Part B. Information About Your Application

(NOTE: Use Form I-589 Supplement B, or attach additional sheets of paper as needed to complete your responses to the questions contained in Part B.)

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

USCIS may adjudicate your application without conducting an interview and without issuing a request for evidence. Your application and any supporting evidence that you provide now may be your only opportunity to meet your burden of proof to establish eligibility for asylum before USCIS.

Refer to Instructions, Part 1: Filing Instructions, Section II, "Basis of Eligibility," Parts A - D, Section V, "Completing the Form," Part B, and Section VII, "Additional Evidence That You Should Submit," for more information on completing this section of the form.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? Check the appropriate box(es) below and then provide detailed answers to questions A and B below.

I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on:

- ☐ Race
- ☐ Religion
- ☐ Nationality
- ☒ Political opinion
- ☒ Membership in a particular social group
- ☒ Torture Convention

A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail:

1. What happened;
2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred;
3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and
4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.

I was the victim of severe and repeated sexual abuse, rape, threats, psychological harm, and coercion by my stepfather, Edson de Paula Freitas, starting when I was 12 years old, after moving into a shared home with him, my mother, and my brothers. As a young female member of his household, I was targeted within a patriarchal domestic dynamic where he asserted total ownership and dominance over me. The abuse began with inappropriate touching while I was asleep and in the bathroom. Mr. Freitas threatened that my family would end up homeless and without financial support if I exposed him, using economic coercion and domestic authority to force my compliance. I actively resisted his control and explicitly opposed his authority by confronting him, repeatedly demanding that he stop and threatening to report him; however, my resistance to his domestic subjugation was met with targeted retaliation, intensifying his abuse and threats, in order to force my silence. When I turned 14 and began dating a boy from my school, his possessiveness and sense of entitlement over me grew even more extreme, and the abuse escalated to forced sexual relations, occurring approximately once a month until I fled the house at age 15 to live with my boyfriend. My mother, having suffered years of psychological, verbal, and economic abuse, remained trapped under his control until 2023, when my disclosure led her to leave him. In response, he escalated his violence against our family through repeated home invasions and threats. His actions reflect deeply ingrained patriarchal expectations of female submission and his perceived entitlement to exercise complete authority over the women in his household.

B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail:

1. What harm or mistreatment you fear;
2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and
3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.

I fear severe physical harm, death threats, rape and other forms of sexual violence, and targeted retaliation by my former stepfather, Edson de Paula Freitas. My fear stems from his history of severe abuse and his systemic need to assert dominance. After I disclosed his abuse, my fear evolved: I face not only risk of sexual abuse, but physical violence and death threats against my family and me, because he perceived my disclosure as a direct challenge to his patriarchal authority, control, and sense of ownership over me. This challenge disrupted his domestic hegemony, leading to his exclusion from the household, social isolation, and a restraining order. Because he views women who reject or oppose his authority as threats to his control, he will continue to pursue and target me regardless of whether he cohabits with our family, or maintains any formal relationship with my mother. His threat is exacerbated by his history of unmanaged psychotic episodes, severe possessiveness, and knowledge of my family's location. Furthermore, the Brazilian government is both unable and unwilling to effectively protect women like myself. When Mr. Freitas retaliated against my mother through repeated home invasions, stalking, and violent threats, she secured a judicial protective order. Yet, such orders are inherently insufficient in Brazil, as the state lacks the capacity to monitor persecutors, and no further action was taken to prosecute Mr. Freitas. Relocating within Brazil would not mitigate the risk, as I believe he would track me down and Brazilian authorities consistently fail to enforce protective measures or safeguard women. My fear is not limited solely to him, but extends to the pervasive culture of violence and femicide in Brazil, where patriarchal norms allow abusers to act with near-total impunity.

Part B. Information About Your Application (continued)

2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action.

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.

I am afraid of being subjected to torture by Mr. Freitas, such as severe physical violence, rape, and intentional psychological harm, if forced to return to Brazil. This fear is grounded in my lived experience: having already subjected me to years of severe sexual torture, he has demonstrated both the capacity and the intent to inflict severe harm. He targets me because I broke the silence, took a firm stance against his abusive behavior and openly opposed his coercive control and perceived entitlement over me. Because I challenged his dominance, he views my resistance as a threat to his authority, creating a persistent retaliatory motive to inflict severe physical and mental suffering upon me. Brazil is unable and unwilling to effectively protect women like me. Instead, systemic institutional neglect often protects perpetrators like him and reinforces their abusive behavior. Given his unhinged state, his history of severe sexual abuse toward me, and the failure of Brazilian authorities to intervene or offer effective protection, I would be exposed to severe intentional physical, sexual and psychological suffering amounting to torture.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application

You should ensure that your explanations are complete and detailed. An asylum officer may adjudicate your application without conducting an interview or requesting additional evidence.

(NOTE: Use Form I-589 Supplement B, or attach additional sheets of paper as needed to complete your responses to the questions contained in Part C.)

1. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents or your siblings ever applied to the U.S. Government for refugee status, asylum, or withholding of removal?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," explain the decision and what happened to any status you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents, or your siblings received as a result of that decision. Indicate whether or not you were included in a parent or spouse's application. If so, include your parent or spouse's A-number in your response. If you have been denied asylum by an immigration judge or the Board of Immigration Appeals, describe any change(s) in conditions in your country or your own personal circumstances since the date of the denial that may affect your eligibility for asylum.

2.A. After leaving the country from which you are claiming asylum, did you or your spouse or child(ren) who are now in the United States travel through or reside in any other country before entering the United States?

☒ No ☐ Yes

2.B. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), or other family members, such as your parents or siblings, ever applied for or received any lawful status in any country other than the one from which you are now claiming asylum?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes" to either or both questions (2A and/or 2B), provide for each person the following: the name of each country and the length of stay, the person's status while there, the reasons for leaving, whether or not the person is entitled to return for lawful residence purposes, and whether the person applied for refugee status or for asylum while there, and if not, why he or she did not do so.

3. Have you, your spouse or your child(ren) ever ordered, incited, assisted or otherwise participated in causing harm or suffering to any person because of his or her race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group or belief in a particular political opinion?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe in detail each such incident and your own, your spouse's, or your child(ren)'s involvement.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application (continued)

4. After you left the country where you were harmed or fear harm, did you return to that country?

☒ No ☐ Yes

If "Yes," describe in detail the circumstances of your visit(s) (for example, the date(s) of the trip(s), the purpose(s) of the trip(s), and the length of time you remained in that country for the visit(s).)

5. Are you filing this application more than 1 year after your last arrival in the United States?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," explain why you did not file within the first year after you arrived. Your written explanation may be your only opportunity to have an asylum officer consider your reason(s). If you are scheduled for an asylum interview or a hearing with an immigration judge, you must be prepared to explain at your interview or hearing why you did not file your asylum application within the first year after you arrived. For guidance in answering this question, see Instructions, Part 1. Filing Instructions, Section V. Completing the Form, Part C.

I arrived in the United States on November 18, 2018, on a B2 visa. I did not file within my first year due to severe trauma, shame, guilt, and deep psychological distress stemming from years of childhood sexual abuse. I was psychologically unable to disclose or speak about the abuse to anyone until I began therapy years later. It was only between 2022 and 2023 that I found the strength to disclose the abuse to my mother, which subsequently triggered a series of new retaliatory events and escalation by my abuser in Brazil (home invasions, harassment, and my mother having to secure a protective court order in 2023). Furthermore, upon learning about the horrific abuse I suffered, my mother experienced severe psychological distress and expressed threats of self-harm and suicide. Knowing the immense trauma this caused her, I hesitated and delayed pursuing my asylum application because I knew that doing so would require demanding painful details, information, and supporting documentation from her, which I deeply feared would trigger her self-harm threats or further jeopardize her mental health and life. These extraordinary circumstances relating to my severe trauma, my mother's critical psychological state, and the changed conditions regarding active threats to my family constitute valid grounds for my delayed filing. Therefore, I kindly request that this application be accepted and considered on its merits under the extraordinary and changed circumstances exceptions to the one-year filing deadline.

6. Have you or any member of your family included in the application ever committed any crime and/or been arrested, charged, convicted, or sentenced for any crimes in the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If "Yes," for each instance, specify in your response: what occurred and the circumstances, dates, length of sentence received, location, the duration of the detention or imprisonment, reason(s) for the detention or conviction, any formal charges that were lodged against you or your relatives included in your application, and the reason(s) for release. Attach documents referring to these incidents, if they are available, or an explanation of why documents are not available.

I was apprehended by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement on August 28, 2026, at the San Francisco International Airport, solely for an immigration law violation after remaining in the United States past my authorized period of stay, and I remain detained to this present date. I entered the United States lawfully on November 28, 2018, as a nonimmigrant under a B2 visa. Following my arrest, I was issued a Notice to Appear charging me under Section 237(a)(1)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), for having remained in the United States for a time longer than permitted. I am currently detained at the California City Detention Facility, California. This arrest and detention occurred solely in connection with my immigration status. I have never committed any crime in the United States, nor have I ever been arrested, charged, or convicted of any criminal offense.

Any information provided in completing this application may be used as a basis for the institution of, or as evidence in, removal proceedings even if the application is later withdrawn, and even if USCIS does not conduct an interview on the application. Applicants determined to have knowingly made a frivolous application for asylum will be permanently ineligible for any benefits under the Immigration and Nationality Act. You may not avoid a frivolous finding simply because someone advised you to provide false information in your asylum application. If filing with USCIS, unexcused failure to appear for an appointment to provide biometrics (such as fingerprints) and your biographical information within the time allowed may result in an asylum officer dismissing your asylum application or referring it to an immigration judge. Failure without good cause to provide DHS with biometrics or other biographical information while in removal proceedings may result in your application being found abandoned by the immigration judge. See sections 208(d)(5)(A) and 208(d)(6) of the INA and 8 CFR sections 208.10, 1208.10, 208.20, 1003.47(d) and 1208.20.
