Colombia, we flew by airplane to Nicaragua. The flight made a brief 1-hour layover in El Salvador for an airplane transfer. Upon arriving in Nicaragua, I stayed at a hotel for approximately 10 days. From Nicaragua northward, we traveled overland using buses, trucks, cars, and walking. We transited through Honduras quickly in 1 to 2 days. We then entered Guatemala, where I stayed for some weeks. From Guatemala, we entered Mexico, where I spent approximately 1 month. There, we were hidden in a sugarcane field (cañaverales) for 15 days with no food, surviving only on water, sugarcane, and mandarins. We were also crammed into enclosed trailers under extreme heat. From Mexico, I crossed the desert on foot, walking for some days. I finally entered the United States on or about June 11, 2016, through Texas. I did not hold legal status or am entitled to return for lawful residence purposes in any of these countries. I did not apply for refugee status or asylum in these countries because I was not safe there. This entire journey was marked by constant insecurity and danger. My only real option for protection was to reach the United States. Indigenous people face severe discrimination and mistreatment in those countries, and I feared being targeted because of my ethnicity. In addition, "Los Lobos" have connections in these countries, and could locate and target me, making any attempt to seek protection futile. Further details are included in my declaration.

3. Have you, your spouse or your child(ren) ever ordered, incited, assisted or otherwise participated in causing harm or suffering to any person because of his or her race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group or belief in a particular political opinion?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe in detail each such incident and your own, your spouse's, or your child(ren)'s involvement.

4. After you left the country where you were harmed or fear harm, did you return to that country?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe in detail the circumstances of your visit(s) (for example, the date(s) of the trip(s), the purpose(s) of the trip(s), and the length of time you remained in that country for the visit(s).)

5. Are you filing this application more than 1 year after your last arrival in the United States?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain why you did not file within the first year after you arrived. Your written explanation may be your only opportunity to have an asylum officer consider your reason(s). If you are scheduled for an asylum interview or a hearing with an immigration judge, you must be prepared to explain at your interview or hearing why you did not file your asylum application within the first year after you arrived. For guidance in answering this question, see Instructions, Part 1. Filing Instructions, Section V. Completing the Form, Part C.

I did not file my application for asylum within my first year in the United States because I did not know I could seek protection, and I faced overwhelming barriers of language, isolation, and trauma that kept me from understanding or accessing the legal system.I come from a rural indigenous Kichwa family in Ecuador, and I only completed primary school. I do not speak any English at all. When I arrived in the United States in June 2016, my sole motivation was to escape the death threats, gang violence, and physical abuse that my family and I were suffering in Quito. I never encountered immigration officers who explained my rights or informed me of the possibility of applying for asylum. I was never informed about the one-year deadline to apply. My life in the United States was also shaped by deep physical and emotional trauma. As an indigenous man, and because of a severe construction accident in 2012 that left a large, deep scar on the left side of my face and damaged my vision, people have always treated me with hostility and prejudice. It was only when I was recently arrested by immigration officers and received legal guidance for the first time that I was informed that I had the right to apply for asylum to protect me from removal to Ecuador. As soon as I received this guidance, I immediately worked as fast as I could to submit this application. I respectfully request the court to consider these extraordinary circumstances and accept this late filing, as I am now prepared to present my case and provide all supporting evidence needed. Further details are included in my declaration.

6. Have you or any member of your family included in the application ever committed any crime and/or been arrested, charged, convicted, or sentenced for any crimes in the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," for each instance, specify in your response: what occurred and the circumstances, dates, length of sentence received, location, the duration of the detention or imprisonment, reason(s) for the detention or conviction, any formal charges that were lodged against you or your relatives included in your application, and the reason(s) for release. Attach documents referring to these incidents, if they are available, or an explanation of why documents are not available.

I was apprehended by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement on September 15, 2026, while working in a construction site in New York, solely for an immigration law violation after entering the United States without inspection. Following this arrest, I was issued a Notice to Appear charging me under sections 212 (a) (6) (A) (i) e 212 (a) (7) (A) (i) (I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). I am currently detained at the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility. This arrest and detention occurred solely in connection with my immigration status. I have never committed any crime in the United States, nor have I ever been arrested, charged, or convicted of any criminal offense.

