RE: FORM I-129 P-1A PETITION WITH CONCURRENT FORM I-907 REQUEST FOR PREMIUM PROCESSING SERVICE

Petitioner: Oregon BJJ LLC
Petitioner's EIN: 83-2035127
Beneficiary: Nadine Tavares da Silva ("Ms. Tavares")

Dear Sir or Madam,

Our office represents Oregon BJJ LLC ("Petitioner") in filing this P-1A petition on behalf of Nadine Tavares da Silva ("Beneficiary"), a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt and submission grappling athlete internationally recognized for her rankings, titles, and competitive accomplishments in the sport's leading circuits: the International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation (IBJJF), the Abu Dhabi Combat Club (ADCC), and the Abu Dhabi Jiu-Jitsu Pro Tour (AJP Tour).

The Petitioner seeks to classify Ms. Tavares as an internationally recognized athlete under Section 101(a)(15)(P)(i)(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act and 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4). Under the Sponsorship Agreement, valid through November 1, 2028, Ms. Tavares will represent the Petitioner exclusively as a professional athlete in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission grappling competitions, as well as directly related official competition activities in the United States.

The enclosed itinerary identifies seven qualifying U.S. competitions currently announced by their respective organizers: six scheduled for 2026 and one scheduled for January 2027. The Sponsor Letter and Sponsorship Agreement establish a continuing, competition-only athletic engagement through November 1, 2028. During that term, the parties may mutually select additional qualifying competitions only after those events are officially announced and confirmed to remain within the same athletic scope described in this Petition.

This letter summarizes the factual background of the Petitioner, the Beneficiary, and the proposed activities in the United States; outlines the applicable legal standard; and explains how the enclosed evidence satisfies the regulatory criteria for P-1A classification pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4).

The Petitioner

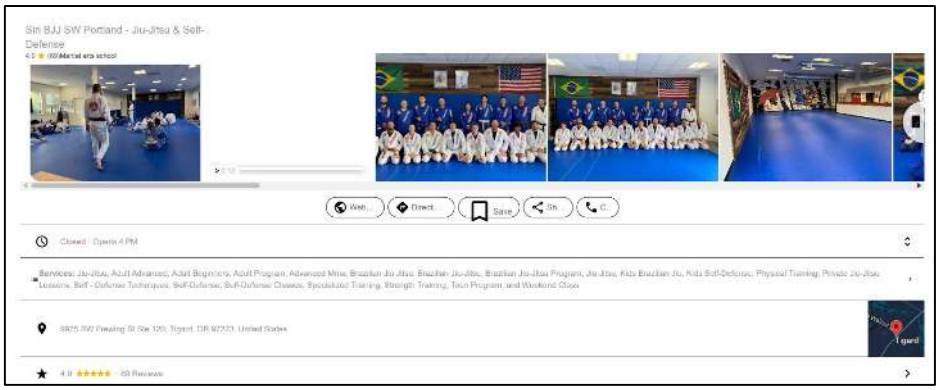

A. Organizational Background and Operations

Oregon BJJ LLC is the Petitioner in this matter. According to the Oregon Secretary of State Business Registry, it is an active Oregon domestic limited liability company, formed on September 24, 2018, and registered under Registry No. 1479636-98. The company is also federally identified by an Employer Identification Number ending in 5127. (Exhibit A.)

Registry Nbr	Entity Type	Entity Status	Jurisdiction	Registry Date	Next Renewal Date	Renewal Due?
1479636-98	DLLC	ACT	OREGON	09-24-2018	09-24-2026
Entity Name	OREGON BJJ LLC
Foreign Name

The Petitioner currently operates an established Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu academy at 9975 SW Frewing Street, Suite 120, Tigard, Oregon 97223. Certain corporate and tax records reflect Suite 140 at the same property, while the academy's current public-facing information identifies Suite 120 as its operational address. The Petitioner's 2025 federal tax records identify its principal business activity as a "Gym" and report $313,905 in gross receipts. The records also reflect recurring expenses associated with an active martial-arts facility, including commercial rent, personnel, advertising, utilities, and insurance. Together with the academy's public-facing materials and facility photographs, this evidence confirms that Oregon BJJ LLC maintains an ongoing physical and commercial operation. (Exhibit A.)

E	Business address (including suite or room no.) 9975 SW Frewing St, Suite 140

As confirmed in the Sponsor Letter executed by Joseph Stahl III, Oregon BJJ LLC operates its Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu program under the Siri BJJ SW Portland brand and is connected to the broader Siri BJJ competitive community. This distinction explains the names appearing throughout the supporting evidence: Oregon BJJ LLC is the legal entity submitting this petition, entering into the Sponsorship Agreement, and undertaking the proposed paid athletic engagement with

Ms. Tavares, while Siri BJJ SW Portland is the public-facing name under which the Petitioner's Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu program operates. (Exhibit A.)

B. Role in the Competitive Jiu-Jitsu Ecosystem

By operating its Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu program under the Siri BJJ SW Portland brand, the Petitioner is connected to a broader team affiliation with documented participation in organized Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling competition. Accordingly, the Petitioner's athletic program extends beyond the operation of a training academy and forms part of an established competitive community. (Exhibit A.)

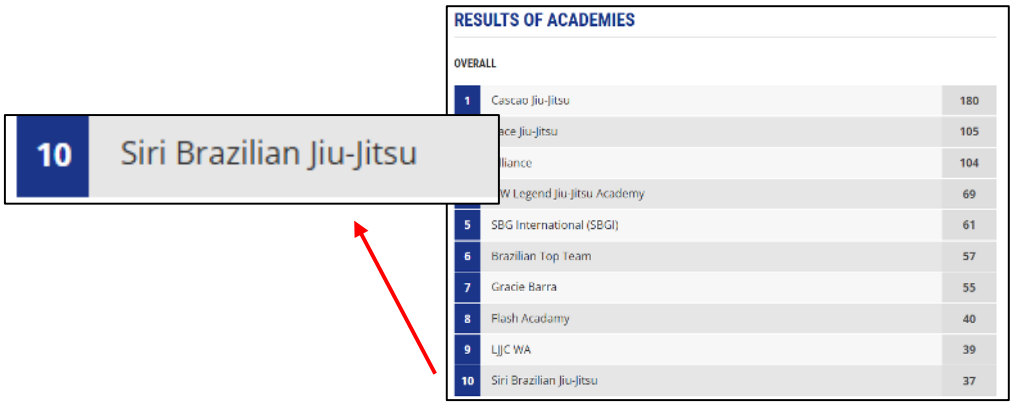

This competitive presence is independently documented through official records. The IBJJF's Registered Academies directory lists "Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Portland" as a registered academy in the United States. The broader Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu affiliation also maintains documented participation in competitions conducted through the ADCC and AJP Tour systems, both within and outside the United States. (Exhibit A.)

The list of academies and other information on these pages has been made available for your convenience by the International Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Federation (IBJJF). Each IBJJF-certified academy is led by a Head Professor who is a member in the IBJJF with the rank of Black Belt. All IBJJF-certified academies students can participate in IBJJF events.

NAME	COUNTRY	DETAILS
Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Portland	United States of America

This competitive presence is further demonstrated by the Petitioner's participation in the 2026 Portland International Open IBJJF Jiu-Jitsu Championship. The official results ranked Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu among the event's top ten academies and documented multiple podium finishes by athletes representing the Siri affiliation, including competitors expressly registered under Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Portland. Photographs of medal-winning athletes further corroborate the Petitioner's active and successful presence in organized IBJJF competition. (Exhibit A.)

Ms. Tavares already competes under the Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu team affiliation in international events outside the United States. Official records identify that affiliation in competitions including the AJP Tour Sevilla International Jiu-Jitsu Championship 2026, the Abu Dhabi Grand Slam Jiu-Jitsu World Tour 2025–2026 – Rome, the AJP Tour Rome International Jiu-Jitsu Championship 2026, and the 2026 ADCC South American Trials in Brazil. These records demonstrate an existing sporting affiliation, rather than prior employment by Oregon BJJ LLC. (Exhibit A.)

This established competitive connection provides a natural and credible basis for Oregon BJJ LLC's decision to sponsor Ms. Tavares. Through the proposed engagement, she will continue performing the same competitive athletic function in the United States, now as the sponsored athlete of Oregon BJJ LLC under the Siri BJJ SW Portland brand. Her prior participation under the broader Siri BJJ affiliation, together with the Petitioner's documented competitive presence, reinforces that the proposed engagement is genuinely and specifically directed toward her participation as an athlete in the Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling competitions covered by this petition. (Exhibits A and C.I.)

The Position Offered

The proposed U.S. activities are the type of services that require an internationally recognized athlete, as contemplated by 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(i). The Petitioner seeks to engage Ms. Tavares because of her established record as a black-belt competitor, including her World No-Gi title, international ranking, and sustained success in major Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling events.

A. Role with Siri BJJ SW Portland

Under the Sponsorship Agreement (Exhibit A), the Petitioner will engage Ms. Tavares solely as its Professional Athlete (Competitor). She will represent Siri BJJ SW Portland in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling competitions within the IBJJF, ADCC, and AJP Tour systems, as well as other qualifying competitions mutually agreed upon during the contractual term.

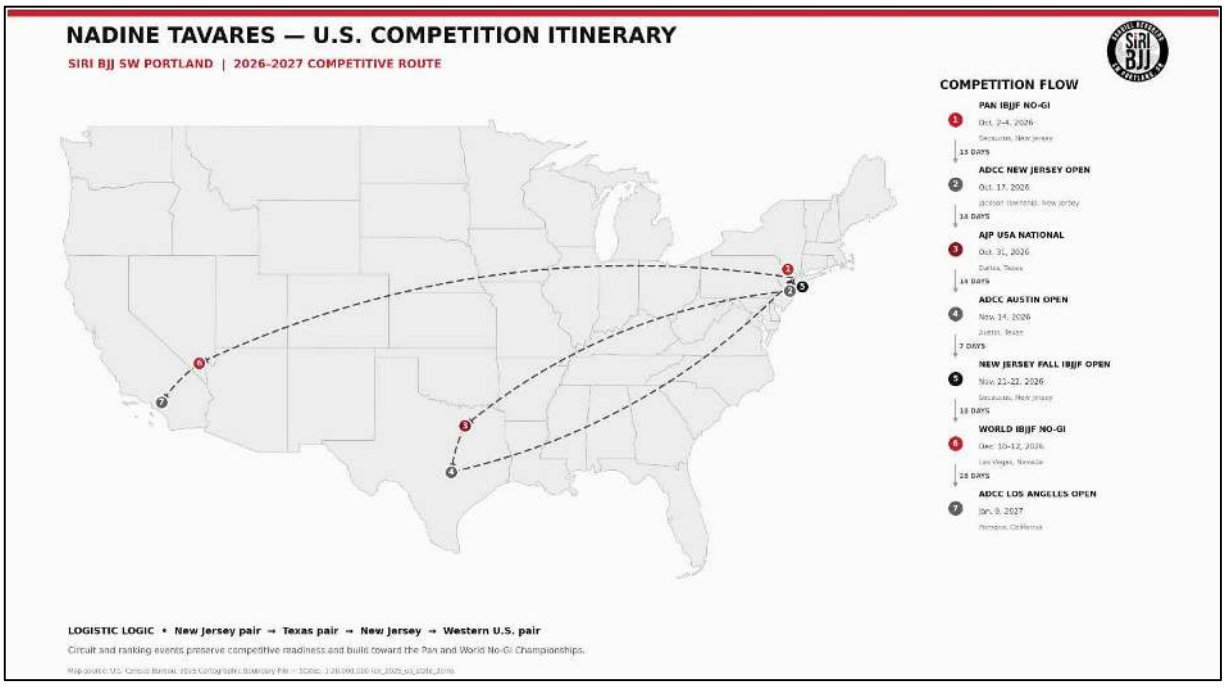

Her services are exclusively athletic and include competing for the Petitioner and participating in directly related official competition activities, such as competition preparation, weigh-ins, rules meetings, and event-organizer obligations. She will not be engaged to teach classes, coach students, conduct seminars, or provide general academy services.

The Agreement remains effective through November 1, 2028, unless earlier terminated pursuant to its terms. Ms. Tavares's performance of services is contingent upon approval of this P-1A petition and, where required for admission to the United States, issuance of a valid P-1A visa. (Exhibit A.)

B. Competition Itinerary, Competitive Progression, and Logistical Feasibility

The enclosed itinerary identifies seven officially announced U.S. competitions scheduled between October 2026 and January 2027. These events were selected as part of a coherent professional competition schedule, taking into account their official status within the IBJJF, AJP Tour, and ADCC systems, their respective competitive functions, and the practical requirements of domestic travel, physical recovery, and athletic preparation. (Exhibit C.I.)

The itinerary begins with the Pan IBJJF Jiu-Jitsu No-Gi Championship in New Jersey, followed thirteen days later by the ADCC New Jersey Open. Ms. Tavares will then travel to Texas for the AJP Tour USA National Jiu-Jitsu Championship in Dallas and, fourteen days later, the ADCC Austin Open. She will subsequently return to New Jersey for the New Jersey Fall International Open before proceeding to the Western United States for the World IBJJF Jiu-Jitsu No-Gi Championship in Las Vegas and the ADCC Open Los Angeles in Pomona, California.

The geographic sequence is practical and deliberate. The schedule groups consecutive competitions in New Jersey and Texas and concludes with two events in the Western United States. The intervals between competitions—ranging from seven to twenty-eight days—provide reasonable time for domestic travel, physical recovery, and personal athletic preparation. The enclosed visual route illustrates the location of each competition, the chronological travel sequence, and the time available between events. (Exhibit C.I.)

The scheduled competitions also serve complementary professional purposes. The Pan No-Gi and World No-Gi Championships provide opportunities to compete for principal continental and world-level titles. The AJP Tour USA National Championship forms part of the organization's international ranking structure. The International Open and ADCC Open events maintain competitive activity, develop Ms. Tavares's official record and rankings where applicable, and provide preparation under the relevant rulesets before and between the principal championships.

