This is in reference to the I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, you submitted. Your I-485, fees, and any supporting documentation is being returned to you for the following reason(s):

The payment amount provided does not match the required amount according to what you have selected on the form, or no payment amount has been provided. Please review the Fee Schedule, Form G-1055, at uscis.gov/G-1055 for the latest fee information. Please resubmit the application/petition package with the appropriate fees to the address listed on the bottom of this page.

The basis for your fee waiver request is that you, your spouse, or the head of your household is currently receiving a means-tested benefit. However, you did not provide sufficient evidence that you, your spouse, or the head of your household is currently receiving a means-tested benefit. Sufficient evidence includes a letter from a city, county, state, or federal agency, showing that you or a qualifying member of your household currently receives a means-tested benefit, such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Medicaid, Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP), or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

Medicare, unemployment benefits, Social Security benefits, Social Security Disability, and Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance are not considered means-tested benefits.

All evidence must be written in English. You must submit a full English translation with any document containing foreign language. In addition, the translator must certify that the translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

All evidence of means-tested benefits should clearly indicate:

- The name of the agency issuing the benefit;
- The name of the person receiving the benefit;
- The name of the benefit; and
- The validity period of the benefit.

Please be sure to complete the application fully, submit the appropriate fees, and include all required supporting documentation. You may be able to file form online. Visit www.uscis.gov/file-online for more information.

If your Form I-693, Report of Immigration Medical Examination and Vaccination Record was returned (with the sealed envelope opened/unsealed) with the rejected package, then if and when you file a new Form I-485, you may resubmit your previously submitted Form I-693, its original envelope, and any supporting documentation that was previously included by the civil surgeon, with a copy of this notice.

If you have questions, please visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter to connect with a live USCIS representative in English or Spanish.

If you have any questions or comments regarding this notice or the status of your case, please contact the USCIS Contact Center.

You will be notified separately about any other case you may have filed.

Part 2. Reasons for Inadmissibility

Select all of the following grounds that you believe apply to you, according to what you were told or to the best of your knowledge.

Read the Form I-602 Instructions carefully. If you are seeking a waiver because you are seeking an exemption from the vaccination requirements or because you have a physical or mental disorder with associated harmful behavior, or drug abuse or addiction, you must attach the information requested in the Instructions.

NOTE: The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) sections 212(a)(4), 212(a)(5), and 212(a)(7)(A) do not apply to refugees under INA section 207 or refugees or asylees seeking to adjust their status to lawful permanent resident under INA section 209.

I believe or I was told that I am inadmissible because (select all grounds that you believe apply to you):

1. [ ] I have a communicable disease of public health significance. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(i). (The Form I-602 Instructions has a list of communicable diseases of public health significance.)

2. [ ] I seek an exemption from the vaccination requirement because vaccinations are against my religious beliefs or moral convictions. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(ii).

3. [ ] I have or had a physical or mental disorder and behavior (or history of behavior that is likely to recur) associated with the disorder which has posed or may pose a threat to the property, safety, or welfare of myself or others. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iii).

4. [ ] I am a drug abuser or drug addict as described in U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) regulations. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iv); 42 CFR 32.

5. [ ] I have been convicted of or admitted to the essential elements of a crime of moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense). See INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I).

6. [ ] I have been convicted of or admitted to the essential elements of a violation of (or I have attempted or conspired to violate) any controlled substance law or regulation of a U.S. state, the United States, or a foreign country. See INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II).

7. [ ] I have been convicted of two or more offenses (other than purely political offenses) for which the combined sentences to confinement were five years or more. See INA section 212(a)(2)(B).

8. [ ] I have engaged in prostitution in the past 10 years or am coming to the United States to engage in prostitution. See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(i).

9. ☐ I directly or indirectly procure or import (or attempt to procure or import) prostitutes or persons for the purpose of prostitution (including receiving any proceeds or money from prostitution), or I have done so in the past 10 years. See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(ii).

ADDITIONAL SHEET FOR FORM I-602

On or about October 25, 2017, I applied for admission into the United States at the Bridge of the Americas, El Paso, Texas, together with my children, Yasmin Ayumi Caetano Fujioka, Felipe Yuji Caetano Fujioka, and Lucca Caetano. At the time of our entry, we did not possess valid immigrant visas, reentry permits, border crossing cards, or any other valid entry documents authorizing admission into the United States. Consequently, I was charged as subject to removal pursuant to INA § 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). Our entry occurred while we were fleeing a dangerous and life-threatening situation in our home country and seeking safety and protection for ourselves and our family.

PAGE 4, PART 2, ITEM 38

The Applicant's circumstances present compelling humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations that strongly favor approval of this waiver application. As set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, in adjudicating a discretionary waiver, an officer must balance the humanitarian, family unity, or public interest considerations with the seriousness of the offense or conduct that rendered the applicant inadmissible. In the present matter, the favorable discretionary factors overwhelmingly outweigh the ground of inadmissibility related to the Applicant's manner of entry into the United States. The Applicant's entry was not motivated by criminal intent, fraud, or disregard for the laws of the United States, but rather by an urgent and legitimate need for protection from persecution and violence in her home country. The totality of the circumstances demonstrates compelling humanitarian considerations, strong family unity concerns, and significant public interest factors that warrant a favorable exercise of discretion.

HUMANITARIAN REASONS

The humanitarian factors in this case are exceptionally strong. The Applicant was granted asylum after establishing past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution in her country of origin. See Exhibit 13 (Grant of Asylum). The Applicant's detailed account of the persecution she endured, as set forth in her Form I-589, Application for Asylum and Withholding of Removal, further corroborates the severity and legitimacy of the humanitarian circumstances underlying her entry into the United States. See Exhibit 09 (Form I-589) As expressly set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, a grant of asylum and evidence of persecution constitute extremely strong positive discretionary factors, and an officer should recognize that the applicant has already demonstrated either past persecution or a well-founded fear of future persecution, which heavily favors approval in the exercise of discretion.

Denial of this waiver would expose the Applicant to the possibility of returning to the same dangerous conditions from which she previously fled. The risk of future persecution, severe violence, intimidation, and even torture substantially outweighs the immigration violation at issue. The Applicant's manner of entry into the United States occurred solely as part of her search for safety and protection while fleeing persecution, rather than for any unlawful or malicious purpose. The nature of the inadmissibility ground itself, arriving at the port of entry without valid entry documents arose directly from the emergency circumstances of persecution and must be weighed accordingly.

Additionally, the Applicant serves as the primary and sole caregiver for her household, including a minor child with autism who is physically and emotionally dependent upon her and requires intensive care, supervision, and stability. The child's medical and developmental needs make the Applicant's presence indispensable to the family's daily functioning and well-being. See Exhibit 16 (Medical Documentation for Minor Child). The emotional and medical hardship that would result from the Applicant's removal would be severe and far-reaching, affecting a child with extraordinary vulnerabilities who depends on his mother for daily care and emotional regulation.

Further strengthening the humanitarian equities in this case, the Applicant's daughter, Yasmin, was also granted Special Immigrant Juvenile ("SIJ") status and deferred action, evidencing the recognition by U.S. immigration authorities that the family members themselves have humanitarian protection concerns and vulnerabilities deserving of protection under U.S. law. See Exhibit 17 (Yasmin's SIJ Documentation). Taken together, the Applicant's history of persecution, the risk of future harm, and the severe hardship that would be imposed on vulnerable family members establish compelling humanitarian grounds strongly favoring a favorable exercise of discretion.

FAMILY UNITY

The family unity considerations in this matter are likewise substantial and compelling. Separation of the Applicant from her children would cause profound emotional, psychological, and financial hardship to the entire family unit. The children depend on the Applicant not only for emotional support, but also for housing, education, and daily care. Critically, the Applicant is the sole financial provider for the household: her children are economically dependent upon her income for housing, food, clothing, utilities, and all other daily necessities. See Exhibit 06 (Roberta's Bank Statements). Without the Applicant's financial support, the family would face immediate and severe economic hardship.

Particularly significant is the dependency of the Applicant's child with autism, whose condition requires consistency, supervision, and specialized parental care. The Applicant is the central caregiver responsible for coordinating the child's routine, therapeutic appointments, emotional regulation, and overall well-being. Separation from his mother would likely have devastating consequences for his development and mental health, and no adequate substitute caregiver exists within the family. See Exhibit 12 (Medical Documentation for Minor Child). The Board of Immigration Appeals has long recognized that severe hardship to qualifying relatives, especially minor children with medical needs, is among the most significant favorable factors in the exercise of discretion.

The family has established strong roots in the United States over nearly a decade of continuous physical presence. The children attend school, have developed social and educational ties within their community, and have built their lives in the United States. The family resides together in a stable household and relies on the Applicant for emotional and practical support. See Exhibit 6. Moreover, preserving family unity is itself a significant equitable factor recognized under immigration law and policy. See Matter of Recinas, 23 I&N Dec. 467 (BIA 2002) (holding that family ties in the United States and the impact of separation on family members are important positive factors in the exercise of discretion). Separating the Applicant from her children and disrupting a stable family structure would directly undermine the humanitarian principles underlying the immigration protections already granted to members of this family. Accordingly, the family unity factors weigh heavily in favor of approving the waiver application.

PUBLIC INTEREST

Granting the requested waiver also serves the public interest. The Applicant and her family have demonstrated meaningful integration into American society through their long-term residence, community involvement, employment history, and commitment to building stable and productive lives in the United States. The family has maintained a continuous physical presence in the United States for nearly ten years. During this time, the children have attended school, adapted to American society, and developed fluency in English. The Applicant and her daughter Yasmin have contributed economically through lawful employment and continue to support their household and community. See Exhibit 06, 10 and 14 (Employment, Residence Documentation and Evidence of Community Involvement).

Importantly, the Applicant has no criminal history whatsoever and has consistently demonstrated good moral character. There is no evidence that she presents any danger to public safety or national security. To the contrary, her continued presence in the United States benefits her family, community, and the broader public interest by preserving family stability, supporting vulnerable dependents, and encouraging the continued integration of a law-abiding and productive household. For these reasons, the positive equities in this case overwhelmingly outweigh the underlying inadmissibility ground, and a favorable exercise of discretion is fully warranted.

Upon consideration of the totality of the circumstances, the favorable factors in this case substantially and overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground and warrant approval as a matter of discretion. Discretion must be exercised by balancing adverse factors against positive factors, with particular weight given to family ties, length of residence, hardship to qualifying relatives, and evidence of good moral character. In the present case, the Applicant presents an exceptional constellation of positive factors across every dimension of this analysis.

On the positive side of the ledger, the Applicant presents the following significant factors: (1) a grant of asylum following a demonstration of past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution, which the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, expressly identifies as an extremely strong positive factor; (2) the grave risk of future persecution, violence, and possible torture if the Applicant is returned to her country of origin; (3) the entirely non-criminal and non-fraudulent nature of the inadmissibility ground, which arose exclusively from emergency flight from persecution and not from any intent to circumvent immigration law; (4) nearly a decade of continuous, lawful physical presence in the United States, culminating in the grant of asylum last year; (5) the Applicant's indispensable role as the sole financial provider and primary caregiver for her household, upon whom her children are entirely and exclusively economically dependent; (6) the compelling special needs of a minor child diagnosed with autism whose medical and developmental welfare depends upon the Applicant's constant presence and care; (7) strong family ties within the United States, including children who have grown up in this country, attend school, and have no meaningful ties to the country of origin; (8) the SIJ status and deferred action independently granted to the Applicant's daughter Yasmin, reflecting U.S. immigration authorities' own recognition of the family's humanitarian vulnerabilities; (9) lawful employment and meaningful economic contributions to the community; (10) a complete absence of any criminal history or any indication of a threat to public safety or national security; and (11) consistent and demonstrated good moral character throughout the Applicant's residence in the United States.

On the adverse side of the ledger, the sole ground of inadmissibility is failure to possess valid entry documents under INA § 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I). The Applicant was not in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing card, or other valid travel document at the time of application for admission. However, as discussed above, this ground arose exclusively from the Applicant's urgent and legitimate flight from persecution. The ground does not reflect criminal conduct, moral turpitude, fraud, or willful disregard for the law. The inadmissibility ground is among the least egregious in the spectrum of immigration violations, particularly given the humanitarian circumstances underlying it. Considering the totality of the circumstances, the positive humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground in this matter. The Applicant and her family have become integrated members of their community, and the children continue to attend school and build their lives in the United States. Denial of this waiver would inflict severe and irreversible harm upon a vulnerable family unit, expose the Applicant to the renewed risk of persecution, and deprive dependent children, including a child with autism, of their sole financial provider and caregiver. Granting this waiver, by contrast, would preserve family stability, advance the humanitarian values underlying U.S. immigration law, and serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Applicant respectfully requests a favorable exercise of discretion and approval of the waiver application.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Sincerely,

Otavio Haverroth Silva (SBN: 343486)

Consent to Representation and Release of Information

I have requested the representation of and consented to being represented by the attorney or accredited representative named in Part 1. of this form. According to the Privacy Act of 1974 and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) policy, I also consent to the disclosure to the named attorney or accredited representative of any records pertaining to me that appear in any system of records of USCIS, ICE, or CBP.

Options Regarding Receipt of USCIS Notices and Documents

USCIS will send notices to both a represented party (the client) and his, her, or its attorney or accredited representative either through mail or electronic delivery. USCIS will send all secure identity documents and Travel Documents to the client's U.S. mailing address.

If you want to have notices and/or secure identity documents sent to your attorney or accredited representative of record rather than to you, please select all applicable items below. You may change these elections through written notice to USCIS.

1.a. [X] I request that USCIS send original notices on an application or petition to the business address of my attorney or accredited representative as listed in this form.

1.b. [X] I request that USCIS send any secure identity document (Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document, or Travel Document) that I receive to the U.S. business address of my attorney or accredited representative (or to a designated military or diplomatic address in a foreign country (if permitted)).

NOTE: If your notice contains Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, USCIS will send the notice to the U.S. business address of your attorney or accredited representative. If you would rather have your Form I-94 sent directly to you, select Item Number 1.c.

1.c. [ ] I request that USCIS send my notice containing Form I-94 to me at my U.S. mailing address.

Part 2. Reasons for Inadmissibility

Select all of the following grounds that you believe apply to you, according to what you were told or to the best of your knowledge.

Read the Form I-602 Instructions carefully. If you are seeking a waiver because you are seeking an exemption from the vaccination requirements or because you have a physical or mental disorder with associated harmful behavior, or drug abuse or addiction, you must attach the information requested in the Instructions.

NOTE: The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) sections 212(a)(4), 212(a)(5), and 212(a)(7)(A) do not apply to refugees under INA section 207 or refugees or asylees seeking to adjust their status to lawful permanent resident under INA section 209.

I believe or I was told that I am inadmissible because (select all grounds that you believe apply to you):

1. ☐ I have a communicable disease of public health significance. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(i). (The Form I-602 Instructions has a list of communicable diseases of public health significance.)

2. ☐ I seek an exemption from the vaccination requirement because vaccinations are against my religious beliefs or moral convictions. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(ii).

3. ☐ I have or had a physical or mental disorder and behavior (or history of behavior that is likely to recur) associated with the disorder which has posed or may pose a threat to the property, safety, or welfare of myself or others. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iii).

4. ☐ I am a drug abuser or drug addict as described in U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) regulations. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iv); 42 CFR 32.

5. ☐ I have been convicted of or admitted to the essential elements of a crime of moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense). See INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I).

6. ☐ I have been convicted of or admitted to the essential elements of a violation of (or I have attempted or conspired to violate) any controlled substance law or regulation of a U.S. state, the United States, or a foreign country. See INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II).

7. ☐ I have been convicted of two or more offenses (other than purely political offenses) for which the combined sentences to confinement were five years or more. See INA section 212(a)(2)(B).

8. ☐ I have engaged in prostitution in the past 10 years or am coming to the United States to engage in prostitution. See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(i).

9. ☐ I directly or indirectly procure or import (or attempt to procure or import) prostitutes or persons for the purpose of prostitution (including receiving any proceeds or money from prostitution), or I have done so in the past 10 years.
See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(ii).

10. ☐ I came to the United States or I am coming to the United States to engage in any other commercialized vice, such as illegal gambling, prostitution, bootlegging, narcotics, or the sale of child pornography. See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(iii).

11. ☐ I have exercised immunity (diplomatic or otherwise) to avoid being prosecuted for a serious criminal offense in the United States.
See INA section 212(a)(2)(E).

12. ☐ I have been involved in human trafficking activity inside or outside the United States, or I am the spouse, son, or daughter of a person involved in human trafficking activity and have obtained some benefit from that activity within the last five years.
See INA section 212(a)(2)(H).

13. ☐ I engage, have engaged, or intend to engage in a money laundering offense as described in 18 U.S.C. section 1956 or 1957. See INA section 212(a)(2)(I).

14. ☐ I am or I have been a member of or affiliated with the Communist or any other totalitarian party (or subdivision or affiliate of the party), domestic or foreign. See INA section 212(a)(3)(D).

15. ☐ I have used or recruited child soldiers in violation of 18 U.S.C. section 2442.
See INA section 212(a)(3)(G).

16. ☒ I am present in the United States without being admitted or paroled. See INA section 212(a)(6)(A).

17. ☐ I did not attend or did not remain at a removal proceeding to determine my inadmissibility or deportability. See INA section 212(a)(6)(B).

18. ☐ I have sought to obtain an immigration benefit by fraud or by concealing or misrepresenting a material fact. See INA section 212(a)(6)(C)(i).

19. ☐ I falsely claimed to be a U.S. citizen. See INA section 212(a)(6)(C)(ii).

20. ☐ I have been a stowaway on a vessel or aircraft arriving in the United States.
See INA section 212(a)(6)(D).

21. ☐ I have knowingly encouraged, induced, assisted, abetted, or aided any foreign national to enter or try to enter the United States illegally (alien smuggling).
See INA section 212(a)(6)(E)(i).

22. ☐ I am subject to a civil penalty because I was the subject of a final order for violation of INA section 274C (document fraud).
See INA section 212(a)(6)(F).

23. ☐ I violated a term or condition of my student visa status. See INA sections 212(a)(6)(G) and 214(l).

24. ☐ I am permanently ineligible for U.S. citizenship because I evaded military service.
See INA sections 212(a)(8)(A) and 101(a)(19).

25. ☐ I departed from or remained outside the United States to avoid or evade training or service in the armed forces in a time of war or national emergency. See INA section 212(a)(8)(B).

26. ☐ I was previously removed from the United States.
See INA section 212(a)(9)(A).

27. ☐ I am subject to the 3-year bar to admissibility because I was unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days before departing the United States. See INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(I) .

28. ☐ I am subject to the 10-year bar to admissibility because I was unlawfully present in the United States for one year or more before departing the United States. See INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II).

29. ☐ I have been ordered removed or I have been unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year in the aggregate, and I subsequently reentered or attempted to reenter without being admitted. See INA section 212(a)(9)(C).

30. ☐ I have practiced polygamy since I entered the United States or I intend to practice polygamy in the United States. See INA section 212(a)(10)(A).

31. ☐ I am accompanying another person who is inadmissible after being certified to be helpless under INA section 232(c) and I am inadmissible because that other person requires my protection or guardianship. See INA section 212(a)(10)(B).

32. ☐ I have been involved in detaining, retaining, or withholding a U.S. citizen child outside the United States from a person who has been granted custody of the child, or I am the spouse, parent, sibling, or agent of someone who has detained, retained, or withheld such a child. See INA section 212(a)(10)(C).

33. ☐ I voted in violation of a Federal, state, or local constitutional provision, statute, ordinance, or regulation. See INA section 212(a)(10)(D).

34. ☐ I am a former citizen of the United States who renounced my citizenship to avoid paying taxes in the United States. See INA section 212(a)(10)(E).

35. ☐ Other (specify):

Your Inadmissibility Statement

In the space provided in Item Number 36., provide a statement and full explanation of the acts, convictions, and/or medical conditions that you believe or you were told make you inadmissible.

Your statement must indicate when you engaged in the acts that you believe make you inadmissible, the date of all convictions, or the date of any medical diagnosis. You must provide this information even if the information is also in the documents that you submit with your application.

If you need extra space to complete your statement, use the space provided in Part 8. Additional Information or attach a separate letter. If you include a separate letter, indicate in Item Number 36. below that you are attaching a letter.

On or about October 25, 2017, I applied for admission into the United States at the Bridge of the Americas, El Paso, Texas, together with my mother, Roberta Caetano Almeida dos Santos, and my siblings, Felipe Yuji Caetano Fujioka and Lucca Caetano. At the time of our entry, we did not possess valid immigrant visas, reentry permits, border crossing cards, or any other valid entry documents authorizing admission into the United States. Consequently, I was charged as subject to removal pursuant to INA § 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). I was a minor child at the time and entered the United States under the care and supervision of my mother, who was fleeing a dangerous and life-threatening situation in our home country and seeking safety and protection for our family.

PAGE 4, PART 2, ITEM 38

The circumstances of this case present compelling humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations that strongly favor approval of this waiver application. As set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, in adjudicating a discretionary waiver, an officer must balance the humanitarian, family unity, or public interest considerations with the seriousness of the offense or conduct that rendered the applicant inadmissible. In the present matter, the favorable discretionary factors overwhelmingly outweigh the ground of inadmissibility. The Applicant's entry was not motivated by criminal intent, fraud, or disregard for the laws of the United States, but rather by the urgent and legitimate need of her mother to flee persecution and violence, which directly and unavoidably affected the Applicant as a minor child entirely dependent on her mother's care and decisions. The totality of the circumstances demonstrates compelling humanitarian considerations, strong family unity concerns, and significant public interest factors that warrant a favorable exercise of discretion.

HUMANITARIAN REASONS

The humanitarian factors in this case are exceptionally strong. The Applicant entered the United States as a minor child under the care of her mother, Roberta Caetano Almeida dos Santos, who was fleeing persecution and a life-threatening domestic violence situation in their home country. See Exhibit 13 (Grant of Asylum) and See Exhibit 09 (Form I-589). The Applicant had no independent ability to make decisions regarding her entry and was entirely dependent on her mother for her safety and survival. This decision was not hers to make; she was a child directly affected by the danger her family was escaping together.

Most significantly, the Applicant was granted Special Immigrant Juvenile ("SIJ") status on March 12, 2024. See Exhibit 17 (SIJ Approval). This grant constitutes formal recognition by U.S. immigration authorities that the Applicant herself has independent humanitarian protection concerns and vulnerabilities deserving of protection under U.S. law. It reflects a judicial and administrative determination that the Applicant has suffered abuse, neglect, or abandonment and that it would not be in her best interest to be returned to her home country. This grant of SIJ status constitutes an exceptionally strong positive discretionary factor in the exercise of discretion.

Additionally, the Applicant's mother's asylum application was approved on January 16, 2025, after establishing past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution. The Applicant was approved for derivative asylum status in connection with that grant, further confirming the danger the family faced and the legitimate humanitarian basis of their entry into the United States. As expressly set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, a grant of asylum and evidence of persecution constitute extremely strong positive discretionary factors, and an officer should recognize that the applicant has already demonstrated either past persecution or a well-founded fear of future persecution, which heavily favors approval in the exercise of discretion. Denial of this waiver would expose the Applicant to the possibility of returning to the same dangerous conditions from which her family previously fled. The risk of future persecution, severe violence, and harm substantially outweighs the immigration violation at issue, which arose solely from circumstances entirely beyond her control as a minor child.

Taken together, the Applicant's grant of SIJ status, the asylum approval in her mother's case, the history of persecution faced by the family, and the risk of future harm establish compelling humanitarian grounds strongly favoring a favorable exercise of discretion.

FAMILY UNITY

The family unity considerations in this matter are likewise substantial and compelling. The Applicant is an integral member of a family unit that has established deep roots in the United States. Separation from her family would cause profound emotional, psychological, and financial hardship to the Applicant and to all members of her household. See Matter of Recinas, 23 I&N Dec. 467 (BIA 2002) (holding that family ties in the United States and the impact of separation on family members are important positive factors in the exercise of discretion). See Exhibit 6 (Roberta's Bank Statements).

Particularly significant is the presence of a sibling diagnosed with autism, whose condition requires consistency, supervision, and specialized family care. The Applicant is an active and supportive member of this family unit, and her removal would further destabilize a household that depends on the presence and contribution of each of its members.

The family has established strong roots in the United States over nearly a decade of continuous physical presence. The Applicant has attended school, developed social and educational ties within her community, and built her life in the United States. The family resides together in a stable household and relies on one another for emotional and practical support. Moreover, preserving family unity is itself a significant equitable factor recognized under immigration law and policy. Separating the Applicant from her mother and siblings and disrupting a stable family structure would directly undermine the humanitarian principles underlying the immigration protections already granted to members of this family, including the Applicant's own SIJ status and derivative asylum approvals. Accordingly, the family unity factors weigh heavily in favor of approving the waiver application. See Evidences 13 and 17.

PUBLIC INTEREST

Granting the requested waiver also serves the public interest. The Applicant has demonstrated meaningful integration into American society through her long-term residence, school attendance, community involvement, and commitment to building a stable and productive life in the United States. The Applicant has maintained a continuous physical presence in the United States for nearly a decade. During this time, she has attended school, adapted to American society, and developed fluency in English. She has contributed economically through lawful employment and continues to support her household and community. See Exhibit 6, 10 and 14 (Employment and Residence Documentation).

Importantly, the Applicant has no criminal history whatsoever and has consistently demonstrated good moral character. There is no evidence that she presents any danger to public safety or national security. To the contrary, her continued presence in the United States benefits her family, community, and the broader public interest by preserving family stability and encouraging the continued integration of a law-abiding and productive young person. For these reasons, the positive equities in this case overwhelmingly outweigh the underlying inadmissibility ground, and a favorable exercise of discretion is fully warranted.

Upon consideration of the totality of the circumstances, the favorable factors in this case substantially and overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground and warrant approval as a matter of discretion. In the present case, the Applicant presents an exceptional constellation of positive factors across every dimension of this analysis.

On the positive side of the ledger, the Applicant presents the following significant factors: (1) a grant of Special Immigrant Juvenile status, reflecting a formal judicial and administrative determination that the Applicant suffered abuse, neglect, or abandonment and that her return to her home country would not be in her best interest; (2) derivative asylum status arising from her mother's grant of asylum following a demonstration of past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution, which the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, expressly identifies as an extremely strong positive factor; (3) entry into the United States as a minor child entirely without independent will or decision-making capacity, wholly under the care and authority of her mother making her inadmissibility entirely the result of circumstances beyond her control; (4) the grave risk of future persecution, violence, and harm if returned to her home country; (5) nearly a decade of continuous physical presence in the United States, during which the Applicant has grown up, attended school, and built a life here; (6) strong family ties within the United States, including her mother and siblings, one of whom has autism and depends on the family unit for daily care and stability; (7) active participation in school and community life and demonstrated integration into American society; (8) lawful employment and meaningful economic contributions to the community; (9) a complete absence of any criminal history or any indication of a threat to public safety or national security; and (10) consistent and demonstrated good moral character throughout her time in the United States.

On the adverse side of the ledger, the sole ground of inadmissibility is failure to possess valid entry documents under INA § 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I). The Applicant was not in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing card, or other valid travel document at the time of application for admission. However, as discussed above, this ground arose exclusively from the Applicant's complete dependence on her mother as a minor child, and from her mother's urgent flight from persecution. The ground does not reflect any criminal conduct, moral turpitude, fraud, or willful disregard for the law on the part of the Applicant. It is among the least culpable forms of inadmissibility, particularly given that the Applicant bore no personal responsibility for the entry decision.

Considering the totality of the circumstances, the positive humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground in this matter. The Applicant has grown up in the United States, built meaningful ties to her community, and become an integral part of her family unit. Denial of this waiver would penalize a young person for circumstances entirely beyond her control, expose her to renewed risk of harm, and sever a family that U.S. immigration authorities have already recognized as deserving humanitarian protection. Granting this waiver, by contrast, would preserve family stability, honor the humanitarian determinations already made in this family's favor, and serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Applicant respectfully requests a favorable exercise of discretion and approval of this waiver application.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Sincerely,

Otavio Haverroth Silva (SBN: 343486)

Part 2. Reasons for Inadmissibility

Select all of the following grounds that you believe apply to you, according to what you were told or to the best of your knowledge.

Read the Form I-602 Instructions carefully. If you are seeking a waiver because you are seeking an exemption from the vaccination requirements or because you have a physical or mental disorder with associated harmful behavior, or drug abuse or addiction, you must attach the information requested in the Instructions.

NOTE: The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) sections 212(a)(4), 212(a)(5), and 212(a)(7)(A) do not apply to refugees under INA section 207 or refugees or asylees seeking to adjust their status to lawful permanent resident under INA section 209.

I believe or I was told that I am inadmissible because (select all grounds that you believe apply to you):

1. ☐ I have a communicable disease of public health significance. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(i). (The Form I-602 Instructions has a list of communicable diseases of public health significance.)

2. ☐ I seek an exemption from the vaccination requirement because vaccinations are against my religious beliefs or moral convictions. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(ii).

3. ☐ I have or had a physical or mental disorder and behavior (or history of behavior that is likely to recur) associated with the disorder which has posed or may pose a threat to the property, safety, or welfare of myself or others. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iii).

4. ☐ I am a drug abuser or drug addict as described in U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) regulations. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iv); 42 CFR 32.

On or about October 25, 2017, I applied for admission into the United States at the Bridge of the Americas, El Paso, Texas, with my mother, Roberta Caetano Almeida dos Santos, and my siblings, Yasmin Ayume Caetano Fugioka and Lucca Caetano. At the time of our entry, we did not possess valid immigrant visas, reentry permits, border crossing cards, or any other valid entry documents authorizing admission into the United States. Consequently, I was charged as subject to removal pursuant to 212 (a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). I am a minor child and entered the United States under the care and supervision of my mother, who was fleeing a dangerous and life-threatening situation in our home country and seeking safety and protection for our family.

PAGE 4, PART 2, ITEM 38

The circumstances of this case present compelling humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations that strongly favor approval of this waiver application. As set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, in adjudicating a discretionary waiver, an officer must balance the humanitarian, family unity, or public interest considerations with the seriousness of the offense or conduct that rendered the applicant inadmissible. In the present matter, the favorable discretionary factors overwhelmingly outweigh the ground of inadmissibility. The Applicant's entry was not motivated by criminal intent, fraud, or disregard for the laws of the United States, but rather by the urgent and legitimate need of his mother to flee persecution and violence, which directly and unavoidably affected the Applicant as a minor child entirely dependent on his mother's care and decisions. The totality of the circumstances demonstrates compelling humanitarian considerations, strong family unity concerns, and significant public interest factors that warrant a favorable exercise of discretion.