Part D. Your Signature

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this application and the evidence submitted with it are all true and correct. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1546(a), provides in part: Whoever knowingly makes under oath, or as permitted under penalty of perjury under Section 1746 of Title 28, United States Code, knowingly subscribes as true, any false statement with respect to a material fact in any application, affidavit, or other document required by the immigration laws or regulations prescribed thereunder, or knowingly presents any such application, affidavit, or other document containing any such false statement or which fails to contain any reasonable basis in law or fact - shall be fined in accordance with this title or imprisoned for up to 25 years. I certify that I am physically present in the United States or seeking admission at a Port of Entry when I execute this application. I authorize the release of any information from my immigration record that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) needs to determine eligibility for the benefit I am seeking.

WARNING: Applicants who are in the United States unlawfully are subject to removal if their asylum or withholding claims are not granted by an asylum officer or an immigration judge. Any information provided in completing this application may be used as a basis for the institution of, or as evidence in, removal proceedings even if the application is later withdrawn, and even if USCIS does not conduct an interview on the application. Applicants determined to have knowingly made a frivolous application for asylum will be permanently ineligible for any benefits under the Immigration and Nationality Act. You may not avoid a frivolous finding simply because someone advised you to provide false information in your asylum application. If filing with USCIS, unexcused failure to appear for an appointment to provide biometrics (such as fingerprints) and your biographical information within the time allowed may result in an asylum officer dismissing your asylum application or referring it to an immigration judge. Failure without good cause to provide DHS with biometrics or other biographical information while in removal proceedings may result in your application being found abandoned by the immigration judge. See sections 208(d)(5)(A) and 208(d)(6) of the INA and 8 CFR sections 208.10, 1208.10, 208.20, 1003.47(d) and 1208.20.

Part B

Question 1.A.

In 2012, while working in construction in Quito, I suffered a catastrophic accident when a grinding machine disc shattered and severely cut the left side of my face. I fell into a coma for three days, suffered massive blood loss, and was hospitalized for six months, followed by an entire year of recovery. The accident left me with a deep, permanent facial scar and impaired vision in my left eye, resulting in a lasting disability.

Following the accident, I faced constant discrimination, harassment, and humiliation because of my appearance and disability. People in my community and on the streets mocked me publicly, calling me a "monster," "Chucky," "Joker" ("Guasón"), and "clown," often in front of my young children, which caused them severe distress. This mistreatment was compounded by the prejudice I already faced as an Indigenous man. My disability and my Indigenous identity combined to make me even more vulnerable to discrimination and rejection. People judged and mistreated me not only because of my visible scars and impaired vision, but also because of my race. This discrimination made it extremely difficult for me to find steady employment and contributed to the eventual breakdown of my marriage.

In 2015, members of the transnational gang "Los Lobos" violently broke into and ransacked my home in the Ciudad Futura neighborhood of Quito while my wife and I were away working. The gang members completely emptied our house, deeply traumatizing my two young children who were home alone. My daughter called the police, but the officers took over an hour to arrive, did not investigate, and took no action to protect us. Following the robbery, "Los Lobos" repeatedly harassed and threatened my family, warning us that they would harm or kidnap my children if we did not comply with their demands. Subsequent to the break-in, members of "Los Lobos" attempted to forcibly recruit my son when he was in middle school. When we firmly refused to let him join the gang, gang members severely beat him. Due to the total lack of police protection and the immediate threat to his life, I was forced to permanently pull my son out of school and send him into hiding in the rural area of Riobamba to live with his grandparents. However, I know that this does not mean he is safe. Los Lobos have a presence throughout Ecuador, and as a member of the Indigenous Kichwa community, he would continue to face discrimination, persecution, and the risk of serious harm in our home country. This ongoing persecution made it impossible for me to live safely in Ecuador, forcing me to flee the country in April 2016.

Further details are included in my declaration.

For Your Information

We want you to easily understand your bill, the terms we use and the charges that appear. Following is a brief explanation of items that appear on your bill, as well as payment programs and billing services we offer. If you have questions or want more detailed explanations, please visit our website at www.nationalgrid.com or call 1-800-642-4272.

Paying Your Bill/ Payment Options

• DirectPay: If you choose, National Grid will automatically withdraw your monthly bill payment from your checking or savings account. You will avoid the inconvenience of check writing, stamps, mailing and due dates. Your service bill will indicate your energy usage and the date of your next automatic withdrawal.

• By Mail: Send us your payment in the envelope provided with your bill. For your protection, please do not send cash. Put your 10-digit account number on your check or money order and include your bill stub. Please do not staple or paper clip your check to the stub.