Ms. Tavares's official competitive history confirms that this combination of championship and circuit events is consistent with her established athletic practice. She is the 2024 IBJJF World No-Gi Champion, earned double gold in the Female Professional -65 kg and Absolute divisions at the 2023 ADCC Spanish National Open, and has recorded national and international victories within the AJP Tour system. Her proposed participation in the scheduled U.S. events therefore represents a continuation of her documented activity within the same IBJJF, ADCC, and AJP Tour competition systems. (Exhibits C.V and C.VI.)

Accordingly, the itinerary is not a collection of unrelated events. It is an integrated and geographically practical professional competition schedule in which each event serves an identifiable athletic purpose: maintaining competitive readiness, developing the Beneficiary's official record and rankings where applicable, preparing under the relevant rulesets, or competing for a principal national, continental, or world-level title.

The Sponsorship Agreement remains valid through November 1, 2028, while the present itinerary extends only through January 2027. This difference exists because the IBJJF, ADCC, and AJP Tour publish future competition calendars progressively, and their complete 2027 and 2028 United States schedules are not yet available. The longer contractual term establishes the duration of the parties' continuing athletic relationship; it does not characterize unannounced events as confirmed. Any additional competitions will be mutually selected only after official announcement and confirmation that they remain within the same professional athletic scope described in this Petition.

The Beneficiary

Ms. Nadine Tavares da Silva is a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Black Belt and submission-grappling athlete whose international standing was built through years of consistent training, competition, and progression through the sport's belt system. Beginning with international victories as a Blue Belt, she continued earning significant results at the Purple and Brown Belt levels before establishing herself as a successful Black Belt competitor. Her career reflects sustained development across both Gi and No-Gi competition within the IBJJF, AJP Tour, and ADCC systems. (Exhibit B.)

At the Brown Belt level, Ms. Tavares earned silver at the 2022 IBJJF European Jiu-Jitsu Championship and silver and Open Class bronze at the 2022 IBJJF European No-Gi Championship. After reaching Black Belt, she earned another European No-Gi silver medal in 2023 and subsequently achieved the most significant result of her career by winning the 2024 IBJJF World No-Gi Championship in the Master 1 Black Belt Light division. This progression, from international success in the colored belts to a World title as a Black Belt, demonstrates that her recognition was developed through sustained performance rather than a single isolated result. (Exhibits B and C.VI.)

Ms. Tavares remains an active and internationally relevant competitor. As of the date of filing, she is ranked No. 5 worldwide, No. 1 in South America, and No. 1 in Brazil in the AJP Tour Women's Professional Brown/Black No-Gi division, as well as No. 27 among 158 athletes in the IBJJF Female Master 1 Black Belt No-Gi division. In 2026, she also earned bronze at the ADCC South American Trials after advancing through a 54-athlete bracket, won double gold at the AJP Sevilla International Championship, and earned No-Gi gold at the AJP Rome International Championship. She achieved these results while representing the broader Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu affiliation outside the United States. Her proposed representation of Siri BJJ SW Portland therefore continues both her established competitive career and an existing team affiliation, enabling the Petitioner to be represented by a currently ranked, internationally accomplished athlete. (Exhibits A, C.V, and C.VI.)

Eligibility for the P-1A Classification

To qualify for P-1A classification as an individual athlete, the Beneficiary must have achieved international recognition based on her own reputation and accomplishments and must be coming to the United States to perform services requiring an internationally recognized athlete. 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(i)(A).

The Beneficiary must also be coming to participate in athletic competitions of distinguished reputation that require athletes with an international reputation. Where contracts are normally executed in the sport, the petition must include a contract commensurate with the athlete's international recognition, as well as documentation satisfying at least two of the regulatory evidentiary criteria. 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(A)–(B).

Those criteria include: (A) a written statement from an official of the sport's governing body explaining how the athlete is internationally recognized; (B) a written statement from a member of the sports media or a recognized expert detailing the athlete's international recognition; (C) evidence of an international ranking, where such rankings exist; and (D) evidence of significant honors or awards in the sport. 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(iv)–(vii).

As demonstrated below, Ms. Tavares satisfies multiple evidentiary criteria through official governing-body documentation, expert statements, international rankings, and significant competitive honors. She will perform exclusively as the Petitioner's sponsored professional competitor in the Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling events identified in the itinerary, together with activities directly related to that athletic participation.

A. Written Statement from the Governing Body of the Sport
8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(iv)

The record includes a written statement from the International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation ("IBJJF"), signed by André Fernandes, the Federation's Executive Director, Chief Official, and Technical Director. As an official statement from the organization that administers the competitive system in which Ms. Tavares earned several of her principal accomplishments, the letter provides direct institutional evidence of her standing in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. (Exhibit C.III.)

The IBJJF confirms that Ms. Tavares is an IBJJF-registered Black Belt athlete (registration no. 256418) and an active competitor in IBJJF-sanctioned events. It further documents her official record, including her first-place finish at the 2024 World IBJJF Jiu-Jitsu No-Gi Championship in the Master 1 Black Belt Light division, as well as podium finishes at IBJJF European Championships and IBJJF International Open Championships in Europe. (Exhibit C.III.)

These achievements were earned within the IBJJF's organized international competition structure, in which athletes compete under standardized divisions, rules, and registration requirements. The Federation's institutional confirmation establishes that Ms. Tavares's results are official accomplishments earned in a structured international circuit.

Accordingly, the IBJJF's statement details how Ms. Tavares's official competitive record reflects her international recognition as a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu athlete, satisfying the criterion at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(iv)[1]. The regulation specifically calls for a statement from an official of the sport's governing body explaining how the athlete is internationally recognized.

B. Written Statements from Recognized Experts and a Member of the Sports Media
8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(v)

The record includes written statements from recognized experts in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission grappling, as well as a member of the professional grappling media. These individuals have direct knowledge of Ms. Tavares's competitive development and performances, or extensive professional familiarity with the international circuits in which she competes. (Exhibit C.IV.)

Demian Maia, a fifth-degree Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt, 2007 ADCC World Champion, and longtime UFC athlete, observed Ms. Tavares's preparation for the 2026 ADCC South American Trials and followed her international results. He describes her as:

> "a serious, talented athlete actively established in the international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu scene."
> (Exhibit C.IV.A.)

Samantha Cook-Hill, an IBJJF World Champion, five-time IBJJF European Champion, ADCC veteran, and second-degree black belt, has followed Ms. Tavares's career since 2017. She explains that Ms. Tavares's World No-Gi title reflects elite technical ability, composure, and consistency against highly skilled international opponents. Most importantly, she concludes that Ms. Tavares's "results, consistency, and professionalism" have established her as a serious competitor "whose presence strengthens the competitive level of the events in which she participates." (Exhibit C.IV.B.)

Julia Scardone Livesey, a Black Belt in both Judo and Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and an active international grappling athlete, has trained with Ms. Tavares since 2021. She explains that Ms. Tavares has demonstrated success under the distinct competitive structures of the IBJJF, ADCC, and AJP Tour systems. She confirms that Ms. Tavares's reputation is supported by "her results, her consistency, and her presence in major events across Europe and internationally." (Exhibit C.IV.C.)

Gustavo "Siri" Pires, founder and owner of Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, as well as an accomplished Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu competitor and coach, confirms in his professional and institutional capacity that Ms. Tavares's World No-Gi title, European results, and continued participation in major international circuits reflect sustained high-level athletic performance rather than an isolated accomplishment. His assessment is further informed by his direct knowledge of her current competitive affiliation with Siri BJJ and her continued representation of the team in international competition. (Exhibit C.IV.D.)

Owen Livesey, owner of Carlson Gracie Hull and founder of Carlson Gracie Fight Club in Thailand, is a Commonwealth Games gold medalist in judo for England, an ADCC European, Middle East, and Africa Trials champion, and an ADCC World Championship competitor. Through high-level training camps and competition preparation, he has trained alongside Ms. Tavares and observed her performance among athletes preparing for international competition. Mr. Livesey explains that her IBJJF World No-Gi title reflects "true world-champion caliber" and confirms that her technical precision, composure, athletic intelligence, and ability to perform under pressure distinguish her among elite athletes in the sport. He further notes that her professionalism and competitive ability contribute to the continued development and visibility of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu internationally. (Exhibit C.IV.E.)

Vinicius Cesare Modernel Canevari, professionally known as "Vinicius Magoo," is a sixth-degree Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt and founder of Magoo Jiu-Jitsu Academy, with more than three decades of experience developing competitors. Having known and trained with Ms. Tavares since 2019, he personally observed her progression into an athlete capable of applying her technique consistently under competitive pressure. He explains that this development is demonstrated by her success in recognized international circuits, culminating in her 2024 IBJJF World No-Gi Championship title, and confirms that she possesses the technical maturity and adaptability to continue achieving significant results in high-level U.S. competitions. (Exhibit C.IV.F.)

Finally, Riccardo "Baleia" Ammendolia, a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt and FloSports commentator and presenter with professional experience covering ADCC, FloGrappling, WNO, FIVE Grappling, and Copa Podio, personally observed Ms. Tavares at the 2026 ADCC Indaiatuba Trials. He notes that she continually seeks to test herself on the sport's largest stages and possesses the qualities necessary to continue growing within the international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling scene. (Exhibit C.IV.G.)

Collectively, these seven statements from recognized experts and a professional member of the sports media do more than repeat Ms. Tavares's results. They explain that her sustained success across the IBJJF, AJP, and ADCC systems has established her as a respected, technically accomplished, and internationally active Black Belt competitor. Their assessments further confirm that her participation contributes meaningful competitive value to the events in which she appears. Accordingly, this evidence satisfies 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(v).

C. Evidence of an International Ranking
8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(vi)

The record includes official rankings from two established international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu competition systems: the Abu Dhabi Jiu-Jitsu Pro ("AJP") and the International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation ("IBJJF"). (Exhibit C.V.)

In the AJP Tour's 2025–2026 Women's Professional Brown/Black No-Gi rankings, Ms. Tavares is ranked No. 5 worldwide. Within the same professional division, she is also ranked No. 1 in South America and No. 1 in Brazil. This ranking reflects her current standing in AJP's international professional No-Gi circuit. (Exhibit C.V.)

The record also includes the official 2025–2026 IBJJF ranking for the Female Master 1 Black No-Gi division. As of July 27, 2026, Ms. Tavares was ranked No. 27 among 158 athletes, with 126 ranking points. (Exhibit C.V.)

These independently maintained rankings are based on Ms. Tavares's performance in sanctioned events and provide objective, current evidence of her standing in international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu competition. Her No. 5 worldwide AJP ranking, together with her documented ranking in the IBJJF system, establishes that she is internationally ranked in the sport.

Accordingly, Ms. Tavares satisfies the international-ranking criterion at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(vi).

D. Evidence of Significant Honors and Awards in the Sport
8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(vii)

Ms. Tavares has received significant honors in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission grappling through sustained podium finishes in recognized international competition systems. Most notably, she became the 2024 IBJJF World No-Gi Champion in the Master 1 Black Belt Light division—an official world-championship title earned in the IBJJF's premier No-Gi event. (Exhibit C.VI.)

Her record also includes podium finishes at the IBJJF European Championships, placing her among the leading competitors in one of the Federation's principal international championship events. In addition, Ms. Tavares earned a bronze medal at the 2026 ADCC South American Trials, a regional qualifying event within the ADCC submission-grappling system. (Exhibit C.VI.)

Ms. Tavares has further achieved significant results in recent AJP Tour competition. In 2026, she earned double gold at the AJP Sevilla International Jiu-Jitsu Championship, followed by No-Gi gold at the AJP Rome International Jiu-Jitsu Championship and a silver medal at the Abu Dhabi Grand Slam Jiu-Jitsu World Tour in Rome. These results demonstrate the continued relevance of her World title, European podium finishes, and current international ranking. (Exhibit C.VI.)

Taken together, these official results establish that Ms. Tavares has received significant honors and awards in the sport, satisfying 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2)(vii).

Participation in Competitions with a Distinguished Reputation
8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(A)

Ms. Tavares is coming to the United States to participate in a defined series of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling competitions conducted within the IBJJF, ADCC, and AJP Tour systems. These internationally established organizations conduct events across multiple countries, maintain official competition records, and provide structured pathways through which accomplished athletes pursue rankings, qualification, and recognized championship titles. The enclosed itinerary identifies the specific U.S. competitions officially announced for the period from October 2026 through January 2027 as of the date of filing. (Exhibit C.I.)

The scheduled competitions are not recreational academy activities or local exhibitions. They include principal championships and officially sanctioned circuit events that form part of the regular competitive progression of internationally active Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling athletes. Their official status, international reach, competitive fields, and role within these established systems demonstrate that they possess a distinguished reputation and depend upon the participation of internationally accomplished athletes to maintain their recognized competitive level. (Exhibit C.I.)

The IBJJF is one of the principal international organizations governing competitive Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. Its World, World Master, Pan, Pan No-Gi, and World No-Gi Championships attract accomplished Black Belt athletes from numerous countries and carry substantial recognition within the sport. As confirmed by the IBJJF, its International Open Championships are official ranking events in which results contribute to the eligibility of Adult Black Belt athletes for the Federation's principal championships. (Exhibits C.I and C.III.)

The ADCC operates an internationally recognized submission-grappling system encompassing its World Championship, regional qualifying trials, and officially sanctioned Open events conducted under the ADCC ruleset. Likewise, the AJP Tour maintains an international calendar of professionally organized Gi and No-Gi competitions supported by official rankings, competitive divisions, team records, and progression toward its principal championships. (Exhibit C.I.)

Although certain sanctioned circuit events permit broader registration, their professional relevance arises from their official status, recognized results, and established function within international competition systems. Professional athletes do not compete exclusively at world championships. Their schedules also include national championships, International Opens, ranking events, and sanctioned circuit competitions that maintain competitive readiness, contribute to official records and rankings where applicable, and provide preparation under the rulesets used at principal championship events.