HUMANITARIAN REASONS

The humanitarian factors in this case are exceptionally strong. The Applicant entered the United States as a minor child under the care of his mother, Roberta Caetano Almeida dos Santos, who was fleeing persecution and a dangerous and life-threatening situation in their home country. The Applicant had no independent ability to make decisions regarding his entry and was entirely dependent on his mother for his safety and survival. This decision was not his to make; he was a child directly affected by the danger his family was escaping together.

The Applicant's mother's asylum application was subsequently approved on January 16, 2025, after establishing past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution, and the Applicant was subsequently granted derivative asylee status with the approval of his mother's asylum application, formally confirming the danger the family faced and the legitimate humanitarian basis of their entry into the United States. See Exhibit 11 (Grant of Asylum). As expressly set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, a grant of asylum and evidence of persecution constitute extremely strong positive discretionary factors, and an officer should recognize that the applicant has already demonstrated either past persecution or a well-founded fear of future persecution, which heavily favors approval in the exercise of discretion.

FAMILY UNITY

The family unity considerations in this matter are likewise substantial and compelling. The Applicant is an integral member of a family unit that has established deep roots in the United States. Separation from his family would cause profound emotional, psychological, and developmental hardship to the Applicant and to all members of his household.

The family has established strong roots in the United States over nearly a decade of continuous physical presence. The Applicant has attended school, developed social ties within his community, and built his life in the United States. The family resides together in a stable household and relies on one another for emotional and practical support. See Exhibit 6 (Household and Residence Documentation). Moreover, preserving family unity is itself a significant equitable factor recognized under immigration law and policy. See Matter of Recinas, 23 I&N Dec. 467 (BIA 2002) (holding that family ties in the United States and the impact of separation on family members are important positive factors in the exercise of discretion). Separating the Applicant from his mother and siblings and disrupting a stable family structure would directly undermine the humanitarian principles underlying the immigration protections already granted to members of this family. Accordingly, the family unity factors weigh heavily in favor of approving the waiver application.

PUBLIC INTEREST

Granting the requested waiver also serves the public interest. The Applicant has demonstrated meaningful integration into American society through his long-term residence, school attendance, community involvement, and commitment to building a stable and productive life in the United States. The Applicant has maintained a continuous physical presence in the United States for nearly a decade. During this time, he has adapted to American society and developed fluency in English. Most notably, the Applicant is currently enrolled at Sequoia Adult School, where he continues to develop his academic skills and deepen his integration into his local community. See Exhibit 6 (School Enrollment Documentation). His enrollment reflects his dedication to self-improvement and lawful integration into American society, and represents a significant positive contribution to his community.

Importantly, the Applicant has no criminal history whatsoever and has consistently demonstrated good moral character. There is no evidence that he presents any danger to public safety or national security. To the contrary, his continued presence in the United States benefits his family, community, and the broader public interest by preserving family stability and encouraging the continued integration of a law-abiding and productive young person. For these reasons, the positive equities in this case overwhelmingly outweigh the underlying inadmissibility ground, and a favorable exercise of discretion is fully warranted.

Upon consideration of the totality of the circumstances, the favorable factors in this case substantially and overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground and warrant approval as a matter of discretion. Discretion must be exercised by balancing adverse factors against positive factors, with particular weight given to family ties, length of residence, hardship to qualifying relatives, and evidence of good moral character. In the present case, the Applicant presents an exceptional constellation of positive factors across every dimension of this analysis.

On the positive side of the ledger, the Applicant presents the following significant factors: (1) derivative asylee status arising from his mother's grant of asylum following a demonstration of past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution, which the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, expressly identifies as an extremely strong positive factor; (2) entry into the United States as a minor child entirely without independent will or decision-making capacity, wholly under the care and authority of his mother, making his inadmissibility entirely the result of circumstances beyond his control; (3) the grave risk of future persecution and harm if returned to his home country; (4) nearly a decade of continuous physical presence in the United States, during which the Applicant has built his life, adapted to American society, and developed fluency in English; (5) current enrollment at Sequoia Adult School, demonstrating active educational engagement and meaningful integration into his community; (6) strong family ties within the United States, including his mother and siblings, upon whom he depends for daily care, support, and stability; (7) a complete absence of any criminal history or any indication of a threat to public safety or national security; and (8) consistent and demonstrated good moral character throughout his time in the United States.

On the adverse side of the ledger, the sole ground of inadmissibility is failure to possess valid entry documents under INA § 212 (a)(7)(A)(i)(I). The Applicant was not in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing card, or other valid travel document at the time of application for admission. However, as discussed above, this ground arose exclusively from the Applicant's complete dependence on his mother as a minor child, and from his mother's urgent flight from persecution. The ground does not reflect any criminal conduct, moral turpitude, fraud, or willful disregard for the law. It is among the least culpable forms of inadmissibility, particularly given that the Applicant bore no personal responsibility for the entry decision. There is simply no countervailing factor of any substance or weight in this case that could overcome the extraordinary strength of the positive considerations presented.

Considering the totality of the circumstances, the positive humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground in this matter. The Applicant has grown up in the United States, built meaningful ties to his community, and continues to attend school while depending on his family for the care and stability his condition requires. Denial of this waiver would penalize a young person for circumstances entirely beyond his control, expose him to renewed risk of harm, and sever him from the family and structured environment upon which his well-being fundamentally depends. Granting this waiver, by contrast, would preserve family stability, honor the humanitarian determinations already made in this family's favor, and serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Applicant respectfully requests a favorable exercise of discretion and approval of this waiver application.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Sincerely,

Otavio Haverroth Silva (SBN: 343486)

Part 4. Client's Consent to Representation and Signature

Consent to Representation and Release of Information

I have requested the representation of and consented to being represented by the attorney or accredited representative named in Part 1. of this form. According to the Privacy Act of 1974 and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) policy, I also consent to the disclosure to the named attorney or accredited representative of any records pertaining to me that appear in any system of records of USCIS, ICE, or CBP.

Options Regarding Receipt of USCIS Notices and Documents

USCIS will send notices to both a represented party (the client) and his, her, or its attorney or accredited representative either through mail or electronic delivery. USCIS will send all secure identity documents and Travel Documents to the client's U.S. mailing address.

If you want to have notices and/or secure identity documents sent to your attorney or accredited representative of record rather than to you, please select all applicable items below. You may change these elections through written notice to USCIS.

1.a. [X] I request that USCIS send original notices on an application or petition to the business address of my attorney or accredited representative as listed in this form.

1.b. [✓] I request that USCIS send any secure identity document (Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document, or Travel Document) that I receive to the U.S. business address of my attorney or accredited representative (or to a designated military or diplomatic address in a foreign country (if permitted)).

NOTE: If your notice contains Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, USCIS will send the notice to the U.S. business address of your attorney or accredited representative. If you would rather have your Form I-94 sent directly to you, select Item Number 1.c.

1.c. [ ] I request that USCIS send my notice containing Form I-94 to me at my U.S. mailing address.

Part 2. Reasons for Inadmissibility

Select all of the following grounds that you believe apply to you, according to what you were told or to the best of your knowledge.

Read the Form I-602 Instructions carefully. If you are seeking a waiver because you are seeking an exemption from the vaccination requirements or because you have a physical or mental disorder with associated harmful behavior, or drug abuse or addiction, you must attach the information requested in the Instructions.

NOTE: The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) sections 212(a)(4), 212(a)(5), and 212(a)(7)(A) do not apply to refugees under INA section 207 or refugees or asylees seeking to adjust their status to lawful permanent resident under INA section 209.

I believe or I was told that I am inadmissible because (select all grounds that you believe apply to you):

1. ☐ I have a communicable disease of public health significance. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(i). (The Form I-602 Instructions has a list of communicable diseases of public health significance.)

2. ☐ I seek an exemption from the vaccination requirement because vaccinations are against my religious beliefs or moral convictions. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(ii).

3. ☐ I have or had a physical or mental disorder and behavior (or history of behavior that is likely to recur) associated with the disorder which has posed or may pose a threat to the property, safety, or welfare of myself or others. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iii).

4. ☐ I am a drug abuser or drug addict as described in U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) regulations. See INA section 212(a)(1)(A)(iv); 42 CFR 32.

5. ☐ I have been convicted of or admitted to the essential elements of a crime of moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense). See INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I).

6. ☐ I have been convicted of or admitted to the essential elements of a violation of (or I have attempted or conspired to violate) any controlled substance law or regulation of a U.S. state, the United States, or a foreign country. See INA section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II).

7. ☐ I have been convicted of two or more offenses (other than purely political offenses) for which the combined sentences to confinement were five years or more. See INA section 212(a)(2)(B).

8. ☐ I have engaged in prostitution in the past 10 years or am coming to the United States to engage in prostitution. See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(i).

9. ☐ I directly or indirectly procure or import (or attempt to procure or import) prostitutes or persons for the purpose of prostitution (including receiving any proceeds or money from prostitution), or I have done so in the past 10 years.
See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(ii).

10. ☐ I came to the United States or I am coming to the United States to engage in any other commercialized vice, such as illegal gambling, prostitution, bootlegging, narcotics, or the sale of child pornography. See INA section 212(a)(2)(D)(iii).

11. ☐ I have exercised immunity (diplomatic or otherwise) to avoid being prosecuted for a serious criminal offense in the United States.
See INA section 212(a)(2)(E).

12. ☐ I have been involved in human trafficking activity inside or outside the United States, or I am the spouse, son, or daughter of a person involved in human trafficking activity and have obtained some benefit from that activity within the last five years.
See INA section 212(a)(2)(H).

13. ☐ I engage, have engaged, or intend to engage in a money laundering offense as described in 18 U.S.C. section 1956 or 1957. See INA section 212(a)(2)(I).

14. ☐ I am or I have been a member of or affiliated with the Communist or any other totalitarian party (or subdivision or affiliate of the party), domestic or foreign. See INA section 212(a)(3)(D).

15. ☐ I have used or recruited child soldiers in violation of 18 U.S.C. section 2442.
See INA section 212(a)(3)(G).

16. ☒ I am present in the United States without being admitted or paroled. See INA section 212(a)(6)(A).

17. ☐ I did not attend or did not remain at a removal proceeding to determine my inadmissibility or deportability. See INA section 212(a)(6)(B).

18. ☐ I have sought to obtain an immigration benefit by fraud or by concealing or misrepresenting a material fact. See INA section 212(a)(6)(C)(i).

19. ☐ I falsely claimed to be a U.S. citizen. See INA section 212(a)(6)(C)(ii).

20. ☐ I have been a stowaway on a vessel or aircraft arriving in the United States.
See INA section 212(a)(6)(D).

21. ☐ I have knowingly encouraged, induced, assisted, abetted, or aided any foreign national to enter or try to enter the United States illegally (alien smuggling).
See INA section 212(a)(6)(E)(i).

22. ☐ I am subject to a civil penalty because I was the subject of a final order for violation of INA section 274C (document fraud).
See INA section 212(a)(6)(F).

23. ☐ I violated a term or condition of my student visa status. See INA sections 212(a)(6)(G) and 214(l).

24. ☐ I am permanently ineligible for U.S. citizenship because I evaded military service.
See INA sections 212(a)(8)(A) and 101(a)(19).

25. ☐ I departed from or remained outside the United States to avoid or evade training or service in the armed forces in a time of war or national emergency. See INA section 212(a)(8)(B).

26. ☐ I was previously removed from the United States.
See INA section 212(a)(9)(A).

27. ☐ I am subject to the 3-year bar to admissibility because I was unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days before departing the United States. See INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(I) .

28. ☐ I am subject to the 10-year bar to admissibility because I was unlawfully present in the United States for one year or more before departing the United States. See INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II).

29. ☐ I have been ordered removed or I have been unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year in the aggregate, and I subsequently reentered or attempted to reenter without being admitted. See INA section 212(a)(9)(C).

30. ☐ I have practiced polygamy since I entered the United States or I intend to practice polygamy in the United States. See INA section 212(a)(10)(A).

31. ☐ I am accompanying another person who is inadmissible after being certified to be helpless under INA section 232(c) and I am inadmissible because that other person requires my protection or guardianship. See INA section 212(a)(10)(B).

32. ☐ I have been involved in detaining, retaining, or withholding a U.S. citizen child outside the United States from a person who has been granted custody of the child, or I am the spouse, parent, sibling, or agent of someone who has detained, retained, or withheld such a child. See INA section 212(a)(10)(C).

33. ☐ I voted in violation of a Federal, state, or local constitutional provision, statute, ordinance, or regulation. See INA section 212(a)(10)(D).

34. ☐ I am a former citizen of the United States who renounced my citizenship to avoid paying taxes in the United States. See INA section 212(a)(10)(E).

35. ☐ Other (specify):

On or about October 25, 2017, I applied for admission into the United States at the Bridge of the Americas, El Paso, Texas, with my mother, Roberta Caetano Almeida dos Santos, and my siblings, Yasmin Ayume Caetano Fugioka and Felipe Yuji Caetano Fugioka. At the time of our entry, we did not possess valid immigrant visas, reentry permits, border crossing cards, or any other valid entry documents authorizing admission into the United States. I am a minor child and entered the United States under the care and supervision of my mother, who was fleeing a dangerous and life-threatening situation in our home country and seeking safety and protection for our family.

PAGE 4, PART 2, ITEM 38

The circumstances of this case present compelling humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations that strongly favor approval of this waiver application. As set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, in adjudicating a discretionary waiver, an officer must balance the humanitarian, family unity, or public interest considerations with the seriousness of the offense or conduct that rendered the applicant inadmissible. In the present matter, the favorable discretionary factors overwhelmingly outweigh the ground of inadmissibility. The Applicant's entry was not motivated by criminal intent, fraud, or disregard for the laws of the United States, but rather by the urgent and legitimate need of his mother to flee persecution and violence, which directly and unavoidably affected the Applicant as a 10 years old child entirely dependent on his mother's care and decisions. The totality of the circumstances demonstrates compelling humanitarian considerations, strong family unity concerns, and significant public interest factors that warrant a favorable exercise of discretion.

HUMANITARIAN REASONS

The humanitarian factors in this case are exceptionally strong. The Applicant entered the United States as a minor child under the care of his mother, Roberta Caetano Almeida dos Santos, who was fleeing persecution and a dangerous and life-threatening situation in their home country. The Applicant had no independent ability to make decisions regarding his entry and was entirely dependent on his mother for his safety and survival. This decision was not his to make; he was a child directly affected by the danger his family was escaping together.

The Applicant's mother's asylum application was subsequently approved on January 16, 2025, after establishing past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution, and the Applicant was subsequently granted derivative asylee status with the approval of his mother's asylum application, formally confirming the danger the family faced and the legitimate humanitarian basis of their entry into the United States. See Exhibit 13 (Grant of Asylum). As expressly set forth in the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, a grant of asylum and evidence of persecution constitute extremely strong positive discretionary factors, and an officer should recognize that the applicant has already demonstrated either past persecution or a well-founded fear of future persecution, which heavily favors approval in the exercise of discretion.

The Applicant has been diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder, a condition that requires consistent medical care, structured therapeutic support, and a stable family environment to maintain his functioning and quality of life. Since arriving in the United States, the Applicant has been receiving ongoing medical treatment and educational support tailored to his needs, which have been essential to his development and well-being. See Exhibit 16 (Medical Documentation). Removing the Applicant from the United States would severely disrupt this ongoing care, sever him from the providers and routines upon which his stability depends, and expose him to an environment where equivalent specialized support is unavailable. The interruption of his medical and developmental care would impose severe and lasting harm on the Applicant's health, functioning, and quality of life. Denial of this waiver would thus expose the Applicant not only to the risk of persecution upon return to his home country, but also to the foreseeable collapse of the medical and therapeutic support system that sustains his daily functioning. Taken together, the Applicant's derivative asylee status, his diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder and the ongoing medical care essential to his well-being, the history of persecution faced by his family, and the risk of future harm establish compelling humanitarian grounds strongly favoring a favorable exercise of discretion.

FAMILY UNITY

The family unity considerations in this matter are likewise substantial and compelling. The Applicant is an integral member of a family unit that has established deep roots in the United States. Separation from his family would cause profound emotional, psychological, developmental, and financial hardship to the Applicant and to all members of his household. Given his diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder, the Applicant's dependence on his family for daily care, consistency, and emotional stability is especially acute and well-documented.

The family has established strong roots in the United States over nearly a decade of continuous physical presence. The Applicant has attended school, developed social ties within his community, and built his life in the United States. The family resides together in a stable household and relies on one another for emotional and practical support. See Exhibit 06 (Household and Residence Documentation). Moreover, preserving family unity is itself a significant equitable factor recognized under immigration law and policy. See Matter of Recinas, 23 I&N Dec. 467 (BIA 2002) (holding that family ties in the United States and the impact of separation on family members are important positive factors in the exercise of discretion). Separating the Applicant from his mother and siblings and disrupting a stable family structure would directly undermine the humanitarian principles underlying the immigration protections already granted to members of this family. Accordingly, the family unity factors weigh heavily in favor of approving the waiver application.

PUBLIC INTEREST

Granting the requested waiver also serves the public interest. The Applicant has demonstrated meaningful integration into American society through his long-term residence, school attendance, community involvement, and commitment to building a stable and productive life in the United States. The Applicant has maintained a continuous physical presence in the United States for nearly a decade. During this time, he has adapted to American society and developed fluency in English. Notably, the Applicant is currently enrolled at Foster City School, where he benefits from an educational environment tailored to support his needs and development. See Exhibit 06 (School Enrollment Documentation). His continued enrollment reflects his active engagement with his community and his dedication to lawful integration into American society.

Importantly, the Applicant has no criminal history whatsoever and has consistently demonstrated good moral character. There is no evidence that he presents any danger to public safety or national security. To the contrary, his continued presence in the United States benefits his family, community, and the broader public interest by preserving family stability and encouraging the continued integration of a law-abiding and productive young person. For these reasons, the positive equities in this case overwhelmingly outweigh the underlying inadmissibility ground, and a favorable exercise of discretion is fully warranted.

Upon consideration of the totality of the circumstances, the favorable factors in this case substantially and overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground and warrant approval as a matter of discretion. Discretion must be exercised by balancing adverse factors against positive factors, with particular weight given to family ties, length of residence, hardship to the applicant and qualifying relatives, and evidence of good moral character. In the present case, the Applicant presents an exceptional constellation of positive factors across every dimension of this analysis.

On the positive side of the ledger, the Applicant presents the following significant factors: (1) derivative asylee status arising from his mother's grant of asylum following a demonstration of past persecution and a well-founded fear of future persecution, which the USCIS Policy Manual, Volume 7, Part M, Chapter 3, Section D, expressly identifies as an extremely strong positive factor; (2) a diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder requiring consistent medical care, structured therapeutic support, and a stable family environment, and the ongoing specialized care the Applicant currently receives in the United States, care that would be severely disrupted or entirely lost upon removal; (3) entry into the United States as a minor child entirely without independent will or decision-making capacity, wholly under the care and authority of his mother, making his inadmissibility entirely the result of circumstances beyond his control; (4) the grave risk of future persecution and harm if returned to his home country, compounded by the collapse of the medical and developmental support network upon which he depends; (5) nearly a decade of continuous physical presence in the United States, during which the Applicant has built his life, attended school, and adapted to American society; (6) current enrollment at Foster City School, reflecting active educational engagement and meaningful integration into his community; (7) strong family ties within the United States, including his mother and siblings, upon whom he depends and who depend on him as part of a closely interdependent family unit; (8) a complete absence of any criminal history or any indication of a threat to public safety or national security; and (9) consistent and demonstrated good moral character throughout his time in the United States.

On the adverse side of the ledger, the sole ground of inadmissibility is failure to possess valid entry documents under INA § 212 (a)(7)(A)(i)(I). However, as discussed above, this ground arose exclusively from the Applicant's complete dependence on his mother as a minor child, and from his mother's urgent flight from persecution. The ground does not reflect any criminal conduct, moral turpitude, fraud, or willful disregard for the law. It is among the least culpable forms of inadmissibility, particularly given that the Applicant bore no personal responsibility for the entry decision. There is simply no countervailing factor of any substance or weight in this case that could overcome the extraordinary strength of the positive considerations presented.

Considering the totality of the circumstances, the positive humanitarian, family unity, and public interest considerations overwhelmingly outweigh the inadmissibility ground in this matter. The Applicant has grown up in the United States, built meaningful ties to his community, and continues to attend school while receiving the specialized medical care his condition requires. Denial of this waiver would penalize a child with autism for circumstances entirely beyond his control, expose him to renewed risk of persecution, deprive him of the medical care essential to his well-being, and sever him from the family and stable environment upon which his daily functioning fundamentally depends. Granting this waiver, by contrast, would preserve family stability, honor the humanitarian determination already made in his family's favor, and serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Applicant respectfully requests a favorable exercise of discretion and approval of this waiver application.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Sincerely,

Otavio Haverroth Silva (SBN: 343486)

INFORMAÇÕES PARA O TITULAR

Este passaporte é propriedade da República Federativa do Brasil e qualquer tentativa de adulteração o tornará inválido.

O extravio – perda, roubo ou destruição – do passaporte constitui fato grave e deve ser comunicado imediatamente à autoridade policial e à Embaixada ou ao Consulado do Brasil, conforme o caso. Para isso, recomenda-se que o titular copie as informações da página 2. Se o passaporte for entregue a pessoa ou serviço que não pertença ao Governo Brasileiro (por exemplo, para obtenção de visto, compra de passagem, etc.) e não for restituído, o titular deve considerá-lo como extraviado. A concessão de novo passaporte em substituição ao extraviado depende de investigação.

Apenas o titular do passaporte poderá usá-lo. A utilização fraudulenta ou a cessão a outra pessoa constituem crimes, pela lei brasileira. Para ressalvar sua responsabilidade, o titular deve assinar seu passaporte, no local previsto na página 3, imediatamente após recebê-lo. Este passaporte só é válido com a assinatura do titular, salvo em caso de incapacidade.

É recomendável que o brasileiro residente no exterior, ou de passagem por região conturbada, matricule-se na Embaixada ou no Consulado do Brasil mais próximo. Impossibilitado de comparecer pessoalmente, poderá comunicar-se por outro meio, fornecendo nome completo, endereço e número do passaporte.

O brasileiro que viaje por áreas conturbadas deve ter presente que a assistência do Governo Brasileiro poderá ser limitada e dependerá das autoridades locais. A contratação de seguro de viagem poderá trazer tranquilidade ao viajante e a seus familiares.

É responsabilidade do titular verificar, antes da viagem, a validade do passaporte e a necessidade de visto. O titular poderá solicitar a substituição do passaporte mesmo antes do vencimento, em vista de que muitos países exigem prazo mínimo de validade.

O menor de idade, não emancipado, viajando desacompanhado de qualquer um dos pais, ou responsável legal, só poderá sair do Brasil munido de autorização pertinente prevista em lei.

O cidadão brasileiro que tenha outra nacionalidade deve ter em conta que a assistência consular brasileira no país de que também é nacional poderá ser consideravelmente limitada.

INFORMAÇÕES PARA O TITULAR

O extravio – perda, roubo ou destruição – do passaporte constitui fato grave e deve ser comunicado imediatamente à autoridade policial e à Embaixada ou ao Consulado do Brasil, conforme o caso. Para isso, recomenda-se que o titular copie as informações da página 2. Se o passaporte for entregue a pessoa ou serviço que não pertença ao Governo Brasileiro (por exemplo, para obtenção de visto, compra de passagem, etc.) e não for restituído, o titular deve considerá-lo como extraviado. A concessão de novo passaporte em substituição ao extraviado depende de investigação.

Apenas o titular do passaporte poderá usá-lo. A utilização fraudulenta ou a cessão a outra pessoa constituem crimes, pela lei brasileira. Para ressalvar sua responsabilidade, o titular deve assinar seu passaporte, no local previsto na página 3, imediatamente após recebê-lo. Este passaporte só é válido com a assinatura do titular, salvo em caso de incapacidade.

É recomendável que o brasileiro residente no exterior, ou de passagem por região conturbada, matricule-se na Embaixada ou no Consulado do Brasil mais próximo. Impossibilitado de comparecer pessoalmente, poderá comunicar-se por outro meio, fornecendo nome completo, endereço e número do passaporte.

O brasileiro que viaje por áreas conturbadas deve ter presente que a assistência do Governo Brasileiro poderá ser limitada e dependerá das autoridades locais. A contratação de seguro de viagem poderá trazer tranquilidade ao viajante e a seus familiares.

É responsabilidade do titular verificar, antes da viagem, a validade do passaporte e a necessidade de visto. O titular poderá solicitar a substituição do passaporte mesmo antes do vencimento, em vista de que muitos países exigem prazo mínimo de validade.

O menor de idade, não emancipado, viajando desacompanhado de qualquer um dos pais, ou responsável legal, só poderá sair do Brasil munido de autorização pertinente prevista em lei.

O cidadão brasileiro que tenha outra nacionalidade deve ter em conta que a assistência consular brasileira no país de que também é nacional poderá ser consideravelmente limitada.

INFORMAÇÕES PARA O TITULAR

O extravio – perda, roubo ou destruição – do passaporte constitui fato grave e deve ser comunicado imediatamente à autoridade policial e à Embaixada ou ao Consulado do Brasil, conforme o caso. Para isso, recomenda-se que o titular copie as informações da página 2. Se o passaporte for entregue a pessoa ou serviço que não pertença ao Governo Brasileiro (por exemplo, para obtenção de visto, compra de passagem, etc.) e não for restituído, o titular deve considerá-lo como extraviado. A concessão de novo passaporte em substituição ao extraviado depende de investigação.

Apenas o titular do passaporte poderá usá-lo. A utilização fraudulenta ou a cessão a outra pessoa constituem crimes, pela lei brasileira. Para ressalvar sua responsabilidade, o titular deve assinar seu passaporte, no local previsto na página 3, imediatamente após recebê-lo. Este passaporte só é válido com a assinatura do titular, salvo em caso de incapacidade.

É recomendável que o brasileiro residente no exterior, ou de passagem por região conturbada, matricule-se na Embaixada ou no Consulado do Brasil mais próximo. Impossibilitado de comparecer pessoalmente, poderá comunicar-se por outro meio, fornecendo nome completo, endereço e número do passaporte.

O brasileiro que viaje por áreas conturbadas deve ter presente que a assistência do Governo Brasileiro poderá ser limitada e dependerá das autoridades locais. A contratação de seguro de viagem poderá trazer tranquilidade ao viajante e a seus familiares.

É responsabilidade do titular verificar, antes da viagem, a validade do passaporte e a necessidade de visto. O titular poderá solicitar a substituição do passaporte mesmo antes do vencimento, em vista de que muitos países exigem prazo mínimo de validade.

O menor de idade, não emancipado, viajando desacompanhado de qualquer um dos pais, ou responsável legal, só poderá sair do Brasil munido da autorização pertinente prevista em lei.

O cidadão brasileiro que tenha outra nacionalidade deve ter em conta que a assistência consular brasileira no país de que também é nacional poderá ser consideravelmente limitada.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

Important Messages - Please Read

We want to make sure you stay up-to-date on changes, reminders, and other important details that could impact you.

Good News!
Soon, more funds may be available if we place a hold on your check deposit.

Starting May 19, 2025, here is what to expect if we place a hold on your check deposit and where you can find these changes in our Deposit Agreement and Disclosures after this date:

- The first $275 (previously $225) may be available the next business day.
- When you deposit checks totaling more than $6,725 (previously $5,525) on any one day, we may continue to place a longer hold.
- For certain check deposits into accounts open less than 30 days, the first $6,725 (previously $5,525) of a day's total deposits may be available the next business day.

Our Deposit Agreement and Disclosures document is available at bankofamerica.com/depositagreement. Details can be found in the sections called "Longer Delays May Apply" and "Special Rules for New Accounts". You may also find helpful information in the "When Funds are Available for Withdrawal and Deposit Holds" section of the Agreement.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

Security tips

Tips to help protect yourself from trending scams:

- Do not be pressured to act quickly - it could be an imposter trying to steal your money.
- If asked to transfer money unexpectedly, use caution - it could be a scam.
- Never grant remote access or download apps at the request of someone you do not know.

Important information about payment scams

We will never

- call and ask you to send money using Zelle® to yourself or anyone else.
- contact you via phone or text to ask for a security code.
- reach out to you and ask you to send money or provide a code. If someone unfamiliar to you does this, it is likely a scam.

Treat Zelle® payments like cash – once you send money, you are unlikely to get it back.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

Important Messages - Please Read

We want to make sure you stay up-to-date on changes, reminders, and other important details that could impact you.

We will automatically waive the monthly maintenance fee on your Bank of America Advantage Plus Banking® account if there is an owner under the age of 25.

Starting with statements that cycle on or after November 14, 2025, as long as there is an owner on your account that is under the age of 25 on November 14, 2025, the monthly fee will be waived until they turn 25.

To have the monthly fee waived as part of this benefit, an account owner must be under the age of 25 on November 14, 2025. Additionally, this benefit does not apply when owners under 25 are added after this date.

Soon, we will automatically waive the monthly maintenance fee on select additional consumer checking or savings accounts when you also own a Bank of America Advantage Relationship Banking® account!

We are enhancing one of the services that comes with Advantage Relationship accounts — here is how this can benefit you:

Starting November 21, 2025, if you are an owner of an Advantage Relationship account, we will automatically waive the monthly fee on select additional consumer checking and savings accounts you own. This excludes additional Advantage Relationship and fiduciary accounts, like trust and estate accounts. Keep in mind, this means any additional Advantage Relationship accounts you own will not have the monthly fee waived as part of this benefit since it is not an eligible account type.

There is nothing you need to do. We will waive the monthly fee automatically on eligible accounts — asking us to link your accounts is no longer needed.

You can find more information about our accounts at bankofamerica.com or in our Personal Schedule of Fees at bankofamerica.com/fees. If you have any questions, please visit us, or call the number on this statement.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

LEASE AGREEMENT - CALIFORNIA

This Lease Agreement ("Lease" or "Agreement") is entered into by Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation (hereinafter "Landlord"), as agent for the owner of the Property, Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (singularly and collectively "Resident") for the rental of the Leased Premises on the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease. Landlord and Resident are referred to in this Lease as "the Parties." The Parties agree that they may enter into this Lease by electronic means, although traditional hard copies with ink signatures may be used instead at the option of the Landlord.

1. PROPERTY: Commonly known as San Marcos ("Property" or "Community"). The Property location and contact information is:

Address: 2601 Hilltop Drive, Richmond, CA, 94806
Phone Number: (510) 669-9393	Email: SanMarcos@essex.com
Website: https://www.essexapartmenthomes.com/current-resident

2. LEASED PREMISES: Landlord rents to Resident the Premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Leased Premises", "Premises", or "Unit") for use as a residence and for no other purpose.

3. RESIDENT(S) AND OTHER AUTHORIZED OCCUPANTS: All occupants 18 and over must be identified in this paragraph, sign this Lease and are jointly and severally responsible for all obligations of Resident under this Lease.