• In Person: Pay at an authorized payment location by cash or check. Please bring your bill with you. Most locations charge a fee for providing this service. For the payment locations nearest you, visit our website or contact us.

• Online: Enroll online to receive and pay your bill online. The online function will begin with the next billing cycle following your enrollment.

• Late Payment Charge: To avoid Late Payment Charges, your payment must be received by the date shown on the front of the bill.

Charges

Charges for electric or gas service are based on rates or prices approved by the New York State Public Service Commission (PSC). When changes in prices are approved by the PSC, information will be included with your bill. Complete price schedules are available on our website or by contacting us. National Grid reserves the right to upwardly adjust a previously issued bill or back bill.

Basic Service: A charge to cover costs for meter reading, billing, equipment and maintenance. This charge is the same regardless of how much energy is used during the billing period.

Tariff Surcharge: New York State and many local municipalities impose taxes on National Grid's revenue. These operating costs are recovered through a tariff surcharge applied to all rates and charges and may vary among taxing municipalities within the National Grid system area.

Sales Tax: In some areas National Grid is required to collect state and local sales taxes. Some school districts also impose taxes.

Billing Credits

Paperless Billing Credit: A credit provided to Customers who elect to receive their bills electronically through the Company`s Online Bill-Pay Program.

Outage Credit: A credit issued by the company in the event of a prolonged electric service outage

Energy Measurement Terms

kWh: The unit of electricity usage measured by your meter. One kilowatt-hour(kWh) is 1000 watts-hours, and will light a 100-watt bulb for 10 hours. The number of kWhs is used to determine the electricity charges on your bill.

Meter Multiplier: Due to their design, some meters record a fraction of the total usage. The multiplier is used to convert the recorded meter reading on these types of meters to total actual consumption.

Electric Service

Delivery: National Grid's charge for bringing electricity from your supplier to your premise, regardless of supplier.

Other Delivery Surcharges (ODS): The ODS contains specific monthly delivery surcharges assessed to customers. A complete list of these surcharges is available at: https://www.nationalgridus.com/Upstate-NY-Business/Rates/Rate-Statements.

Merchant Function Charge (MFC): A charge for the Company's cost to procure electricity supply. The Company will not bill you this charge if you choose an alternate supplier.

Legacy Transition Charge (LTC): All delivery service customers are billed the cost or benefit of electricity supply contracts the Company entered prior to June 1, 2001. Residential customers also receive the benefit of low cost hydropower.

Customer Benefit Contribution (CBC): Monthly $/kW DC installed-capacity charge assessed to customers that install eligible generation assets after January 1, 2022 intended to collect certain public benefit program costs from these customers.

System Benefits Charge (SBC): A charge to reflect costs associated with energy efficiency and building electrification programs conducted by New York State Energy Research and Development Authority (NYSERDA) and energy efficiency programs implemented by the Company.

Clean Energy Standard Delivery (CESD) : Charges associated with Clean Energy Standard program costs.

Revenue Decoupling Mechanism (“RDM”) : Reconciles actual billed delivery service revenues to annual target revenues. Delivery service revenues above target are refunded to customers. Target revenues above actual delivery service revenues are collected from customers.

Transmission Revenue Adjustment (TRA): Reconciles wholesale transmission service revenue to the forecasted transmission service revenue embedded in electric delivery rates. Transmission service revenues above those forecasted are credited to customers. Forecast revenues above actual revenues are collected from customers.

Electricity Supply: The price of electricity supply used during the billing period. If you choose an alternate supplier, the price will be what you agree upon with that supplier.

Electricity Supply Reconciliation Mechanism (ESRM): Reconciles National Grid`s electricity supply service revenues to the cost of Company purchased electricity , including Clean Energy Standard costs. Costs above revenues are recovered from customers. Revenues above costs are credited to customers.

• Special Protections: During extreme weather, residential electric service is protected from being turned off for non-payment when the heat index is expected to reach, or reaches, 90°F or higher.

Estimating Your Usage

When we are unable to obtain a reading, we estimate your usage based on your past usage, taking current weather conditions into account. Because our meters keep a continuous record of usage, any difference between estimated and actual usage is reconciled with the next meter reading. To avoid estimated readings, you can take your own reading on or just before the scheduled date shown on your bill and call it in at 1-888-932-0301.

Payment Programs

National Grid has a number of payment programs and billing services to meet the varied needs of our customers.