Ms. Tavares is not entering these systems for the first time. Official results establish that she is an IBJJF World No-Gi Champion, a double-gold winner in the ADCC Spanish National Open's Female Professional -65 kg and Absolute divisions, an ADCC South American Trials medalist, an AJP National Champion, and an internationally ranked AJP Tour athlete. The proposed U.S. itinerary therefore continues her documented participation within the same IBJJF, ADCC, and AJP Tour systems in which she has already achieved international competitive success. Evaluated as an integrated schedule, the seven events are consistent with both her established professional record and the distinguished competitive structure of the scheduled events. (Exhibits C.I, C.V, and C.VI.)

Proposed Activities Are Strictly Limited to Athletic Competition

Ms. Tavares will enter the United States solely to compete as a professional Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling athlete in the seven events identified in the enclosed itinerary and, during the remaining requested validity period, in any additional qualifying competitions that are officially announced, mutually selected by the parties, and consistent with the same P-1A athletic scope. Her proposed activities are limited to athletic competition and directly related official activities necessary for her participation, including registration, weigh-ins, rules meetings, and personal athletic preparation.

Oregon BJJ LLC, doing business as Siri BJJ SW Portland, will sponsor Ms. Tavares exclusively in her capacity as a competing athlete. The Sponsor Letter and Sponsorship Agreement expressly confirm that her engagement does not include teaching, coaching, general academy employment, administrative work, community outreach, or separate promotional services. Any public visibility resulting from her presence in the United States will be incidental to her participation and achievements as a competitor, rather than a separate service performed for the Petitioner.

This narrowly defined, competition-only engagement is supported by the itinerary, Sponsor Letter, and Sponsorship Agreement and represents a direct continuation of Ms. Tavares's established history of competing under the broader Siri BJJ team affiliation internationally. Official IBJJF records and supporting photographs demonstrate that athletes already compete and earn podium finishes under the Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Portland affiliation. By adding Ms. Tavares—an IBJJF World No-Gi Champion, internationally ranked competitor, and accomplished medalist across the IBJJF, AJP Tour, and ADCC systems—the Petitioner will strengthen and elevate its established presence in organized competition through an athlete already connected to the broader Siri BJJ team. This competitive benefit arises exclusively from her participation and achievements as an athlete and does not expand her proposed activities beyond the athletic scope of this Petition. (See Exhibits A, C.I, C.V, and C.VI.)

Labor Consultation Requirement

Consultation with an appropriate labor organization is required for a P-1 petition only where such an organization exists. Under 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(7)(i)(F), when the Petitioner establishes that no appropriate labor organization exists, USCIS shall adjudicate the petition based on the evidence of record.

Here, no U.S. labor organization has been identified that represents professional Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu or submission-grappling athletes or is qualified to provide the contemplated advisory opinion. The USCIS Address Index for I-129 O and P Consultation Letters identifies no organization for either Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu or submission grappling. (Exhibit C.II.)

The enclosed IBJJF statements further establish that the Federation's role is to organize and regulate Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu competition, administer official rules, rankings, and qualification requirements, and promote international tournaments. Similarly, the AJP Tour and ADCC operate competitive circuits and events. These entities function as governing or competition-organizing bodies; they do not operate as labor organizations representing professional athletes for consultation purposes. (Exhibits C.II and C.III.)

Accordingly, the Petitioner respectfully requests that USCIS adjudicate this Petition based on the evidence of record pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(7)(i)(F).

Final Considerations and Request for Approval

When the evidence is considered as a whole, the record establishes each material requirement for approval of this P-1A Petition.

First, the Petition presents a bona fide U.S. sponsorship arrangement for qualifying athletic services. Oregon BJJ LLC, doing business as Siri BJJ SW Portland, has entered into a continuing Sponsorship Agreement with Ms. Tavares. The Petitioner maintains an established Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu operation, documented participation in organized competition, and an existing connection to the broader Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu affiliation under which Ms. Tavares has already competed internationally. (Exhibit A.)

Second, Ms. Tavares will enter the United States solely as a competing athlete. Her proposed activities are limited to participation in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling competitions and directly related official activities, including registration, weigh-ins, rules meetings, and personal athletic preparation. Her engagement does not include teaching, coaching, academy employment, administrative work, community outreach, or separate promotional services. (Exhibits A and C.I.)

Third, Ms. Tavares has established her international recognition through more evidence than the regulation requires. Although 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(4)(ii)(B)(2) requires documentation satisfying at least two enumerated criteria, the record satisfies four:

- written statements from an official of the sport's governing body detailing how Ms. Tavares is internationally recognized;
- statements from recognized experts and a professional member of the sports media detailing her international recognition;
- official evidence of her international rankings; and
- official evidence of significant honors and awards in the sport.

These criteria are supported by mutually corroborating evidence, including official IBJJF statements, AJP Tour and IBJJF rankings, ADCC competition records, championship results, podium records, and detailed statements from internationally accomplished experts and sports-media professionals. Collectively, this evidence demonstrates that Ms. Tavares's recognition is based on sustained achievement across multiple countries and competitive systems rather than on a single isolated result. (Exhibits C.III–C.VI.)

Fourth, the proposed itinerary constitutes a coherent and logistically practical professional competition schedule. The seven officially announced events are conducted within the same IBJJF, AJP Tour, and ADCC systems in which Ms. Tavares has already earned documented championship titles, professional-division victories, international rankings, and qualifying-event podiums. The schedule combines principal championships with sanctioned circuit and ranking events that maintain competitive continuity, contribute to her official record and rankings where applicable, and provide preparation under the relevant competitive rulesets.

The geographic sequence is equally coherent. The itinerary groups consecutive events in New Jersey and Texas before proceeding to the Western United States, with intervals of seven to twenty-eight days for domestic travel, physical recovery, and athletic preparation. Each competition therefore serves an identifiable professional purpose within a practical athletic progression, rather than appearing as an isolated event included solely to extend the requested period. (Exhibits C.I)

The record also supports adjudication without a labor consultation. The Petitioner has established that no appropriate labor organization exists for professional Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu or submission-grappling athletes. Accordingly, USCIS may adjudicate the Petition based on the evidence of record pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(p)(7)(i)(F). (Exhibits C.II and C.III.)

Under Matter of Chawathe, 25 I&N Dec. 369, 375–76 (AAO 2010), eligibility is established when relevant, probative, and credible evidence demonstrates that a claim is more likely than not or probably true. Here, the Petitioner has submitted the specific documentation required by the regulation, satisfied twice the minimum number of evidentiary criteria, and demonstrated through consistent and corroborating evidence that Ms. Tavares is an internationally recognized athlete coming to the United States to participate in qualifying athletic competitions.

The enclosed itinerary documents the seven qualifying U.S. competitions officially announced and selected as of the date of filing. The Sponsorship Agreement establishes a continuing competition-only athletic relationship through November 1, 2028. Because the complete 2027 and 2028 calendars have not yet been released, the Petitioner does not represent that any presently unannounced competition is confirmed. Additional events may be mutually selected only after they are officially announced and only if they remain within the same approved Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission-grappling scope described in this Petition.

Accordingly, Oregon BJJ LLC, d/b/a Siri BJJ SW Portland, respectfully requests approval of this Petition on behalf of Nadine Tavares da Silva for the validity period supported by the Sponsorship Agreement, through November 1, 2028.

Sincerely,

Otavio Haverroth Silva

If this S corporation election is being filed late, I declare I had reasonable cause for not filing Form 2553 timely. If this late election is being made by an entity eligible to elect to be treated as a corporation, I declare I also had reasonable cause for not filing an entity classification election timely and the representations listed in Part IV are true. See below for my explanation of the reasons the election or elections were not made on time and a description of my diligent actions to correct the mistake upon its discovery. See instructions.

The taxpayer intended to be classified as an S corporation effective 1/1/25. The failure to timely file Form 2553 by the due date was due to an inadvertent administrative oversight and a misunderstanding of the filing deadline. From the intended effective date through the date this Form 2553 is filed, the corporation and its shareholders have reported income, deductions, and credits consistently with S corporation status and have not filed any returns inconsistent with that intended S election. Upon discovering that Form 2553 had not been timely filed the taxpayer acted diligently to correct the error by coordinating with a tax advisor and promptly preparing and submitting Form 2553.

I understand my consent is binding and may not be withdrawn after the corporation (entity) has made a valid election. MORE THAN A SCHOOL

At Siri BJJ SW Portland, we believe Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu is the ultimate tool for personal growth. Most of our members are not pro fighters. They are teachers, engineers, parents, and students who wanted a way to get fit while learning a life saving skill.

The name Siri is a tribute to Professor Jay's teacher, Gustavo "Siri" Pires. We carry that lineage into a new chapter, with a jiu-jitsu school that meets you exactly where you are on day one.

UFC to UAE: how an Abu Dhabi sheikh made Brazilian jiu-jitsu a national sport

The Abu Dhabi Combat Club world championships kick off this weekend in Brazil, offering a global platform for what's become the UAE's national sport

The beaches of Rio de Janeiro, replete as they are with festive parties and the city's scantily clad denizens, are a world apart from the religious theocracies of the Middle East. But a certain Brazilian cultural product has made deep inroads within a tiny kingdom tucked away along the Persian Gulf, and enjoys a status within the country's social fabric more akin to a native custom than a foreign import.

Since its efficacy as a martial art was thrust upon the world during the first Ultimate Fighting Championship in 1993, Brazilian jiu-jitsu - a grappling system in which participants use technique and leverage to subvert strength and brute force by way of chokes and joint locks - has become the fastest growing martial art on the planet. Even so, one would probably be skeptical about the grappling art's influence spreading as far as the United Arab Emirates.

In truth, jiu-jitsu has penetrated the depths of Emirati culture, but not on a merely organic level: it's become an official government project, promoted by the seemingly endless resources of a shadowy ruling figure who has thrust the sport into the UAE's educational curriculum and national consciousness.

Sheikh Tahnoon bin Zayed, a member of the ruling Al Nahyan family, was just as susceptible to the intrigue that Brazilian jiu-jitsu cultivated in hordes of nascent martial artists after UFC 1, and it just so happens that he's since become the sport's unofficial patron saint. In addition to establishing his Abu Dhabi Combat Club (ADCC) in 1998, a competition circuit that has come to embody the pinnacle of modern submission grappling, Sheikh Tahnoon has turned his own country into a vaunted hinterland for Brazilian jiu-jitsu athletes, many of whom immigrate to the UAE to train and teach.

"Abu Dhabi is one of the worldwide capitals of jiu-jitsu," says Yasmin Sewgobind, a Brazilian jiu-jitsu teacher of Dutch and Indian descent, who now lives in Abu Dhabi. "Jiu-jitsu was my primary reason for moving to the UAE."

Abdul Munam Al Hashimi, Chairman of the UAE Jiu Jitsu Federation, says "jiu-jitsu is a curriculum in more than 100 schools, there are more than 15 official jiu-jitsu centers that are under the supervision of the UAEJJF, and we are also currently working on building seven new jiu-jitsu centers across the UAE."

According to Al Hashimi, it's the only country where "billboards advertising jiu-jitsu," can be seen along roadways and where certain tournaments are broadcast on national television.

Because of its state-funded orientation, Brazilian jiu-jitsu is already the UAE's national sport, at least in the eyes of the UAEJJF, but it isn't necessarily practiced equally between Emirati men and women. The UAE's government functions under Sharia Law, and maintains deeply repressive rulings, a few of which are geared towards women.

So in a sense, practicing jiu-jitsu in Adu Dhabi as a woman presents more challenges than it does for a man. Elsewhere in the world, women train in the same classes as men, learn the same techniques and are judged by instructors on the same merit as their male counterparts.

According to Yasmin Sewgobind however, "it isn't fully established yet to train BJJ as a woman" in the UAE. As Sewgobind is a decorated competitor, and the first female practitioner from the Netherlands to be awarded a black belt, she's an ambassador of the sport who coaches in Abu Dhabi, but she says "there is no place for women to train if they are not a coach."

She says the UAEJJF has flip-flopped its stance on mixed-gender training a number of times: "the rules aren't very stable, and it's still a struggle to have mixed-gender classes."

Although Sewgobind does view many aspects of her life as a jiu-jitsu expatriate in a positive light, her experience might cast a somewhat skeptical air on Sheik Tahnoon's ADCC organization, which brandishes the slogan "One World One Fight" rather proudly.

Since its origins, the ADCC has become a sprawling organization that promotes grappling tournaments throughout the world and within Abu Dhabi itself. Unmatched among the ADCC's competitions is the ADCC world championships: a roaming tournament that takes place in different international locations every two years. Some competitors qualify for the tournament through regional ADCC sponsored events, whereas many are invited to compete. The tournament also pays winners thousands of dollars; something that's typically unheard of among other jiu-jitsu tournaments.

The ADCC pits fighters from different grappling backgrounds against one another in a neutral framework of judging, so no style - whether it's wrestling, judo, Brazilian jiu-jitsu or Russian sambo - is objectively favored. There's no punching or kicking allowed and competitors compete in shorts and a shirt, however they can compete bare-chested if they so choose.

The ADCC comprises the starkest test of a grappler's physical toughness. Clinching a title can be viewed on similar ground to winning Wimbledon or the Tour de France, at least in terms of the mental fortitude it takes to fight the world's best.

This year's ADCC world championships take place this weekend in Sao Paulo, Brazil, which for jet-setting Brazilian jiu-jitsu competitor AJ Agazarm, isn't unfamiliar territory. But for Agazarm, a former Ohio State wrestler accustomed to the rush of dense crowds and whistling fans, the previous ADCC worlds in Beijing didn't foster an atmosphere that matched its sense of prestige.

When thinking about ADCC 2013, Agazarm recalls an eerily quiet venue and large stands that loomed unpopulated: "In Beijing, to see 100 in the stands, it was crazy. We couldn't wrap our heads around it. It didn't really make sense … because we're used to competing for big crowds, we're used to performing in front of lots of people for such a big event," he says.