Resident: Yasmin Fugioka	Phone Number: (415) 574-8317	Email: yfugioka@gmail.com
Resident: Leandro jr Messias da Cunha	Phone Number: (510) 804-4651	Email: 62991959132leandro@gmail.com

4. TERM & DELAY IN POSSESSION:

(a) Initial Term of Lease: 12 Months, commencing on 2/1/2025 ("Commencement Date") and terminating on 1/31/2026 ("Initial Termination Date") subject to earlier cancellation or termination as provided in this Lease or applicable law and subject to the renewal provisions of the "HOLDING OVER" paragraph below.

(b) Resident understands that, for reasons beyond the control of the Landlord, Landlord may not be able to provide occupancy to Resident on said Commencement Date. If, for any reason, Landlord is unable to provide occupancy to Resident by the scheduled Commencement Date, Resident's remedy in this event shall be limited to termination of this agreement and prompt refund of any moneys paid. Landlord shall have no liability to Resident in this event other than the responsibility to promptly refund any moneys paid.

5. HOLDING OVER: UNLESS ANOTHER LEASE IS SIGNED BY THE PARTIES HERETO OR UNLESS WRITTEN NOTICE OF ELECTION NOT TO RENEW IS GIVEN BY EITHER PARTY THIRTY (30) DAYS BEFORE THE EXPIRATION OF THIS LEASE, THIS LEASE SHALL BE AUTOMATICALLY RENEWED FOR A TERM EQUAL TO THE INITIAL LEASE TERM IDENTIFIED IN PARAGRAPH 4, OR 12 MONTHS, WHICHEVER IS LESS (each, a "Renewal Term"). THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE LEASE MAY BE AMENDED FOR ANY RENEWAL TERM BY LANDLORD USING THE PROCESS PROVIDED FOR IN CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE ("CIV. CODE") § 827, REGARDLESS OF LEASE PERIOD. THE RENEWAL TERM SHALL NOT BE MONTH-TO-MONTH UNLESS THE INITIAL LEASE TERM IS MONTH-TO-MONTH.

6. RENT:

(a) Resident shall pay to Landlord, as rent for the Premises, monthly base rent of $2,750 ("Monthly Base Rent"). Rent shall be paid in full, in advance, on or before the first (1st) day of each month using a method identified in this lease. All payments, including Rent and all other charges due Landlord hereunder shall be payable to San Marcos. Payment may be made on-line through Landlord's Residential Portal located on Landlord's website identified in Paragraph 1. Payment by cash, cashier's check, money order, or certified check must be made at a Walk-In-Payment System ("WIPS") location. To utilize WIPS, contact the Management Office to receive a mobile barcode or printed payslip. Resident can find the WIPS location nearest Resident by visiting paynearme.com/yardicashmap, and entering Resident's Zip Code. Please plan on at least three (3) business days between the date Resident makes a payment at a WIPS location and the date it is received by Landlord. Payment may also be made by personal check mailed to PO BOX 209437 Austin, TX 78720-9281. Payment of rent and any other charges due to Landlord is not accepted in person on site unless Landlord directs Resident to do so in writing (for example, in a notice to pay rent or surrender possession). If Resident makes any payment by check, it may be converted into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). The check will be copied and the account information on it used to electronically debit Resident's account for the amount of the check. The debit from Resident's account may occur as early as the same day as the check is received. The debit will be shown on Resident's regular account statement. Resident's original check will be destroyed and, a copy of it will be kept to the extent required by applicable laws. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, Resident authorizes the copy of the check to be processed in place of the original check. Landlord may also accept money transfers from designated third-party financial services companies. Resident should contact Landlord to determine if Landlord will accept this method of payment and for required information should Resident wish to utilize this option. It is Resident's responsibility to be certain that each payment is made on or before its due date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord reserves the right to make changes at any time to the acceptable methods for payment of rent upon no less than sixty (60) days' written notice to Resident.

(b) If Landlord serves Resident with a three (3) day notice to pay rent or surrender possession, which Landlord may do on any date after the first (1st) day of the month, any payment tendered following service of said notice must be in the form of a cashier's check or certified check.

(c) Landlord shall apply any payment made by Resident to any obligation of Resident to Landlord in Landlord's sole discretion. Landlord shall have this right notwithstanding any allocation or direction by Resident to Landlord, which allocation shall be voidable at Landlord's sole election, regardless of whether such direction or allocation appears on the face of the form of payment or in a separate writing.

(d) The failure to pay any amount as outlined in this Lease including, but not limited to the payment of rent, late fees, utilities, storage, parking, pet rent, and all other amounts shall be considered a material breach of the Lease.

7. LATE CHARGE AND NSF CHARGE: Landlord and Resident agree that the actual cost to Landlord when Resident fails to pay amounts due under this Agreement on time, or pays by a check which is subsequently dishonored by the bank, is difficult or impossible to ascertain, but the parties agree that Landlord does, in the event of late payment or in the event of a dishonored check, incur costs, such as additional bookkeeping and administrative expense, bank charges, lost opportunity, cost of the late payment, etc. The parties accordingly agree that, any time the rent for any given month is paid after the fifth (5th) day of such month, Resident will in that month as a fair estimate of Landlord's costs and not a penalty, pay to Landlord a late charge in the sum of $85. Resident acknowledges and agrees that where Landlord does not receive payment of any amount due under the Lease due to Resident's check being dishonored, or returned for Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF), Resident agrees to pay Landlord, as a fair estimate of Landlord's costs and not as a penalty a charge of $25.00 for the first dishonored check and $35.00 for any subsequent dishonored check. Both parties agree that the payment of these sums does not constitute an agreement Resident may pay rent, or any other amount due under the Lease, late or by dishonored check. Rent and any other amount due under the lease remains due on the first (1st) day of the month, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement.

8. SECURITY DEPOSIT: Resident shall pay to Landlord, as security, the sum of the security deposit of $1,975 ("Security Deposit"). Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, apply all or part of any Security Deposit to any of Resident's obligations hereunder. Application of the Security Deposit to any obligation is in addition to any other remedies available to Landlord as a result of Resident's breach of this Lease and doing so will not deprive Landlord from the right to terminate the tenancy for such breach. Resident agrees to restore the Security Deposit to its full amount within ten (10) days of written demand by Landlord. Failure to do so is a material breach of this Lease.

At the termination of Resident's tenancy, the Security Deposit shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with the provisions of Civ. Code § 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes. Resident acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) After Resident has moved from and cleaned the Premises to the same level of cleanliness that existed at the time of Resident's initial occupancy, as disclosed by the Move-In Inspection Report incorporated herein by reference, Landlord will determine whether Resident is eligible for a refund of any or all of the Security Deposit;

(b) The amount of the refund will be determined in accordance with the following conditions and procedures:

(i) After the Resident has moved from the Premises, Landlord will inspect the Premises;

(ii) Landlord will refund to Resident the amount of the Security Deposit less any amount needed to pay the cost of the following:

a. Damages that are not due to ordinary wear and tear and are not listed on the Move-In Inspection Report (see Cleaning Guidelines in Community Handbook);

b. Charges for late payment of rent and returned checks; and

c. Unpaid amounts owing to Landlord, including, but not limited to, monthly base rent, unpaid utility bills and any related administrative costs, charges for unreturned keys and access devices, amounts outstanding under any other agreements between Landlord and Resident which contemplate use of the Security Deposit in the event of a default.

(c) Resident may not use any portion of the Security Deposit toward the last month's rent.

(d) Landlord's right to possession of the Premises for Resident's default shall not be in any manner limited because Landlord holds or applies the Security Deposit, or any portion thereof;

(e) Subject to applicable law, Landlord shall not be obligated to pay Resident interest in connection with the Security Deposit.

(f) The Security Deposit is applicable to all Residents jointly, and need not be accounted for until the permissible statutory period after such time as all Residents have vacated the Premises, which requires the return of possession of the Premises to Landlord, return of the keys and provision of Resident's new address to the Landlord. If Landlord does not have the Resident's forwarding address, the Security Deposit will be sent to the Resident's last known address.

(g) Any refund due will be made payable jointly to all Residents and it shall be the responsibility of all Residents to work out between themselves the manner of dividing the Security Deposit.

(h) If the Security Deposit is later increased by agreement of the Parties for any reason, the additional Security Deposit will be disbursed by Landlord in accordance with this paragraph at the end of the statutory period following the end of the Resident's tenancy. Removal of cause for the increase in the deposit, will not be grounds for early disbursement of the Security Deposit.

9. PERMITTED OCCUPANTS:

(a) The Premises shall be occupied only by the Resident(s) and the Authorized Occupants set forth in Paragraph 3. Any person who is not listed in Paragraph 3 is a "Guest." A Guest may not stay at the Premises for more than seven (7) consecutive days, or a total of fourteen (14) days in a 12-month period, without written permission from Landlord. Guests who stay longer than these limits are considered unauthorized occupants, and their continued occupancy is a material breach of the Lease. Resident is responsible for ensuring that any person who becomes an adult occupant of the Premises (after the commencement of the Lease term) reviews the terms and conditions of the Lease, including the Proposition 65 Warning in Paragraph 20, and works with Landlord to be added to Paragraph 3. Resident is responsible for any violation of this Lease by Resident's Guest(s). No other persons have permission to occupy the Premises unless such permission is in writing and signed by Landlord or its authorized agent.

(b) The acceptance of rent from any other individual shall be deemed to be the payment of rent on behalf of the Resident named in Paragraph 3, and shall not constitute permission for the person making the payment to occupy the Premises.

(c) Should any person not named above in Paragraph 3 make any claim to right of possession of the Premises, such person shall be deemed the guest or invitee of the named Resident and, at Landlord's sole option, their claim to right of possession may be denied.

(d) The Authorized Occupants identified in Paragraph 3 shall be deemed to occupy the Premises under the named Resident who are signatory to this Lease and shall thus be deemed the invitee of said named Resident. Accordingly, should any such individual not be named in any unlawful detainer action to regain possession of the Premises, and should any such individual thereafter make a claim to right of possession of the Premises, that claim shall be denied on the basis that said individual is the invitee of the named Resident and does not have an independent claim to right of possession of the Premises.

(e) Resident understands that the number of occupants cannot exceed Landlord's occupancy standards for the floorplan of the Premises, which generally is no more than two persons per bedroom plus one additional person. If the household composition changes such that the number of occupants exceeds this occupancy standard, Resident agrees that such over-utilization shall be grounds for Landlord to terminate this Agreement, solely at Landlord's option.

10. UTILITIES: Resident is responsible for utilities as set forth in the Utilities Addendum attached to this Lease.

11. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY AND AUTHORITY: All persons signing this Lease as Resident shall be jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Lease, whether or not they remain in actual possession of the Premises. The giving by any individual Resident of a notice of termination of tenancy shall not terminate the Lease as to that Resident unless all Residents vacate the Premises by the agreed date. Landlord may, however, treat any such notice as a notice binding against all Residents of the Premises, and may institute unlawful detainer proceedings against all Residents in the event that they do not restore possession of the Premises to Landlord on or before the end of the notice period. Conversely, Landlord may, at its sole option, in the event that one or more Resident gives notice but all Residents do not return possession of the Premises to Landlord within the notice period, continue the tenancy in effect and, if Landlord does so, all Residents, including the Resident giving notice, shall remain fully liable for all obligations arising under this Lease whether or not they remain in occupancy of the Premises.

12. NOTICES AND AUTHORIZED MANAGER:

(a) Any notice which Landlord gives to Resident shall be deemed properly served (whether or not actually received by Resident) if served in the manner prescribed in Code of Civil Procedure ("Civ. Proc.") § 1162. If Landlord fails to serve the notice in accordance with the provisions of Civ. Proc. § 1162, but Resident actually receives the notice, the actual receipt shall be deemed to cure any defects in the manner of service and the notice shall be deemed properly and personally served. Service upon any Resident of the Premises shall be deemed valid service upon all Residents. It is not necessary to individually serve each Resident.

(b) Resident is hereby notified that Essex Management Corporation is authorized to manage the property on the Owner's behalf and to accept service of process, notices or demands on behalf of the Landlord. Service may be effected on this entity at 1100 Park Place, Suite 200, San Mateo, CA 94403 Attention: Legal Department. Telephone (650) 655-7800.

13. PEST CONTROL:

(a) The Premises and/or the Property is covered by a contract for regular pest control service. Pursuant to applicable law, concurrently with signing this Lease, you are being provided with a copy of the legally required notice provided by the registered pest control company entitled Pesticide Notice/Disclosure.

(b) Resident and Landlord both have inspected the Premises prior to leasing and acknowledge there is no visible evidence of the presence or infestation of insects or vermin, including bedbugs, in the Premises. Resident agrees to inspect all personal belongings for signs of bedbugs and other insects or vermin prior to bringing personal belongings into the unit and further agrees not to bring into the Premises any belongings which Resident suspects may be infested with bedbugs, insects or other vermin.

(c) Resident agrees to maintain the cleanliness of the Premises in a sanitary condition and keep it free and clear of all rubbish, undisposed food items (including pet food) and overcrowding of furniture, possessions and other items in such a manner that prevents the occurrence of an infestation of insects, bedbugs or vermin. Resident agrees to report, in writing, any suspected infestations of bedbugs, ants, fleas, roaches, or other insects or vermin immediately to Landlord.

(d) If the premises is not maintained by the Resident in a sanitary condition as described in subparagraph (c) above or Resident allows individuals or items carrying bedbugs, fleas, roaches or other insects or vermin into the Premises, or has an infestation that cannot be traced to another source, the resulting infestation will be deemed damage to the Premises and Resident will be responsible for all costs of treatment to the Premises, their personal belongings and surrounding units as necessary to eradicate the infestation (costs including but not limited to lost rents, pest control services, and tenant relocation). The choice of treatment shall be at the discretion of Landlord in consultation with Landlord's pest control vendor.

(e) Resident acknowledges that pest or insect infestations may occur from time-to-time through no fault of the Landlord and Landlord does not guarantee a pest or insect free environment. Landlord shall not be liable for naturally occurring conditions which might attract pests or insects, and Resident releases and waives any right to sue Landlord for claims resulting in any physical injury, illness or economic loss which Resident may suffer as a result of or incidental to pests or insects at or near the Property. Resident agrees to timely cooperate with all pest control efforts at and within the Premises and the Property. Resident shall follow all instructions from Landlord and/or Landlord's pest control company with respect to treatment and eradication whether infestation is in Resident's unit, another unit or elsewhere on the Property at Resident's sole expense. Resident shall make arrangements to dispose of any furniture or other items infested with pests. Such items may not be disposed of at the Property. If the Resident fails to cooperate in a timely manner, Resident may bear additional responsibility for the cost associated with treating neighboring residents or other vermin.

14. INFORMATION ABOUT BED BUGS: Landlord hereby provides the following general information about bed bug identification, behavior, biology, the importance of cooperation for prevention and treatment, and the importance of and for prompt written reporting of suspected infestations to Landlord:

(a) Bed Bug Appearance: Bed bugs have six legs. Adult bed bugs have flat bodies about 1/4 of an inch in length. Their color can vary from red and brown to copper colored. Young bed bugs are very small. Their bodies are about 1/16 of an inch in length. They have almost no color. When a bed bug feeds, its body swells, may lengthen, and becomes bright red, sometimes making it appear to be a different insect. Bed bugs do not fly. They can either crawl or be carried from place to place on objects, people, or animals. Bed bugs can be hard to find and identify because they are tiny and try to stay hidden.

(b) Life Cycle and Reproduction: An average bed bug lives for about 10 months. Female bed bugs lay one to five eggs per day. Bed bugs grow to full adulthood in about 21 days.

(c) Survival: Bed bugs can survive for months without feeding.

(d) Bed Bug Bites: Because bed bugs usually feed at night, most people are bitten in their sleep and do not realize they were bitten. A person's reaction to insect bites is an immune response and so varies from person to person. Sometimes the red welts caused by the bites will not be noticed until many days after a person was bitten, if at all.

(e) Common Signs and Symptoms of a Possible Bed Bug Infestation:

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

(i) Small red to reddish brown fecal spots on mattresses, box springs, bed frames, mattresses, linens, upholstery, or walls.

(ii) Molted bed bug skins, white, sticky eggs, or empty eggshells.

(iii) Very heavily infested areas may have a characteristically sweet odor.

(iv) Red, itchy bite marks, especially on the legs, arms, and other body parts exposed while sleeping. However, some people do not show bed bug lesions on their bodies even though bed bugs may have fed on them.

(f) More Information: For more information, see the Internet Web sites of the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the National Pest Management Association.

(g) This Agreement requires Resident to cooperate fully with Landlord in the prevention and treatment of any infestation, including the duty to report any signs of infestations. Prompt treatment and Resident cooperation is important when battling bed bugs. Early reporting allows the pests to be identified and treated before the infestation spreads. As a tenant, Resident is the first line of defense against bed bug infestations and should create living environments that deter bed bugs. Resident cooperation is shown to expedite the control of bed bugs and to prevent spreading of infestation. This includes reducing unreasonable amounts of clutter that creates hiding places for bed bugs, and regular checking of beds and laundering of linens.

15. ACCESS TO PREMISES: The parties agree that the provisions of Civ. Code § 1954 (and any other applicable statute or amendments which might be enacted subsequent to the execution of this Lease) govern the rights and duties relating to Landlord's access to the Premises. The parties further agree that Landlord or Landlord's agents may enter the Premises for any reasonable business purpose at reasonable times. Resident agrees that, should Resident deny Landlord access to the Premises when Landlord is in compliance with statutory requirements and entitled to access, any such denial of access shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease.

16. MISSTATEMENTS ON APPLICATION: Resident has completed an application in connection with executing this Lease. Landlord has relied upon the statements set forth in said application in deciding to rent the Premises to Resident. Resident agrees any misstatements of fact in the Resident's application shall be deemed a material and incurable breach of this Lease.

17. RESIDENTIAL USE OF PREMISES: Resident agrees that the Premises are rented for residential use only unless the Parties have executed a separate Live Work Addendum. Resident shall not use the Premises as a business address, nor shall Resident conduct any business activities on the Premises. Conducting business activities includes, without limitation, using the Premises as a mailing address for a business enterprise, having a business telephone line in the Premises, having business clients meet with Resident at the Premises, having business stationery setting forth the address of the Premises as a business address, assembling or manufacturing any product upon the Premises, or otherwise holding out the Premises as the address of any business. Resident may, however, to the extent consistent with the restrictions set forth in this Paragraph, use a portion of the Premises as a "home office." Nothing set forth herein shall be deemed as disallowing any use of the Premises that cannot be prohibited legally.

18. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING: Resident shall not assign this Lease nor sublet all or any part of the Premises. Permitting any person to occupy the Premises who is not named as a Resident in this Lease or authorized to occupy the Premises pursuant to this Lease shall be deemed an improper subletting of the Premises and shall subject the tenancy to termination. Use of home-sharing or short-term rental websites is a violation of this Paragraph. Any attempted subletting or assignment in violation of this provision shall be voidable at Landlord's discretion. Any assignment or subletting, including through home-sharing or short-term rental platforms, may be treated by the Landlord as a non-curable material breach of this lease.

19. CONDITION OF PREMISES-ALTERATIONS: Resident has inspected and accepts (a) the Premises; (b) all improvements; (c) furnishings; and (d) fixtures therein as being in good condition, and agrees to maintain the same in good condition. Any exceptions to Resident's acceptance of the Premises must be set forth in the Move-In Inspection Report executed by the Resident and Landlord and incorporated herein by reference. Furthermore, Resident agrees not to alter (including, but not limited to, installing cameras or security systems), install fixtures or improvements in, install or remove major appliances (including but not limited to washer/dryer, dishwasher, etc.), paint or redecorate the Premises or any part of the Property without the prior written consent of Landlord. Resident shall not make any repairs whatsoever without Landlord’s express written consent, except where authorized by law. All costs of restoring the Premises or Property to its prior condition resulting from Resident's violation hereof or violation by Resident guests or invitees shall be paid by Resident within three (3) days after written demand for payment. For the purposes of safety and quiet enjoyment Resident shall not install or use portable washers or dryers on the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent.

20. PROPOSITION 65 WARNING: The Premises as well as the common areas in and around the Community contain at least one of the following chemical(s) known to the State of California to cause cancer and/or reproductive toxicity and for which warnings are now required. These chemicals include, but are not limited to: tobacco smoke, lead and lead components, asbestos, formaldehyde, pool chemicals, carbon monoxide, benzene, and gasoline or diesel engine exhaust. Based on these exposures, the following warning is required:

⚠ WARNING: Building materials containing urea-formaldehyde resins, such as insulation, pressed wood materials, finishes, or adhesives, on this property can expose you to chemicals including formaldehyde, which is known to the State of California to cause cancer. Fireplaces, fire pits, barbeques, or unvented gas space heaters, natural gas-powered appliances, as well as exhaust from motor vehicles in parking areas or from other maintenance equipment, on this property can expose you to chemicals including carbon monoxide, which is known to the State of California to cause birth defects or other reproductive harm, and benzene, which is known to the State of California to cause cancer and birth defects or other reproductive harm. Talk to your landlord or the building manager about how and when you could be exposed to these chemicals in your building. For additional information go to www.P65Warnings.ca.gov/apartments.

21. DUTY TO CLEAN AND VENTILATE: Resident hereby acknowledges that mold and mildew can grow in the Premises if the Premises is not properly maintained and ventilated. Resident agrees to comply with the Mold Addendum which is attached to and a part of this Lease.

22. LIABILITY/INDEMNIFICATION/HOLD HARMLESS:

(a) Landlord does not provide or guarantee a noise-free environment. Living in a community means that it is likely Resident will be able to hear sounds common to a community environment while inside the Premises. While Landlord will attempt to enforce quiet hours, the provision of such quiet hours shall not be deemed a guarantee of any kind that Resident will not be exposed to common community noise while on the Property and in the Premises.

(b) Landlord shall not be liable to Resident, occupants or to any guests or invitees of Resident for any claim, damage, illness, physical injury or loss (including economic) to any person or property arising from any cause including, but not limited to, theft, burglary, assault, vandalism, fire, flood, water leaks, rain, hail, ice, snow, smoke, lightning, wind, explosion, interruption of utilities, earthquake, pests, insects or vermin, communicable or infectious disease or any other cause (collectively, "Cause"). Resident releases and waives any right to sue Landlord for any and all claims resulting in any physical injury, illness or economic loss which Resident may suffer as a result of or incidental to any such Cause at or near the Property.

(c) Resident understands and agrees that Landlord will not have any liability for loss or damage to Resident's personal property. Resident agrees that the Agreement will not terminate and Landlord will not be liable for any interruption of services or accommodations to Resident caused by casualty, strike, riot, orders or acts of public authorities, acts of third parties, including other residents, or any other cause beyond Landlord's control, except as provided in Paragraph 35.

(d) Resident agrees to hold harmless, protect, indemnify, and defend Landlord from and against any claims arising out of or relating to the use, occupancy or maintenance of the Premises by Resident, whether such claims arise during and/or after Resident’s tenancy. Resident agrees Landlord shall have the right to appoint defense counsel, at Resident's expense, in the event of any such claim against Landlord. Any insurance obtained by Resident or Landlord will not limit Resident's liability, and Resident will be responsible for the payment of any deductible if there is a covered loss.

23. SUBORDINATION: This Lease and all rights of Resident arising hereunder are expressly agreed to be subject and subordinate in all respects to the lien of any present or future mortgages which are or may be placed upon the Property by Landlord or assigns of Landlord and to all other rights acquired by the holder of any such mortgage(s).

24. SUCCESSORS IN INTEREST: If the Property is sold or the ownership interest is otherwise transferred, the successor in interest of Landlord shall be deemed the assignee of all rights arising hereunder, and shall be entitled to enforce the provisions of this Lease as necessary against Resident. Nothing in this provision shall be construed as conflicting or superseding the foregoing "SUBORDINATION" clause or as requiring a continuation of the tenancy in the event of a foreclosure or other involuntary transfer of ownership.

25. COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS: Resident agrees not to use or permit the Premises to be used for any purpose which violates local, state or federal law. Resident further agrees to defend Landlord against any claims arising from, or relating to, and reimburse and indemnify Landlord for all claims, loss, damage, fines and penalties alleged against or incurred by Landlord as a result of, Resident's alleged or actual violation of any statute, ordinance, regulation or other governmental restriction.

26. COMPLIANCE WITH COMMUNITY HANDBOOK: Resident acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Community Handbook ("Handbook"), which is incorporated into and made a part of this Lease. Resident agrees to abide by said Handbook in all respects. Any Handbook terms may be changed on thirty (30) days' notice, and Resident agrees to abide by any such changes. Failure to comply with the Handbook shall be deemed a breach of this Lease.

27. NO SOLICITING: Solicitation is prohibited in the Community. Except as prohibited by applicable law, soliciting of any kind by Resident, Resident's guests or Resident's invitees is a material violation of this Agreement.

28. CONDUCT OF RESIDENT:

(a) Resident agrees not to harass, annoy, or endanger any other Resident, neighbor or other person, or create or maintain a nuisance, or disturb the peace or solitude or quiet enjoyment of any other Resident, neighbor or other person, or commit waste in or about the Premises.

(b) Resident agrees not to harass, verbally abuse, denigrate, endanger or otherwise disrespect Landlord's employees, agents and/or contractors or interfere with the operations of the Property or the work of Landlord's employees or agents.

(c) Certain acts are contrary to the safety, well-being, peace, and enjoyment of the other Residents of the Property. These include, but are not limited to, the use or exhibition of firearms or ammunition and operating drones with cameras or other photograph or video capability, or any other flying remote-controlled device with such capabilities in any common areas of the Property.

Such acts are prohibited.

(d) Resident agrees not to deface or damage any part of the Premises or the Community or permit the same to be done, or keep any flammable or explosive materials or any substance considered dangerous, hazardous or toxic under any governmental law or regulation in the Premises.

(e) Resident agrees not to do or permit anything to be done in the Premises that Landlord deems hazardous or which will cause a cancellation of or an increase in the premiums for any insurance for the Community.

(f) Resident is responsible for the conduct of Resident's guests or invitees while they are on the Property as well as all household members (including minors).

(g) A Resident conducting any of the activities set forth in this Paragraph, or who allows his or her guests, invitees or household members (including minors) to conduct any of the activities set forth in this Paragraph shall have materially and incurably breached this Agreement.

29. ANIMALS: No animals are permitted on the Property or the Premises without the prior written consent of the Landlord and Resident's execution of an Animal Addendum. Any such consent may be revoked at any time, with or without cause, by giving three (3) days' written notice. The presence of any pets for which written permission has not been given or which, if given, is not currently in force, even if such pets are "just visiting", shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. If Resident has a pet without the written consent of Landlord in addition to all other remedies of Landlord, Resident agrees to pay within three (3) days of written demand any and all carpet cleaning charges and fumigation costs. Accommodation Animals are not considered pets, but written permission must be granted, and an Animal Addendum executed before an accommodation animal is brought onto the Premises. A disabled individual who requires an animal in order to be able to use and enjoy the Premises or the Property shall comply with Paragraph 55.

30. LIQUID-FILLED FURNITURE AND AQUARIUMS: Waterbeds and other liquid-filled furniture are allowed only under in compliance with Civ. Code § 1940.5. No aquariums over ten (10) gallons are permitted without prior written consent of Landlord. If Resident installs any liquid-filled furniture, Landlord has the right to increase the Security Deposit by an amount to be determined in the written authorization, which in no event shall be more than one-half of one month's rent.

31. SMOKE DETECTORS: Resident acknowledges that the Premises are equipped with an operable smoke detector(s). Resident agrees to not interfere with the presence or operability of such smoke detectors and to report immediately to Landlord, in writing, any defects in the condition of any smoke detectors. Resident further agrees that, if the smoke detector(s) is/are battery operated, pursuant to Civ. Code § 1942.1, as part of the consideration of the rental, Resident assumes responsibility to: (a) ensure the battery is in operating condition at all times; and (b) replace the battery as needed. Under no circumstances shall Resident remove the battery of a smoke detector without immediately replacing the battery with a new one.

32. FIRE SPRINKLER(S): If the Premises is equipped with fire sprinklers, Resident agrees not to interfere with their operation in any way. The following actions are prohibited: throwing items at the sprinklers, hanging items on the sprinklers, painting the sprinklers, blocking areas around sprinklers and tapping into or otherwise blocking water lines to sprinklers. Resident shall immediately report to Landlord any broken or damaged sprinklers in the Premises,

33. CARBON-MONOXIDE DEVICE(S): If a carbon-monoxide device has been installed within the Premises, Resident acknowledges that the carbon-monoxide device was operable at the time Resident took possession of the Premises. Resident is responsible for notifying Landlord if Resident becomes aware of an inoperable or deficient carbon-monoxide device within the Premises. Landlord shall correct any reported deficiencies or inoperabilities in the carbon-monoxide device. Resident agrees to not interfere with the presence or operability of any carbon-monoxide device. Resident further agrees that, if the carbon-monoxide device(s) is battery operated, pursuant to Civ. Code § 1942.1, as part of the consideration of the rental, Resident assumes responsibility to: (a) ensure the battery is in operating condition at all times; and (b) replace the battery as needed. Under no circumstances shall Resident remove the battery of a carbon-monoxide device without immediately replacing the battery with a new one.

34. EMINENT DOMAIN OR CONDEMNATION: Should the Premises or the land on which the Premises are located, or any part thereof, or any portion of the Community, be condemned or taken for public use, then Landlord shall be entitled to receive any and all just compensation offered or awarded, and Resident shall not be entitled to receive any amount of any settlement or award of compensation arising out of any such eminent domain or condemnation.

35. SIGNIFICANT DAMAGE TO OR DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES:

(a) If the Premises or Property are damaged by fire, flood or other casualty, necessitating repairs that require Resident to vacate the Premises for any length of time, in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, Landlord shall have the option either (1) to repair the damage or otherwise restore the Premises, with this Agreement continuing in full force and effect, or (2) give notice to Resident, at any time after such damage occurs or repairs become necessary, terminating this Agreement as of a date to be specified in such notice. Landlord shall not be required to repair any damage by fire or other cause or to make any repairs of any property installed in the Premises by Resident.

(b) If Landlord elects to terminate, Resident's tenancy shall terminate on the date specified by Landlord, and all interest of the Resident in the Premises shall terminate. If Landlord elects to repair the damage and/or make the significant repairs and continue this Agreement, the "DUTY TO COOPERATE" and "SIGNIFICANT REPAIRS" provisions of this Agreement shall apply. Under no circumstance shall Landlord have any obligation to pay lodging costs or other expenses to Resident, except as shall be required by law or ordinance.

36. RENOVATIONS AND REPAIRS:

(a) Landlord may undertake renovations, improvements and/or repairs to the Premises from time to time that may require Landlord or Landlord's agent to enter the Premises and may also require Resident to vacate the Premises for any length of time. Resident must allow such entry and must vacate the Premises as needed and otherwise cooperate with Landlord in its efforts to perform the work. To the extent possible, Landlord shall give Resident written notice of the need to enter the Premises and potentially vacate the Premises, which notice shall include Landlord's best estimation of the length of time Landlord anticipates Resident will need to be absent from the Premises.