• Budget Plan: Helps customers avoid high seasonal payments by spreading the cost for utility service over the entire year.

• Bill Extender: Gives eligible customers extra time to pay their monthly National Grid bill.

• Deferred Payment Agreement: Designed for customers who have fallen behind on their payments and cannot pay their bill in full.

• Hospitalized Customer Assistance Plan: Allows customers temporarily disabled due to hospitalization to extend payment of their National Grid bill 30 days from the day it is due.

For more information, visit us at: www.nationalgrid.com or call 1-800-642-4272

Customers with problems paying their National Grid bill should call 1-800-443-1837.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter to share my personal thoughts about Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa and his character. In my experience, Luis has been a kind, respectful, and genuine person.

Luis is someone who is easy to get along with and treats others with kindness. He has a good way of making people feel welcome, and I have found him to be considerate in the way he interacts with others. He comes across as someone who values the people in his life.

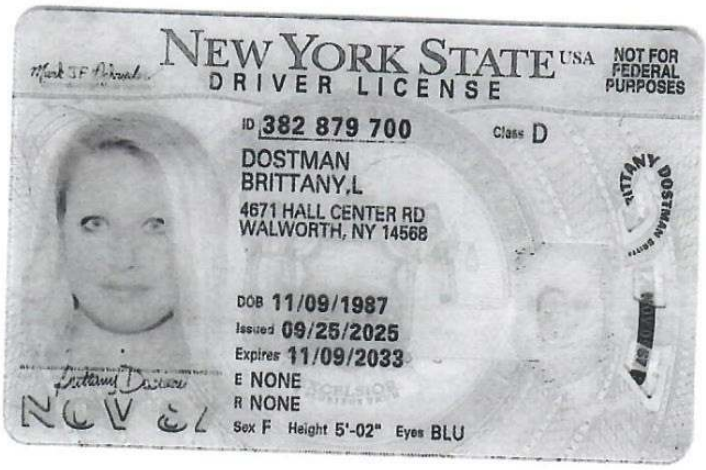

Based on my own experiences with Luis, I believe he has a good heart and a positive character. I understand the importance of speaking honestly, and I can say that my interactions with him have left me with a favorable impression of the person he is.

I am providing this reference based on what I have personally observed and experienced. I hope my perspective can be helpful in giving you a better understanding of Luis and his character.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,

Brittany Dostman

To Whom It May Concern,

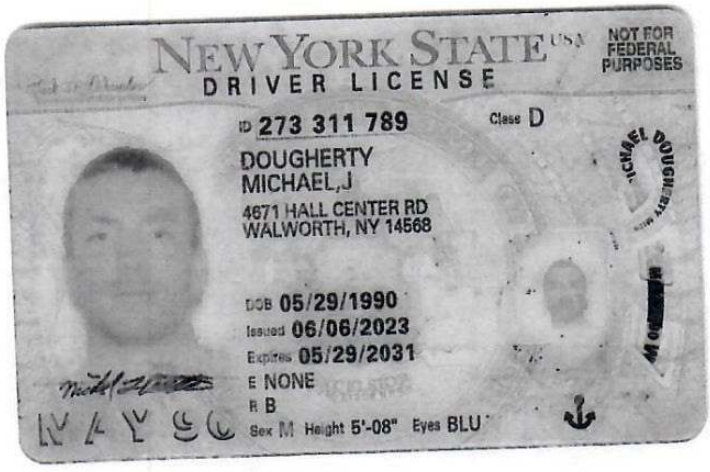

I am writing this letter in support of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa. I have known Luis for some time, and in all my interactions with him, I have had nothing but positive experiences.

Luis is a respectful person who is friendly and makes others feel comfortable around him. I have enjoyed the time I've spent with him, and I have always found him to be considerate and kind.

From my experience, Luis treats people with respect and is willing to help others whenever he can. He has always given me the impression of being someone who cares about the people around him and tries to do the right thing.

I can only speak from my own personal experience, but I have always known Luis to be a good person, and I have never had a reason to think otherwise. I hope this letter helps give a better understanding of his character.

Sincerely,
Michael Dougherty

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter of personal recommendation for Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa. I met Luis through a mutual acquaintance and have since had the opportunity to get to know him on a personal level. Throughout our interactions, I have come to appreciate his genuine personality, kindness, and willingness to help others.