Agazarm's characterization of the ADCC world championships as a "big event" is true, even if the tournament two years ago didn't exactly ignite fireworks across Beijing. Quite simply, there is nothing else like the ADCC in modern martial arts, but then again, there isn't really anything that quite mirrors the rise of jiu-jitsu in Abu Dhabi, and Sheikh Tahnoon's strategic push to internationalize the sport through sponsorship visas.

Al Hashimi says that "there are over six hundred Brazilian coaches that run the majority of the schools and jiu-jitsu clubs in the UAE."

In that sense, the ADCC has succeeded in its mission of promoting jiu-jitsu across the globe. It has helped the sport dramatically expand its reach, as it boasts "federations", or satellite offices, throughout Europe and much of Asia. Some people think it could provide the blueprint for pushing Brazilian jiu-jitsu into the Olympics one day.

Kid Peligro, a writer who's spent over 20 years immersed in the BJJ world, says of Sheik Tahnoon: "That was his master to plan, to get the sport so big that it would be in the Olympics." Peligro notes that without the Sheik's "resources and energy," Brazilian jiu-jitsu would still be anonymous in the Emirates, just like it was in the United States at one time.

Peligro recalls when the sport was a fringe activity, and that when he was first learning jiu-jitsu in a garage twenty-years ago, that "it was just so special and so unknown."

The fact that it's quite the opposite now, and that athletes like Agazarm and Sewgobind compete in BJJ competitions held around the world, indicates that the sport's popularity isn't going anywhere. Oddly enough, it just might take the immaculate wealth and unrelenting passion of a certain Sheikh from Abu Dhabi to make Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu something that crops up on television and works its way into the Olympic Games. For now however, we have this weekend's ADCC world championships as a substitute.

The glittering neon lights of Las Vegas have long symbolized the epicenter of fight sports.

It is the place where an aging Muhammad Ali lost his splendor, where Mike Tyson bit Evander Holyfield's ear (twice), and where Floyd Mayweather showcased his decade of dominance. It is also the place where Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) fighters like Conor McGregor became household names.

However, Gulf states like Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates - armed with vast resources and endless ambition - have emerged as formidable contenders, positioning themselves to potentially usurp Las Vegas' coveted title as the world's 'fight capital'.

Last week, the UFC hosted its latest premium live event in Abu Dhabi, the capital of the United Arab Emirates. The event, which saw lightweight champion Islam Makhachev defend his title against featherweight champ Alexander Volkanovski, was the 19th event held in the region since 2010.

Shortly ahead of the most recent event in Abu Dhabi, the UFC announced that it had extended its partnership with the Emirati capital through 2028, emphasizing the mutually beneficial partnership between the Las Vegas based organization and Abu Dhabi's Department of Culture and Tourism (DCT).

"Bringing UFC to Abu Dhabi each year has proved hugely popular, with MMA fans coming to the emirate from all over the world to watch the biggest and best fights in the sport," Saood Abdulaziz Al Hosani, undersecretary of DCT Abu Dhabi, said in the official press release, adding that "Abu Dhabi has established itself as a world capital for combat sports."

The UFC is only one facet of Abu Dhabi's combat sports strategy. Over the past 25 years, the UAE capital has continued to establish itself as a global hub for submission grappling. The country classifies Brazilian jiu-jitsu as its national sport, incorporating it into school curriculums, as well as in military and police forces. Abu Dhabi is also home to some of the most prestigious jiu-jitsu tournaments, including the ADCC Submission Fighting World Championship.

Abu Dhabi's investment in jiu-jitsu was not a random occurrence. The sport was popularized by Sheikh Tahnoun Bin Zayed al Nahyan - the son of Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan al Nahyan, the founder of the UAE - who discovered the grappling art as a university student in San Diego. He later returned to the UAE and went on to found the ADCC, as well as several other combat sports federation.

Often regarded as the guiding force behind combat sports in the UAE, Sheikh Tahnoun is also the deputy ruler of Abu Dhabi, chair's one of the country's biggest sovereign wealth funds, and is a key figure behind the country's coordinated spyware attacks on dissidents and political targets. His central role in shaping the UAE's combat sports strategy underscores the country's adept use of sports as a means of exercising influence, mirroring the manner in which his younger brother, Sheikh Mansour, exerts authority through his ownership of the English Premier League team, Manchester City.

Meanwhile, Saudi Arabia - the UAE's primary regional rival - has also emerged as a lucrative home for fight sports. Over the past few years, the kingdom has hosted some of the boxing's biggest showdowns, including the heavyweight championship fight between Anthony Joshua and Oleksandr Usyk.

This weekend, Saudi Arabia is poised to launch its winter festival, Riyadh Season, with a crossover fight that pits WBC heavyweight champion Tyson Fury against the former UFC champion Francis Ngannou. Moreover, the kingdom has successfully secured the hosting rights for the highly anticipated heavyweight title unification showdown between Fury and Usyk, which is set to serve as the concluding highlight of Riyadh Season in 2024.

This series of high-profile fights has helped solidify the kingdom's status as a premier destination for boxing.

Photograph: Bandar Al-Jaloud/Saudi Royal Palace/AFP/Getty Images

Saudi Arabia also made its first significant investment in MMA earlier this year when it purchased a minority stake valued at $100m in the US-based Professional Fighters League (PFL). Under the terms of the deal, the PFL will establish a regional tournament that will be headquartered in Saudi Arabia. The kingdom is also set to stage its first-ever UFC event in 2024, in conjunction with Riyadh Season.

Saudi Arabia is also currently hosting the 2023 edition of the World Combat Games, an international multi-sport festival featuring 16 different combat sports and martial arts.

Nevertheless, as Las Vegas faces emerging challenges to its decades of combat sports dominance, the gambling oasis has rebranded itself as a global sports hub, attracting some of the country's leading sports events and franchises.

In 2020, Las Vegas secured its first NFL franchise when the Raiders moved from Oakland to Allegiant Stadium - the second most expensive stadium in the world that will also play host to the Super Bowl in February. The city's NHL team, the Golden Knights, and their WNBA team, the Las Vegas Aces, also won both championships this year. Even LeBron James has expressed interest in bringing an NBA team to Vegas after he transitions from player to prospective team owner.

And next month, the Strip will be transformed into a Formula 1 track, making Las Vegas home to the biggest Grand Prix race in North America to date.

Multiple factors contribute to the appeal of Vegas as a prime destination for sports teams. The city has enjoyed a long-standing reputation as a global tourist hotspot, luring visitors from every corner of the globe who seek to immerse themselves in its entertainment, culinary offerings and overall opulence. In 2022, a year that saw Vegas play host to significant events such as the NFL Pro Bowl, the NFL draft, and numerous headline-grabbing concerts, the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority reported that 38.8m visitors flocked to the city.

Las Vegas is also set to benefit from the surge in legalized sports betting sweeping across the United States. What was once considered a controversial practice has seen several major sports leagues establishing partnerships with sports book operators. This shift in perception has paved the way for professional franchises to establish a permanent presence in Sin City.

Consequently, as Las Vegas faces the possibility of relinquishing its title as the fight capital of the world, with affluent patrons like Saudi Arabia and the UAE displaying a heightened enthusiasm for combat sports, the city seems to be actively shifting its focus. Las Vegas is redirecting its attention from niche, violence-oriented sports toward the broader realm of global sports and entertainment brands, a transition indicative of its evolving priorities.

As Las Vegas follows the shifting tides of an ever-changing sports world, Gulf states are stepping into the spotlight, ready to seize the opportunity and claim their place as the new epicenter of combat sports.

The ADCC World Fighting Championships organization and competition was the idea of the son of the former leader of the United Arab Emirates, Sheik Zayed, Sheik Tahnoon Bin Zayed Al Nahyan. He was completing his advanced studies in the USA at that time.

After watching the first UFC in 1993, Sheik Tahnoon became a fan of MMA and started training in BJJ in California shortly after. He returned to the UAE after finishing his studies with the vision and goal of implementing martial arts not only in his country but also to create a standard where all grappling martial arts will be measured.

The original idea of the ADCC was to amplify MMA training with different martial arts like BJJ, Judo, Wrestling, Sambo, Kickboxing, and Boxing. As the president of ADCC, Sheik Tahnoon explored various grappling martial arts styles.

He came up with the idea of creating a competition: put different types of grappling martial arts to settle whose style is the best, establish a neutral set of rules where all sorts of submissions are allowed, except spinal attacks. In 1998, he created the first ADCC tournament and invited the best practitioners of each art to fight without strikes. Thus the premier submission grappling tournament was born.

The ADCC World Championship happens every two years, where grapplers compete for the top spot. Unlike other top grappling competitions where brackets are separated by age, ADCC has no age divisions. There are five weight classes in the male category and two for females. The male category starts from the lightest, under 66 kg, followed by under 77 kg, under 88 kg, under 99 kg, and over 99 kg. There also comes the absolute division for the male category, where weight classes don't exist. In the female division, there are under 60 kg and over 60 kg with no absolute division.

Compared to gi BJJ tournaments, there are not as many prominent submission grappling tournaments that significantly put the grapplers in the spotlight as ADCC. The ADCC is considered the best and most challenging submission grappling tournament there is.

What makes it super exciting is the inclusion of the “ADCC Superfight”, where two of the best grapplers (the current champion and previous absolute winner) fight for the championship spot, where the winner defends the title for the next ADCC event.

It is critical for grapplers to train extensively, both physically and mentally, to prepare for this competition, as it is not an annual tournament. It is also important for athletes to stay healthy and be in their best physical and mental condition leading up to the event.

The ADCC allows unknown talents from different parts of the world to showcase their high-level grappling skills and compete against the best in their divisions. Many legends built their careers competing in ADCC, some as an extension to their reputable gi BJJ resumes, and others to exclusively focus on submission grappling.

Today, many grapplers find success competing in superfights, Combat Jiu-Jitsu, and MMA. Now more than ever, grapplers focus most of their training on developing their no-gi BJJ. Submission grappling is quickly growing, along with many rising stars looking to build the sport in the next few years.

A Glimpse Of The Current Meta

The exciting thing about the ADCC is that it is a glimpse of the current meta in submission grappling. The techniques you see in different gyms have been tested before they become relevant. The current meta seems to revolve around wrestling to get the top position and pin the opponent.

Other staples include variations of open guards like the butterfly and single leg X guard, back entries, and of course, leg locks. Some of these techniques will come and go, but the sport as a whole will move forward as new superstars take over. This is how the sport grows.

The Future Is Bright

The sport is constantly evolving, with athletes getting stronger and sharper with their techniques. Nowadays, staying competitive at a world-class level is difficult if you are not a full-time athlete as the sport grows so fast. If you plan to make a career in ADCC, it is best to start as early as you can and stay up to date with the current game.

With the explosion of many young stars such as Mikey Musumeci, Nicky Ryan, Mica Galvão, the Ruotolo brothers, Roberto Jimenez, and Cole Abate, it is without a doubt that the future of submission grappling is bright and in good hands.

Conclusion

Watching this year's ADCC is a must for fans of submission grappling. The quality of the competitors is the highest it has ever been and will guarantee very high-level matches in all divisions.

The long list of ADCC champions serves as a history tour and inspiration for those striving to be champions themselves. Once again, we are about to witness history as the ADCC Submission Fighting Championship returns to find out who is the best submission grappler in the world.

AJP Tour – History, Ruleset, Weight Classes and Prizes

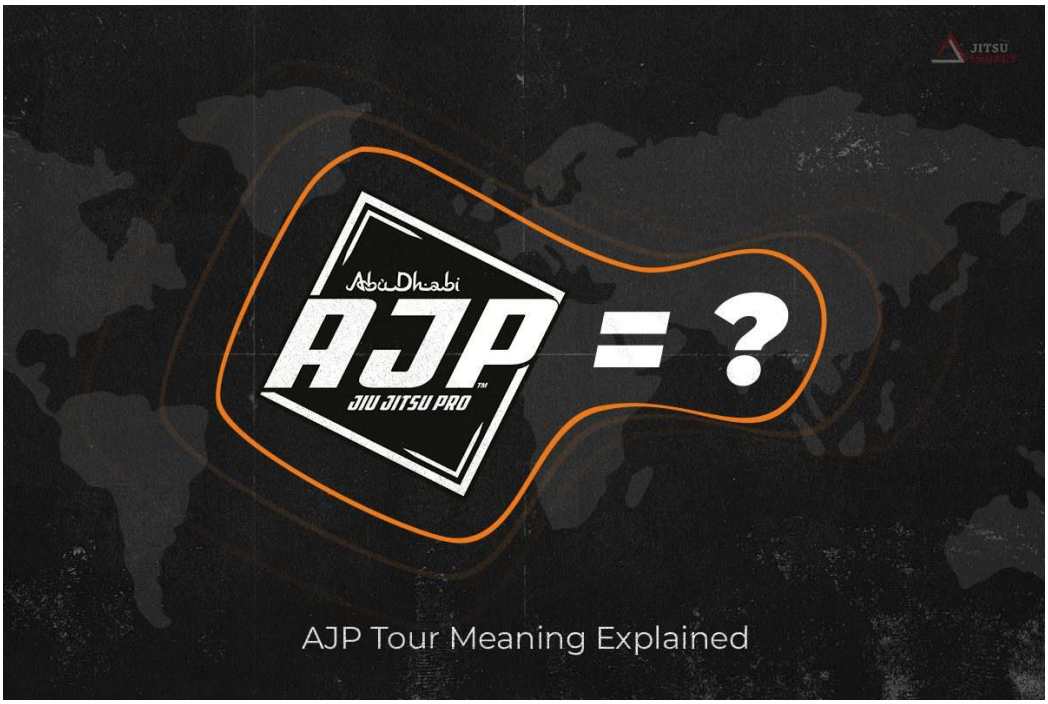

Last updated on 16.09.2023 by Ogi

Table of Contents [show]

The AJP tour became everyone's focus a few years ago, emerging as a global tournament available in many countries at least once a year, featuring highly organized events, quality referees, and many opponents to rival any IBJJF tournament. But where did they come from, and how did this global expansion come to be in such a short time?