(b) If the renovations, improvements and/or repairs are required because of the conduct of Resident or the conduct of Resident's household, invitees or guests (such as misuse of plumbing, causing a fire, etc.), then Landlord shall be relieved of any obligation to provide or pay for alternative accommodations and Resident shall remain responsible for both rent and the cost of alternative lodging during the time when Resident must vacate the Premises for any work to be completed. Resident shall be fully liable for all loss and/or destruction, whether partial or whole, caused by Resident or any of Resident's invitees or guests.

37. DUTY TO COOPERATE: Failure to vacate upon Landlord notice or return to the Premises or otherwise cooperate with Landlord's efforts to conduct renovations, improvements and/or repairs at the Property is a material breach of this Lease and grounds for termination of this Agreement.

38. VEHICLES: Resident agrees to register all vehicles with the management and comply with the Community Handbook and Handbook Provisions, addenda to this Lease and all posted signs related to vehicles and parking on the Property.

39. CRIMINAL CONDUCT PROHIBITED:

(a) Resident and Authorized Occupants, guests, and invitees, whether on or off of the property, are prohibited from engaging in any criminal and/or unlawful activity, from engaging in any act intended to facilitate criminal and/or unlawful activity, and/or permitting the dwelling unit to be used for criminal and/or unlawful activity. Resident agrees to be responsible for the actions of Authorized Occupants, guests and invitees, regardless of whether Resident knew or should have known about any such actions.

(b) ANY VIOLATION OF THE ABOVE PROVISION SHALL BE A MATERIAL AND IRREPARABLE VIOLATION OF THE LEASE AND GOOD CAUSE FOR IMMEDIATE TERMINATION OF RESIDENT'S TENANCY. Landlord may, in its sole discretion, determine whether a violation has occurred and need not await any court or law enforcement determination before determining to terminate Resident's tenancy under this Paragraph.

(c) Resident hereby authorizes property management/owner to use police generated reports for any such violation as reliable direct evidence, and/or as business records as a hearsay exception, in all eviction hearings.

40. SAFETY CONCERNS:

(a) Landlord makes no representations or guarantees to Resident concerning the security of the Premises or the Community, including, but not limited to individual units, common areas and mail areas. Landlord is under no obligation to Resident to provide any security measure or take any action not required by statute. The presence of courtesy patrols, patrol cars, access gates, surveillance cameras or other deterrents do not guarantee that crime can or will be prevented. Resident is responsible for planning and taking action with respect to the safety of Resident and their property as if such systems and deterrents did not exist.

(b) Landlord does not accept packages, letters, or other deliveries (collectively “Deliveries”) on behalf of Resident. Resident acknowledges that Landlord does not accept any responsibility or liability for any lost, stolen, and/or damaged, Deliveries and Resident agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's agents harmless from any loss or damage related to any of Resident's Deliveries.

(c) Landlord may install surveillance cameras in some of the common areas of the Property. These cameras may or may not be monitored and the footage recorded by these cameras may or may not be kept by Landlord for any length of time. Landlord may remove such cameras, or install additional cameras, at any time without notice to Resident. Recordings made by surveillance equipment, if any, are the sole and exclusive property of Landlord.

(d) Landlord has no obligation to obtain criminal background checks on any existing or future Resident and bears no responsibility or liability related to the criminal background or actions (whether past, present or future) of any person, even if Landlord has actually run a criminal background check on applicants. Resident shall not rely on the fact that Landlord may have run a criminal background check on Resident or any other applicant when deciding whether to enter into this Agreement. Landlord has not made and does not make any representations as to the background of any existing or future Resident.

(e) Resident agrees to report immediately all suspected or actual criminal activity on or near the Property to the appropriate local law enforcement agencies and, after doing so, to Landlord, and shall provide Landlord with such law enforcement agency's incident report number and incident report upon request.

41. MEGAN'S LAW DATABASE:

(a) Notice: Pursuant to California Penal Code ("Penal Code") § 290.46, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an internet web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

(b) Since the information is equally available to Resident and Landlord, and Landlord cannot discriminate against registered sex offenders pursuant to Penal Code § 290.46 et seq., Landlord has not made any inquiry of any applicant or resident as to whether he or she is a registered sex offender. Resident is advised that Landlord may not notify Resident if Landlord learns or is advised that a registered sex offender is living in the Community. The existence of registered sex offenders in the Community is not grounds for terminating this Agreement.

42. OPTION TO TERMINATE: Resident is expected to remain a Resident for the entire term specified in this Lease. If Resident fails to do so, Resident will be responsible to Landlord for all damages provided by law, including (but not limited to) rent due through the end of the Lease term, minus rents paid by a replacement tenant (if any). This amount will vary depending upon how long it takes the Landlord to find a replacement tenant. Therefore, this amount cannot be determined in advance and it is difficult to estimate.

(a) To avoid this uncertainty, Resident may choose to exercise an early termination option. Resident may choose to pay a flat fee in advance to terminate the lease early, rather than remaining liable for rent due through the end of the lease term. To exercise this option, Resident must deliver to Manager:

(i) A written notice stating that Resident has elected to exercise this option;

(ii) An early termination option fee in the amount of $2,750.00 ("Early Termination Fee") and reimbursement of all move-in concessions as provided in any concession agreement executed by the Parties; and

(iii) Rent and other amounts due through the accelerated termination date.

(b) After making a reasonable endeavor to estimate accurately the approximate costs associated with an early termination of the lease, which the Parties agree is difficult or impossible to ascertain at the inception of this Lease since we cannot predict at this time how long it will take to prepare and relet the Premises at some future date or the costs associated with marketing the Premises, Resident and Landlord agree a termination charge equal to the Early Termination Fee is presumed to be the amount of damage suffered by Landlord if Resident elects to terminate this Agreement before the termination date set forth in the Agreement.

(c) When Landlord has received the written notice and payment, and has signed the notice, the Lease termination date will be amended. The new termination date will be the date specified in the notice which must be at least thirty (30) days after the written election and payment are given to Landlord.

(d) Exercise of the early termination option will affect only Resident's rent obligations after the accelerated termination date; Resident must comply with all other Lease obligations.

(e) The notice will not accelerate the termination date if:

(i) Resident is in default under the lease at the time that Resident gives notice of Resident's exercise of the option;

(ii) Resident provides the notice unaccompanied by the fee above; or

(iii) Resident does not properly exercise the early termination option by following the procedure specified above, but vacates the property before the termination date specified in the Lease.

43. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease, including all addenda and the Handbook, set forth the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the matters set forth in it. It shall not be altered nor modified unless such alteration or modification is in writing and signed by all signatories to this Lease, unless the change is required by law, is the result of an error or omission by Landlord, or Landlord provides the required notice for the change as required by law. No verbal agreements or representations have been made or relied upon by either party or any agent or employee of either party, and neither party nor any agent or employee of either party is entitled to alter any provisions of this Lease by any verbal representations or agreements to be made subsequent to the execution of this Lease. The foregoing notwithstanding, if Resident holds over after the expiration of the Lease term pursuant to paragraph 5, Landlord may change any provision of this Lease without the consent of Resident in the manner prescribed by Civ. Code § 827.

44. PARAGRAPH HEADINGS: The paragraph headings are inserted only for convenience and are not intended to define or limit the scope or intent of any clause.

45. SEVERABILITY AND PROVISIONS REQUIRED BY LAW: If a provision or paragraph of this Lease is legally invalid, or declared by a court to be unenforceable, such provision or paragraph will be deemed deleted and the rest of this Lease will remain in effect. To the extent any provision of this Agreement is in direct conflict with any provisions of applicable law, such provision is hereby deleted. Any provision specifically required by applicable law which is not included in this Lease is hereby inserted as an additional provision of this Lease, but only to the extent required by applicable law and then only so long as the provision of the applicable law is not repealed or held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction.

46. EVENTS OF DEFAULT: Resident shall be guilty of material breach of this Lease if Resident: (a) fails to pay any rent or other sum payable under this Lease on the date it becomes due; (b) breaches any other provision, term, covenant or condition of this Lease; (c) vacates or abandons the Premises before expiration of the full term of this Lease, or any extension of the term; (d) permits the leasehold interest of Resident to be levied upon or attached by process of law; or (e) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

47. WAIVER: Landlord's failure to require strict compliance with any provision of this Lease or to exercise any rights arising under this Lease shall not be deemed a waiver of Landlord's right to enforce any such provision or to insist upon any such right. The fact that Landlord may have accepted late payment(s) on one or more occasions shall not be deemed a waiver of Landlord's right to insist upon timely payment of rent nor to exercise any remedy available for late payment of rent. Acceptance of rent following a breach of this Lease shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of such breach. No custom or practice which may develop between the Parties in the course of tenancy shall be construed to waive the right of Landlord to enforce any provision of this Lease.

48. USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION: For details on what personal information Landlord collects and for what purposes, and Resident's privacy rights and how to exercise them, visit Essex's Privacy Policy at www.essexapartmenthomes.com/privacy-policy.

49. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE: Time is of the essence with respect to the provisions of this Lease. This provision shall be interpreted in its strictest sense irrespective of the relative hardship to the Parties.

50. ATTORNEY'S FEES: In the event of any litigation relating to this Agreement or the rights or liabilities of any party arising under this Agreement, the prevailing party of such litigation shall be entitled to its costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in such litigation, not to exceed a maximum total of two thousand dollars ($2,000) fees and costs. If any such litigation is dismissed prior to trial, the parties agree that there shall be no prevailing party for purposes of an award of attorney's fees and/or costs. An unlawful detainer action shall be considered an action relating to this Lease and thus subject to this provision.

51. SURRENDER: Upon expiration or termination of this Lease, Resident shall vacate and surrender the Premises to Landlord vacant of all occupants and in the condition required to be maintained under this Agreement. Resident shall also return all keys and remote access devices (if applicable) to Landlord or pay Landlord's then applicable charge for non-returned keys and remotes (if applicable).

52. ATTACHMENTS/ADDENDA: Resident acknowledges receipt of a copy of the attachments/addenda listed below, which are incorporated into and made part of this Lease. Resident agrees to abide by said attachments/addenda in all respects. Any failure to comply with any of the attachments or addenda shall be deemed a breach of this Lease.

Community Handbook
Parking Agreement
Rent Concession Agreement
Renter's Insurance Addendum
SmartRent Addendum
Utilities Addendum
Mold Addendum - California
Pesticide Addendum

53. NON-DISCRIMINATION: There shall be no discrimination against or segregation of any persons on account of race, color, national origin, ancestry, creed, religion, sex and gender, gender identity, gender expression (including transgender individuals who are transitioning, have transitioned, or are perceived to be transitioning to the gender with which they identify), sexual orientation, genetic information, marital status(including registered domestic partnership status), familial status, age, source of income, national origin, ancestry, immigration status, citizenship, primary language, handicap, physical or mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, Civil Air Patrol status, military and veteran status or any other protected classification under state or federal law, in the sale, lease, sublease, transfer, use, occupancy, tenure or enjoyment of Premises, nor shall the Landlord or any person claiming under or through Landlord establish or permit any such practice or practices of discrimination or segregation with reference to the selection, location, number, use or occupancy of tenants, lessees, or vendees in the Premises, or any other consideration made unlawful by federal, state, or local laws, and/or retaliation for protesting illegal discrimination related to one of these categories.

54. REQUESTS FOR ACCOMMODATIONS OR MODIFICATIONS: A disabled person, for all purposes under this Lease, shall be provided reasonable accommodations or reasonable modifications to the extent necessary to provide the disabled person with an opportunity to use and occupy the Premises in a manner equal to that of a non-disabled person. If Resident believes Resident or a member of Resident's household requires an accommodation or modification as a result of a disability, Resident should contact Landlord to begin the interactive process.

55. CREDIT REPORTS: Resident expressly authorizes Landlord and/or Landlord's agent to disclose information about Resident and Resident's tenancy to credit reporting agencies including, but not limited to, the amount and timing of payments due pursuant to the Lease including payment of Monthly Base Rent, good behavior, problematic behavior, and any debt outstanding, which may then be used in a tenant record, credit report and/or credit score for the Resident. For the avoidance of doubt, Resident's failure to pay the full amount(s) owed to Landlord on the date such amount(s) is due pursuant to the Lease will result in a negative credit report submitted to a credit reporting agency. Further, Resident expressly authorizes Landlord and/or Landlord's agent to obtain Resident's consumer credit report, which Landlord may use if attempting to collect past due rent payments, late fees, or other charges from Resident, both during the term of the Lease and thereafter.

56. CAMERAS: Resident acknowledges and agrees that Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to use and/or install cameras at the Property and Resident hereby consents to Landlord's use of Resident's image and/or likeness, in each case for marketing and/or surveillance purposes.

57. SIGNATORIES: The individuals signing below as "Resident," whether or not in actual possession of the Premises, are jointly and severally responsible for all obligations arising under this Lease, including all obligations to pay rent. This Lease shall not be considered to be in full force and effect until signed by Landlord or Landlord's authorized agent. Landlord may, without liability, refuse to enter into this Lease and may refuse to allow Resident to occupy the Premises at any time prior to Landlord signing this Lease. Each Resident shall be fully liable for all obligations arising under this Lease, and Landlord may enforce the provisions of this Lease as against Resident if, for any reason or by any means, Resident obtains access to the Premises before such time as this Lease has been signed by Landlord or Landlord's authorized agent.

THE UNDERSIGNED EXPRESSLY UNDERSTAND(S) AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT PARAGRAPH 5 CONTAINS PROVISIONS UNDER WHICH THIS LEASE MAY AUTOMATICALLY RENEW AS A TENANCY FOR SUCCESSIVE TERMS MATCHING THE SHORTER OF THE INITIAL LEASE TERM IDENTIFIED IN PARAGRAPH 4 OR 12 MONTHS UPON THE EXPIRATION OF THE LEASE IF RESIDENT REMAINS IN POSSESSION AFTER THE EXPIRATION OF THE LEASE OR FAILS TO GIVE NOTICE OF RESIDENT'S INTENT NOT TO RENEW OR EXTEND BEFORE THE EXPIRATION OF THE LEASE.

RECREATIONAL FACILITY USE AND ACTIVITIES PARTICIPATION ADDENDUM

This Recreational Facilities Use and Activities Participation Addendum ("Addendum") dated 01/23/2025 is attached to and made a part of the lease agreement dated 01/23/2025 (the "Lease") by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation, as agent for Owner ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident") for the rental of the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property"). Landlord and Resident are collectively referred to herein as "Parties." All terms not specifically defined herein shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. Resident and Landlord agree as follows:

Resident, as well as Resident's Authorized Occupants, guests, and/or invitees (collectively "Guests"), may have access to recreational facilities at the Community, and/or Shared Amenities (defined below, if any) at neighboring properties, which may include a fitness center, pool, spa, sauna, business center, billiard room, tanning equipment or similar amenities (collectively "Recreational Facilities."). Landlord may offer Resident the opportunity to participate in activities, events, and/or services, such as socials, fitness classes, and other optional activities, which may or may not require payment of a fee prior to participation ("Activities").

Resident, for good and valuable consideration, including, but not limited to the opportunity to use the Recreational Facilities and participate in Activities, hereby acknowledges and agrees to the following terms governing use of the Recreational Facilities and participation in Activities at the Community:

1. RULES: To use the Recreational Facilities and/or participate in the Activities, Resident must be in material compliance with Resident's Lease including, but not limited to, current on all amounts due and payable under the Lease. Resident further agrees to abide by all of the rules and regulations which may be adopted from time to time, with or without notice to Resident, by Landlord, which may be set forth in the Community Handbook, posted at the Recreational Facilities, or otherwise conveyed to Resident verbally or in writing by Landlord by and through its employees or agents ("Rules"). Any Resident asked to leave a Recreational Facility and/or Activity for failure to comply with Resident's Lease or violation of the Rules shall not be deemed a reduction in housing service and shall not be grounds for a reduction in rent.

2. ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Resident understands and acknowledges that accidents sometimes occur during the use of the Recreational Facilities and/or participation in Activities. Resident further understands and acknowledges that Resident's use of the Recreational Facilities and/or participation in the Activities could result in loss of or damage to Resident's property, illness, serious injury to Resident's body or to others, and/or Resident's death. Resident has been informed of the risks. Understanding and acknowledging all possible risks, Resident hereby knowingly, voluntarily and willingly assumes all risks and dangers associated with Resident's use of the Recreational Facilities and/or participation in the Activities up to and including personal injury or death.

3. AUTHORIZED OCCUPANTS, GUESTS, INVITEES: The terms of this Addendum shall also apply to Resident's Authorized Occupants, guests, and/or invitees, together with the heirs, assigns, estates and legal representatives of them all, (collectively "Guests"). Resident's Guests must be accompanied by a resident of the Community at all times. Residents are responsible for all behavior of their Guests using the Recreational Facilities and/or participating in the Activities. Resident further acknowledges and agrees that some Recreational Facilities and/or Activities may not be open to Guests, at Landlord's sole discretion. Resident shall be solely responsible for the compliance of the Guests with the Lease, this Addendum, and the Rules.

4. CHANGES IN ACTIVITIES AND RECREATIONAL FACILITIES: Landlord may change, expand, remove or add Recreational Facilities at any time in its sole discretion. There is no set schedule of Activities and Landlord may decide to discontinue Activities at any time without notice.

5. ALCOHOL: At some Activities, alcohol may be served and/or purchased. Resident must be 21 or older to consume alcoholic beverages. Participants under the age of 18 must be with a responsible adult to attend any functions at which alcohol is served.

6. VOLUNTARY PARTICIPATION: Participation in Activities and use of Recreational Facilities is purely voluntary and at the Resident's or Resident's Guest's own risk. Prior to participating in any Activity or using any Recreational Facility or Shared Facility, Resident and Resident's Guests agree to fully ascertain, appreciate and understand the risks and assume same.

7. WAIVER AND RELEASE: In consideration of being allowed to use the Recreational Facilities and participate in the Activities, and having assumed all risks of same, Resident hereby expressly releases, waives, covenants not to sue the Owner of the Property, owner of the Recreational Facilities, Essex Property Trust, Inc., Essex Management Corporation, each of their affiliates and subsidiaries and each and every officer, agent, and employee of each of the foregoing entities (collectively, the "Released Parties") from all claims, causes of action, or demands of every kind which Participant may have in the future or that any person claiming through Resident may have in the future against any of the Released Parties by reason of any injury to person or property, or death, directly or indirectly resulting from, or in connection with, Resident's or Resident's Guest's use of the Recreational Facilities or participation in the Activities.

8. INDEMNITY: Resident agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each and every one of the Released Parties for any liability of any kind whatsoever arising from Resident's and/or Resident's Guest's use of the Recreational Facilities and/or participation in the Activities, except for claims arising out the gross negligence or willful misconduct of one of the Released Parties in failing to correct a dangerous situation at or in the Recreational Facilities after receiving notice of same.

9. SEVERABILITY: If any provision of this Addendum is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this Addendum.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND UNDERSTANDING. By signing below, Resident certifies that Resident is at least eighteen (18) years of age, has carefully read this RECREATIONAL FACILITIES USE AND ACTIVITIES PARTICIPATION ADDENDUM. Resident fully understands its terms, and understands that he/she has given up substantial rights by signing this Addendum and has signed it freely and voluntarily without any inducements, coercion, assurance or guarantee being made to me. RESIDENT INTENDS RESIDENT'S SIGNATURE TO BE A COMPLETE AND UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE, WAIVER AND AGREEMENT AS STATED HEREIN OF ALL LIABILITY TO THE GREATEST EXTENT ALLOWED BY LAW.

COMMUNITY HANDBOOK

Welcome! We are honored you have chosen an Essex community for your home. At Essex, if it's important to you, it's important to us. Our goal is to treat you with respect and make your experience here enjoyable. We strive to foster a lasting relationship and provide you with personal service and amenities to make life a little easier.

This Community Handbook contains our policies and house rules, which help make your community a comfortable, friendly and welcoming place for all. This Community Handbook is part of your lease agreement with us and needs to be followed the same as any other provision of your lease. Please take time to read through this Handbook and become familiar with it. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact an associate in the Community Office.

Important Contact Information

Our associates are here to assist you with any questions or concerns you may have. Please feel free to call or email during regular business hours. If you are unable to contact us during regular business hours, which are posted on our website listed in your Lease, we will be happy to arrange an appointment time that meets your needs. Below are some of the most common numbers you may need during your residency with us.

Community Office

Maintenance Service

For Emergency Service Requests, please contact us via the Community Phone.

For Non-Emergency Service Requests:

Online Resident Portal: https://san-marcos.residentservice.com

Via Phone: Call our Community Phone

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY ALWAYS CONTACT 911 FIRST IF NEEDED

Move-in Unit Inspection Form

We want you to be happy with your new home right from the start, so we'll provide you with a move-in inspection form to guide you in a thorough inspection of your Unit. The completed form will reflect our mutual agreement as to the condition of your Unit when you move in. If you don't fill it out and return the form within 48 hours that means nothing in your Unit needs to be repaired or cleaned.

Maintenance Services

Maintenance services are available to residents during the hours indicated at the beginning of this Handbook. Non- emergency maintenance requests should be submitted through the Online Resident Portal listed at https://san-marcos.residentservice.com.

When you move in, your Unit will be fully equipped with lightbulbs in all permanent fixtures. After that, you're responsible for the replacement of regular lightbulbs, but we'll take care of fluorescent, appliance, and exterior light fixtures. When those need replacing, please submit a maintenance request.

Maintenance Emergencies

If you have a maintenance emergency, please immediately call the number indicated in the "Contact Information" at the beginning of this Handbook.

What is a maintenance emergency?

- Fire, potential fire hazard, criminal activity, significant property damage, storm damage, flood, being trapped in an elevator, no electrical power or other electrical problem, no heat, no hot water, no water at all, smell of gas or your refrigerator has failed.
- A serious roof leak, water leak, plumbing leak, overflowing tub or flooding in your Unit.
- The only toilet in your Unit is not working or is overflowing is definitely a maintenance emergency – but please try to unclog it with a plunger before calling.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- Similarly, if your only tub or sink is broken or clogged, that is an emergency. If the water is not overflowing and/or you have another bathroom, we will address the problem the next working day.
- Your front door, sliding glass door or windows will not lock or are broken. We want you to be safe, so please call us immediately if your locks are not working.
- If you can't get into your Unit because the access gates or your garage door are not working, or the entrance is blocked.

If you no longer need us after calling in for a maintenance emergency, please call back so we can cancel the dispatch.

Lockout Service

We may assist with lockouts and admit any authorized occupant with appropriate identification into the Unit during office hours. Please note that this service, if provided, will be provided for a fee. Unfortunately, we are not able to provide after-hours lockout services. Please see the Access Cards, Keys, Remotes, Directories and Lockout Policy Addendum for more information. For properties with SmartRent access devices, please see your SmartRent Addendum for more information.

Pest Control

Our pest control company treats the community on a regular basis. If you require additional pest control assistance, contact the Community Office. We will be happy to help you get rid of any unwanted insect or pests.

Building Exterior and Grounds

We try to keep the grounds and public areas clean, neat and attractive for everyone to enjoy. Help us stay beautiful:

- Please do not leave personal belongings in the common areas. When we come across something that's been left out all night, we have to assume it is trash and dispose of it properly.
- Please make sure your garbage goes straight from your Unit to the community garbage bins, and to clear personal belongings from outside your front door.
- Please show respect for landscaped areas, shrubbery and trees. We work hard to keep the grounds looking great, and appreciate your help in keeping them that way.
- Please keep your holiday decorations tasteful and remove them no more than a week after the holiday, local parade or festival.
- All shopping carts should remain at the store. They are not to be brought to the Community.
- The design of our Community depends on a clean, uncluttered look to our windows. As a result, please don't place foil, stickers, decals, posters, tinfoil, colored blinds or any other window treatments in window areas.
- No alterations or attachments of any kind are to be placed on or affixed to any portion of the exterior of the building. Any objects that may deface the building are not permitted. Do not make holes in doors, exterior walls, windows or railings.

Patios and Balconies

Nothing should be placed on balcony railings and, for your safety, please limit the people and belongings on your balcony. A safe guideline is no more than 40 pounds per square foot. While balcony sizes vary, the maximum occupancy for a 4' x 8' balcony is 6 people, plus some standard patio furniture.

An attractive community can't exist without your cooperation, especially when it comes to maintaining good-looking patios and balconies. Bicycles, approved outdoor furniture and well-kept potted plants (subject to size limitations) are the only items permitted on patios and balconies (subject to management discretion). Leaving items outside is at your own risk; we encourage you to use appropriate storage facilities where available. Please keep your patio (including walls and railings) free of flags, garbage containers, boxes, appliances, indoor furniture, exercise equipment, debris, awnings, gazebos, bamboo or other privacy screens and tents.

If you have a private patio or balcony enclosed by a fence, railing, or other structure then you can use those private areas to dry laundry so long as you comply with the following:

- No more than two drying lines or racks may be in use at any one time.
- Items may not be left on the drying lines or racks for more than 24 hours (i.e., all items must be removed within 24 hours of being put out on the drying lines or racks).
- Drying lines or racks must be free standing (that means no, you cannot affix them to any part of the building).

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- No drying lines or racks may be attached or affixed in any manner to any portion of the building, fence, railing, wall, building support structure, or light fixtures.
- Drying lines or racks cannot be higher than the patio, balcony, or deck fence or railing.
- Drying lines or racks cannot be clearly visible from the sidewalk or street.
- Drying lines or racks cannot block entrance to or egress from the unit, create a health or safety hazard, or interfere with walkways or utility service equipment.
- Drying lines or racks cannot interfere with the maintenance of the Community.
- Clothes may not be draped over fence or balcony railings, or hung from any building fixtures.

If you want to install plants, shades or furniture, please check with your Community Manager first. He or she can help make sure your choices fit within your Community's guidelines and general appearance.

Satellite Dish/Antenna

We will allow you to install one (1) satellite dish or antenna (collectively referred to below as a satellite dish) for personal, private use in the Unit under the following conditions:

- The satellite dish must be three (3) feet or less in diameter.
- The satellite dish may only be installed on the inside balcony, patio or terrace that is under your exclusive control. The satellite dish, or any part of it, cannot extend beyond the balcony, patio or terrace railing. Allowable locations may not provide an optimal signal, or any signal. We can't promise that the Unit will provide a suitable location for receiving a satellite signal.
- You are prohibited from making physical modifications to the Unit and are prohibited from installing said satellite dish in the common areas of the Community, including, but not limited to, exterior walls, roofs, window sills, common balconies or stairways.
- You can't install the satellite dish in a manner that causes physical or structural damage to the Unit, excluding ordinary wear and tear, including, but not limited to, holes drilled through exterior walls.
- You must install, maintain and remove said satellite dish in a manner which is consistent with industry standards.
- You must indemnify, protect and defend us against, and hold us harmless from, all claims, losses, damages, costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses and court costs relating to any personal injury or Community damage arising from the installation, operation, maintenance and/or removal of said satellite dish.
- If requested, you must provide the Community Office with a copy of any liability insurance coverage maintained by Resident for said satellite dish. Landlord reserves the right to require that such insurance shall name Landlord as an "additional insured."

Personal Barbecue Grills

Due to locally enforced regulations from the International Fire Code, charcoal and propane barbecues as well as all other open-flame cooking devices cannot be operated on combustible balconies or within 10 feet of combustible buildings. Accordingly, Residents are not permitted to use any barbecue on the balcony, or under an overhang. Storage of these devices within your home, storage facility, garage or balcony is also prohibited. The only exception permissible is if the cooking device is an electric grill or utilizes liquefied-petroleum (including propane) and the gas container has a water capacity no larger than 2.5 pounds [nominal 1 pound (0.454kg) LP-gas capacity]. These accepted cooking devices have very small containers like the ones used for camping stoves.

Political Signs

A "political sign" is one that relates to any of the following: an election or legislative vote, including an election of a candidate to public office; the initiative, referendum or recall process; and issues that are before a public commission, public board or elected local body for a vote.

You may only post political signs in the window or door of your Unit if you comply with the following:

- The signs may not be more than 6 square feet in size; or posted or displayed in violation of any local, state or federal law.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- You may not install or allow a political sign to be installed that causes any damage to or alteration of the Unit such as drilling holes; nailing into outside walls, door frames, window sills, railings, etc.; or affixing tape or other sticky material in a way that will cause damage to paint or other finishes.
- Resident may post and shall remove any political signs in compliance with the time limits set by the ordinance for the jurisdiction where the Unit is located. Resident shall be solely responsible for any violation of any local ordinance. If no local ordinance exists or if the local ordinance does not include a time limit for posting and removing political signs on private property, political signs may not be posted more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of the election or vote to which the sign relates and must be removed ten (10) days following the date of the election or vote.
- Resident is strictly liable for any damages or injury that results from such installation and for the cost of repairs or repainting that may be reasonably necessary to restore the leased Unit to its condition prior to the posting of the political sign(s).

Be a Good Neighbor

Alcohol intoxication, disorderly conduct and excessive noise are not allowed in the Community. Anyone consuming alcohol at our Community must be at least 21 years old and in the privacy of your Unit. Alcohol is allowed in common areas only when permitted or approved by the Community Office.

Disturbances and Noises

Noise can be a nuisance and we ask all of our residents to be considerate of their neighbors when entertaining, using their television or stereo, or using appliances or vacuum cleaners late at night. If you live in an upstairs Unit, avoid running, jumping or slamming doors. If your Unit has some or all hard surface flooring (e.g. wood, tile, concrete), you are required to ensure at least 75% of the hard surface flooring is covered with a carpet or rug, with a particular focus on ensuring areas of high foot traffic in your Unit are covered. Please observe the quiet hours of your community, which are generally 10pm-7am, but may vary from community to community.

If you believe your neighbor is causing a disturbance or not observing the quiet hours, try politely talking to them before contacting the Community Office. They probably don't realize they were bothering anyone. If their response is not satisfactory, call the Community Office or our courtesy patrol. And if your neighbors come to you with a concern about noise coming from your Unit, please try your best to accommodate them.

Garbage Removal

Trash is regularly removed from our garbage receptacles. Please make sure you are putting your garbage in one of them. If the receptacle nearest you is full, please take your garbage to another one. Garbage bags left on the ground are a genuine health hazard and can attract unwanted pests. If you regularly have trouble finding an empty garbage receptacle, report the problem to the Community Office. Also, for your safety, once garbage is placed in a trash receptacle, please don't attempt to remove it.