Luis is someone I genuinely enjoy spending time with. He has a great sense of humor and an approachable, down-to-earth personality that makes conversations enjoyable. He is sincere in his interactions with others, and I appreciate that he presents himself as someone who is genuine and considerate.

Another quality I value about Luis is his willingness to lend a helping hand whenever needed. He is someone who shows consideration for others, and I appreciate his helpful nature. These qualities have contributed to the positive impression I have developed of him over time.

I have also had the pleasure of becoming acquainted with members of Luis's family, including his sister and nephew. They have also made a very positive impression on me and have been kind and pleasant in our interactions. Getting to know some of his family has been another meaningful part of my personal connection with Luis.

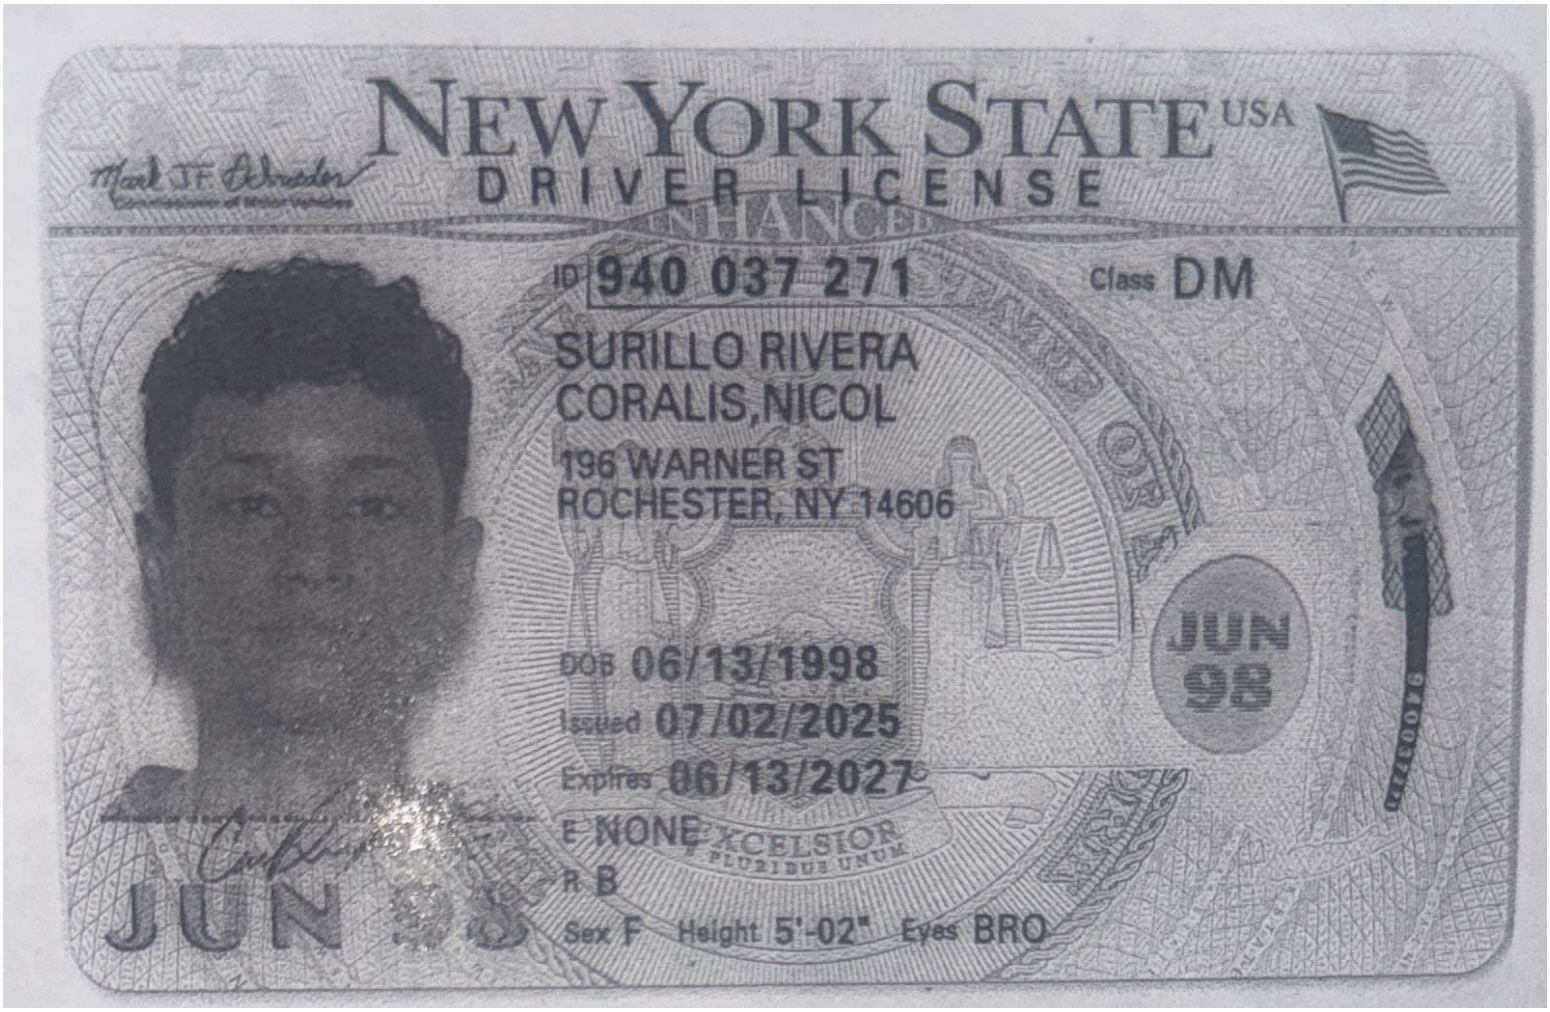

Based on my personal experience, I believe Luis is a genuine and considerate individual who values the people around him. I am happy to recommend him and provide this letter as a reflection of the positive experiences I have had getting to know him.

Please feel free to consider this letter a sincere statement of my personal opinion and experience with Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa.

Sincerely,

Coralis Rivera

Exhibit 7 - Evidence Identifying the Obligor

DECLARATION OF WILLIAM EFRAIN CASTRO-GUAMAN IN SUPPORT OF REQUEST FOR BOND REDETERMINATION FOR LUIS HERIBERTO DISHO SISA

I, William Efrain Castro-Guaman, declare under penalty of perjury that the following statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I am a lawful permanent resident and currently reside at 26 Cloverwood Drive, Brockport, New York 14420. I am submitting this declaration in support of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa, A 221-442-166, who is currently detained by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at Buffalo Federal Detention Facility, located at 4250 Federal Drive, Batavia, New York 14020.

I am a close friend of Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa. I have known him for approximately 10 years. I met him shortly after he arrived in the United States in 2016. During that time, I have come to know Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa as a responsible, hardworking, and caring person. He has strong ties to the United States through family, community, employment, and/or other meaningful connections, since que has been living in this country for a decade.

Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa is a very loyal friend who is always willing to help. He has lived in the United States for a decade, and throughout this time, he has always maintained good moral character. We have grown much closer over the past few years and have become great friends.