Today, we'll cover everything on the subject of the AJP.

What does AJP stand for in Jiu Jitsu?

AJP stands for Abu Dhabi Jiu Jitsu Pro, the organization's official name that runs the AJP Tour.

The UAE Jiu Jitsu Federation (UAEJJF) founded the AJP in 2019 as a subsidiary. They aim to promote and develop BJJ globally by organizing high-level tournaments, providing professional services, and supporting athletes and academies.

The AJP Tour is the flagship project of the AJP, consisting of a series of events that occur throughout the year in different countries and continents.

Such events offer a unique opportunity for Jiu Jitsu practitioners of all levels and backgrounds to compete locally and internationally, to the point of earning a place in the AJP Worlds event for free, given a certain degree of success.

Systematization of the Abu Dhabi Jiu Jitsu Pro Tour

The AJP Tour follows a standardized system that regulates all aspects of the competition, from registration to results. The focus is on fairness, transparency, safety, and quality for all participants and spectators.

Their system is very similar to the IBJJF. Competitors are divided into weight, age, sex, belt categories, and uniform-based divisions (Gi and/or No-Gi).

Here is how it all works:

AJP Tournaments

The AJP Tour consists of several types of tournaments that vary in size, scope, and prestige.

These tournaments are divided into four main categories:

1. Grand Slam: These are the most prestigious and lucrative events of the AJP Tour, featuring the best athletes in the world competing for ranking points and cash prizes.

There are six Grand Slam events per season, each one hosted in a different city: Los Angeles, Rio de Janeiro, Moscow, Tokyo, London, and Abu Dhabi.

2. Continental Pro: Regional events that qualify athletes for the Abu Dhabi World Professional Jiu Jitsu Championship, the ultimate goal of the AJP Tour. There are five Continental Pro events per season, each one representing a continent: Africa, Asia, Europe, Oceania, and South America.

3. National Pro: These are national events that qualify athletes for the Continental Pro events. There are dozens of National Pro events per season, each one representing a country or a region within a country.

4. International Pro: These are international events that offer ranking points and medals for the athletes. International Pro events are in the hundreds every season, each open to all nationalities and belts.

The AJP Tour also organizes special events, such as the Abu Dhabi King of Mats, the Abu Dhabi Queen of Mats, the AJP Teams Cup, and the AJP Awards.

A unique part of the Abu Dhabi World Pro Jiu Jitsu Competion is the organization of Para Jiu Jitsu tournaments for disabled atheltes several times throughout the season.

AJP Weight Categories

AJP uses different weight categories than other Jiu Jitsu organizations, such as the IBJJF or ADCC. The variety tehy offer allows more options for competitors, and in turn, reduces the need for weight cuts.

They include 7 weight categories for men, 5 for women, 8 for kids, and 10 for youth.

Here is the entire weight range of AJP weight categories for adult men and women competitors:

- Men: -56kg, -62kg, -69kg, -77kg, -85kg, -94kg, -120kg
- Women: -49kg, -55kg, -62kg, -70kg, -95kg

The weight limit does not include the gi (unlike IBJJF), and two weigh-in periods are available, either before their first match on the day of their division or one day before.

AJP Ruleset

The AJP employs a ruleset that is similar to other competitions however, there are some significant differences.

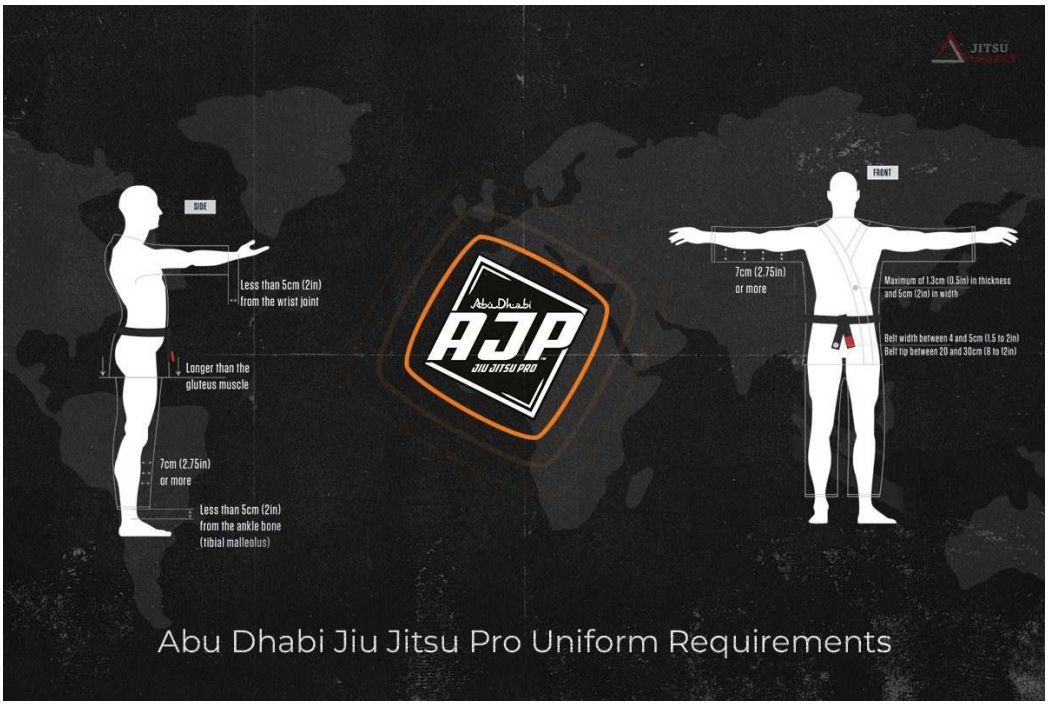

These differences are in line with the main goal of the AJP in encouraging more action and less stalling in the matches, and rewarding offensive techniques while penalizing defensive tactics.

Key aspects of their ruleset include:

- Advantages are replaced by one point for near submissions or dominant positions.
- Penalties are replaced by one point for the opponent for fouls or passivity.
- There are no referee decisions in case of a tie. Instead, there is an extra minute with a golden point (the first to score wins), or if no one scores, the last to score wins.
- Coaches can request one video review per match using the Falcon Eye system.
- Some special rules for specific situations include 50/50 guard, worm guard, knee reaping, etc.

The AJP tour ruleset is constantly updated and improved based on feedback from athletes, coaches, referees, and fans. You can find the latest version of the ruleset HERE.

AJP Dress Code

A strict dress code for athletes and coaches must be followed at all times during the events. It aims to ensure professionalism, respect, hygiene, and safety for everyone involved.

1. Athletes must wear a clean and properly fitted Gi in one of three allowed colors: white, blue, or black.
2. Male competitors can wear a rash guard under their Gi if they choose to, but it must be made of elastic material. Both long and short-sleeve options are allowed.

For female competitors, rashguards under the Gi are mandatory
3. All athletes must wear underwear under their Gi pants.
4. No jewelry or accessories that may cause injury or damage to themselves or their opponents are allowed.
5. Coaches must wear a polo shirt or t-shirt with their academy logo or name on it. They must also wear pants or shorts that cover their knees and shoes that cover their feet.
6. Coaches must not wear any hats, caps, sunglasses, headphones, or earphones during the matches.

The AJP reserves the right to disqualify or remove any athlete or coach who does not comply with the dress code.

AJP Prizes

A unique feature of the AJP is that it offers attractive prizes for the athletes who compete in its events, some of which are in the form of cash prizes.

The prizes include:

- Cash Prizes: The AJP Tour distributes millions of dollars in cash prizes every season, mainly in the Grand Slam and Continental Pro events. The cash prizes vary depending on the event, the division, and the athlete's rank.

- Ranking Points: The AJP Tour has a ranking system that awards points to the athletes based on their performance in the events. Points determine the seeding and qualification of the athletes for major events, such as the Grand Slam and the World Pro.

This ranking system also determines the winners of the AJP Awards, which recognize the best athletes of each season.

- Medals and Trophies: The AJP Tour awards medals and trophies to the athletes who place first, second, or third in their divisions. The medals and trophies vary in design and quality depending on the event category.

- Travel Packages: The AJP Tour offers travel packages to some of its events, especially the Continental Pro and Abu Dhabi World Pro events. The travel packages include flight tickets, hotel accommodation, transportation, and registration fees.

Athletes who qualify through the National Pro events or through the AJP ranking are eligible for travel packages based on their ranking status.

AJP Tour 2024

The AJP Tour 2024 is the upcoming season of the AJP Tour, which will start in September 2023 and end in April 2024. The AJP Tour 2024 will feature more than 300 events in over 50 countries, with more than 100,000 athletes expected to participate.

Some new features and improvements are also coming via the AJP Tour 2024, such as:

- New Weight Categories: 2024 will see the introduction of two new weight categories for both men and women:
  - -50kg and
  - -105kg.

These categories will replace the -49kg and -95kg categories, which will be discontinued, with the goal of creating more opportunities for athletes of different sizes and body types to compete.

- New Ruleset: The new ruleset will also introduce some changes to encourage more submissions and less stalling:
  - No advantages or penalties for any division or belt.
  - No referee decisions for any division or belt.
  - No time limit for black belt finals in Grand Slam events.
- New Venues: The AJP Tour 2024 will expand its reach to new countries and cities that have never hosted AJP events.

The AJP Tour 2024 will return to some of its most popular venues, such as Los Angeles, Rio de Janeiro, Moscow, Tokyo, London, Miami, and Abu Dhabi.

Home (https://adcombat.com/) » About Abu Dhabi Combat Club

The Idea:

(https://adcombat.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/04/adcc-retina-logo.png)The Club and the competition ADCC World Submission Fighting Championships were the idea and creation of a UAE national Sheik Tahnoon Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the son of then U.A.E. leader Sheik Zayed. who at the time was completing his advanced studies in USA. In 1993 after watching the first U.F.C. Sheik Tahnoon the became a fan of MMA. Shortly after that he started studying Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu in San Diego, California. Upon completing his studies, Sheik Tahnoon returned to the U.A.E. but his passion for Martial arts did not stop. Sheik Tahnoon set out to create and build his vision of implementing Martial Arts not only in his native U.A.E. but also creating a standard for which all ground fighting martial arts would be measured.

To put his vision to reality Sheik Tahnoon developed and pro[illegible]lan; to implement the gro[illegible]U.A.E. Sheik Tahnoon c[illegible]ombat Club). Sheik [illegible]ty in Abu Dhabi into a [illegible]iring top instructors (https://adcombat.com/) in various martial arts, Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, Judo, Wrestling, Sambo, Muay Thai etc. and giving them a World class facility to minister their classes and to train top professional fighters. Soon the ADCC became the top facility for learning and training MMA in the Arab World.

At the ADCC facilities World class instructors teach Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, Sambo, Boxing, Kickboxing, Judo, Wrestling and various other arts beneficial to MMA and No Rules Fighting.

Our Goal:

The goals of Abu Dhabi Combat Club are to generally promote a healthy lifestyle by educating members in nutrition and to train people in all aspects of self defense, which in turn builds self-confidence.

Our President:

The President of Abu Dhabi Combat Club is H.E. Sheikh Hazza Bin Zayed Al Nahyan and the Vice President of Abu Dhabi Combat Club is H.E. Sheikh Tahnoun Bin Zayed Al Nahyan.

The Competition:

ADCC Submission Fighting Championship:

Sheik Tahnoon's plan was perhaps harder to accomplish but even more rewarding as after the implementation of his plan Sheik Tahnoon had not only created the best grappling tournament in the World, but in that process he created a whole new fighting modality: Submission Fighting .

(https://adcombat.com/)

As he became more and more proficient in Gracie Jiu-Jitsu, Sheik Tahnoon saw flaws in the then philosophy of GJJ, the fact that at the time, the majority of practitioners ignored lower body submissions such as knee and foot locks. Sheik Tahnoon however is a man who followed his own ideas and soon he embarked in a course that would create a whole new sport that has taken over the World.

Tahnoon proceed to learn Russian Sambo and his thirst of knowledge led him to other fighting styles like wrestling and Judo. While learning all these styles Tahnoon often came across the same questions or the same statements by instructors of different styles: “My art is better than all others. If you know you can beat any other fighting style!” the problem at the time was that since every fighting style had their own set of rules, once again it was impossible to establish which one was the most effective.

With this idea in mind Sheik Tahnoon created a new competition and a set of “neutral” rules that would allow practitioners of various martial arts to compete against each other and without the brutality of strikes, prove to themselves and others that their style was the most effective “grappling” style available, thus in 1998 the first Abu Dhabi Combat Club (ADCC) World Submission Fighting Championships was created. The rules of ADCC rewarded points that allowed all the grappling styles equal chance additionally, ADCC allowed most submission attacks (except for spinal attacks) thus unshackling the restrictions of each martial art style and creating a neutral ground where GJJ, Sambo, Judo, Wrestling and any other fighting style could compete against each other. ADCC had 16 fighters in each of 5 weight divisions and the Absolute competing for the title. Additionally ADCC Tournament had a great benefit that was not found in any other grappling competition at the time, a large monetary prize for the winners of each weight division. For the first time ever fighters could compete and receive monetary prizes without having to submit to the dangers of strikes thus creating an avenue for up and coming fighters to expose their skills and develop their game prior to competing in MMA.

The first ADCC took place on March 20, 21 & 22, 1998 in Abu Dhabi, U.A.E. Despite its novelty and lack of publicity (the internet was in its infancy media at the time), the first ADCC tournament still attracted some of the best "grapplers" in the World at the time, while others, afraid of perhaps bias in the rules of worried about exposing themselves in a different format remained home and awaited the end of the event to make their judgment and passed on the chance to compete in March 1998

After the completion of the first event, with competitors returning home raving about the quality of the event and the equality of the rules, what followed was an explosion of interest for the next years. With each edition, more and more top fighters from the four corners of the World actively began training and preparing for ADCC. With the increased interest a problem started to occur there were too many entrants for the available 16 spots, thus forcing ADCC to create regional qualifying trials. Soon Submission Grappling spread throughout the four corners of the World and a new and exciting sport was created.