- Trash must be disposed of properly, preferably in tightly tied plastic bags or closed containers. Please use a plastic bag or trash liner to carry refuse to the dumpster or trash chutes, where provided. This prevents waste from dripping on carpet or concrete and preserves the appearance and cleanliness of your home.
- Place all household refuse inside proper refuse containers, and do not place any items outside or around the containers. All boxes placed in these containers must be broken down, allowing for maximum usage of this service.
- Don't be a litterbug. Make sure that papers, gum, candy wrappers or any other trash is placed in appropriate receptacles.
- If we are required to repeatedly clean up excessive trash around your Unit, we may charge you for the time spent doing so.
- Do not empty ashtrays into the parking lot or dispose of other items from vehicles by leaving them in the parking area.
- Do not put furniture or other large items in the trash. Please make other arrangements for disposing of such items. You may be responsible for extra pickup charges due to inappropriate items in the dumpsters or dumpster area.
- If your Community has garbage chutes, use moisture-proof bags to carry waste to the trash drops on each floor to prevent stains on the carpeting. All garbage should be deposited directly into the garbage chutes and must be completely contained in sealed bags. We are not responsible for hauling away non-trash items such as old furniture, etc. If you have large, oversized disposable items that do not fit in garbage chutes, where provided, please notify us. DO NOT FORCE LARGE ITEMS INTO THE CHUTE. You will be held responsible for any cleanup costs due to garbage bag leaks, breakage or any noted garbage trails in the Community.
- Please remember to recycle and compost where available. If you have questions about recycling and/or composting procedures and opportunities at your Community, please ask the Community Office.

Pets

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

Your Community Management Team can tell you about any special restrictions, deposits, documentation or agreements required if you have a pet. We also have a few other basic rules and guidelines.

- If you're considering a new pet and would like more information, please contact your Community Office for details.
- Most communities do not allow more than two pets per Unit.
- Certain breeds are not allowed. A full list is contained in the Animal Addendum you will need to sign before bringing an animal home.
- We also can't allow any wild, exotic, endangered or poisonous creatures (animals, reptiles, birds, etc.) to be in residence at your Community.
- Animals must be housebroken, spayed and neutered, and have no vicious tendencies or history of threatening or causing physical harm to persons, property or other animals by biting, scratching, chewing, etc.
- Please make sure your animal does not disturb the quiet enjoyment of others by barking, scratching, whining, howling, crying or in any other way.
- Don't neglect your animal. If we suspect any animal is being neglected, mistreated or abandoned, we will contact Animal Control or a similar agency so the animal can be removed and cared for properly.
- Please watch your animals on patios or balconies – animals should not be left on patios or balconies while you are away. And while we don't want any animals injured, you cannot enclose any outdoor space with wire or screens or similar materials to contain the animal outdoors.
- Please keep your animal under control at all times. Dogs should be on a leash no longer than 8'. Cats must remain inside your Unit or be leashed or in a carrier when outside.
- You are responsible for any messes your animal creates. Please clean up after your animal both in your Unit and around the Community. If you have cats, dispose of litter in sealed trash bags in proper trash receptacles. Do not dispose of litter in toilets.
- You are responsible for any damage your animal may cause. When you move out, if there is evidence of fleas or other pests, you will be charged for the costs of fumigation or other appropriate treatment. Likewise, if your animal has damaged the Unit (carpet, woodwork, paint, etc.), you are responsible for the costs of repair.
- An aquarium is fine, but if it holds more than 10 gallons of water, you'll need insurance for it.
- For rules about other types of pets or accommodation animals, please check with the Community Office. They'll be happy to provide more information.

Weapons and Firearms

Displaying or discharging fireworks, guns, slingshots, or any type of firearm or weapon is strictly prohibited. Violation of this policy by any resident, occupant or guest will result in the *immediate termination of the lease contract.

Green Community

We require the cooperation and support of everyone in our Community in a wide range of sustainability and energy conservation initiatives and programs. Please ensure that all household members and guests comply with all the Community's sustainability and energy conservation practices and guidelines applicable to the Unit and the Community.

- Please operate any ENERGY STAR® rated appliances in the Unit in accordance with standard operating instructions. If you require instructions, please reach out to the Management Office.
- Immediately notify your Community Office if any appliance in the Unit is damaged in any way or not working properly.
- Do not tamper with, interrupt or replace any energy, water, carbon reduction, or other sustainable measures installed and maintained by Landlord, including, but not limited to, energy efficient bulbs; lighting controls, such as automatic sensors; sun shielding blinds and devices; thermostats and/or air-conditioning/heating controls; door/window weather stripping; and low-flow and water efficient devices, such as faucet aerators and showerheads.
- Please follow all recycling, composting and waste sorting and management practices as required by local ordinances and in accordance with Community policies.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- After using the amenities in common spaces, please turn off the lights, television, and other electrical equipment to reduce energy usage.

Caring for Your Unit, Appliances and Plumbing

Carpet and Vinyl Floor Coverings

We recommend that you vacuum at least once a week. Using plastic trays under plants can prevent water damage and bleaching, and acting quickly to clean up spills allows you to cope with them before they dry and become set in the carpet.

- Use only approved carpet and vinyl cleaners and agents.
- If you want to have your carpets cleaned, please let us know. We will be happy to schedule a cleaning for you (although it generally will be at your cost).

Counter Tops

- Do not place hot vessels directly on counter tops – use a trivet or pot holder.
- Cut all food items on a cutting board instead of on the counter, or you may damage the surface.
- For Units with granite countertops, please use non-abrasive and granite-specific cleaners.

Dishwasher

- To prevent the drain from clogging, scrape your dishes before loading.
- Load dishwasher-safe plastic and wooden items in the top rack.
- Also, please only use dishwashing detergent in the dishwasher. Other types of soap will cause excessive bubbles and may damage the floors, appliances and cabinets. If you have excess bubbles, use laundry softener to stop the bubbling and call us so we can assist.
- Carefully load dishes to not interfere with the action of the rinsing arm.

Living Conditions

You must keep your Unit clean and uncluttered to allow easy passage throughout. Windows and doors should not be blocked. Flammable materials may not be stored in the Unit.

We may require the removal of items, newspapers, trash, etc. that are deemed to be a fire or health hazard. Also, you may not add appliances, such as dishwashers, washing machines, dryers, freezers, etc. to the Unit without prior written consent of the Community Office.

Garbage Disposal

- The "garbage" disposal, is not for garbage. It's only for certain types of food waste. Nothing large should be placed in it.
- Run cold water before and during disposal operation.
- Occasionally sharpen the blades by running cold water, inserting ice cubes and operating the disposal.
- To deodorize, run cold water and insert orange or lemon peels.
- Please DO NOT use drain-cleaning chemicals. They're really rough on the pipes and the environment.

Please DO NOT dispose of bones, celery, onion peels, cornhusks, corn silks, watermelon seeds, artichoke leaves, coffee grounds, grease, oil, fat, pasta or rice, all of which will cause clogging and damage the disposal. In addition, don't put metal, glass, cloth or fish tank rocks down the disposal. It damages the blades. Also, take care not to drop silverware into the disposal.

- If the disposal will not operate when the switch is in the "On" position, turn the disposal off and locate and depress the red "Reset" button on the underside of the disposal unit. If the disposal still does not operate, contact the Community Office for help.

Refrigerator

Clean the interior and exterior of your refrigerator with a mild cleaning solution of baking soda and warm water. Avoid using any abrasive cleansers, gritty soaps and heavy-duty cleaning agents.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

Sinks/Drains

Keep your drains clear by not disposing any of the following in them:

- Grease: Collect it in a container and put in the garbage.
- Paper towels/rags: Discard these in the garbage. Do not flush down the toilet.
- Excessive toilet paper: Using large amounts of toilet paper does not give it time to dissolve, resulting in overflows.
- Excess hair: Remove hair from sink or tub; do not rinse down the drain.

Microwaves

Do not put anything metal in microwaves. This includes spoons, pots and pans with metal trim, recycled paper towels which have trace metals, aluminum foil, metal twist ties, poultry pins, meat thermometers, and Styrofoam plates (which may contain trace metals).

Washer and Dryer

If you have a washer/dryer, clean the interior and exterior with a mild solution of baking soda and warm water – please don't use abrasive, gritty or heavy-duty cleansers. For the best performance, empty the dryer lint tray after each load. Also, please leave your washer open when not in use to allow it to dry out and prevent mildew growth.

Fireplace

If your Unit has a fireplace, follow these basic care and safety precautions:

- Do not use flammable liquids such as gasoline, kerosene or lighter fluid.
- Burn only seasoned wood, cut to the proper length. Use only paper to start fires. Do not burn tires, trash or other items in your fireplace.
- If you use manufactured fireplace logs, follow the manufacturer's instructions.
- Open your damper before starting a fire; always use an iron fireplace grate and keep the fireplace screen closed until all embers are cold. It only takes a spark to start real trouble, so please be careful and stay safe.
- Dispose of the ashes when the embers are completely cold. For your safety, wait at least 48 hours for the embers to cool.

If you have a gas fireplace:

- Be sure to keep the glass clean and the vents unobstructed and able to do their job.
- NOT TO PLACE ANYTHING IN THE FIREPLACE. they are natural gas burning and there should be no wood, paper, gasoline, kerosene or lighter fluid.

If you believe your fireplace is not working properly, please let us know so we can call a technician.

Fire Sprinklers

If there is a fire suppression sprinkler system in the ceiling of your Unit, leave the sprinkler heads alone. They are sensitive and can be easily broken off. If they are broken off or accidentally triggered, it will cause immediate flooding in your Unit, (and possibly your neighbor's) and you will be responsible for the cost of cleaning it up.

If a sprinkler head is broken, immediately submit an emergency maintenance service request and call the fire department to report the breakage and minimize damages due to flooding.

Tips for Preventing Mold & Mildew

As part of your Lease, you signed a Mold Addendum. That document controls our respective legal obligations, and we wanted to provide you with some additional tips for preventing organic growth within your Unit. You can help minimize organic growth by taking the following precautions:

- Open windows frequently when the weather is dry to allow an exchange of air and permit the introduction of sunlight throughout your Unit. Even in winter, cracking your windows after showers or cooking can help mitigate excessive moisture from getting trapped inside. It may help if you run the fan on your furnace to circulate fresh air through your Unit during these times.
- In damp or rainy weather conditions, keep windows and doors closed.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- If possible, maintain a temperature of between 55° and 75° Fahrenheit within your Unit at all times.
- Regular cleaning (including dusting, vacuuming, mopping and use of environmentally safe household cleaners) is important to remove household dirt and debris that mold feeds on. Thoroughly dry any spills on carpeting.
- Periodically clean and dry the walls and floors around the sink, bathtub, shower, toilets, windows and patio doors using a common household disinfecting cleaner.
- Regularly, wipe down and dry areas where moisture sometimes accumulates, like countertops, windows and windowsills.
- Use any preinstalled bathroom fan when bathing or showering and allow the fan to run until all excess moisture has vented from the bathroom.
- Use the exhaust fans in your kitchen when cooking or while the dishwasher is running, and allow the fan to run until all excess moisture has vented from the kitchen.
- Limit houseplants to keep the moisture level in your Unit at a minimum.
- Ensure that your clothes dryer vent is properly connected and clean the lint screen after every use.
- When washing clothes in warm or hot water, make sure condensation does not build up within the washer and dryer closet; if condensation does accumulate, dry with a fan or towel.
- If you live in a humid climate, a small dehumidifier will help regulate humidity levels in your Unit and create a more comfortable environment.
- Do not overfill closets or storage areas.
- Do not allow damp or moist stack of clothes or other cloth or paper materials to lie in piles for an extended period of time. Let us know immediately if you spot any of the following:
  - Evidence of a water leak or excessive moisture in your Unit, storage room, garage, or any common area.
  - Evidence of mold or mildew-like growth that cannot be removed by simply applying a common household cleaner and wiping the area.
  - Mold or mildew that reappears despite regular cleaning.
  - A failure or malfunction with your heating, ventilation or air-conditioning system. Do not close or cover any of the heating, ventilation or air-conditioning ducts in your Unit.
  - Inoperable windows or doors.

Community Recreational Amenities

We offer a wide variety of recreational amenities at our Communities. Below are general policies with respect to these amenities. Some of the following may not apply to your Community, so only read those sections that relate to the amenities available at your Community. If you are not sure what those are, please contact the Community Office.

Amenities may change during your time with us, and, at any time, we may need to change our Policies and House Rules. This means we reserve the right, at our sole discretion, without prior notice, to change the hours of such facilities or to discontinue the Resident's use of all such facilities. Any such changes or termination of such facilities shall in no way serve to lessen the Resident's obligation under the rental agreement or lease, including the amount of the monthly rent, nor will this serve as a basis for a Resident's early termination of a lease.

Use of all recreational amenities are at your own risk. Please make sure you know and understand how to operate all equipment before using it. If you do not feel comfortable with how to operate something, please look it up. Also, be courteous of your neighbors. If someone is waiting, please limit use to 30 minutes, this applies to all recreational amenities. And while we generally allow each household to bring two guests into our various community recreational areas, we may limit guest access at any time to ensure the facilities are available to our residents. Please be advised that our recreational amenities are not supervised; use of the amenities is at your own risk. To keep everyone safe, a responsible adult (that means they are paying attention to the people they are with) must accompany persons under the age of 14 when using any of the pool, fitness center or spa facilities at your Community.

Business Center

Certain Communities have been equipped with business centers for use of their Residents.

- Business center hours are as posted and subject to change.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- No food or beverages are allowed in the business center.
- Please treat the equipment correctly. If assistance is needed regarding operation or for repairs, contact the Community Office.

With respect to our computers:

- Keep it clean. Do not access icons, system files, chat rooms, newsgroups, list servers or bookmarks, access or print pornographic material, violate copyright laws or otherwise use the intellectual property of others without permission or download to disks or other storage or personal devices.
- We do not have any responsibility to monitor or prevent access to any sites that may be objectionable, and we cannot and do not guarantee that any material available on any computer or any Internet site is current, accurate, inoffensive or suited to any particular user's purpose. We are not responsible or liable for any damages sustained by you or your guests or others with respect to the use of the center/area, or any computer located in the center/area.
- All Residents must have on proper attire at all times when using the center. That means shirt and shoes, no swimming attire, etc.
- Please do not unplug, switch or tamper with any of the cables or computer equipment.

Fitness Center

Some Communities provide a fitness center.

The Community fitness center is reserved for the use of our residents and their guests (but only so long as guest use doesn't interfere with use of other residents). If it gets crowded, we may ask guests to leave (at our discretion). Guests may be required to be registered at the Community Office prior to their use of the facilities and sign a waiver.

Hours of operation are posted at the facility and/or the Community Office.

We shall not be held liable for any damages or personal injuries sustained by residents and guests in the use of the fitness center equipment. If you are unfamiliar with the equipment, please refrain from using it until you have received proper instruction. Residents with heart or similar conditions are advised not to use the equipment without first consulting their physician. Shirts and shoes are required. Food, glass and alcoholic beverages are not permitted.

Swimming Pools/Spas

Some of our communities offer a pool, spa or hot tub for your enjoyment. Pool hours are posted at the Community. Please be advised that the pool may be closed occasionally for your safety, due to severe weather or chemical treatments beyond those that are done on a daily basis. Also, the heating of pools may vary from community to community and seasonally as well.

For your enjoyment and everyone's safety, we enforce the following policies and rules:

- No diving allowed.
- We reserve the right to regulate the use of the pool.
- A lifeguard is not provided. Swim at your own risk.
- Residents in the pool area may be required to show identification.
- A resident must accompany guests. Also, we may require guests to be registered with the Community Office.
- Swimmers must wear bathing suits or trunks. Cut-offs and street clothes are not permitted. Swimmers wearing attire deemed offensive by Management may be asked to leave the pool area.
- Chairs, tables, umbrellas and other pool accessories provided by us are for safety and comfort. Please do not remove them from the pool area.
- To keep the pool operating properly, no foreign objects such as pool furniture, plastic cups or liquids are to be put in the pool or spa.
- Please remove barrettes, hairpins and jewelry to prevent their loss or damage to the pool equipment.
- Rafts, floats, inner tubes, etc., may not be permitted in pool at Management's discretion. Safety equipment, such as swim vests and floaties, are always allowed.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- Glass containers and alcoholic beverages are not permitted in or around the pool area. If you see broken glass, let us know immediately.
- Diapers may not be worn in the pool.
- If you're not feeling well, do not use the pool and spa. That means that if you have diarrhea, steer clear. Once you are feeling better, however, come back and enjoy the water.
- Bicycles, roller skates and skateboards are prohibited in the pool area.
- Don't tamper with the gates, latches or pool fences. Please report broken gate latches to the Community Office.
- Animals are prohibited in the pool area unless they are required to be there in order to assist a person with a disability.
- Be considerate of others, and keep all volumes (music, voices, etc.) at a level that won't bother other people in the pool area.
- We are not responsible for accidents in the pool or pool area. Please become familiar with the location of the emergency phone and safety equipment.

Additional Cautions Regarding Spas

For your own protection, we suggest you observe a 10-minute time limit when in the spa. Anyone pregnant or who has a medical condition should check with their doctor before using any outdoor spa.

We need to be very clear that you should not, under any circumstances, put soap in the spa. It can clog the filters and make the spa unusable for several days, and violators will end up paying the repair bill.

Please familiarize yourself with the location of the emergency shut-off button, in case an emergency occurs.

Laundry Rooms

Laundry rooms are common areas, so please be advised that we aren't responsible for damages or loss of clothing and personal items from the laundry rooms.

Some laundry room guidelines:

- Don't sit or stand on the worktable(s). They are designed for laundry folding and sorting.
- Don't overload the machines – they won't work well, and could break down.
- Please make sure to empty your pockets before washing your clothes.
- Promptly remove clothes at the end of the cycle. Otherwise, someone else may do it for you and your Spiderman underwear will be the talk of the community.
- When a machine isn't working, please call the phone number listed on the laundry room wall and inform the representative of the machine number. Please notify the Community Office if the problem persists.

Community Barbecue Grills

Some Communities have common area grills for your use and enjoyment. If you use these facilities, please clean up after yourself. Some communities require the barbecues to be reserved, especially those that require a propane tank – please check with the Community Office.

Exercise extreme caution disposing of coals, and don't dispose of them in landscaped areas. Instead, wait 24 hours for the coals to completely cool and then put them in a garbage receptacle.

Play Areas

- Residents of all ages are prohibited from playing on stairs, in trash receptacle areas, and laundry rooms or in any potentially dangerous area.
- Please do not mark, write, or paint on buildings, walls, sidewalks or landscaped areas.
- Adults are responsible for the behavior of children.
- Finally, but most importantly, all residents should use caution when driving throughout the Community. Watch closely for younger residents and their guests at play.

Tennis, Basketball, Racquetball and Other Sport Courts

At Communities where these courts are available, the hours of operation are posted. These rules apply to all courts.

- Community Management reserves the right to regulate the use of all courts. Courts are available on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- Only athletic shoes may be worn on courts.
- Residents must accompany their guests in or around court areas.
- Residents in court areas may be asked to show identification.
- Glass containers and food are not permitted in or around the court areas.
- Don't tamper with court gates, latches, fences, nets, lights or equipment.
- Keep music and noise at a level that only you and your guests can enjoy.
- We are not responsible for accidents or injury.

Roof Decks/Mezzanines

At Communities where these amenities are available, the hours of operation may be limited. These rules apply to all roof decks/mezzanines.

- Community Management reserves the right to regulate the use of all roof decks/mezzanines.
- Residents must accompany their guests in or around roof decks/mezzanines areas.
- We are not responsible for accidents or injury.
- Roof decks/mezzanines may be available for rental. Please contact the Community Office for details.

Parking

Parking availability varies from community to community; however, the following applies to all of our Communities. For additional information regarding parking, please review applicable addenda to your lease. It is really important you read and follow the parking addendum or else your car could be towed at your cost, especially if a parking permit needs to be displayed and you fail to do so.

- We need to keep things safe, so no double parking, parking in red curb areas or blocking of pedestrian ramps or dumpsters. Generally, tandem parking is the exception, not the rule, and is only permissible at those Communities where it is specifically authorized. Please check with the Community Office and follow signs with respect to parking at your Community.
- Handicapped spaces are not assigned to specific Residents, and are available to vehicles bearing handicapped identification. The Police Department will assess steep fines for vehicles violating laws relating to dedicated handicapped spaces.
- Obey all parking signs, speed limits, directional instructions or other posted instructions. Any person driving or moving a vehicle on the premises must hold a current, valid driver's license.
- Residents are responsible for any vehicles belonging to guests, employees or invitees. We make no guarantees as to the availability of unassigned or visitor parking.
- To the extent parking is assigned at your Community, we reserve the right in our sole discretion to change your assigned space at any time and from time to time upon prior written notice.
- We are not responsible for any damage, vandalism or loss that occurs on the grounds. All parking is at the driver's own risk.
- The speed limit at the Community is 5 miles per hour.
- Car washing and performing vehicle maintenance is not permitted on the Community or with Community utilities unless a designated car washing area is provided.
- No motorized vehicle will be operated on sidewalks, walkways or any pedestrian area (unless, of course it is an assistance device for someone with mobility impairment).

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

- Storing motorized vehicles in backyards, inside Units, or on patios or balconies is not allowed.
- Racing, gunning motors, squealing tires and loud radio playing in vehicles are not allowed.
- Current and updated license tags are required at all times.
- Resident shall obtain parking authorization for each vehicle that it owns and intends to park on the Community.
- Vehicles that do not have current parking authorization may be subject to towing at the vehicle owner's expense if they appear to be: (a) inoperable; (b) abandoned; or (c) not owned by a current Resident.
- Automobiles will be deemed inoperable or abandoned if any one of the following occurs:
- 1) The automobile is not currently registered as evidenced by a license plate sticker or registration
- 2) The vehicle remains in the same parking space for more than two (2) weeks, or;
- 3) The physical condition of the automobile would render it inoperable (e.g. multiple flat tires, etc.).
- Vehicles that do not have current parking authorization will be determined to be not owned by a current Resident.
- Parking violations may be dealt with by towing, loss of parking privileges on the Community or possibly eviction, at our discretion.

Campers, trailers, trucks, boats and recreational vehicles are prohibited without prior written authorization. Don't park them in areas reserved for cars.

Garages

If garages are available at your Community, you may inquire at the Community Office about leasing one. Additional rent is often required to lease a garage, and there's a security deposit for a garage door opener (the security deposit is refunded upon return of the garage door opener).

Additional monthly rent and security deposits do not limit your liability for property damages, cleaning replacements, or personal injury.

If you use a garage, here are some basic guidelines and rules:

- Garages are for vehicle parking only. Storing of personal items other than vehicles, or any flammable liquids in your garage is prohibited.

Electronic Vehicle Charging Stations

At some Communities we have electric vehicle charging stations (EVCS) available for use by our Residents. You may only park in the space designated for using the EVCS while actually charging your vehicle (your electric vehicle). If you are parking there when not charging your car, you may be towed (and the expense for towing is on you). You also need to pay for the use of the EVCS. Only charge your vehicles at charging stations where available.

Use of the EVCS is subject to Community rules, regulations, posted signage and other instructions made available to you by us.

The EVCS is provided to Resident in its "AS-IS," "WHERE-IS" and "WITH ALL DEFECTS" condition. We expressly disclaim all warranties or representations of any kind, whether express or implied, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability, suitability and fitness for a particular purpose. Landlord makes no warranties or representations that the EVCS will act in any particular way, meet any requirements or expectations or that the use of the EVCS will be uninterrupted, timely, secure or error-free.

To the greatest extent allowed by law, by using an EVCS, you assume all risk of harm, release and waive all claims against us from and against all claims relating to the EVCS by you whether the use is authorized or unauthorized, even if caused by the negligence of us.

Pursuant to California Civil Code §1947.6 we will approve written requests of Residents to install, at your cost, an EVCS at a parking space allotted to you under certain circumstances in California. If you'd like to know more, please contact the Community Office.

Bicycles

Please store bicycles inside your Unit, enclosed patio, balcony storage areas, or bicycle storage area if provided. Do not store bicycles under stairways. We are not responsible for lost or stolen bicycles.

If a Bike Room is available at your Community, use of the Bike room is at your own risk. We are not responsible for lost or stolen bicycles stored here either. It is your responsibility to secure bikes with your own lock. Also, do not let anyone else into the bike room, and make sure the door is secured upon leaving.

For your safety, wear a bicycle helmet. Bicyclists should always yield to pedestrians.

Safety Guidance

Your personal security, and that of your family and guests, is up to you. Regularly taking common-sense precautions can help you develop the awareness you need to protect yourself, your family and friends, as well as your personal property. We encourage you to consistently follow the guidelines listed below.

When you are at home:

- Lock your doors and windows.
- Use your deadbolt or night latch.
- Never answer your door unless you know who is there. Use the peephole or window to confirm who is on the other side.
- If you are worried because you have lost a key, contact the Community Office to have the locks changed. While there is a charge to change the lock, it's better to be safe than sorry.
- Keep emergency telephone numbers (police, fire and emergency medical) near the telephone.
- If you have broken locks, latches, doors, windows or smoke detectors, contact the Community Office immediately with a repair request.
- Let the Community Office and trusted neighbors know if you are going to be gone for an extended period of time. While neither can assume responsibility if a problem occurs, their increased awareness may play a role in prevention.

When you are away from your Unit:

- Lock your doors and remember to use the deadbolts.
- Immediately report malfunctioning gate locks, or dark stairwells and parking areas.
- Close and lock your windows and sliding patio or balcony doors.
- Don't hide your front door key under the doormat.
- If you have an entry code, don't give it to anyone.

When you are driving and parking your car:

- Lock your car doors and never leave your parked car until the doors are locked and the windows are completely rolled up.
- Don't leave garage remotes, gate fobs or your keys in the car.
- Don't leave valuables in your car.
- Check the back seat before you get into the car.

Solicitation

Solicitation is prohibited in the Community. Except as prohibited by applicable law, soliciting of any kind by Resident, Resident's guests or Resident's invitees is a material violation of this Agreement. If Resident is contacted by a solicitor, even if that person resides at the Community, please contact Landlord immediately.

Access Gates

Some Communities are furnished with electronically controlled access gates.

Access gates are designed to open with an access gate card or remote control device. The Community Office will provide you with a card or remote, and will demonstrate how to use it to open the access gate. If you lose an access device, you will need to pay the cost to replace it.

Do NOT try to follow someone else through the gate. The gates are timed for one vehicle only and the gate may close on you or your vehicle if you try follow the car in front of you. Trust us: Waiting the few extra seconds to open the gate with your own access device takes a lot less time (and money) than repairing your car after a gate closes on it. Although the access gates contribute to the peace of mind of our residents, they are not security and, the presence of the gates does not guarantee that crime can or will be prevented. In particular, please be aware that non-residents may attempt entry by closely following a resident who is entering the Community. In addition to allowing unauthorized visitors entry to the Community, this practice can damage the trailing vehicle and compromise the function of the access gate.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

Because We Care, Please Remember...

A fail-safe system or device just doesn't exist. Safety devices such as alarm systems, courtesy patrols, patrol cars, and access gates are not guarantees against crime. All systems are subject to personnel absenteeism, human error, mechanical malfunctions and tampering.

In the end, your safety is your business, and we urge you to plan and take action as if safety systems and devices didn't exist. Don't depend on outside systems for security – the best safety measures you can take are the common-sense ones you carry out yourself.

Leaving Us?

If your needs change and you need to relocate, please let us help you find another Community. We have quite a lot of options and will make it easy for you. Speaking of easy, here are some guidelines for you to make the process of leaving your current Community as easy as possible.

Let Us Know

As stated in your lease, you need to let us know, in writing, at least 30 days in advance of your anticipated departure date.

Preparing for Your Move-Out

We want your last few days with us to be as smooth as possible. We ask that you return your Unit to us at the same level of cleanliness as it was when you moved in. That said, here are some helpful tips;

- Cleaning includes flooring, too! It was new or freshly steam-cleaned when you moved in so make sure to give it a good vacuum and wipe-down. If you don't want to hassle with scheduling a company to steam-clean your carpets before you move out, check with the Community Office for pricing of a professional carpet clean. We can simply deduct this amount from your deposit (or send you a bill) for this as well.

Take a look at our cleaning checklist to make sure you have everything covered.

- Your Community Office can provide pricing for a professional cleaner which can be deducted from your security deposit or billed to you upon move out.
- Remember to let the post office know you're moving. Visit www.usps.com for more details.
- Although you have told us you are moving, it is not official until you return all keys to us. You can return your keys to the Community Office during business hours or after business hours at properties offering after-hours drop box. Please place them in an envelope labeled with your name and unit number.

Cleaning and Repairs

The following are our internal guidelines and estimates regarding the costs for cleaning and any necessary repairs. We will evaluate each Unit on a case-by-case basis, but this will give you some idea of what to expect if you are not able to return the Unit to us in the same condition you received it (reasonable wear and tear excepted, of course).

If, prior to moving out, you're unable to clean the Unit to the same level of cleanliness as received and leave it in the condition presented on move-in (normal wear and tear excepted), or if additional service is required or items missing or damaged to the point that they must be replaced when you move out, you will be charged for the current cost to repair, clean and/or replace, including labor and service charges. If your security deposit is insufficient to cover the charges, the amount will be billed to you directly.

Moving can be stressful and hectic, so we've provided a list of areas you should clean before departing. Although this is not a complete list, we hope it will help maximize the amount of your returned security deposit.

Tub, showers and toilet: A tub cleaner should work on most dirt, stains and mildew, as well as rings, bottle marks and soap buildup. A non-abrasive cleanser and scrub brush can tackle heavier dirt. Make sure the shower doors and soap dishes are clean as well. Both the interior and exterior of your toilet should be clean, with no marks or discoloration.

Countertop, mirror, sinks and faucets: Ensure these surfaces are free of water spots, rings, smears, residue or dirt.

Stove: Clean under the stovetop and drip pans, which you can lift out by pulling on the burner (please make sure the stove top and oven are cool first). See if the oven door and top are harboring burnt-on food. Check the exhaust fan above the oven for grease, too.

Microwave: Look under the glass plate for food particles or drips. The interior and door need to be free of stuck-on food, drips, splatters and discolorations.

Refrigerator and dishwasher: Clean any stains or spills from both the interior and exterior of your dishwasher and refrigerator. You may need to remove the refrigerator shelves/drawers and clean separately.

Washer/Dryer: Check the interior and detergent/bleach reservoir for any detergent stains. Your dryer may be dusty, so clean out the interior and lint trap.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

Garage, carport, storage closet and patio: Complete sweep and clean. We will need an estimate from our cleaners for any heavy stains or discoloration.

Walls: Remove all screws and nails, and carefully fill the holes with spackle. You can clean most scuffs with a melamine sponge. If spot-painting is not sufficient to restore the condition of the walls, we may need to charge you for a full repaint (prorated based on an amortized period of 3 years).

Floors: All flooring should be free of any spots, stains or fraying not noted on your move-in inspection. Please note that dirty flooring is not considered normal wear and tear. We do not recommend using your own carpet cleaning machine, which can cause damage by oversaturating the carpet and leaving detergent residue behind. An ideal option is to contact us and arrange a carpet clean with our contracted carpet cleaning provider. We'll deduct the fee from your deposit and save you the hassle.