I am also aware that Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa has a pending immigration asylum claim and intends to continue pursuing his case in accordance with the law. I understand that he will have to present himself at hearing before the Immigration Court.

If Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa is released, he will reside with me at 26 Cloverwood Drive, Brockport, New York 14420. I will assist him in maintaining a stable residence, attending all required immigration court hearings, ICE check-ins, appointments, and any other immigration-related proceedings or obligations.

If Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa is released from custody, I am willing and able to serve as the bond obligor and to post the bond ordered by the Immigration Judge. I understand that, as the obligor, I may be required to provide the funds for the bond and comply with the applicable requirements for posting the bond.

I have the financial ability to pay the bond myself, without relying on Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa to provide any of the funds. I am self-employed in the construction industry, I have my own company, and I own the home where I live at 26 Cloverwood Drive, Brockport, New York 14420, which I purchased outright in early 2026 without a mortgage. The money I intend to use for the bond will come from my income from my work. I understand that the purpose of the bond is to ensure that Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa appears at all of his future immigration proceedings and complies with every condition of his release, and that if he fails to do so, the bond will be breached and I will lose the money I paid.

I will assist Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa in complying with all requirements imposed by the Department of Homeland Security, the Immigration Court, and any other applicable authorities. In particular, I will remind him of upcoming immigration court hearings and help ensure that he has transportation or other means to appear as required.

I am willing to provide ongoing support to Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa throughout his immigration proceedings.

I respectfully request that the Immigration Court grant bond to Luis Heriberto Disho Sisa and allow him to be released while the immigration case remains pending. I am prepared to provide support, supervision, and assistance to help ensure full compliance with all immigration requirements.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

October 20, 2026.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.