ADCC Champions and top competitors became highly sought commodities for MMA Events and soon became stars in shows like UFC in America and Pride and K1 in Japan. Names like Royler Gracie, Mark Kerr, Matt Hughes, Ricardo Arona, Tito Ortiz, Rodrigo "Minotauro", Dean Lister, Ricco Rodrigues, Ricardo Arona, Matt Lindland, Tom Erickson, Ronaldo "Jacare" Souza & Vitor "Shaolin" Ribeiro just to name a few, had or currently have successful careers in MMA.

The ever expansion of Submission Fighting led by the huge success of ADCC spawned amateur leagues around the World, and with each year, the number of competitors in these and other like events grew tremendously, and ADCC Championships is and has been always considered the pinnacle of the modality. The creation of one visionary, ADCC now has become the beacon of a new generation and a new sport.

AJP

Welcome to the Abu Dhabi Jiu Jitsu Pro™ (AJP). This a groundbreaking Professional Jiu-Jitsu Sport Organization is born to revolutionize the world of Jiu-Jitsu competitions. With over 400 events in all six continents on each season, the AJP aims to elevate our sport to levels of excellence and professionalism never achieved before.

The AJP is the natural evolution of a movement that kicked off in 2009, with the inception of the first Abu Dhabi World Professional Jiu-Jitsu Championship. The brand new event was born with two main goals: to move Jiu-Jitsu towards professionalism and to make Abu Dhabi the world capital for the sport. Twelve years later, it is clear that both goals were brilliantly achieved. The ADWPJJC has changed the landscape of Jiu-Jitsu competitions, making all of those involved understand that the days of amateurism are long gone. At the same time, Abu Dhabi has become a beacon of development for the sport and a example to be followed.

The second major step taken was the creation of the United Arab Emirates Jiu-Jitsu Federation (UAEJJF), in 2012. Under the guidance and with the support of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan President of the UAE, the UAEJJF quickly became a reference for Jiu-Jitsu both in UAE and all over the world. Since its creation, the UAEJJF has supported the development of a strong generation of athletes in the UAE. It has also played a leading role in the expansion of an international circuit of tournaments that create the opportunity for the sport to flourish around the planet.

The third major step came in the 2015/2016 season, with the creation of the Abu Dhabi Grand Slam Jiu-Jitsu World Tour, a series of anchor events in six of the most important cities in the world. The Abu Dhabi Grand Slam Tour will enter its 5th season in 2019/2020 as a complete success.

It has been embraced by the global Jiu-Jitsu community. Each one of the events have become the moment athletes get ready for year-round. Host cities Tokyo, Los Angeles, Rio de Janeiro, Abu Dhabi and London have turned into continental hubs for the sport. The newly added sixth host city, Moscow, will surely follow the same path of success.

As the expansion continues to take place, there was the need to take a step further in the direction of making the operation of all the system run more smoothly. The AJP comes to fulfill that need as it gives a highly qualified team with twelve years of experience in running the professional Jiu-Jitsu movement the focus and the time to dedicate fully to the task of putting out the best product possible for the complete satisfaction of all of those involved, from athletes to fans, but also local organizers, the media and commercial partners.

The AJP is under the direction of the International Vision Sports Management (IVSM), which gathers the talents of a selected group of top professionals in the diverse areas of knowledge, including sports management, event production, television production, live event orchestration, fighter development/relations, venue procurement, sponsorship creation/ development, international licensing, marketing, sponsorship, advertising, publicity and commission relations.

International Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Federation Inc. is pleased to support integrity in competition, and to announce it has contracted with the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency ("USADA") to provide anti-doping services during 2026 World IBJJF Jiu-Jitsu No-Gi Championship (the "Event"), to be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, from December 10, 2026 to December 12, 2026 USADA is the independent national anti-doping organization in the United States, and runs the U.S. anti-doping program for Olympic, Paralympic, Pan-American and Parapan American movement sports, in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code ("Code"). USADA collects, uses, and stores your Personal Information, which may be uploaded into the informational databases of WADA, USADA (stored in the U.S.), other anti-doping organizations, and third parties (as applicable) in accordance with USADA's privacy policy (https://www.usada.org/privacy-statement/) and/or the privacy policy of the relevant authority. International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation contracted with USADA to demonstrate a commitment to fair, drug-free, and safe competition. Doping, as defined in the USADA Protocol for Olympic and Paralympic Movement Testing and its Annexes (the "USADA Protocol"), is against the rules of the Event, and will not be tolerated.

The anti-doping rules for the Event are set forth in the USADA Protocol with the following modifications: First instance arbitral decisions are final and not subject to appeal to the Court of Arbitration for Sport or any other body, and USADA need only notify the athlete and IBJJF of alleged violations and case resolutions. These rules are fully applicable to each competitor, each member of the competitor's team, and all athlete support personnel involved in the Event. Any violation of the anti-doping rules may result in disqualification and loss of results achieved during the Event, in addition to all consequences that arise in accordance with the USADA Protocol and the Code.

Athletes competing in the Event are subject to blood and/or urine and/or other WADA-approved sample matrices testing for any substance or method on the World Anti-Doping Agency ("WADA") Prohibited List: http://www.usada.org/prohibited-list/. In addition to testing, USADA is a resource for educational information and will have jurisdiction to handle the results management process of any potential anti-doping rule violation. All Event participants (including competitors, each member of the competitor's team, and all athlete support personnel involved in the Event) acknowledge and agree that they are subject to the Code and the USADA Protocol, and that they are required to abide by all such rules and by the anti-doping rules of the Sanctioning Body. Anti-doping rule violations will be adjudicated in accordance with the USADA Protocol and each participant agrees that their sole, exclusive, final and binding remedy in relation to any potential anti-doping rule violation alleged by USADA and/or in response to any matter relating to anti-doping, sample collection, drug testing, doping control, results management and/or USADA shall be arbitration in accordance with the USADA Protocol.

As USADA is an independent entity, all athlete questions or concerns regarding details of the antidoping program should be directed to USADA. In an effort to aid athletes, as well as all support team members such as parents, coaches, managers and paramedical personnel, in understanding the rules applicable to them, USADA provides comprehensive information on its website regarding the testing process and prohibited substances, how to obtain permission to use a necessary medication, and the risks and dangers of taking supplements as well as performance-enhancing and recreational drugs. Athletes looking for information about the testing process can start at www.usada.org/athletes. In addition, USADA manages an athlete hotline which may be used to find answers to drug reference questions at (719) 785-2000, toll-free at (866) 601-2632, and by email at athleteconnect@usada.org.

Athletes may also access this information online at www.GlobalDRO.com. 1 - Open Class Light, from Rooster to Light;

2 - Open Class Heavy, from Middle to Ultra-Heavy.

How to register?

The athletes who are willing to register for the Open Class may do so at the event at the Open Class registration table.

Athletes must register in Open Class within 15 minutes after receiving their medal awards.

Athletes will not be able to register for the Open Class division after its registration deadline.

The competitors who are willing to participate in the Open Class divisions must have a flexible schedule, in order to be available for the start time of the division, whenever that may be.

Exceptions:

Black Belt Adult - All athletes are eligible to compete in Open Class.

There will be a registration deadline for the Black Belt Adult division, which will be posted alongside the event's schedule.

Black Belt Adult athletes who registered for Open Class and do not show up to compete will be disqualified from their weight divisions.

IMPORTANT INFO

Registration

We try to accommodate as many athletes as possible in our events comfortably, but there is a limit on the number of athletes in order to guarantee a high quality event.

The registration for this tournament will not be confirmed until the payment is completed (a pending registration does not guarantee the spot in the tournament).

IBJJF reserves the right to close registration when we reach full capacity, or on the day of the appointed event registration deadline, whichever comes first.

We strongly suggest that athlete registration is finalized before making any travel arrangements.

Any false information provided during registration such as, but not limited to, DOB, may lead to immediate disqualification. Such actions are subject to suspension or even banishment from future IBJJF events.

Refund Policy

The registration fee is only refundable within 48 hours of purchase. All cancellation requests after 48 hours are non-refundable and non-transferable. However, athletes can contact IBJJF by the Athlete Correction Deadline to be removed from the brackets without refund.

IBJJF cannot guarantee the athletes will show up for the tournament. Therefore, IBJJF will not refund athletes who end up without a match due to a non-show for his/her opponent.

Exemption:

Athletes who are alone in their division are eligible to receive a full refund of the registration if they contact ibjjf@ibjjf.com and request to withdraw their name from the competition on the day of the tournament's Registration Checkday, before 5 PM (event local time). If the athlete remains alone in the division by 5 PM, the refund will be processed.

If an athlete's division becomes populated with an additional athlete(s) on or before the Registration Checkday, the athlete will remain in their division and will no longer qualify for a refund.

For more detailed information regarding athletes who are alone in their division, please refer to the "Athlete Alone in the Division" section found below.

Competition Day - Show up Time and Weigh-in

It is the responsibility of the athlete to be knowledgeable of the rules and guidelines pertaining to the sport (as outlined in the IBJJF Rules Book).

It is mandatory to have an official government photo ID or an IBJJF membership card at all times. Before each fight, athletes will be asked to show their valid form of photo identification (ID) to the officials. Make sure you have it on hand.

If you have any issues regarding your ID documents, please go to the Customer Service booth when it is available, or the Administration Table.

Refer to the schedule link in order to know when you should be at the event ready to compete and inside the warm up area.

Athletes must be physically present inside the gymnasium and in the designated bullpen area at least one (1) hour prior to the estimated start time of their division, as published on the event schedule page.

Estimated division start times are not guaranteed and may change at any time due to match duration, submissions, medical stoppages, or mat reassignments.

Athletes are solely responsible for actively monitoring the official bullpen screens, which are the only authoritative source for real-time division calls and bout progression. Failure to be present in the bullpen area and attentive to the screens when a division is called may result in disqualification.

The division start time posted in the event's schedule it's an estimated start time only. The division start time can vary throughout the event day due to several factors that are beyond our control.

The official weight measurements of this event is in POUNDS.

Official weigh-in will occur immediately before the first fight. Only one attempt to make weight is allowed.

Be advised the athletes will be disqualified in their division if they weigh in heavier than the weight listed for the division they registered in.

Athletes are subject to blood and/or urine testing for any substance or method on the World Anti-Doping Agency ("WADA") Prohibited List (click here to view). You may review the WADA Code by clicking here.

Athletes Under 18 Years Old

Athletes 18 years old or younger, who have previously worn a belt from a belt rank that does not exist for their current age range, according to the IBJJF Graduation System, will only be allowed to compete in a belt rank that matches that athlete's current age group.

For tournaments with a spectator fee, athletes registered in the Juvenile divisions are allowed to enter with one companion for free on the day they compete, as long as the companion checks in at the entrance venue at the same time as the athlete enters the venue.

Black Belt Adult

Black Belt Adult division athletes will need to bring one predominantly white rash guard and one predominantly black rash guard to use in the Quarter Finals, Semi-Finals and finals.

Adult black belt male athletes will start fighting on Friday if your bracket has 5 or more people. The semi finals and finals will start/resume on Saturday. Every adult male black belt athlete who is in a bracket with 5 or more people may weigh in on Friday (from 10 am to 5 pm), even if his first fight will not occur until Saturday. If the athlete will fight on Friday, he must weigh in a few minutes before his first fight per normal tournament guidelines.

Adult Female Black Belt athletes will start fighting on Friday until the semi finals. The finals will occur on Saturday.

Black Belt athletes who register for the Open Class but do not show up for their Open Class match will automatically be disqualified from their weight division.

Black Belt Coaching Area

If the tournament doesn't have a coaching area available, coaching will be prohibited within the barricaded area/competition area. Coaching will be allowed outside of the barricaded area only.

If the tournament has a specific designated area for coaches, only coaches with valid IBJJF Black Belt membership ID will be allowed inside the coaching area.

Black Belt Coaches will need to have valid membership prior to the competition day. Memberships will not be renewed in person at the event.

Athlete Alone in the Division

Posted below are the three options for single-bracket competitors. Single-bracket competitors must inform IBJJF via their registered email which option they choose by 5 PM (event local time) on the event's Registration Checkday - ibjjf@ibjjf.com.

In the case that the division becomes populated with additional athletes during the Registration Checkday period, these options will no longer apply and the athlete will remain in the original division.

OPTION #1

Athletes may stay in their current weight class, make weight, and receive the 1st place medal for the division.

Once the athlete has had their weight and uniform checked, they will then be eligible to register for the Open Class division in the case that the age and belt division offers an Open Class division.

Please note: Option #1 is the default option if athletes do not respond to ibjjf@ibjjf.com by 5 PM (event local time) before the Registration Checkday deadline.

OPTION #2

Move up or down in age and/or weight division.

By moving up or down in age and/or weight, athletes may be paired with an opponent. However, IBJJF cannot guarantee that an opponent will be available. Athletes may select a second change option in case their first choice of division change is not available.

Athletes can make their selection(s) after viewing the Athlete's List by Division. The decision to move up or down in age and/or weight should be made solely at the athlete's discretion. If athletes choose OPTION 2 to change divisions, please be aware that athletes will be required to make weight for the new division. In order to request to change divisions, athletes will need to specify the exact division that they wish to be moved to. Athletes can specify a first and second choice (limited to the divisions available for the tournament).

Master and Adult division athletes: Athletes can move up or down in age by specifying an age-eligible division determined by the athlete's birth year. For example, an athlete eligible to compete in Master 2 may move to Master 1 or Adult, but may not move into Master 3 unless they are eligible.

Juvenile division athletes: Juvenile division athletes can move from Juvenile 1 to Juvenile 2 (if applicable) when alone in their bracket on the Registration Checkday. Juvenile athletes will not be allowed to move to the Adult division. The request to move up one age division must be done by the parent / legal guardian registered on the athlete"s IBJJF account.