- Clean any drawers and closets and remove all liners.
- Dust all the ceiling fixtures, including ceiling fans - they can harbor a lot of dirt.
- Clean windows, sills and blinds.
- Clean all door knobs and doors, including your front and patio doors.
- Clean all light switches and outlets.
- Replace any burned out lightbulbs.
- Vacuum the exterior of exhaust fans, air ducts and air returns if they are dusty.

We strongly suggest that you request a pre-move-out inspection and be present for the move-out inspection, which are your opportunities to review the condition of the Unit and any charges with us.

Cleaning and Repair Estimates

Please keep in mind that these are estimates only and that every case is different. If we do have to assess charges, you will be charged the actual cost of repairs; the following prices are estimates only. If we incur a higher cost for replacing an item, you will be responsible for paying the higher cost. Please note that this is not an all-inclusive list, and you may be charged for the replacement of items not on the list. Unless otherwise indicated, costs are per item.

miscellaneous cleaning or repair services, other than that required to remedy damage caused by ordinary wear and tear.

Damages or cleaning due to smoke from any source, including cigarettes, shall not be considered normal wear and tear. If damages and cleaning are necessary due to smoke, you are responsible for charges including sealing of walls or floors and extra cleaning and painting.

Carpet and Vinyl Flooring

Carpet and vinyl flooring are expected to last for 5 years. If we determine that it is necessary to repair or replace the carpet or vinyl flooring at the end of your tenancy, other than to remedy ordinary wear and tear, you will be charged the cost of repair or replacement. Due to the inability to color match new and existing carpeting and vinyl flooring, it is often necessary to replace throughout the Unit even if stains or other defective conditions are not present in every room, and you will be responsible for payment of the cost of the entire replacement, less any depreciation.

24 months	60% of cost	48 months	20% of cost

Pet Damage

If we detect possible pet urine in your Unit, charges may be incurred for pet urine detection, which typically ranges from $50-$100 per Unit as well as subfloor sealing, which typically ranges from $50 to $350 depending on the size of the Unit and the areas to be sealed.

Paint

Paint is expected to last for 3 years. If we determine it is reasonably necessary to paint all or part of the rental premises at the end of your tenancy, other than to remedy ordinary wear and tear, you will be charged the cost, based upon your length of residency.

Acknowledgement

As stated at the outset, the policies and house rules outlined above in the Community Handbook are terms of your Lease and will be enforced as such. By signing below, you acknowledge that you have received and read the Handbook and you agree to comply with all of the policies and house rules contained within it.

NOTE: This acknowledgement becomes part of your Lease. This is a binding Legal Document. Read it carefully before signing.

PARKING AGREEMENT

This Parking Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into on 01/23/2025 by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation, as agent for Owner of the Community ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident"). Resident has rented from Landlord the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property") pursuant to the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease"). Landlord and Resident agree as follows:

1. Resident hereby acknowledges that this Agreement is separate from, and independent of, the Lease and does not constitute a housing service offered to Resident pursuant to the Lease.
2. Resident must be a current tenant in material compliance with Resident's Lease including, but not limited to, current on all amounts due and payable under the Lease in order to enter into this Agreement and continue to use Resident's Parking Space. If Resident(s)'s tenancy at the Property ends for any reason, Resident(s) and Landlord agree to mutually terminate this Parking Agreement as of the date of the agreed-upon, court-ordered, or noticed termination of the tenancy. If Resident is not in material compliance with Resident's Lease and/or this Agreement, Resident acknowledges and agrees that Landlord may withdraw Resident's permission to utilize the Parking Space until such time that Resident cures the breach of Resident's Lease and/or this Agreement ("Suspension Period").
3. Resident acknowledges the accuracy of the information provided below and agrees not to have any vehicles on the Property other than those below. Resident shall notify Landlord within three calendar days of any changes to the below information.

4. Resident shall pay, per month, the sum total of all amounts listed in the above table under "PARKING FEE PER MONTH" ("Parking Fee") for use of the Garage, Carport, or Parking Space(s) (collectively "Parking Space") ("Parking Fee"). The Parking Fee shall be paid in full, in advance, on or before the first day of each month under the same terms and conditions for the payment of Rent set forth in the Lease.
5. For each vehicle identified in the chart in Paragraph 3, Resident is permitted to utilize the Parking Space on the Effective Date listed for such vehicle and shall continue from the first day of the month immediately following on a month-to-month basis until terminated, excepting any Suspension Period. If the Suspension Period exceeds three consecutive months, this Agreement shall terminate and the Parking Space will be released.
6. Resident acknowledges that all charges incurred under this Agreement, changes to this Agreement, increases or reduction in services or fees related to this Agreement are separate from the Lease; however, for the sole convenience of Resident, and not to reduce any rights of Landlord under this Agreement, Resident may make payments owed under this Agreement concurrently or combined with rental payments for the above-referenced Premises as defined in the Lease.

7. Landlord and Resident agree that the actual cost to Landlord when Resident pays by a check which is subsequently dishonored by the bank is difficult or impossible to ascertain, but the Parties agree that Landlord does, in the event of a dishonored check, incur certain costs, such as additional bookkeeping and administrative charges, bank charges, lost opportunity cost of the late payment, etc. The Parties accordingly agree that, any time the Landlord does not receive payment due to Resident's check being dishonored, or returned for Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF), Resident agrees to pay a charge of $25 for the first dishonored check and $35 for any subsequent dishonored check. Both parties agree that the payment of these sums does not constitute a license to pay by dishonored check.

8. If a parking permit is required and it was lost or stolen, contact SanMarcos@essex.com for the replacement cost. Temporary permits will NOT be issued. The lost and/or stolen permit must be returned to a Community employee if found. The lost and/or stolen permit number will be invalid and any vehicle displaying it subject to tow.

9. The Parking Space shall be for the use of Resident's vehicle(s) only. No subleasing, assignment, or licensing of space allowed.

10. Resident accepts the Parking Space as being in good condition and will pay Landlord for repairs, cleaning, and removal of refuse necessary due to negligence or misuse while under Resident's control. At the termination of this Agreement, the Parking Space will be left free of any debris, broom swept, and undamaged. Resident is responsible for the costs of repair for all damage to the Parking Space caused during the term of this Agreement.

11. No improvements or alterations shall be made without the prior written consent of Landlord and Resident agrees to protect the walls and all fixtures, and not to place any nails, screws or books upon the doors, floors or garage walls. No other locks, keys or security devices may be added to the garage

12. The Parking Space shall not be used for storage of goods. At no time may Resident maintain within the garage any article dangerous or detrimental to life of the health of the occupants of the Community, nor may there be stored, kept or handled any straw excelsior, cotton, paper stock, rags, junk or any other flammable material that may create a fire hazard. The use of any electrical equipment inside any garage/carport/parking area is strictly prohibited.

13. Resident hereby agrees to comply with all rules and regulations issued by Landlord whether posted at the Premises, contained in the Community Handbook or set forth in the Lease for the Premises or otherwise issued by Landlord. Resident acknowledges that the failure to do so may result in the towing of the offending vehicle at the vehicle owner's sole cost and expense and also is a material breach of the Lease, which may lead to the termination of Resident's tenancy. The parties hereto agree that Landlord may modify or change any parking rules or regulations at any time upon ten (10) days' written notice.

14. Landlord does not provide any insurance insuring Resident's vehicle or other personal belongings. Landlord has no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Resident's property, whether by fire, theft, vandalism, mysterious disappearance or otherwise while any vehicles are stored within the Parking Space.

15. Resident will indemnify, hold harmless, and defend Landlord from all claims, demands, actions or causes of action that are hereinafter made or brought about by others as a result of, or arising out of, Resident's use of the Parking Space.

16. Any stored vehicles or other items shall be deemed abandoned if not removed within ten (10) days after termination of this Agreement. Upon such abandonment, Landlord may tow vehicle or have it removed at Resident's sole expense. Any personal property left will be disposed of in accordance with applicable law.

17. If this Agreement provides for the assignment of a specific assigned Parking Space, then Landlord shall have the right to reassign the specific space for another assigned space upon ten (10) days' written notice to Resident.

18. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this Agreement. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

RENT CONCESSION AGREEMENT

Resident Name: Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha

Unit #010138
Address: 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806

Concession Details:
Application fee reduction or waiver of $48

Total Concession Credit: $48

All terms not specifically defined herein shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. "One Time Only", "Resident Referral", "Application fee" and "Deposit Reduction or Waiver" concessions are not conditioned on future performance under Resident's Lease. For all other concessions, Resident acknowledges that the concession is offered in return for the Resident's execution of a fixed term lease concurrently with the execution of this Rent Concession Agreement/Receipt. Resident acknowledges that Resident was not required to enter into a fixed term lease and could have rented the Premises on a month-to-month basis. In exchange for the execution of the fixed term lease, and Resident remaining a Resident in good standing for the entire initial term of the lease, Landlord has provided the above concession. As such, in the event of default of any of the terms or conditions of the Lease, or any addenda, amendments or modifications of the Lease, either in the payment of rent or performance of any other condition, or if Resident vacates the Premises before the expiration of the initial rental term of the Lease, all concession credits must be immediately returned to Landlord in the form of rent immediately due and payable concurrently with the regular monthly rental payment then due. At the termination of the initial term of the lease, assuming all payments and obligations are satisfied, this Agreement shall terminate and Landlord will have no right to repayment of the Concession even if Resident defaults under future lease agreements or during any hold-over tenancy.

RENTER'S INSURANCE ADDENDUM

This Renter's Insurance Requirement Addendum ("Addendum") dated 01/23/2025 is attached to and made a part of the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease") by and between Essex Management Corporation, as agent for Owner of the Community ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident") for the rental of the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property"). All terms not specifically defined in this Addendum shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. Landlord and Resident agree as follows:

1. Landlord does not insure Resident's personal property or liability. Property and liability insurance obtained by Landlord is not intended to protect against loss or damage (for example from burglary, vandalism, fire, smoke, or any other perils) to Resident's personal property. Similarly, if other persons, the Premises or Property are damaged because of the actions of Resident or Resident's guests, Resident is financially responsible for the damage.

2. Resident's purchase of Renters Insurance in the amount identified in paragraph 3 is required. Landlord has partnered with Get Covered to ensure compliance with this Addendum. Unless Renters Insurance is listed as encouraged above, Resident must go to Get Covered to submit evidence of a third party policy meeting the requirements of Paragraph 3, below, and/or receive information on how Resident can obtain Renters Insurance. Resident authorizes Landlord to provide information about Resident's tenancy including, but not limited to, Resident's name, email, address, lease start and lease end date to Get Covered. Resident acknowledges and agrees that Get Covered will provide information back to Landlord including, but not limited to, evidence relating to Resident's compliance with this Addendum.

3. Unless Renter's Insurance is listed as encouraged above, Resident's purchase of renter's insurance is mandatory and the following provisions will apply:

- a. Throughout Resident's tenancy, Resident must maintain a renter's insurance policy, at no cost or expense to Landlord. The insurance policy must have personal liability coverage of at least the amount $300,000 per occurrence.
- b. The policy must include coverage for water damage resulting from or related to Resident's occupancy and/or use of the Premises (for example, due to a sink overflowing). Resident must provide evidence satisfactory to Landlord, pursuant to Paragraph 3(d), that Resident's policy covers water damage as required by this Paragraph.
- c. The policy must be written for a term of at least one year, or the term of the lease, whichever is less. The policy must name Landlord as an "Interested Party" with the following contact information:
  - i. Address: Essex: PO Box 660121, Dallas, TX, 75266
  - ii. Email: Essex@policyverify.io
- d. Before the beginning of Resident's tenancy, Resident must deliver to Get Covered certified copy of the insurance policy or certificates of insurance evidencing the existence and amounts of the required insurance. At least thirty (30) days before the expiration date of the policy, Resident must furnish to Get Covered evidence of renewal or "an insurance binder" evidencing renewal.
- e. The insurance may be issued by any company of Resident's choosing, provided that the insurance company is licensed or admitted to transact business in in the state in which the Unit is located, and maintains during the policy term an AM Best rating of at least A-VII.
- f. Resident may not do anything or allow any action that invalidates the policy.
- g. Each Resident must maintain a Renters Insurance policy complying with this Paragraph 3; however, it shall be permissible for multiple Residents to maintain coverage under the same policy with the insurance policy or certificate of insurance naming each person as an Insured, or Additional Insured. Each Resident added to the Lease must deliver to Get Covered a certified copy of their insurance policy or certificate of insurance evidencing the existence and amounts of the required insurance at the time they are added to the Lease.

4. Resident may obtain a Renters Insurance policy through any insurance company, broker, or agent, so long as the insurance company and policy comply with Paragraph 3. Resident may also purchase a Renters Insurance Policy through Get Covered. Policies available through Get Covered are provided by QBE Insurance, an independent insurance agency. Landlord will benefit financially from Resident's purchase of a QBE Insurance policy by receiving a fee from Get Covered. Landlord is neither an agent nor broker of Resident. To repeat - Resident is not required to purchase a QBE Insurance policy through Get Covered. Resident is free to obtain Renters Insurance from any insurer meeting the requirements of Paragraph 3, above. Landlord and its agents and representatives are not insurance advisors, so Resident should seek the advice of an insurance professional regarding Resident's Renters Insurance options.

5. If Resident does not (1) submit proof of Resident's Renters Insurance policy that complies with the requirements in paragraph 3 to Get Covered OR (2) secure a Renters Insurance policy through Get Covered, Resident will be in breach of this Addendum and the Lease, and in addition to its other rights and remedies, Landlord will have the right, but not the obligation, to schedule the Unit for coverage under a Landlord Placed Tenant Liability Insurance Policy ("Master Policy").

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

a. The Master Policy coverage is not personal liability insurance nor Renters Insurance. Landlord makes no warranty or representation that Master Policy covers the Resident's personal property (contents) or additional living expenses. Landlord is the named insured under the Master Policy. The Master Policy covers damage to the Unit and Property for which the Resident is legally liable. It does not protect Resident as if Resident had purchased personal liability or Renters Insurance from an insurance agent or insurance company.

b. Coverage under the Master Policy may be more expensive than the cost of required insurance available to the Resident from another provider. At any time, Resident may contact an agent of their choice for Renters Insurance options to provide the insurance required under this Addendum.

c. If Landlord schedules the Unit for coverage under the Master Policy, Resident shall pay a monthly fee of $14.39 ("Admin Fee"), pro rated, representing the administrative costs associated with enrolling the Unit in a master insurance policy, managing the master policy program, collecting the Admin Fee from Resident, and the cost to Landlord for the Master Policy. Resident acknowledges that the Admin Fee is subject to change on thirty (30) days' notice. The Admin Fee is due with Resident's Monthly Base Rent, in advance, on or before the 1st of each month, paid in a method identified in the Lease.

d. COVERAGE UNDER THE MASTER POLICY IS NOT MANDATORY AND NOT RECOMMENDED. IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THAT RESIDENT INSTEAD PURCHASE REQUIRED INSURANCE FROM AN INSURANCE AGENT OR INSURANCE COMPANY OF RESIDENT'S CHOICE, SO LONG AS THAT INSURANCE COVERAGE COMPLIES WITH PARAGRAPH 3. Upon Landlord's receipt of proof of Resident's insurance pursuant to paragraph 3 above, coverage under the Master Policy will be terminated. Landlord's election to enroll the Unit in the Master Policy will not be deemed a waiver or cure of Resident's breach under this Addendum. If Resident fails to obtain the required insurance, Resident is in breach of this Addendum and the Lease, and Landlord reserves all rights and remedies for that breach, including termination of Resident's tenancy, even if Landlord has purchased coverage for the Unit under the Master Policy.

6. The existence of insurance does not absolve Resident of liability for damages or costs to the Unit and/or Property for which Resident is responsible pursuant to the Lease. In the event of such damage or costs, Resident is required to provide Landlord with copies of any other additional insurance policies, including, but not limited to, umbrella insurance policies, that may provide coverage for the damage. Resident remains fully, financially responsible for any loss or damage caused by Resident and Residents' guests.

7. If any provision of this Addendum or the Lease is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only, without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this Addendum or the Lease. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall control.

SMARTRENT ADDENDUM

This SMARTRENT Addendum ("Addendum") is entered into on 01/23/2025 by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation of the Community ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident"). Resident has rented from the Landlord the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property") pursuant to the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease"). Landlord and Resident agree as follows:

1. Subject to Landlord's right to cancel or modify this Addendum at any time, Landlord may provide the following services and equipment: Smart Thermostat; Smart Door Lock; Smart Leak Detector; Smart Plug; and/or Smart Hub (collectively the "SmartRent Equipment").

2. Resident may purchase add-on items and equipment, as offered by SmartRent, at Resident's expense. This includes, but is not limited to, Smart Motion Sensors and Smart Light Bulbs. For any additional devices purchased, Resident is solely responsible for all associated costs, maintenance, and security. If Resident voluntarily elects to use such additional devices, Resident acknowledge the risks and accept responsibility of any costs incurred from installation or use of these devices. This includes any harms or limitations imposed on the functionality of the SmartRent Equipment provided by Landlord. Both during tenancy and after it has ended, any additional SmartRent purchases will be your exclusive property and responsibility.

3. Some features of SmartRent Equipment may be used only by downloading and using the SmartRent mobile application available for smartphones and smart devices via the Apple App Store for iOS devices and the Google Play Store for Android devices (the "Mobile App" and together with the SmartRent Equipment, "SmartRent"). Resident's use of the Mobile App is subject to all terms and conditions of the license agreement for the Mobile App. More information regarding the terms and conditions of the license agreement may be found on the corresponding Mobile App websites. Resident acknowledges and agrees that the Mobile App and the Mobile App websites are not owned, controlled, or managed by Landlord.

4. If Resident is locked out and/or experiencing technical problems regarding the Smart Door Lock, immediately contact SmartRent and its designated support service for assistance. SmartRent has a 24-hours a day, 365-days a year call center available for all lock issues, which may be contacted at (844) 479-1555. This telephone number may be updated by SmartRent from time to time. More information can be found on SmartRent's mobile application or website, https://smartrent.com/. Landlord may assist Resident with lockouts at cost for a fee. Landlord is not liable for technical difficulties associated with the SmartRent Equipment.

5. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THIS ADDENDUM, RESIDENT UNDERSTANDS THAT THE SMARTRENT EQUIPMENT IS NOT SUPERVISED, INSPECTED, PATROLLED, OR MONITORED BY LANDLORD IN ANY WAY. LANDLORD MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS, RECOMMENDATIONS, OR WARRANTIES REGARDING PROVIDERS OF SMARTRENT TO WHOM RESIDENT IS REFERRED BY LANDLORD. RESIDENT USE THE SMARTRENT EQUIPMENT AT RESIDENT'S OWN RISK. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, LANDLORD IS NOT AND SHALL NOT BECOME LIABLE TO RESIDENT, AUTHORIZED OCCUPANTS, RESIDENT'S INVITEES, RESIDENT'S GUESTS OR OTHER OCCUPANTS OF THE PREMISES FOR ANY INJURY, DAMAGE OR LOSS WHICH IS CAUSED AS A RESULT OF ANY PROBLEM, BREACH, DEFECT, CORRUPTION, ATTACK, VIRUS, INTERFERENCE, HACKING, OR OTHER SECURITY INTRUSION, MALFUNCTION OR PERFORMANCE FAILURE OF THE SMARTRENT. LANDLORD OR ITS AGENT, CONTRACTORS, EMPLOYEES, OR REPRESENTATIVES SHALL NOT BE LIABLE IN ANY WAY FOR ANY DISRUPTION IN THE OPERATION OR PERFORMANCE OF SMARTRENT EQUIPMENT. RESIDENT HEREBY RELEASE LANDLORD AND ITS AGENTS, CONTRACTORS, EMPLOYEES, AND REPRESENTATIVES OF AND FROM ANY AND ALL LIABILITY IN CONNECTION WITH SMARTRENT. ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THIS ADDENDUM NOTWITHSTANDING, THE RESIDENT ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT (A) NEITHER LANDLORD NOR ANY PARTY ON BEHALF OF LANDLORD IS MAKING ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, BEYOND THOSE EXPRESSLY MADE BY LANDLORD AND RESIDENT IN THIS ADDENDUM, AND (B) THE RESIDENT HAS NOT BEEN INDUCED BY, OR RELIED UPON, ANY REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR STATEMENTS (WRITTEN OR ORAL), WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, MADE BY LANDLORD, THAT ARE NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS ADDENDUM.

6. Resident understand that use of the SmartRent features may involve installation of certain equipment in the Premises, and/or providing certain equipment to Resident. Initial installation is performed with no cost to Resident. If Resident loses, damages, or destroys any of the SmartRent Equipment, Resident will be responsible for the full replacement and/or repair cost of such SmartRent Equipment, plus any applicable installation fees. Resident will surrender the SmartRent Equipment provided by Landlord at the end of the Lease term in as good condition as existed at the beginning of the Lease term, ordinary wear and tear excepted. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, Resident will not make any alterations,additions, removals, repairs or improvements to Landlord's SmartRent Equipment without Landlord's prior written consent. If Resident suspects damage to any SmartRent Equipment, Resident must notify Landlord immediately. If Resident fails to promptly notify Landlord of any problem, failure, malfunction, defect or other issue with the SmartRent Equipment, then the SmartRent Equipment will be deemed to be in good condition and working order. Resident agrees not to unplug or otherwise remove or tamper with the SmartRent Equipment, including the Smart Hub. Resident acknowledges and agrees that unplugging the Smart Hub will compromise the SmartRent

Equipment's connectivity, functionality and performance. In addition to any costs associated with the repair or replacement of damaged or lost SmartRent Equipment, Resident also agrees to reimburse Landlord for any costs incurred to plug in and reconnect SmartRent Equipment that has been unplugged or removed by Resident, Authorized Occupants, Resident's Guests, and/or Resident's invitees. Further, in the event that a third-party service provider or vendor assists in installing or activating the SmartRent Equipment and charges a fee for cancelling, rescheduling, or missing an appointment, then Resident is liable for the full amount of the fee. All SmartRent Equipment used in connection with SmartRent must be approved and/or installed by Landlord's maintenance employees or approved vendors.

7. LANDLORD MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND REGARDING SMARTRENT, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED (INCLUDING THOSE REFERRED TO IN THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE OR IN ANY STATUTE OR RULE OF LAW THAT CAN BE LIMITED OR WAIVED OR ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT WOULD OTHERWISE BE APPLICABLE TO REAL PROPERTY), AND SMARTRENT SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE "AS IS, WHERE IS," AND IN ITS THEN PRESENT CONDITION, AND RESIDENT SHALL RELY UPON ITS OWN EXAMINATION THEREOF. IN ANY EVENT, LANDLORD MAKES NO WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, SUITABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR QUALITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE SMARTRENT EQUIPMENT, OR AS TO THE CONDITION OR WORKMANSHIP THEREOF OR THE ABSENCE OF ANY DEFECTS THEREIN, WHETHER LATENT OR PATENT.

8. If any provision of this Addendum is declared or found to be illegal, unenforceable, or void, in whole or in part, then the parties shall be relieved of all obligations arising under such provision, but only to the extent that it is illegal, unenforceable, or void, it being the intent and agreement of the parties that this Addendum shall be deemed amended by modifying such provision to the extent necessary to make it legal and enforceable while preserving its intent or, if that isnot possible, by substituting therefor another provision that is legal and enforceable and achieves the same objectives.

UTILITIES ADDENDUM

This Utilities Addendum ("Utilities Addendum") dated 01/23/2025 is attached to and made a part of the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease") by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation, as agent for Owner ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident") for the rental of the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 (the "Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property"). All terms not specifically defined herein shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. Resident and Landlord agree as follows:

1. General: Residents monthly rent under the Lease does not include charges for any utilities. Resident is responsible for the costs of all utilities identified on Exhibit A to this Utilities Addendum. Residents may be charged for utilities in two ways: Direct-Bill Utilities and Allocated Utilities.

2. Direct-Bill Utilities: For the "Direct-Bill Utilities" identified on Exhibit A, Resident is required to set up service with the utility provider and be billed directly from the utility provider as the Customer of Record. Service must be established as of the Lease start date in Resident's name by contracting directly with the utility provider and failure to do so may result in an interruption of services and is considered a material breach of the Lease. Landlord and Resident agree that if Resident fails to establish service in Resident's own name, Landlord or Billing Provider will incur certain costs (e.g., additional bookkeeping, administrative time, and lost opportunity costs) that will be difficult or impossible to ascertain. Landlord and Resident agree that the amount set forth in Exhibit A is a fair estimate of the damages Landlord will suffer as a result of Resident's failure. Resident must terminate Direct Billed Utility service provided in their name when Resident vacates the Premises.

3. Allocated Utilities

   a) The other utilities for which Resident is responsible are referred to herein as "Allocated Utilities." Resident agrees to pay to Landlord, as additional rent, all Allocated Utilities during the term of the Lease. For the Allocated Utilities, Resident shall pay a monthly amount stated in a separate bill ("Allocated Utility Bill") sent to Resident by Landlord or a third party billing service provider ("Billing Provider") for the Property. Payment of the Allocated Utility Bill is due as noted on each Allocated Utility Bill. Unless otherwise provided, Resident agrees to pay the Allocated Utility Bill monthly at the location identified on such Allocated Utility Bill.

   b) Resident agrees that Landlord may bill for additional utilities and services, at which time such additional utilities and services shall for all purposes be included in the term "Allocated Utilities," as well as change the Billing Provider, the method of billing and/or the method of allocation with thirty (30) days' written notice to Resident.

   c) Charges for Allocated Utilities, (if any) will itemize the beginning and ending meter readings, the rate charged to Resident and any other information required by applicable law, rules or regulations. Billing amounts will be determined by multiplying the sub-meter readings for the Resident's Premises by the effective utility rate that is charged to Landlord. The effective rate is calculated by adding together all charges from the utility provider, including base fees, miscellaneous charges, fees and taxes contained on the utility bills divided by the total consumption. Resident agrees to allow Landlord, or the Billing Provider, access to Resident's Premises in order to install, repair, remove and/or read sub-meters. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Billing Provider may estimate Resident's sub-meter consumption of Allocated Utilities if Resident's sub-meter is broken, a meter cannot be read, does not transmit a meter reading or upon move-in or move-out.

   d) Resident's Allocated Utilities may be estimated if Landlord or Billing Provider has not received bills from utility providers in time to prepare Resident's Allocated Utility Bill.

   e) The allocation formulas set forth in Exhibit A will calculate Resident's share of the Allocated Utilities and all costs of providing same in accordance with state and local law. Under any allocation method, Resident may be paying for utility usage in common areas or in other residential units as well as administrative fees or other charges imposed by the utility provider. Both Landlord and Resident agree that using the allocation formula set forth herein as a basis for allocating utility costs is fair and reasonable, while recognizing that the allocation method does not reflect actual utility consumption by Resident.

   f) For Allocated Utilities, all charges assessed to Landlord from the utility providers or on property tax bills may be used to calculate the amount charged to Resident under the allocation formula. Such charges may include, but are not limited to, usage charges, irrigation, stormwater charges, water and sewer related charges on tax bills, miscellaneous charges, fees, taxes, drought or other surcharges, fines or other penalties. Allocated charges for Trash may include all costs incurred by Landlord relating to Trash, including, but not limited to charges from the hauler for removing the trash and recycling, porter service, bulky item removal, cleaning of the bins and deodorizing services, third party vendor contracts providing services relating to trash and recycling as well as composting costs where required.

4. Common Area Deduction ("CAD"): If indicated in Exhibit A, a CAD is deducted from the sum of the Landlord's utility bills for the utility indicated and relates to the expense of such utility associated with any common areas such as laundry facilities, irrigation, pools, fountains, etc. Landlord and Resident agree that the exact amount of utilities consumed in the common areas cannot be determined precisely; therefore, the CAD indicated is a fair and reasonable estimate of the usage in common areas even though the utilities are not separately metered. Landlord will deduct the percentage of CAD identified in Exhibit A from the sum of the Landlord's utility bills for the utility indicated each month before allocation of such bills to Resident according to the allocation formulas described. The percentage CAD deduction may be changed by Landlord with thirty (30) days' written notice by Landlord to Resident.

5. Default in Payment of Allocated Utility Bills

a) To the extent permitted by law, any delinquent payment of an Allocated Utility Bill shall be considered a default under the Lease to the same extent and remedies as if Resident had been delinquent in Resident's payment of the monthly rent.

b) Landlord and Resident agree that when Resident fails to pay Allocated Utility Bills on time, Landlord may apply monthly rent to the overdue Utility Bill. If Resident fails to pay Allocated Utility Bills on time, or when Resident pays by a dishonored check, the actual cost to Landlord and/or Billing Provider is difficult or impossible to ascertain, but Landlord and Resident agree that Landlord and/or Billing Provider does, in the event of late payment or in the event of a dishonored check, incur certain costs, such as additional bookkeeping and administrative time, bank charges, lost opportunity costs of the late payment, etc. After making a reasonable endeavor to estimate accurately the approximate costs associated with a non-payment of the Allocated Utility Bill, Landlord and Resident agree that the amount set forth in Exhibit A is a fair estimate of the damages Landlord will suffer as a result of the late payment. The parties further agree that an NSF fee of $25.00, plus the payment required to replace the dishonored check, is a fair and reasonable amount to compensate Landlord in the event Resident's check is dishonored. The Parties further agree that the payment of these sums does not constitute an agreement to pay Allocated Utility Bills late and/or to pay by dishonored check.

6. Upon vacating the Premises, a final Allocated Utility Bill will be issued by either the Billing Provider or Landlord. The cut-off date for this final bill will be the date that Resident surrenders possession of the Premises to Landlord. To the extent permitted by law, Resident acknowledges and agrees that any unpaid Allocated Utility Bill, together with the amount of the final bill, may be deducted from the security deposit, as additional rent, at the termination of the Lease.

7. Landlord is not liable for any losses or damages Resident incurs as the result of outages, interruptions, or fluctuations in utilities provided to the Premises and waives any claims against Landlord for offset, reduction of rent or diminished rental value of the Premises, except if the direct result of the sole negligence of Landlord.

8. Resident agrees not to terminate, cut off, interrupt or interfere with any system supplying utility services to the Premises and shall not disturb, tamper, adjust, or disconnect any utility service sub-metering device. Resident shall not intentionally utilize utilities of another unit whether or not such unit is occupied. Resident shall not breach any cable or satellite dish system, but will instead contract with appropriate parties for use of such services.

9. Resident agrees to comply with any utility conservation efforts implemented by Landlord and abide by all applicable laws and ordinances pertaining to utilities. Resident further agrees to reimburse and indemnify Landlord for all fines or other penalties incurred by Landlord as a result of Resident's violation of any statute, ordinance, regulation or other governmental restriction.