OPTION #3

Withdraw from the tournament if alone at 5 PM on the Registration Checkday.

Athletes who are alone in their division on the Registration Checkday are eligible to receive a full refund of their tournament registration fee if they contact ibjjf@ibjjf.com PRIOR to the end of the Registration Checkday deadline. Refunds will be processed after 5 PM (event local time) if the athlete is still alone after the Checkday period.

Teams

Each team can only have two athletes in the same division bracket of age/weight/belt. If your team has more than two athletes in the same division, the Professor needs to email ibjjf@ibjjf.com prior to the Professor Correction Period deadline in order to edit their student's registration. This rule does not prevent you from registering for the event.

Athletes from the exact same team will not fight against each other before the final match, except in a three athletes bracket.

Medals and Trophy

Athletes who place in 1st, 2nd and 3rd in their division will receive a medal at the event.

All the medals should be picked up at the event's podium. IBJJF does not mail out unclaimed or lost medals after the tournaments.

There will be four trophy groups for this event:

Adult male
Adult female
Master
Juvenile

Tournament T-Shirt

Athletes will receive a complimentary event t-shirt which they must pick up at the event's shirt booth.

IBJJF does not mail out unclaimed t-shirts after the tournaments.

What Is Not Permitted Inside the Venue

Signs/flags are not permitted inside the event facility.

Food, pets, professional cameras and guns are not permitted inside the event facility.

Please note that video recording for social media live streaming of fights will not be allowed at any time.

If the athlete will fight on Saturday, he must weigh in a few minutes before his first fight per normal tournament guidelines.

Adult Female Black Belt athletes will start fighting on Saturday until the semi finals. The finals will occur on Sunday.

Black Belt athletes who register for the Open Class but do not show up for their Open Class match will automatically be disqualified from their weight division.

Black Belt Coaching Area

If the tournament doesn't have a coaching area available, coaching will be prohibited within the barricaded area/competition area. Coaching will be allowed outside of the barricaded area only.

If the tournament has a specific designated area for coaches, only coaches with valid IBJJF Black Belt membership ID will be allowed inside the coaching area.

Black Belt Coaches will need to have valid membership prior to the competition day. Memberships will not be renewed in person at the event.

Athlete Alone in the Division

Posted below are the three options for single-bracket competitors. Single-bracket competitors must inform IBJJF via their registered email which option they choose by 5 PM (event local time) on the event's Registration Checkday - ibjjf@ibjjf.com.

In the case that the division becomes populated with additional athletes during the Registration Checkday period, these options will no longer apply and the athlete will remain in the original division.

OPTION #1

Athletes may stay in their current weight class, make weight, and receive the 1st place medal for the division.

Once the athlete has had their weight and uniform checked, they will then be eligible to register for the Open Class division in the case that the age and belt division offers an Open Class division.

Please note: Option #1 is the default option if athletes do not respond to ibjjf@ibjjf.com by 5 PM (event local time) before the Registration Checkday deadline.

OPTION #2

Move up or down in age and/or weight division.

By moving up or down in age and/or weight, athletes may be paired with an opponent. However, IBJJF cannot guarantee that an opponent will be available. Athletes may select a second change option in case their first choice of division change is not available.

Athletes can make their selection(s) after viewing the Athlete's List by Division. The decision to move up or down in age and/or weight should be made solely at the athlete's discretion. If athletes choose OPTION 2 to change divisions, please be aware that athletes will be required to make weight for the new division. In order to request to change divisions, athletes will need to specify the exact division that they wish to be moved to. Athletes can specify a first and second choice (limited to the divisions available for the tournament).

Master and Adult division athletes: Athletes can move up or down in age by specifying an age-eligible division determined by the athlete's birth year. For example, an athlete eligible to compete in Master 2 may move to Master 1 or Adult, but may not move into Master 3 unless they are eligible.

Juvenile division athletes: Juvenile division athletes can move from Juvenile 1 to Juvenile 2 (if applicable) when alone in their bracket on the Registration Checkday. Juvenile athletes will not be allowed to move to the Adult division. The request to move up one age division must be done by the parent / legal guardian registered on the athlete"s IBJJF account.

OPTION #3

Withdraw from the tournament if alone at 5 PM on the Registration Checkday.

Athletes who are alone in their division on the Registration Checkday are eligible to receive a full refund of their tournament registration fee if they contact ibjjf@ibjjf.com PRIOR to the end of the Registration Checkday deadline. Refunds will be processed after 5 PM (event local time) if the athlete is still alone after the Checkday period.

Teams

Each team can only have two athletes in the same division bracket of age/weight/belt. If your team has more than two athletes in the same division, the Professor needs to email ibjjf@ibjjf.com prior to the Professor Correction Period deadline in order to edit their student's registration. This rule does not prevent you from registering for the event.

Medals and Trophy

Athletes who place in 1st, 2nd and 3rd in their division will receive a medal at the event.

All the medals should be picked up at the event's podium. IBJJF does not mail out unclaimed or lost medals after the tournaments.

There will be four trophy groups for this event:

Adult male
Adult female
Master
Juvenile

Tournament T-Shirt

Athletes will receive a complimentary event t-shirt which they must pick up at the event's shirt booth.

IBJJF does not mail out unclaimed t-shirts after the tournaments.

IMPORTANT INFO

Registration

We try to accommodate as many athletes as possible in our events comfortably, but there is a limit on the number of athletes in order to guarantee a high quality event.

The registration for this tournament will not be confirmed until the payment is completed (a pending registration does not guarantee the spot in the tournament).

IBJJF reserves the right to close registration when we reach full capacity, or on the day of the appointed event registration deadline, whichever comes first.

We strongly suggest that athlete registration is finalized before making any travel arrangements.

Any false information provided during registration such as, but not limited to, DOB, may lead to immediate disqualification. Such actions are subject to suspension or even banishment from future IBJJF events.

Refund Policy

The registration fee is only refundable within 48 hours of purchase. All cancellation requests after 48 hours are non-refundable and non-transferable. However, athletes can contact IBJJF by the Athlete Correction Deadline to be removed from the brackets without refund.

IBJJF cannot guarantee the athletes will show up for the tournament. Therefore, IBJJF will not refund athletes who end up without a match due to a non-show for his/her opponent.

Exemption:

Athletes who are alone in their division are eligible to receive a full refund of the registration if they contact ibjjf@ibjjf.com and request to withdraw their name from the competition on the day of the tournament's Registration Checkday, before 5 PM (event local time). If the athlete remains alone in the division by 5 PM, the refund will be processed.

For more detailed information regarding athletes who are alone in their division, please refer to the "Athlete Alone in the Division" section found below.

Competition Day - Show up Time and Weigh-in

It is the responsibility of the athlete to be knowledgeable of the rules and guidelines pertaining to the sport (as outlined in the IBJJF Rules Book).

It is mandatory to have an official government photo ID or an IBJJF membership card at all times. Before each fight, athletes will be asked to show their valid form of photo identification (ID) to the officials. Make sure you have it on hand.

If you have any issues regarding your ID documents, please go to the Customer Service booth when it is available, or the Administration Table.

Refer to the schedule link in order to know when you should be at the event ready to compete and inside the warm up area.

Athletes must be physically present inside the gymnasium and in the designated bullpen area at least one (1) hour prior to the estimated start time of their division, as published on the event schedule page.

Estimated division start times are not guaranteed and may change at any time due to match duration, submissions, medical stoppages, or mat reassignments.

Athletes are solely responsible for actively monitoring the official bullpen screens, which are the only authoritative source for real-time division calls and bout progression. Failure to be present in the bullpen area and attentive to the screens when a division is called may result in disqualification.

The division start time posted in the event's schedule it's an estimated start time only. The division start time can vary throughout the event day due to several factors that are beyond our control.

The official weight measurements of this event is in POUNDS.

Official weigh-in will occur immediately before the first fight. Only one attempt to make weight is allowed.

Be advised the athletes will be disqualified in their division if they weigh in heavier than the weight listed for the division they registered in.

Athletes are subject to blood and/or urine testing for any substance or method on the World Anti-Doping Agency ("WADA") Prohibited List (click here to view). You may review the WADA Code by clicking here.

The 2025 No-Gi World Championships showcased the planet's most elite jiu-jitsu competitors in Las Vegas, NV. Black belt World Champions hailed from a diverse array of nations, further proving the expansion of jiu-jitsu beyond the United States and Brazil, two countries that have long dominated the global stage. The sport's bright future is clearly evident, amplifying the competitive landscape and extending its worldwide appeal.

Brazil

Brazil secured the most black belt No-Gi World Champions, supplying eight of the world's foremost competitors. Thaís Loureiro, a native of Aracruz, Brazil, first encountered jiu-jitsu at the age of fourteen in her community. Thaís clinched her inaugural No-Gi World Championship in 2025, initiating an exceptional sequence of black belt Brazilian victories at the tournament. Cassia Moura, representing LEAD BJJ and originating from the Realengo neighborhood in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, attained her second No-Gi World Championship in successive years. Cassia remarkably ascended six weight classes to challenge the world's premier female heavyweights, ultimately demonstrating her extraordinary jiu-jitsu prowess to capture the gold medal. The Cidade de Deus neighborhood in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, is the home of Gabi Pessanha, widely recognized as the most formidable female athlete in jiu-jitsu. The former no-gi double grand slam champion perpetuated Brazil's distinguished jiu-jitsu legacy by claiming the super-heavyweight No-Gi Worlds title. Marcos Gomes's jiu-jitsu journey commenced with the Transformar Jiu-Jitsu Project in the Dique do Vilar community in Rio de Janeiro. Marcos detailed his humble beginnings as a youth who escaped the slums by pursuing his ambition of competing in jiu-jitsu on the sport's grandest platforms. This aspiration was realized at the 2025 No-Gi Worlds with the light-featherweight title, affirming to himself and his family that the challenging path was entirely worthwhile. Marco Mendes similarly fulfilled his lifelong goal by earning his first No-Gi World Championship. Marco, who was born in Brasília, Brazil, relocated early in life to Teresina, where he began training at eleven years old. Marco started his competitive pursuit representing a social project with his peers, resulting in a challenging progression that has undoubtedly served as an inspiration for young Brazilian practitioners. Roosevelt Sousa, a native of João Pessoa, discovered jiu-jitsu at twenty years old, commencing a formidable quest with the hope of competing at the highest level and encouraging young athletes to relentlessly chase their dreams. Roosevelt achieved the highly sought-after double gold status at the 2025 No-Gi Worlds, cementing his most dominant season in jiu-jitsu at 32 years of age.

United States of America

The United States boasted four black belt World Champions, who proudly represented themselves and their homeland. Ashlee Funegra of AOJ concluded her rookie campaign with a No-Gi Worlds light-featherweight title. The California native has long been under the spotlight as one of the sport's most compelling prospects, alongside her world champion siblings, Natalie and Mia. At just nineteen years old, Ashlee’s future is promising, and the jiu-jitsu community is eager to follow the continuation of her professional career. Helena Crevar returned to her home city of Las Vegas, Nevada, to secure her first black belt No-Gi World Championship this weekend. Helena has been dominant in competition since the juvenile ranks, creating tremendous anticipation for her inaugural black belt world title. The eighteen-year-old sensation is undeniably on the verge of an extraordinary career, much to the delight of jiu-jitsu enthusiasts globally. Elisabeth Clay furthered her celebrated career this weekend, capturing her fifth and sixth No-Gi World Championships. Born in Katy, Texas, Elisabeth unexpectedly began her jiu-jitsu pursuit in Alaska before returning to the contiguous United States to advance her career. Elisabeth continues to establish herself as one of the preeminent no-gi female athletes in the history of the sport. Cole Abate stands as the sole US-born male black belt No-Gi World Champion at this year's competition. Cole was born in Beaumont, Texas, where his jiu-jitsu journey began. Rising to prominence through dominating juvenile tournaments, Cole decided to bring his abilities to AOJ in 2019, a pivotal moment in his development. He now competes for one of the most powerful teams in the sport, serving as a standout athlete at just twenty-one years old.

Australia

Progressively becoming one of the sport's most recognized jiu-jitsu nations, Australia celebrated two No-Gi World Champions this year. Adele Fornarino has generated excitement in recent years, thanks to her world-class technique and crowd-pleasing approach. The Melbourne native secured her first No-Gi Worlds title over the weekend, dominating the female featherweight division. Adele has confirmed her status as one of the most commanding female competitors in the sport, representing Australia's ascendant jiu-jitsu scene. Fellow Australian, Nico Maglicic, was born in Sydney, where his involvement in the sport commenced at age twelve. Nico earned his first black belt No-Gi World Championship title on Saturday, representing Atos Jiu-Jitsu. Nico clinched the super-heavyweight gold, marking a significant breakthrough at the black belt level. The twenty-five-year-old Aussie unquestionably offers inspiration to young Australian athletes with aspirations of competing on the world stage.

Canada

Lillian Marchand is the lone Canadian No-Gi World Champion in 2025. Lillian caused an upset in the female lightweight division en route to her first No-Gi Worlds title, entering the bracket as the lowest seed. Lillian originates from Vernon, British Columbia, where she started training jiu-jitsu at the age of five. Initially taken up as a self-defense practice to shield her from bullying, Lillian quickly developed a passion for the competitive circuit. Ultimately, the Atos Jiu-Jitsu standout capped off her 2025 rookie season by reaching the top of the podium under the brightest lights. The nineteen-year-old Canadian undeniably possesses a promising future, exciting the global jiu-jitsu community.

Poland

Pawel Jaworski headlines a wave of emerging Polish grapplers making a notable impact at the sport's major events. Pawel was born in Wawa, Poland, eventually moving to Warsaw to train at Academia Gorila, aiming to further his jiu-jitsu career. The transition certainly proved fruitful, as the rookie black belt secured Pans, Europeans, and No-Gi World Championship titles in 2025. Academia Gorila impressed throughout the 2025 No-Gi Worlds event, affirming Poland's substantial contribution to the sport's international competitive scene. Pawel hopes his achievements will create more opportunities for fellow Polish athletes attempting to realize their dreams globally.