10. If any utilities listed in this Utilities Addendum are separately billed or metered to Resident, then Resident hereby grants permission for the release by such utility service providers to the Landlord of any and all of Resident’s energy usage data and related information (“Energy Usage Data”). Landlord shall use Energy Usage Data only (i) to monitor or improve the environmental performance of the Premises and/or Community, (ii) measure the environmental performance of the Premises and/or Community against performance targets; or (iii) report on the environmental performance of the Premises or Community. To the extent Landlord discloses the Energy Usage Data to third parties, it shall not identify Resident. Landlord and Resident agree such disclosure may include, at most, Resident’s unit number.

11. Landlord may modify the method by which utilities are furnished to Resident's unit and/or billed to Resident during the term of the Lease. This includes, but is not limited to, sub-metering the unit for certain utility services and/or changing the allocation formula. Such changes may also include changing the CAD percentage and/or changing flat-rate amounts. In the event Landlord chooses to modify the method or allocation formula used to calculate charges for utility services, Landlord will provide Resident at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of such modification.

12. Any provision specifically required by applicable law which is not included in this Utilities Addendum is hereby inserted as an additional provision of this Utilities Addendum, but only to the extent required by applicable law and then only so long as the provision of the applicable law is not repealed or held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction.

13. If any provision of this Utilities Addendum or the Lease is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this addendum or the Lease. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Utilities Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Utilities Addendum shall control.

EXHIBIT A TO UTILITIES ADDENDUM

1. Utilities for the premises shall be charged as follows:

Utility/Service	Utility's Customer of Record	Calculation Method for Utility Charge to Resident	Allocation Formula; Flat Rate Amount; Not to Exceed Amount	Common Area Deduction
Gas	Resident	Direct billing from utility	N/A	N/A
Electricity	Resident	Direct billing from utility	N/A	N/A
Water	Landlord	Allocation formula	100% Occupancy	5%
Sewer	Landlord	Allocation formula	By Unit	0%
Cable / Satellite Dish	Resident	Direct billing from utility	N/A	N/A
Phone	Resident	Direct billing from utility	N/A	N/A
Internet	Resident	Direct billing from utility	N/A	N/A
Trash	Landlord	Allocation formula	By Unit	0%
Hot Water Energy	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

2. Resident's billing statement will include a monthly service charge of no more than $6.11. The service charge represents the reasonable value of services provided by Landlord and/or the Billing Provider to allocate the utility costs, provide billing to Resident, process payments and, where applicable, postage costs. The monthly service charge is subject to change upon thirty (30) days' written notice. In any jurisdiction where such charges are prohibited for one or more specific utility, the monthly service charge does not include any costs for preparing bills or other services relative to those specific utilities.

3. As set forth in this Utilities Addendum, a late fee of $0 may be imposed anytime Resident fails to pay an Allocated Utility Bill by the due date set forth in the Allocated Utility Bill.

4. As set forth in this Utilities Addendum, a fee of $50 may be imposed each month (or part thereof) that a Resident fails to put a Direct Bill Utility into Resident's own name.

5. While Landlord reserves the right to change who prepares Allocated Utility Bills at the Property, at the time of execution of this Utilities Addendum, Allocated Utility Bills are provided to Resident by:

a) A Third Party Billing Provider, which, as of the execution of this Utilities Addendum is Conservice. The Third Party Billing Provider may be contacted with any questions or concerns regarding their billing any time between 5:00 A.M. and 7:00 P.M MT at (866) 947-7379, via letter to P.O. Box 4718, Logan, UT 84323, or email at service@conservice.com.

Explanation of Terms and Formulas

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

1. "50/50" means the charges to Resident are allocated based on 50% occupancy (number of residents in the Premises as a percentage of all the residents at the Property at a given point in time, usually monthly) and 50% of the square footage of the Premises as a percentage of all occupied square footage at the Property.

a. To determine the occupancy portion of the allocation, Billing Provider or Landlord will divide the charges being allocated in half after applying the CAD and then divide the result by the total occupant usage factor. Billing Provider will calculate Resident's share by multiplying the result of this calculation by the occupancy factor based upon the total number of authorized occupants in Resident's Premises. Because two people do not use twice as much of a utility as one person due to shared usage, the following occupancy factor is used to reflect an estimate of consumption. The occupancy factor is determined by the following:

Number of Occupants	Occupancy Factor
3	2.2
4	2.6

b. To determine the square footage portion of the allocation, Billing Provider will take the remaining charges to be allocated and divide it by the total occupied square feet and then multiply the result of this calculation by the estimated square footage of Resident's Premises.

c. The amounts resulting from the above-calculations are added together to determine Resident's allocated share of the utility charges and will be reflected on Resident's Allocated Utility Bill.

2. "100% Occupancy" allocation means, after deducting the CAD, Billing Provider divides the charges being allocated by the total occupant usage factor of the authorized occupants at the Property. Billing Provider calculates Resident's share by multiplying the result of this calculation by the occupancy factor based upon the total number of authorized occupants in the Premises.

3. "100% Square Footage" allocation means, after deducting the CAD, Billing Provider divides the charges being allocated by the total square feet of all occupied square footage. Billing Provider will then multiply the result of this calculation by the estimated square footage of Resident's Premises.

4. "By Unit" means the total charges being allocated, after deducting the CAD is divided by the total number of units at the Property and the result is Resident's allocation.

5. "Not to Exceed Amount." If the Property is in a rent-controlled jurisdiction, Landlord and Resident understand and acknowledge that, for purposes of the applicable rent control ordinance, all utilities charges required to be paid by Resident under the Utilities Addendum are considered a portion of the rent paid for the Premises and shall be considered as part of the rent when calculating allowable increases under the rent control ordinance. The maximum utility rent to be billed to Resident by or on behalf of Landlord (as opposed to any Direct-Bill Utilities) shall be the amount calculated by adding together all of the "not to exceed" amounts for utilities for which Residents are responsible according to the above table as well as any monthly billing or service fees required under the Utility Addendum, if applicable. The rent related to these utilities and services actually billed to Resident may be less than the "not to exceed" amounts in order to reward overall conservation efforts and to pass on to Resident decreases in rates from the utility providers.

6. "Flat Rate" charges are set by Landlord and may or may not be based on a specific formula.

7. For sewer charges when the "Water Usage" box is checked, allocation is based upon the sub-metered usage of water. Resident's share of the sewer utility charges to Landlord shall be calculated by taking the amount of sub-metered water usage and multiplying it by the effective rate for sewer charged by the utility provider. For additional information regarding sub-meter calculations, please refer back to the Utility Addendum paragraph related to charges for allocated utilities based on sub-meter readings.

8. "Hot Water Energy" means energy used in a central water heating system at the Property to heat water which is then supplied to the Resident's premises for hot water and/or heat.

MOLD ADDENDUM

This Mold Addendum ("Addendum") dated 01/23/2025 is attached to and made a part of the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease") by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation, as agent for Owner of the Community ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident") for the rental of the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property"). All terms not specifically defined in this Addendum shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. Landlord and Resident agree as follows:

1. Mold consists of naturally occurring microscopic organisms. Mold breaks down and feeds on organic matter in the environment. When moldy materials are damaged or disturbed, mold spores and other materials may be released in the air. Exposure can occur through inhalation or direct contact. Most molds are not harmful to most people, but it is believed that certain types and amounts of mold may lead to adverse health effects in some people. In order to prevent organic growth within the Premises, Resident specifically agrees to:

a. KEEP THE PREMISES CLEAN:

- Maintain good housekeeping practices and regularly dust, vacuum and mop to keep the Premises free of dirt and debris that can contribute to mold growth
- Use household cleaners on hard surfaces
- Remove garbage regularly and remove moldy or rotting items promptly from the Premises (whether food, wet clothing, or other material)

b. CONTROL MOISTURE IN THE PREMISES AND INCREASE AIR CIRCULATION:

- Use hood vents when cooking
- Use exhaust fans when bathing/showering until moisture is removed from the bathroom
- Hang shower curtain inside the bathtub when showering or securely close shower doors
- Leave bathroom and shower doors open after use
- Use air conditioning, heating and/or fans as necessary to keep air circulating throughout the Property
- Water all indoor plants outside
- Close windows and doors (when appropriate) to prevent rain and other water from coming inside the Premises
- Open windows when appropriate to increase air circulation
- Wipe up visible moisture
- If a dryer is installed in the Property, ensure that the vent is properly connected and clear of any obstructions and clean the lint screen regularly
- Ensure good air circulation in closets, cupboards and shelves by periodically keeping them open, not stacking items tightly, and/or using products to control moisture
- Regularly empty dehumidifier, if used

c. PERIODICALLY INSPECT THE UNIT FOR MOISTURE AND MOLD:

The most reliable methods for identifying the presence of elevated amounts of mold are (1) smell and (2) routine visual inspections for mold or signs of moisture and water damage. Resident agrees to conduct an inspection of the Premises (both visually and by smell) for the presence of mold growth inside the Premises at least once per month. The inspection will include, but is not limited to:

- Window frames, baseboards, walls and carpets
- The ceiling
- Any currently or formerly damp material made of cellulose (such as wallpaper, books, papers, and newspapers)
- Appliances (including washers/dryers/dishwashers and refrigerators)
- Around all plumbing fixtures (toilets, bathtubs, showers, sinks, and below sinks)
- Areas with limited air circulation such as closets, shelves and cupboards
- Personal property

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

d. PROMPTLY REPORT TO LANDLORD IN WRITING:

- Visible or suspected mold that Resident does not clean as explained below. Mold may range in color from orange to green, brown, and/or black. There is often a musty odor present.
- Overflows or dripping from showers, bath, sink, toilet, washer, refrigerator, air conditioner
- Plumbing problems
- Discoloration of walls, baseboards, doors, window frames, ceilings
- Loose, missing or failing grout or caulk around tubs, showers, sinks, faucets, countertops
- Clothes dryer vent leaks
- Any non-operational windows, doors, fans, heating or air conditioning units
- Any evidence of leaks or excessive moisture in the Premises or on the Property
- Any maintenance needed at the Premises or Property

e. RESIDENT AGREES TO NOT:

- Bring any personal property into the Premises that may contain high levels of mold, especially "soft possessions" such as couches, chairs, mattresses, and pillows
- Stack items against walls in a manner that decreases air circulation and may lead to mold
- Maintain an excessive number of indoor plants
- Maintain a fish tank or other water filled container without Landlord's written consent

2. If a small amount of mold has grown on a non-porous surface such as ceramic tile, Formica, vinyl flooring, metal, or plastic, and the mold is not due to an ongoing leak or moisture problem, Resident agrees to clean the area with soap (or detergent) and a small amount of water, let the surface dry, and then within 24 hours apply a non-staining cleaner such as Lysol Disinfectant, Tilex Mildew Remover, or Clorox Cleanup. If Resident is unable or unwilling to clean the area, Residents will promptly notify Landlord so that Landlord can clean area.

3. Resident agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord and Landlord's related parties (past and present subsidiary corporations, affiliates, successors, assigns officers, directors, property managers, agents, attorneys, employees and representatives) from claims, liabilities, losses, damages and expenses (including attorneys' fees), that they incur that are related to the Resident's breach of the Resident's obligations to Landlord. Resident is responsible for the action (or inaction) of Resident's household members, guests and agents.

4. If elevated mold levels exist at the Premises or Property, Resident agrees to temporarily vacate the Premises to allow for investigation and remediation, to control water intrusion, or allow other repairs to the Property, if requested by Landlord. Resident agrees to comply with all instructions and requirements necessary to prepare the Premises for investigation and remediation, to control water intrusion, to control mold growth, or to make repairs. Storage, cleaning, removal, or replacement of contaminated or potentially contaminated personal property will be Resident's responsibility unless the elevated mold growth was the result of Landlord's negligence, intentional wrongdoing or violation of law. Landlord is not responsible for any condition about which Landlord is not aware. Resident agrees to provide Landlord with copies of all records, documents, sampling data and other material relating to any water leak, excessive moisture, mold conditions in the Premises as soon as Resident obtains them.

5. Resident hereby acknowledges receiving the attached “Information on Dampness and Mold for Renters in California”.

6. If any provision of this Addendum or the Lease is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this addendum or the Lease. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall control.

Information on Dampness and Mold for Renters in California

Main points:

- Living in damp or moldy buildings increases the chances of respiratory problems like asthma.
- The critical warning signs are visible mold, water damage, damp materials, or mold smell.
- Dampness is needed for mold to grow, so if you control the dampness, you control the mold.
- Dampness or mold indoors may make housing substandard, per the California Health & Safety Code.

Beginning January 1, 2022, residential landlords shall provide this booklet to prospective residential tenants prior to entering the rental or lease agreement, in accordance with the 2001 Toxic Mold Protection Act (HSC #26148). This booklet, which explains the potential health risks and health impacts that may result from exposure to mold, was produced by the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) in 2020, in both English and Spanish versions.

Doc ID: 9d6bda1682073962a4c81f3bde8c10bca272ba8e

Health Problems from Damp or Moldy Buildings

Living or working in damp or moldy buildings increases the risk of many harmful health problems, including:

- asthma attacks in people who already have asthma
- a new asthma diagnosis
- respiratory infections, such as bronchitis
- breathing symptoms, such as hay fever, sneezing, stuffy nose, sore throat, wheezing, breathing difficulty, or cough
- eczema or skin rash

Mold can affect people differently. How much a person is affected depends on how sensitive they are and on how much they are exposed. Damp or moldy buildings are linked to health problems in people even if they do not have allergies.

Signs of Dampness or Mold

Signs of dampness or mold that may cause health problems include:

- visible mold (regardless of color), such as on walls or ceilings, behind furniture or appliances, under carpets, or even hidden in areas not seen in the occupied areas of homes
- mold odor, noticed as an earthy, musty, or moldy smell
- visible water damage, such as water-stains or discoloration on walls or ceilings, peeling or bubbled paint, warped floors, or rotting wood
- damp or moist materials, including condensation on windows or walls

Any one of these signs indicates increased risks to health, and the more that any of them are present, the greater the risk of health problems. Tests that identify the types of mold or the amounts of mold in buildings are not useful in telling us about the health risks. This is why CDPH does not recommend testing for mold, such as measuring mold spores in the air.

CDPH

Causes of Building Dampness that Can Allow Mold to Grow

The dampness that is necessary for indoor mold to grow can come from either inside or outside a building.

Indoor sources include:

- leaking or burst water pipes, for instance under sinks inside walls
- not enough venting to the outside by open windows or exhaust fans in places where water is used or moisture is produced (for example, bathrooms, laundry areas, kitchens, and water heaters)
- condensation (water droplets) on cold surfaces, including windows

Outdoor sources include:

- water coming in through leaky roofs or poorly-sealed windows, or from flooding
- damp, exposed dirt in crawl spaces
- outdoor surfaces that slope and drain water toward a building, including from a downspout

Fixing Dampness and Mold Problems

The California Health & Safety Code (HSC §17920.3) says that when dampness or visible mold (or certain other conditions) in a home is a hazard to the health of occupants, the home is substandard and the property owner must fix the conditions. The Code excludes mold that is "minor and found on surfaces that accumulate moisture as part of their properly functioning and intended use."

CDPH recommends fixing dampness and mold problems as follows:

- identifying and correcting the source of any water that may allow mold to grow
- rapid drying or removal of damp materials
- cleaning or removing mold and moldy materials as rapidly and safely as possible

Note: if a moldy area is simply bleached, cleaned, or painted over—without fixing the source of the dampness—the mold is likely to grow again.

Renters in California

The California Health & Safety Code requires property owners to provide a rental unit that is safe and healthy for the people living in it. Prospective renters should look for obvious conditions that show dampness or mold, and also less obvious signs like water leaks under the kitchen and bathroom sinks or moldy odor in a sealed-up home. Also look for conditions likely to cause future problems, like a bathroom that has no working vent fan or no window that opens, or a clothes dryer without an outside vent.

For renters who suspect there is dampness or mold:

1. Tell the property owner or manager. Early detection and correction of the dampness and mold problems can reduce the risks to your health and prevent the problem from getting worse.
2. If your property owner will not respond to your concerns in a reasonable amount of time, contact your local (city or county) code enforcement agency and ask for a code enforcement officer to inspect for violations. Many dampness or mold problems in rental homes are the responsibility of the property owner and must be addressed by them. However, a code enforcement officer may determine that dampness or mold in a building results from a tenant's actions or inactions – for instance, not using available bathroom ventilation during showers.
3. If the local inspector determines there is a violation, they can require the property owner to correct the problem.

Additional Resources

For general information on dampness and mold and a list of local code enforcement agencies, with a focus on dampness and mold, see www.cdph.ca.gov/iaq/mold. To see an animated video series, Mold in the Home, visit www.cdph.ca.gov/mold.

Property owners must provide a rental unit that is safe and healthy for the people living in it.

Tenants must notify property owners of any dampness or mold problems.

PESTICIDE DISCLOSURE

This Pesticide Notice/Disclosure ("Addendum") dated 01/23/2025 is attached to and made a part of the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease") by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation, as agent for Owner of the Community ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident") for the rental of the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property"). All terms not specifically defined in this Addendum shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. Landlord and Resident agree as follows:

1. Resident is informed that pesticides may have been applied to the Unit and/or Property in the past. California law requires that building owners and operators provide tenants with the following notice concerning the application of pesticides.

CAUTION -- PESTICIDES ARE TOXIC CHEMICALS. Structural Pest Control Operators are licensed and regulated by the Structural Pest Control Board and apply pesticides which are registered and approved for the use by the California Department of Food and Agriculture and the United States Environmental Protection Agency. Registration is granted when the state finds that based on existing scientific evidence, there are no appreciable risks if proper use conditions are followed or that the risks are outweighed by the benefits. The degree of risk depends upon the degree of exposure, so exposure should be minimized. If rodenticide ingestion occurs, you may experience symptoms of mild shock and/or bleed anticoagulant reaction. If within 24 hours following application, you experience flu like symptoms: headaches, dizziness, nausea, tearing, coughing, nose and throat irritation or develop shortness of breath, double vision, unusual drowsiness and weakness, or tremors, contact your physician, an appropriate licensed health care provider, or the California Poison Control Center at 1-800-222-1222 and Landlord immediately. For more information, contact your County Health Department. For regulatory information, contact the Department of Pesticide Regulation at (916) 324-4100.

The following pesticides are commonly used for the extermination of pests. One or more of these materials may be used in your residential unit. You may request specific information about which pesticides are to be applied and when they are to be applied from the Property Manager.

2. California law also requires persons exposed to substances regulated under the Safe Drinking and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, commonly referred to as "Proposition 65", to be provided a clear and reasonable warning, as some of the pesticides listed above are chemicals regulated under Proposition 65. You are advised as follows:

WARNING: The area within your building contains a substance known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects, or other reproductive harm.

3. Resident has read the above disclosure and pesticide list and Resident understands that any of the pesticides listed may have been used in the past.

CALIFORNIA TENANT ACT OF 2019 ADDENDUM

This California Tenant Protection Act of 2019 Addendum ("Addendum") dated 01/23/2025 is attached to and made a part of the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease") by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation, as agent for Owner of the Community ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident") for the rental of the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property"). All terms not specifically defined in this Addendum shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. Landlord and Resident agree as follows:

1. In 2019, California enacted the Tenant Protection Act of 2019 ("Act") implementing statewide rent control and just cause eviction protections at rental properties subject to the Act. This Addendum relates to the provisions of the Act and remains in force until the repeal of the Act or the termination of Resident's tenancy at the Premises, whichever occurs first.
2. Resident hereby acknowledges receipt of the following Notice from Landlord as required by the Tenant Protection Act of 2019:

   California law limits the amount your rent can be increased. See Section 1947.12 of the Civil Code for more information. California law also provides that after all of the tenants have continuously and lawfully occupied the property for 12 months or more or at least one of the tenants has continuously and lawfully occupied the property for 24 months or more, a landlord must provide a statement of cause in any notice to terminate a tenancy. See Section 1946.2 of the Civil Code for more information.

3. Resident acknowledges that the Act is not applicable to Resident's household if Resident's tenancy falls under any Below Market Rate or Affordable Rental program regulated by the following: rent restriction in a deed, regulatory restriction contained in an agreement with a government agency, or other recorded document restricting the Unit to affordable housing for person and families of very low, low, or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, or subject to an agreement that provides housing subsidies for affordable housing for persons and families of very low, low, or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code or comparable federal statutes. To the extent that Resident's tenancy falls under any of the foregoing, Resident acknowledges and understands that the rent control and just cause eviction protections under the Act do not apply to Resident's household.
4. If any provision of this Addendum or the Lease is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this addendum or the Lease. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall control.

SMOKING POLICY ADDENDUM

This Smoking Policy Addendum ("Addendum") dated 01/23/2025 is attached to and made a part of the lease agreement dated 2/1/2025 (the "Lease") by and between Essex Management Corporation, a California Corporation, as agent for Owner of the Community ("Landlord"), and Yasmin Fugioka, Leandro jr Messias da Cunha (individually and collectively referred to herein as "Resident") for the rental of the premises located at 2601 Hilltop Drive, Apt. #0138, Richmond, CA 94806 ("Premises" or "Unit") within the community commonly known as San Marcos (the "Community" or "Property"). All terms not specifically defined in this Addendum shall have the same definition as found in the Lease. Landlord and Resident agree as follows:

1. The parties desire to mitigate: (i) the irritation and known health effects of secondhand smoke; (ii) the increased maintenance, cleaning, and redecorating costs from smoking; (iii) the increased risk of fire from smoking; and (iv) the high cost of fire insurance for properties where smoking is permitted.

2. "Smoking" or “Smoke” means possessing a lighted tobacco product, lighted tobacco paraphernalia, lighted marijuana, or any other lighted weed or plant (including, but not limited to, a lighted pipe, lighted hookah pipe, lighted cigar, lighted cigarette of any kind), an electronic smoking device of any kind, or the lighting or emitting or exhaling the smoke or vapor of a tobacco product, tobacco paraphernalia, marijuana product, or any other weed or plant (including, but not limited to, a pipe, a hookah pipe, cigar, marijuana product, electronic cigarette or cigarette of any kind). Electronic smoking devices are any battery-operated device that delivers vapors for inhalation, including every variation and type of such device regardless of how marketed or described.

3. Resident and members of Resident's household shall not Smoke anywhere on the Property, nor shall Resident permit any guest or visitor of Resident to do so. Smoking is prohibited in all indoor and outdoor common areas on the property, and within twenty-five (25) feet of any entrance, exit, operable windows, vents or other openings into enclosed non-smoking areas. Smoking in individual units, including units’ outdoor balconies and patios, is NOT permitted. Violation of this paragraph by Resident or any other person subject to the control of Resident or present by invitation or permission of Resident is a material breach of the Lease.

a) Smoking in individual units, including units’ outdoor balconies and patios, is NOT permitted.

4. Resident shall inform their invitees or guests of the provisions contained in this Smoking Policy Addendum and ensure their compliance with this addendum.

5. Resident acknowledges that Landlord is not a guarantor of the Resident's health or that the areas listed in Paragraph 3 above will be free of Smoke; however, Landlord shall take reasonable steps to enforce this Addendum. Landlord shall not be required to take any specific steps in response to Smoking unless Landlord has actual knowledge or has been provided written notice.

6. To the extent provided by applicable law, all lawful occupants of the Apartment Community are express third-party beneficiaries of this Addendum. If Resident or any Authorized Occupant or Guest breaches this Addendum, or Resident or any Authorized Occupant knowingly allows Guests to breach this Addendum, Resident potentially will be liable to Landlord and to any resident or guest of the Apartment Community who is exposed to secondhand smoke because of that breach.

7. Resident acknowledges that this Addendum and Landlord's efforts to designate Non-Smoking Areas do not in any way change the standard of care that the Landlord would have to any Resident household to render buildings and premises designated as non-smoking any safer, more habitable, or improved in terms of air quality than any other rental premises. Landlord specifically disclaims any implied or express warranties that the building common areas or Resident's premises will have any higher or improved air quality standards than any other rental property. Landlord cannot and does not warrant or promise that the Premises or any other portion of the Community including common areas will be free from secondhand smoke. Resident acknowledges that Landlord's ability to police, monitor or enforce this Addendum is dependent in significant part on voluntary compliance by Resident and Resident's guests.

8. Resident and Landlord agree to comply with all applicable laws relating to smoking at this property. Landlord is not required to advise Resident of any changes in the law with respect to smoking on the Property. It is a material breach for Resident or any other person subject to the control of Resident or present by invitation or permission of Resident to violate any law regulating Smoking while anywhere on the Property To the extent that any provision of this Addendum is in conflict with any provisions of applicable law, such provision is hereby deleted, and any provision required by applicable law which is not included in this Addendum is hereby inserted as an additional provision of this Addendum, but only to the extent required by applicable law and then only so long as the provision of the applicable law is not repealed or held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction.

9. Landlord may change its smoking policies at any time after providing Resident with thirty (30) days written notice. Thirty (30) days' notice is not required if a policy change is implemented to comply with a new law or ordinance.

10. If any provision of this Addendum or the Lease is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this addendum or the Lease. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall control.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS
Overall Effort in English Language Arts	+
Reading
Independently reads grade level text with purpose, understanding, accuracy and fluency	2
Comprehension of Literature	2
Demonstrates understanding of a variety of literature by:
--Summarizing and discussing key details that support the theme, lesson, or moral of the text
--Discussing in depth characters' actions and motivations
--Comparing and contrasting stories, themes and characters
--Referring explicitly to the text to support ideas, inferences and opinions
Comprehension of Informational Text	2
Demonstrates understanding of a variety of informational text by:
--Interpreting information gained from illustrations, text features and words
--Comparing and contrasting main idea, events and details presented in two or more texts
--Describing the relationship between historical events, scientific ideas or procedures
--Referring explicitly to the text when drawing inferences
Foundational Skills	1
--Efficiently uses knowledge of word patterns and Latin root words to decode multisyllabic words in text
--Uses a variety of strategies to accurately read new words in text
--Determines the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in text
Writing
Routinely writes across a variety of topics and genre, producing writing that reflects a range of purposes and audiences	1
Uses the writing process, including feedback from adults and peers, to develop and strengthen writing	1
Produces writing projects which are developed, organized and published appropriate to purpose and audience	1
Uses evidence to support an analysis or reflection of literary or informational texts	1

Reporting Period	1	2	3
Speaking and Listening
Comprehension and Collaboration	1
--Engages effectively in collaborative discussions
--Paraphrases portions of a text read aloud or information presented
--Identifies the points a speaker or media sources makes to support their idea
Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas	X
--Reports on a topic or text, tells a story, or recounts an experience with appropriate facts and relevant descriptive details
--Plans and delivers a presentation
--Differentiates between contexts that call for formal English and situations where informal discourse is appropriate Language
Written Language: Conventions of Standard English	2
--Produces simple, compound and complex sentences
--Uses capital letters and punctuation correctly
--Correctly spells frequently confused words (e.g. too, to, two)
--Demonstrates command of conventions of English grammar and usage
Vocabulary Acquisition and Use	2
--Determines or clarifies the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases
--Demonstrates understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings
--Uses new words and phrases learned through conversations and texts

MATHEMATICS
Overall Effort in Mathematics	+
Operations and Algebraic Thinking	X
--Uses four operations (+, -, x, ÷) with whole numbers to solve problems
--Gains familiarity with factors and multiples
--Generates and analyzes patterns
Number and Operations in Base Ten	2
--Generalizes place-value understanding for multi-digit whole numbers
--Uses place-value understanding and properties of operations to perform multi-digit arithmetic
--Fluently adds and subtracts multi-digit whole numbers using the standard algorithm

Student: Lucca Caetano Primary Teacher: Aberg, David Grade: 4

Mathematics cont.
Number and Operations - Fractions	X
--Extends understanding of fractions equivalence and ordering
--Builds fractions using unit fractions
--Understands decimal notation for fractions, and compares decimal fractions
Measurement and Data	X
--Solves problems involving measurement and conversion of measurements from a larger unit to a smaller unit
--Understands concept of an angle and measures angles
--Represents and interprets data
Geometry	X
--Draws and identifies lines and angles, and classifies shapes by properties of lines and angles
SCIENCE STANDARDS
Overall Effort in Science	*

TEACHER COMMENTS

1st Trimester: Rm 18 / Very social, funny, friendly. Independent. Able to follow a daily schedule independently. Works in a small group willingly. Respectful. Loves to draw familiar characters and describe them to others. Enjoys playing with friends at recess. Responds positively to praise and encouragement.

Mr. Aberg: Lucca joins Room 20 for our class' morning meeting, PE, music, library, art, Lego lab, and science. He gets along well with others in the class, and he always participates in our morning meetings. He needs lots of guidance to follow directions in writing and for working with others for science experiments.

TEACHER COMMENTS

3rd Trimester: Ms. Princess: Lucca is an active, curious student who engages well with peers and teachers. He cooperates consistently and puts in strong effort across subjects. While he sometimes gets frustrated and needs reminders to stay on task, encouragement helps him complete his work. Lucca is making great progress in math and growing more confident, though reading and comprehension remain areas needing continued support. He's been a wonderful addition to our class this year!

TEACHER COMMENTS

1st Trimester: Comments from Ms. K: Lucca is a creative and kind student who loves building and creating things. With adult support Lucca is considered below grade level, but is making progress when he is consistently at school. He works very hard at reading, writing, and math. Lucca experiences challenges with distractibility and expressing himself verbally during academic tasks and often needs redirection and language support. We use reinforcers, breaks, and prompting to support Lucca during these times. Lucca's writing is improving and with adult guidance he is able to write sentences when an adult first models them. Lucca's reading is improving and he is able to segment individual sounds in CVC words, he is having trouble blending the sounds to create words. Lucca is able to add and subtract numbers within 20 with adult support and manipulatives. Currently, we are supporting his understanding of place value and regrouping using addition and subtraction using base ten blocks for support. Overall, Lucca is a joy to have in the classroom, he participates in activities, and is kind to others. Lucca would benefit from consistent attendance at school, listening to stories, and reading decodable texts at home.

Ms. Pawlick: Lucca is a friendly and creative student. We will continue to work together to help him grow in all academic areas.

2nd Trimester: Comments from Ms. Pawlick: Lucca is a well behaved and happy boy and is a pleasure to have in class.

Comments from Ms. K: Lucca is making progress academically and behaviorally. Lucca is reading and decoding decodable texts with the short vowels /a/ and /i/. Lucca forms all of his letters correctly and can write up to 4 sentences on a prompt with the support of a graphic organizer and sentence frames. Lucca needs reminders to add species between words, and add punctuation. Lucca can answer "wh" reading comprehension questions with the support of sentence frames and modeling sentence structure. Lucca experiences challenges in his expressive communication, which makes it difficult for him to express his thoughts accurately. Lucca is making progress in math and is understanding place value with the support of visuals and manipulatives. Lucca can add and subtract within 20 with the support of an adult. Lucca experiences some challenges in attention during lessons. However, Lucca is easily redirected with less than 2 prompts. Lucca is friendly and kind to all peers and adults.

3rd Trimester: Comments from Ms. Pawlick: It was a pleasure having Lucca in my class and I am so proud of the effort he put in. Have a wonderful summer and best of luck at his new school!

Comments from Ms. K: Lucca made progress academically and behaviorally. Lucca would benefit from continued reading and comprehension practice using decodable texts, and participating in social interactions with peers his age. We will miss him next year! Have a great summer!

Immigration Judge

☐ 2. You are an alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or paroled.

☐ 3. You have been admitted to the United States, but are removable for the reasons stated below.

The Department of Homeland Security alleges that you:

1. You are a native of Brazil and a citizen of Brazil.
2. You are not a citizen or national of the United States.
3. On or about October 25th, 2017, you applied for admission into the United States at the Bridge of the Americas, El Paso, Texas.
4. At that time, you did not possess or present a valid immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing identification card, or a valid document required by the Immigration and Nationality Act.

On the basis of the foregoing, it is charged that you are subject to removal from the United States pursuant to the following provision(s) of law:

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are under removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 3.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents, which you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing.

At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear and that you are inadmissible or removable on the charges contained in the Notice to Appear. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge.

You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of departure voluntarily. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the DHS, in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this preceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to one of the offices listed in 8 CFR 241.16(a). Specific addresses on locations for surrender can be obtained from your local DHS office or over the internet at http://www.ice.gov/about/dro/contact.htm. You must surrender within 30 days from the date the order becomes administratively final, unless you obtain an order from a Federal court, immigration court, or the Board of Immigration Appeals staying execution of the removal order. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Act.

Hon. Dion A. Morwood
Immigration Judge

☒ 1. You are an arriving alien.

☐ 2. You are an alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or paroled.

☐ 3. You have been admitted to the United States, but are removable for the reasons stated below.

The Department of Homeland Security alleges that you:

1. You are a native of Brazil and a citizen of Brazil.
2. You are not a citizen or national of the United States.
3. On or about October 25th, 2017, you applied for admission into the United States at the Bridge of the Americas, El Paso, Texas.
4. At that time, you did not possess or present a valid immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing identification card, or a valid document required by the Immigration and Nationality Act.

On the basis of the foregoing, it is charged that you are subject to removal from the United States pursuant to the following provision(s) of law:

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are under removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 3.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents, which you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing.

At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear and that you are inadmissible or removable on the charges contained in the Notice to Appear. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge.

You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of departure voluntarily. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the DHS, in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this preceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to one of the offices listed in 8 CFR 241.16(a). Specific addresses on locations for surrender can be obtained from your local DHS office or over the internet at http://www.ice.gov/about/dro/contact.htm. You must surrender within 30 days from the date the order becomes administratively final, unless you obtain an order from a Federal court, immigration court, or the Board of Immigration Appeals staying execution of the removal order. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Act.

Request for Prompt Hearing

To expedite a determination in my case, I request an immediate hearing. I waive my right to a 10-day period prior to appearing before an immigration judge.

2.B. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), or other family members, such as your parents or siblings, ever applied for or received any lawful status in any country other than the one from which you are now claiming asylum?

☑ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes" to either or both questions (2A and/or 2B), provide for each person the following: the name of each country and the length of stay, the person's status while there, the reasons for leaving, whether or not the person is entitled to return for lawful residence purposes, and whether the person applied for refugee status or for asylum while there, and if not, why he or she did not do so.

I traveled to Mexico before entering the United States.

3. Have you, your spouse or your child(ren) ever ordered, incited, assisted or otherwise participated in causing harm or suffering to any person because of his or her race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group or belief in a particular political opinion?

☑ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe in detail each such incident and your own, your spouse's, or your child(ren)'s involvement.

EOIR - 9 of 16

Exh. 5 - Adm.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application (Continued)

4. After you left the country where you were harmed or fear harm, did you return to that country?

☑ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe in detail the circumstances of your visit(s) (for example, the date(s) of the trip(s), the purpose(s) of the trip(s), and the length of time you remained in that country for the visit(s).)

5. Are you filing this application more than 1 year after your last arrival in the United States?

☑ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," explain why you did not file within the first year after you arrived. You must be prepared to explain at your interview or hearing why you did not file your asylum application within the first year after you arrived. For guidance in answering this question, see Instructions, Part 1: Filing Instructions, Section V. "Completing the Form," Part C.

6. Have you or any member of your family included in the application ever committed any crime and/or been arrested, charged, convicted, or sentenced for any crimes in the United States?

☑ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," for each instance, specify in your response: what occurred and the circumstances, dates, length of sentence received, location, the duration of the detention or imprisonment, reason(s) for the detention or conviction, any formal charges that were lodged against you or your relatives included in your application, and the reason(s) for release. Attach documents referring to these incidents, if they are available, or an explanation of why documents are not available.

EOIR - 10 of 16

Exh. 5 - Adm.

Part D. Your Signature

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this application and the evidence submitted with it are all true and correct. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1546(a), provides in part: Whoever knowingly makes under oath, or as permitted under penalty of perjury under Section 1746 of Title 28, United States Code, knowingly subscribes as true, any false statement with respect to a material fact in any application, affidavit, or other document required by the immigration laws or regulations prescribed thereunder, or knowingly presents any such application, affidavit, or other document containing any such false statement or which fails to contain any reasonable basis in law or fact - shall be fined in accordance with this title or imprisoned for up to 25 years. I authorize the release of any information from my immigration record that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) needs to determine eligibility for the benefit I am seeking.

WARNING: Applicants who are in the United States unlawfully are subject to removal if their asylum or withholding claims are not granted by an asylum officer or an immigration judge. Any information provided in completing this application may be used as a basis for the institution of, or as evidence in, removal proceedings even if the application is later withdrawn. Applicants determined to have knowingly made a frivolous application for asylum will be permanently ineligible for any benefits under the Immigration and Nationality Act. You may not avoid a frivolous finding simply because someone advised you to provide false information in your asylum application. If filing with USCIS, unexcused failure to appear for an appointment to provide biometrics (such as fingerprints) and your biographical information within the time allowed may result in an asylum officer dismissing your asylum application or referring it to an immigration judge. Failure without good cause to provide DHS with biometrics or other biographical information while in removal proceedings may result in your application being found abandoned by the immigration judge. See sections 208(d)(5)(A) and 208(d)(6) of the INA and 8 CFR sections 208.10, 1208.10, 208.20, 1003.47(d) and 1208.20.

Exhibit 11 - Letters of Support

May 16th, 2026

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this letter in strong support of Roberta Caetano Almeida Dos Santos and her application for lawful permanent residency in the United States.

I have known Roberta Caetano Almeida Dos Santos for approximately one year through the professional services she has provided for my household. During this time, she has consistently demonstrated exceptional moral character, professionalism, honesty, and dedication.

Roberta Caetano Almeida Dos Santos is an exceptionally responsible and diligent individual. She is dependable, trustworthy, and committed to maintaining high standards in every aspect of her work. Through her integrity, consistency, and strong work ethic, she has earned my complete confidence and respect.

Beyond her professional abilities, Roberta Caetano Almeida Dos Santos is a compassionate and respectful individual who has a positive impact on those around her. She is committed to building a stable and meaningful life in the United States and contributes positively to the community through both her work and her personal values.

Without reservation, I strongly support her application for permanent residency. I am confident that she is a person of excellent character who will continue to be a valuable member of the community.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should any additional information be required.

Sincerely,

Shoko Yuyama

To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter in support of Roberta Caetano Almeida Dos Santos and her application for permanent residency in the United States.

I have known Roberta Caetano Almeida Dos Santos for almost 2 years, during which she has consistently demonstrated outstanding character, professionalism, and dedication. Through her cleaning and organization services, she has assisted my family with exceptional care and reliability. Her work is always completed with great attention to detail, professionalism, and a positive attitude.

Beyond her excellent work ethic, Roberta Caetano Almeida Dos Santos is a trustworthy, compassionate, and respectful individual. She has earned my complete confidence and respect through her honesty, dependability, and genuine kindness toward others. I have always felt comfortable welcoming her into my home and around my family because of the integrity she consistently displays.

What I admire most about Roberta is her determination to create a better future for herself and her family. She is hardworking, responsible, and committed to contributing positively to her community. Her strong values and perseverance make her someone truly deserving of the opportunity to continue building her life in the United States.

I fully support her application for permanent residency and strongly believe she will continue to be a valuable and positive member of the community.

Please feel free to contact me if any additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter in support of Roberta Caetano and her application for permanent residency in the United States.

I have known Roberta Caetano for approximately two and half years through her professional cleaning and home organization services. During this time, I have come to know her as an exceptionally hardworking, honest, responsible, and trustworthy individual.

Roberta Caetano consistently demonstrates a strong work ethic and remarkable professionalism. She is dependable, punctual, detail-oriented, and always performs her duties with care and integrity. Her dedication to providing excellent service and maintaining high standards has earned my complete trust and respect.

In addition to her professional qualities, Roberta Caetano possesses outstanding moral character. She is respectful, compassionate, and genuinely caring toward others. She contributes positively to the community and treats everyone with kindness and dignity. It is evident that she is committed to building a stable and meaningful life in the United States.

I strongly support Roberta Caetano's application and believe she would continue to be a valuable and positive member of our community. I respectfully ask that her application be given favorable consideration.

Please feel free to contact me if additional information is needed.

To Whom It May Concern

I am writing this letter in support of Roberta Caetano, who is applying for permanent residency in the United States.

I have known Roberta for over a year. What started as a professional relationship has also become a personal one due to her diligence, work effort, kindness, and genuine care.

Roberta is one of the most dependable, reliable, and trustworthy people I know. She is hardworking, always willing to do more, respectful, and honest. I feel totally comfortable with her in my home.

Roberta is determined to build a better life for her and her family. Her positive attitude is an asset towards that goal and helps others develop the same outlook.

For these reasons and others stated above, I wholeheartedly support Roberta's application for permanent residency and believe she will be a contribution to this country and a positive role model for others wishing to come to the United States.

Sincerely,

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

☑ This is a summary of the oral decision entered on 01/16/2025. The oral decision in this case is the official opinion, and the immigration court issued this summary for the convenience of the parties.
☐ Both parties waived the issuance of a formal oral decision in this proceeding.

I. Removability

The immigration court found Respondent ☑ removable ☐ inadmissible under the following Section(s) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA or Act): 212(a)(7)(A)(i) (I).

The immigration court found Respondent ☐ not removable ☐ not inadmissible under the following Section(s) of the Act:

II. Applications for Relief

Respondent's application for:

A. Asylum/Withholding/Convention Against Torture

☑ Asylum was ☑ granted ☐ denied ☐ withdrawn with prejudice ☐ withdrawn without prejudice

☐ Withholding of Removal under the Convention Against Torture was ☐ granted ☐ denied ☐ withdrawn with prejudice ☐ withdrawn without prejudice

☐ Deferral of Removal under the Convention Against Torture was ☐ granted ☐ denied ☐ withdrawn with prejudice ☐ withdrawn without prejudice

B. Cancellation of Removal

☐ Cancellation of Removal for Lawful Permanent Residents under INA § 240A(a) was ☐ granted ☐ denied ☐ withdrawn with prejudice ☐ withdrawn without prejudice

☐ Cancellation of Removal for Nonpermanent Residents under INA § 240A(b)(1) was ☐ granted ☐ denied ☐ withdrawn with prejudice ☐ withdrawn without prejudice

III. Voluntary Departure

☐ Respondent's application for ☐ pre-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(a) ☐ post-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(b) was ☐ denied.

☐ Respondent's application for ☐ pre-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(a) ☐ post-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(b) was ☐ granted, and Respondent is ordered to depart by . The respondent must post a $ bond with DHS within five business days of this order. Failure to post the bond as required or to depart by the required date will result in an alternate order of removal to taking effect immediately.

☐ The respondent is subject to the following conditions to ensure his or her timely departure from the United States:

☐ Respondent was advised of the limitation on discretionary relief, the consequences for failure to depart as ordered, the bond posting requirements, and the consequences of filing a post-order motion to reopen or reconsider:

If Respondent fails to voluntarily depart within the time specified or any extensions granted by the DHS, Respondent shall be subject to a civil monetary penalty as provided by relevant statute, regulation, and policy. See INA § 240B(d)(1). The immigration court has set ☐ the presumptive civil monetary penalty amount of $3,000.00 USD ☐ $ USD instead of the presumptive amount.

If Respondent fails to voluntarily depart within the time specified, the alternate order of removal shall automatically take effect, and Respondent shall be ineligible, for a period of 10 years, for voluntary departure or for relief under sections 240A, 245, 248, and 249 of the Act, to include cancellation of removal, adjustment of status, registry, or change of nonimmigrant status. Id. If Respondent files a motion to reopen or reconsider prior to the expiration of the voluntary departure period set forth above, the grant of voluntary departure is automatically terminated; the period allowed for voluntary departure is not stayed, tolled, or extended. If the grant of voluntary departure is automatically terminated upon the filing of such a motion, the penalties for failure to depart under section 240B(d) of the Act shall not apply.

If Respondent appeals this decision, Respondent must provide to the Board of Immigration Appeals (Board), within 30 days of filing an appeal, sufficient proof of having posted the voluntary departure bond. The Board will not reinstate the voluntary departure period in its final order if Respondent does not submit timely proof to the Board that the voluntary departure bond has been posted.

In the case of conversion to a removal order where the alternate order of removal immediately takes effect, where Respondent willfully fails or refuses to depart from the United States pursuant to the order of removal, to make timely application in good faith for travel or other documents necessary to depart the United States, to present himself or herself at the time and place required for removal by the DHS, or conspires to or takes any action designed to prevent or hamper Respondent's departure pursuant to the order of removal, Respondent may be subject to a civil monetary penalty for each day Respondent is in violation. If Respondent is removable pursuant to INA § 237(a), then he or she shall be further fined or imprisoned for up to 10 years.

IV. Removal

☐ Respondent was ordered removed to

☐ In the alternative, Respondent was ordered removed to

☐ Respondent was advised of the penalties for failure to depart pursuant to the removal order:

> If Respondent is subject to a final order of removal and willfully fails or refuses to depart from the United States pursuant to the order, to make timely application in good faith for travel or other documents necessary to depart the United States, to present himself or herself at the time and place required for removal by the DHS, or conspires to or takes any action designed to prevent or hamper Respondent's departure pursuant to the order of removal, Respondent may be subject to a civil monetary penalty for each day Respondent is in violation. If Respondent is removable pursuant to INA § 237(a), then he or she shall be further fined or imprisoned for up to 10 years.

V. Other

Client Information

Client Name: Lucca Caetano

Date of Birth: 5/30/2016 Age: 3 years 1 months

Date of Observation: 09/17/2019

Location of Testing: 821 Alden Lane, Livermore, CA 94550

IDENTIFICATION AND REFERRAL

Lucca Caetano's Mom Roberta Caetano pursued this Comprehensive Diagnostic Evaluation (CDE) because she feels very strongly that the Applied Behavior Analysis ABA) treatment received by children with Autism is the service she wishes her son to receive. He has been already been diagnosed with Autism by the San Mateo Foster City School District. In determining Lucas eligibility for Special Education Services, the following referral question was addressed: does Lucca exhibit characteristics consistent with the special education qualifying category "Autism"? The answer was "Yes, Luca does exhibit characteristics of a child on the Autism spectrum. Observations of him in the testing room and his classroom indicate deficits in social interactions with peers. He also exhibits other characteristics that are often associated with Autism, such as using inappropriate verbal and nonverbal communication or social contact, he has difficulty relating to children, and he is overreacting and changes activities consistently. He also lines up objects gets on the ground to watch tires/wheels on cars/trains, and he puts objects in his mouth." Mrs. Caetano is fearful that ABA services will not be implemented in the school setting. She is aware that if Magellan Healthcare on behalf of the Health Plan of San Mateo determines a youngster has Autism ABA services will be provided in the home.

FAMILY HISTORY

Mrs. Caetano reports that Lucca's pregnancy was full term and normal. His birth was also normal, and he arrived weighing 5 pounds 15 ounces and was 15.5 inches long. They were in the hospital for standard time and went home in good condition. Mom became concerned about Lucca's behaviors at about 1.5 years old. This is when she noticed he was not speaking while other kids were already using words and he was not interested in other children took toys away and isolated himself. Apart from speaking Lucca met most of his developmental milestones within the normal limits (e.g., turned over on his own at 6 months, sat up on his own without tipping over at 8 months, started crawling at 7 months, walked at a year, but is only now learning to speak). He appears to have his own dialect in that he mumbles vocalizations as though he thinks he is speaking but they're not accompanied by any understandable words. As his Mother emphasized "not one word". There is no one in the immediate or extended family with a history of developmental delays.

RE: Lucca Caetano – 3.1 mos.

Lucca lives in an apartment with his Parents and 15-year-old sister and 12-year-old brother. They are fortunate to live in an area that has very nice parks and playgrounds. At this juncture Lucca has been diagnosed with Autism, and speech delay. Lucca it Is very healthy, active, and rarely is sick. He is a very picky eater and does sleep very well . He may go to sleep a little bit late and gets up early, but he sleeps all night.

PRIOR SERVICES

Lucca is presently not receiving any services. Due to extensive testing and follow up Individualized Education Program (IEP) procedures and extensive services are in order for Lucca but their implementation is just beginning.

"The following attempts to answer the referral questions:

1. Does Lucca exhibit characteristics consistent with the Special Education qualifying category "Autism?" YES, Lucca does exhibit characteristics of a child on the autism spectrum. Observations of him in the testing room and his classroom indicated deficits in social interactions with peers. He also exhibits other characteristics that are often associated with autism, such as using inappropriate verbal and non-verbal communication for social contact, he has difficulty relating to children, and he is overly active and changes activities constantly. He also lines up objects, gets down on the ground to watch tires/wheels on cars/trains, and he puts objects in his mouth."

CLINICAL INTERVIEW

Mom shared that Lucca's strengths are: he enjoys playing with his brother, loves dance music, shows his love of music by caressing his face, is a calm individual, shows his enjoyment of life very openly.

Mom shared that Lucca's weaknesses are: he has a speech delay, does not pay attention, is very hyper, lacks the ability to be positive, does not show interest in other children and he'd rather be isolated with the toys he likes than be with other children.

RE: Lucca Caetano – 3.1 mos.

OBSERVATIONS DURING THE EXAMINATION

Upon entering the testing area, Lucca very comfortably moved ahead of his Mom after pausing a moment to look at all the wonderful toys around the floor and testing table. Lucca is a slightly above average sized well-coordinated boy who looked into the Examiner's eyes with a friendly smile as he settled onto the floor amongst the toys. He uttered some word like vocalizations as he kneeled down to play with the Geometric Peg Board. As he began to focus on his interaction with the Peg Board his Mother let out a congratulatory sound as he fit one of the triangles on the proper peg. He then turned and traded a quick smile with his Mother and then went right back to playing with the toy. After his momentary focus on the Peg Board he began to explore other toys by simply briefly picking them up looking at them and then placing them down on the floor. His exploration of the toys was mostly functional if at all. It was the inflating and Release of the Balloon Activity that made him briefly run around on his tiptoes, engage in hand flapping, let out some screeching and yelling vocalizations, plus run around in circles. He had the same reaction, except much gentler, in the Bubble Game Activity as he reacted to the descending bubbles. During the Balloon Activity plus a few other activities he became insistent on having the activities repeated over and over again. Efforts to proceed on to another task were ignored as he tried to have the preferred activity repeated. Throughout the assessment Lucca did not do use words to communicate or interact with either his Mother or the Examiner. He does know some words in Portuguese and English, but none were uttered throughout the session. He won't use the name of a specific object that he knows to request it. Instead of using words he knows he will use gestures or other nonverbal strategies to ask for or designate an object. Several times during the testing he did respond in kind to a social smile by the Examiner. Having Lucca to respond to his name was successful only once in a while. Throughout the testing Lucca would become involved in self-initiated activities that seemed to completely absorb him in his own little world. When he was in his own world there was no immediate response to his name. In order to get a response required an intrusion into his physical space or a very exaggerated verbal expression of his name. During the response to joint attention ADOS–2 activity he did not follow the gaze to the remote-controlled toy until the Examiner used his name, an exaggerated statement, plus an exaggerated gaze to get him to look at the toy. He then went to the toy and began to try to figure out how to make it work. Once he figured out how it worked, he quickly abandoned it and went onto something else. All of Lucca's interactions with the materials, Parents or the Examiner were an expression of his basic coping ability. Therefore, overall, the results of the ADOS-2 were deemed to be a valid and reliable estimate of Lucca's current level of socio-emotional-functioning interactions with the materials

RE: Lucca Caetano – 3.1 mos.

M-CHAT–R/F

The Modified Checklist for Autism in Toddlers — Revised, with Follow-Up (M-CHATR/F) — is a two-step screening tool used to detect children likely to have Autism. It is intended for use at regular well-child checkups for children 16 to 30 months old. The M-CHAT-R/ Health care providers can classify a child's risk of having Autism as low, medium or high, on the basis of Lucca's Mom's answers to 20 questions.

Lucca's Mother was administered the M-CHAT–R/F and her rating was sufficiently elevated to place Lucca at the "High Risk" level of "Action required: immediately refer child for diagnostic evaluation and eligibility evaluation for early intervention."

ADOS – 2

The Autism Diagnostic Observation Schedule, Second Edition (ADOS – 2) is a semi-structured standardized assessment of communication, social interaction, play, imaginative use of materials, and restricted and repetitive behaviors for individuals who have been referred because of possible Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD). The ADOS-2 contains five (5) assessment modules, each designed to evoke behaviors that are directly relevant to the diagnosis of ASD at different developmental levels and chronological ages. Module 1 was selected for use with Lucca due to his age and use of language.

Table 1 below presents the data supporting Lucca's ADOS-2 findings. Overall, the results of the ADOS-2 were elevated for Autism (Lucca's score 16, Autism cut-off = 12), with a "Moderate" level of Autism spectrum-related symptoms.*

Module 1

	Some Words
	Behavior Measured	Score	Comments
Social Affect Communication	A-2 Frequency of Spontaneous Vocalization Directed to Others	2	Lucca directs an occasional vocalization to Parent/caregiver or Examiner inconsistently in a limited number of pragmatic contexts.
	A7 Pointing	2	Lucca points only when close to or actually touching an object, without coordinated gaze or vocalization.

RE: Lucca Caetano – 3.1 mos.

Reciprocal Social Interaction	B-1 Unusual Eye Contact	0	Lucca demonstrates appropriate gaze with subtle changes meshed with other communication
	B3 Facial Expressions Directed to Others	1	Lucca engages some direction of facial expressions to the Examiner and/or Parent /caregiver (e.g., directs only expressions indicating emotional extreme(s) to others.
	B4 Integration of Gaze and Other Behaviors During Social Overtures	1	Lucca uses eye contact and other strategies independently of each other to communicate social interaction (i.e., uses both eye contact and vocalizations at different times, but does not coordinate them with each other).
	B5 Shared Enjoyment in Joint Interaction	1	Lucca shows some pleasure appropriate to the context during interactions with the Examiner.
	B9 Showing	1	Lucca shows toys or objects in a partial or inconsistent manner.
	B10 Spontaneous Initiation of Joint Attention	2	Lucca engages in no approximation of spontaneous initiation of joint attention in order to direct another person's attention to an object that is out of reach
	B11 Response to Joint Attention
	B12 Quality of Social Overtures	1	Lucca's social overtures are restricted to personal demands or related to strong interests, but with some attempt to involve the Examiner or the Parent /caregiver in those interests.
Restricted and Repetitive Behavior	A3 Intonation of Vocalizations or Verbalizations
	A5 Stereotyped/Idiosyncratic Use of Words or Phrases	2	History was presented and Lucca demonstrated that he often uses stereotyped utterances or odd words or phrases, with some other language.
	D1 Unusual Sensory Interest in Play Material/Person	0	History was presented and Lucca demonstrated no unusual sensory interests or sensory-seeking behaviors.

	D2 Hand and Finger and Other Complex Mannerisms	1	History was presented and Lucca demonstrated unusual and repetitive complex mannerisms.
	D4 Unusually Repetitive Interests or Stereotyped Behaviors	2	History was presented and Lucca demonstrated clearly repetitive or stereotyped interests and/or behaviors. These behaviors may form a substantial minority of the child's interests and spontaneous behaviors and may interfere with the child's ability to complete some ADOS-2 activities, but it is possible for his or her attention to be directed to other objects or activities, at least momentarily.

SUMMARY

Mrs. Caetano pursued this CDE because she feels very strongly that the ABA treatment received by children with Autism is the service she wishes her son to receive. He has already been diagnosed with Autism by the San Mateo Foster City School District. In determining Lucas eligibility for special education services, the following referral question was addressed: does Lucca exhibit characteristics consistent with the special education qualifying category "Autism"? The answer was "YES, Lucca does exhibit characteristics of a child on the Autism spectrum". Mrs. Caetano is fearful that ABA services will not be implemented in the school setting. She is aware that if Magellan Healthcare on behalf of the Health Plan of San Mateo determines a youngster has Autism ABA services will be provided in the home.

The findings of the: Clinical Interview with Mrs. Caetano based on DSM-5 criteria, a Review of Records The Modified Checklist for Autism in Toddlers — Revised, with Follow-Up (M-CHAT–R/F) , and the Autism Diagnostic Observation Module 2 Schedule (ADOS–2) indicate that Lucca does have an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). More specifically the M-CHAT–R/F, administered to Lucca's Mother and the ADOS–2 administered to Lucca arrived at the following results: Mom's M-CHAT–R/F was sufficiently elevated to place Lucca at the "High Risk" level of "Action required: immediately refer child for diagnostic evaluation and eligibility evaluation for early intervention." Overall, the results of the ADOS-2 were also elevated for Autism with a "Moderate" level of Autism Spectrum-related symptoms and a severity level "Requiring Substantial Support". The results of this Comprehensive Diagnostic Evaluation (CDE) therefore indicate that LUCCA DOES HAVE an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and that he currently does meet criteria for a DSM-5 diagnosis of 299.00 (F84.0): Autism Spectrum Disorder.

DIAGNOSTIC IMPRESSIONS

Lucca is a 3 year 1-month-old boy with a history of developmental and behavioral concerns. Magellan Health for diagnostic clarification referred him to Dr. Palomares. Based on all available information including this assessment, LUCCA DOES HAVE an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). He currently meets criteria for a DSM-5 diagnosis of 299.00 (F84.0): Autism Spectrum Disorder.

Psychological Report

RE: Lucca Caetano – 3.1 mos.

DIAGNOSTIC SUMMARY

- Severity level for social communication: Level 2, "requiring substantial support"
- Severity level for restricted, repetitive behaviors: Level 2, "requiring substantial support
- With accompanying language impairment: Speech or Language Impairment (SLI)
- Without accompanying Cognitive Impairment
- Without probability of association with known medical factors:
- Associated with other neurodevelopment disorder:
- Symptoms present in early developmental period
- Symptoms are causing clinically significant impairment in social and other areas of current functioning.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. ABA or similar interventions be used to improve and decrease the frequency of off task behaviors and promote communication and social skills.

2. Children with Autism are at higher risk for a number of genetic disorders that can be identified by genetic testing. This has implications for prognosis, medical surveillance, and future family planning. Medical providers routinely recommend testing for all patients with Autism Spectrum Disorders including: a DNA test for fragile X and chromosomal micro array analysis with SNP.

3. Lucca's Parents will greatly benefit from attending a Parent training class, which focuses on learning to manage children who have ASD.

DIAGNOSTIC AND RECOMMENDATION OVERVIEW

Please check all that apply:

- X Member meets the diagnostic criteria for Autism Spectrum Disorder ASD (299.00)
- ☐ Member does not meet the diagnostic criteria for Autism Spectrum Disorder ASD (299.00)
- X ABA therapy is the recommended treatment
- ☐ ABA therapy is not recommended
- X Member does meet diagnostic criteria for other behavioral health diagnosis: Speech or Language Impairment (SLI)

I-797 Approval Notice for Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant with Deferred Action.

USCIS has approved the above petition.

Grant of Deferred Action:

Your Form I-360 petition has been approved, but you do not yet have a visa available to file an application for adjustment of status. USCIS has determined that you warrant a favorable exercise of discretion to receive deferred action. As a result, you have been placed in deferred action and you may be issued an employment authorization document. Deferred action is an act of administrative convenience to the government which gives some cases lower priority for removal from the United States for a specified period of time.

Your grant of deferred action will remain in effect for a period of four years from the date of this notice unless terminated earlier by USCIS.

Pursuant to 8 CFR Sec. 274a.12(c)(14), a noncitizen with approved deferred action is eligible to apply for employment authorization with the appropriate fee. If you would like to apply for employment authorization, you must properly file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and enter eligibility category (c)(14). You will receive separate correspondence regarding the adjudication of your Form I-765 once it is filed.

If you are represented by an attorney, all further correspondence should be accompanied by Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative.

USCIS will notify you separately about any other cases you have filed.

This form is not a visa, nor may you use it in place of a visa.

This form does not constitute employment authorization, nor may you use it in place of an Employment Authorization Document.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

USCIS encourages you to sign up for a USCIS online account. To learn more about creating an account and the benefits, go to https://www.uscis.gov/file-online.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANT/PETITIONER

Please save this Form I-797, Notice of Action (approval notice) for your records. Please note that simply filing an application, petition or request, or having an approved petition does not give the person it was filed for (also known as the beneficiary) permission to legally enter the United States. It also does not grant any legal immigration status.

Include a copy of this notice if you:

- Write to USCIS or a U.S. Consulate about your case or
- File another application or petition with USCIS based on this decision.

USCIS will notify you separately about any other applications or petitions you have filed.

Inquiries

If you have questions about your application or petition, you may:

- Go to https://egov.uscis.gov/casestatus to check your case status online.
- Call the National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283.
- Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD): 1-800-767-1833.
- Send us a letter and include a copy of this notice.
- Schedule an appointment at a local USCIS office using InfoPass at https://infopass.uscis.gov.

If you filed Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service, and you have any questions about your application or petition, please follow the instructions for contacting the Premium Processing Unit printed on the receipt notice we mailed you.

APPROVAL OF A NONIMMIGRANT PETITION

If we approved a nonimmigrant petition, it means that the beneficiary is eligible for the requested nonimmigrant classification. If this notice says that we are notifying a U.S. Consulate about the approval for the purpose of issuing a visa, contact the appropriate U.S. Consulate directly if you or the beneficiary has questions about the process.

APPROVAL OF AN IMMIGRANT PETITION

An approved immigrant petition does not grant any legal immigration status or guarantee that the beneficiary will receive a visa or an adjustment of status. The approved petition means the beneficiary can:

- Apply for an immigrant or fiancé(e) visa if he or she is outside the United States, or
- Apply for adjustment of status as a permanent resident if he or she is already in the United States.

If this notice states we approved your immigrant petition and forwarded it to the National Visa Center (NVC), the NVC will directly contact the beneficiary with information about how to apply for a visa. If any changes occur that could affect visa eligibility, visit the NVC website at http://nvc.state.gov/ask to find contact information and a public inquiry form.