Norway

Tarik Hopstock continued Norway's recent success at the sport's biggest events, earning his first No-Gi World Championship this weekend. The Oslo, Norway native captured the middleweight division gold to culminate a 2025 season that also saw him win a European Championship title. The newly crowned world champion has represented Frontline Academy from his very first jiu-jitsu lesson, embodying loyalty and a relentless commitment to elevate the reputation of his childhood team and native country in the world spotlight. At twenty-nine years of age, Tarik has solidified his position as one of the world's top talents and a distinguished Norwegian athlete.

Panama

Javier Barter represents Panama at the sport's most prominent events. Born in Panama City, Javier started jiu-jitsu as an extracurricular pursuit before becoming devoted to the sport and committing to his objective of high-level competition. Javier faced numerous challenges, notably a lack of high-level training opportunities. Javier's narrative epitomizes persistence through hardship and an unwavering self-belief in achieving one's dreams. His performance marks the first No-Gi World title in Panama’s history. Javier is now the only Panamanian-born male to win a world championship, inevitably creating more possibilities for young athletes who follow a similar path.

Scotland

Shay Montague’s performance at the 2025 No-Gi World Championships highlighted Scotland’s promising jiu-jitsu scene. Shay was born in northern Scotland, where his youth was characterized by activities other than sports. His initial interest in martial arts began at age sixteen, when he quickly realized he did not possess the formidable physique often associated with champions of the arts. Shay eventually found an opportunity in jiu-jitsu, sparking a move to Glasgow to pursue his ambition of winning a blue belt world championship, after which he assumed his competitive career would conclude. Despite his modest beginnings and goals, Shay overcame many obstacles to capture his first black belt No-Gi Worlds title on Saturday. The Scotsman revealed he never imagined his journey would culminate in a black belt world championship, leading him to refocus his mission towards inspiring confidence and motivation in the next generation of Scottish athletes.

To whom it may concern,

This letter is submitted to clarify the competitive relevance of IBJJF International Open Championships within the official ranking and qualification system of the International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation (IBJJF), particularly as it relates to Ms. Nadine Tavares da Silva, IBJJF Black Belt registration #256418, an athlete actively competing at the Adult Black Belt level.

Competitive eligibility in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu is governed by the rules of the applicable federation. Under IBJJF regulations, Gi and No-Gi are treated as distinct competitive circuits, each with its own ranking system and eligibility requirements. Ranking points earned in Gi competitions are calculated independently from those earned in No-Gi competitions and are not transferable between modalities.

With respect to eligibility for the IBJJF World Championship, the IBJJF establishes objective point requirements for Adult Black Belt athletes. In the Gi division, athletes must accumulate a minimum of 80 ranking points to be eligible to compete. In the No-Gi division, the eligibility requirement is 30 ranking points. These thresholds apply within their respective ranking systems and reflect the federation's structured approach to competitive qualifications.

In both Gi and No-Gi, IBJJF International Open Championships are official ranking events. Medal placements at these events award ranking points in both weight divisions and Open Class, which are incorporated into the athlete's ranking on a cumulative and season-weighted basis. Accordingly, International Opens constitute a recognized and necessary mechanism for athletes to accumulate ranking points and to satisfy the eligibility requirements established by the IBJJF for its major international championships.

According to official records, Ms. Nadine Tavares da Silva has competed and achieved significant results in IBJJF International Open Championships held in multiple countries, in both Gi and No-Gi, and across weight divisions and Open Class, over several competitive seasons. She has also earned podium results in the adult division at the IBJJF European Championship and achieved a World Championship title in the Master division, demonstrating versatility and sustained competitive performance across distinct IBJJF-recognized categories.

Accordingly, participation in IBJJF International Open Championships should be understood, as a general matter, as a structural component of the competitive trajectory of athletes competing within the official IBJJF circuit, being directly linked to the accumulation of ranking points and the fulfillment of formal qualification requirements for higher-prestige championships, including the IBJJF World Championship.

Exhibit C.IV — Professional Profiles and Support Letters Regarding Nadine Tavares from Recognized Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Experts and Sports Media Professionals

May 7, 2026

To whom it may concern,

My name is Demian Maia. I am a Brazilian professional mixed martial arts athlete, submission grappler, and 5th-degree black belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. I have competed at the highest levels of combat sports for many years. I was the Abu Dhabi Combat Club (ADCC) World Champion in 2007, claiming the gold medal in the under 88kg division, one of the most respected titles in submission grappling. I also competed in the Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) from 2007 to 2021, fighting in 33 bouts within the organization, including title fights and matchups against some of the best athletes in the world.

Beyond my competitive career, I remain active in the sport as a UFC Brazil commentator, entrepreneur, and speaker through Escola Demian Maia. My work continues to be tied to Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, grappling, high-performance training, and athlete development.

I became better acquainted with Nadine Tavares da Silva's trajectory through her participation in international events, and I had the opportunity to observe her more closely in recent years. We met during the BJJ Summer Week in 2024 and again in 2025. The BJJ Summer Week is one of the largest and most relevant international gatherings in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, bringing together athletes, instructors, and practitioners from various countries, with competitions, technical seminars, and activities aimed at the development of the sport. As such, it is not an ordinary event, but an important international setting within the Jiu-Jitsu community, where the presence of recognized and technically qualified athletes carries great significance.

More recently, in March 2026, Nadine trained in São Paulo while preparing for an ADCC competition. She competed in a division with more than fifty athletes and placed third. In my opinion, this is a highly significant result. In a bracket of that size, an athlete must be technically prepared, physically strong, mentally balanced, and capable of making sound decisions across multiple matches.

What I observed in Nadine is that she is not only a technically skilled athlete, but also very serious about the way she approaches training and competition. She demonstrates a strong understanding of modern Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and is especially comfortable in positions that require precision, control, and timing. These qualities are not easy to develop and become even more important when an athlete competes under pressure.

Nadine has also competed in major international circuits, including events organized by the International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation and the Abu Dhabi Jiu-Jitsu Pro. Her IBJJF World Championship title in 2024 is a significant achievement and demonstrates that she has already proven her worth in a serious and competitive environment.

In my view, Nadine's presence in the United States for competition purposes is important to her continued development as a high-level Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu athlete. The United States hosts many of the most relevant tournaments in the sport and attracts internationally recognized competitors. For an athlete of her caliber, competing in the United States is an essential part of remaining active, visible, and competitive on the international circuit.

I also believe that athletes like Nadine add value to the Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling community in the United States. Strong competitions depend on strong athletes. When competitors with international experience participate, they raise the level of the divisions, challenge other athletes, and help make events more competitive and relevant.

Based on my experience as an athlete and as someone who has spent many years observing high-level competitors, I consider Nadine Tavares da Silva a serious, talented athlete who is actively engaged in the international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu scene. I support her continued participation in high-level competitions in the United States.

Sincerely,

Demian Augusto Maia Baptista

A quem possa interessar,

Meu nome é Demian Maia. Sou atleta profissional brasileiro de artes marciais mistas, grappler de submission e faixa-preta quinto grau em Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro. Competi nos mais altos níveis dos esportes de combate por muitos anos. Fui campeão mundial do ADCC em 2007, conquistando a medalha de ouro na categoria até 88kg, um dos títulos mais respeitados do mundo no grappling de submission. Também competi no Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) de 2007 a 2021, disputando 33 lutas na organização, incluindo disputas de cinturão e confrontos contra alguns dos melhores atletas do mundo.

Além da minha carreira competitiva, continuo ativo no esporte como comentarista do UFC Brasil, empresário e palestrante por meio da Escola Demian Maia. Meu trabalho continua ligado ao Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro, ao grappling, ao treinamento de alta performance e ao desenvolvimento de atletas.

Passei a conhecer melhor a trajetória de Nadine Tavares da Silva por meio de sua participação em eventos internacionais e tive a oportunidade de observá-la mais de perto nos últimos anos. Nós nos encontramos durante o BJJ Summer Week em 2024 e novamente em 2025. O BJJ Summer Week é um dos maiores e mais relevantes encontros internacionais de Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro, reunindo atletas, professores e praticantes de diversos países, com competições, seminários técnicos e atividades voltadas ao desenvolvimento do esporte. Por isso, não se trata de um evento comum, mas de um ambiente internacional importante dentro da comunidade do Jiu-Jitsu, no qual a presença de atletas reconhecidos e tecnicamente qualificados tem grande relevância.

Mais recentemente, em março de 2026, Nadine treinou em São Paulo enquanto se preparava para uma competição do ADCC. Ela competiu em uma divisão com mais de cinquenta atletas e conquistou o terceiro lugar. Na minha opinião, esse é um resultado muito significativo. Em uma chave desse tamanho, uma atleta precisa estar tecnicamente preparada, fisicamente forte, mentalmente equilibrada e ser capaz de tomar boas decisões ao longo de várias lutas.

O que percebi na Nadine é que ela não é apenas uma atleta tecnicamente habilidosa, mas também muito séria na forma como encara o treinamento e a competição. Ela demonstra um forte entendimento do Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro moderno e se mostra especialmente confortável em posições que exigem precisão, controle e timing. Essas qualidades não são fáceis de desenvolver e se tornam ainda mais importantes quando uma atleta compete sob pressão.

Nadine também competiu em importantes circuitos internacionais, incluindo eventos organizados pela International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation e pela Abu Dhabi Jiu-Jitsu Pro. Seu título mundial pela IBJJF em 2024 é uma conquista importante e demonstra que ela já provou seu valor em um ambiente sério e competitivo.

Na minha visão, a presença da Nadine nos Estados Unidos para fins de competição é importante para sua continuidade como atleta de alto nível no Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro. Os Estados Unidos sediam muitos dos torneios mais relevantes do esporte e atraem competidores internacionalmente reconhecidos. Para uma atleta do nível dela, competir nos Estados Unidos é uma parte importante de se manter ativa, visível e competitiva no circuito internacional.

Também acredito que atletas como a Nadine agregam valor à comunidade de Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro e grappling nos Estados Unidos. Competições fortes dependem de atletas fortes. Quando competidores com experiência internacional participam, eles elevam o nível das divisões, desafiam outros atletas e ajudam a tornar os eventos mais competitivos e relevantes.

Com base na minha experiência como atleta e como alguém que passou muitos anos observando competidores de alto nível, considero Nadine Tavares da Silva uma atleta séria, talentosa e ativamente inserida no cenário internacional do Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro. Apoio sua continuidade em competições de alto nível nos Estados Unidos.

Atenciosamente,

Demian Maia is a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt and a professional mixed martial arts (MMA) fighter, who reached the top of both sports' rankings, particularly in grappling where Maia earned titles such as World Cup (2002, 2003), ADCC (2007). In MMA Demian had title attempts in the UFC's middleweight (April 2010) and welterweight (July 2017) divisions. Demian is also known for having one of UFC's longest successful submission win streaks (5). In the context of jiu-jitsu history, Maia was at the heart of the early 2000's Alliance Academy's turmoil, a case that ended in the team splitting, giving birth to the Brasa, TT, and Master academies.

Demian Maia Biography

Demian Maia was born in Sao Paulo, Brazil on the 6th of November 1977. His first contact with the Martial Arts world was through Judo at the tender age of 4, a sport that he practiced for 2 years. After an inactivity period, he started taking Karate and Kung-Fu classes by his own initiative. He was 12 and he trained in both these sports until he was 19, when he picked up BJJ. The decision to drop the more traditional martial arts (Karate and Kung Fu), came after he watched an MMA event in the town of Ibrabuera, Brazil, where all 3 of the Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu representatives easily won their respective fights without much effort.

He picked up BJJ at the same time he entered University to study Journalism, and his first Jiu-Jitsu academy was Fabio Araujo's place (who was a Brown Belt at the time under Carlson Gracie). Demian decided to move away from this gym after making the decision to dedicate his time to BJJ and possibly becoming a professional athlete (even though he continued his studies in Journalism).

He sought Fabio Gurgel and his Alliance team academy in Sao Paulo's Centre, with whom he stayed until graduating as Black Belt in a staggering 4 years and 7 months. Although this is an amazingly short period to reach black belt, Demian Maia was training BJJ 2 to 3 times per day and competing in all the main Tournaments (and winning), earning the World Title in the lower belts (purple and Brown) two years on a row. Before earning his Black belt, Demian Maia had his first MMA experience at the "Tormenta Del Ring" tournament in Venezuela (2001).

Demian was also at the centre of a revolution that almost caused Alliance team's demise when in 2002 him and a few others decided to fight in CBJJO's (Confederacao de Jiu Jitsu Olimpico) World Cup, just a few days prior to the World Championships (CBJJ) against Fabio Gurgel and Jacare Romero's instructions. The reason these fighters fought in the Cup was because CBJJO offered a prize money, which the World Championships didn't and Demian along with the others (Rodrigo Comprido, Leo Vieira, Terere and "Rico" Vieira) believed a fighter should get paid for his hard work.

After the refusal to accept Gurgel's orders, the fighters were penalized and denied entrance at the IBJJF World Championships under the Alliance banner, also being barred from their gym for an undetermined time. With these new guidelines, the athletes decided to start their own team, then forming the Masters Academy (a tribute to their master, Romero Jacaré), a workgroup that would later phase out to the Brasa Clube de Jiu-Jitsu team.

Demian remained under Brasa until he decided to pick mixed martial arts as his main activity, a sport in which he gained tremendous notoriety. After going through a series of minor shows in Brazil and Finland, Maia joined the biggest MMA organization of all, the UFC where he had a fantastic run, winning several "Submission of the Night" bonus prizes.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Samantha Cook-Hill, and I am a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu athlete, co-founder of Royal Jiu Jitsu in Birmingham, United Kingdom, and England Director of the UK Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Association. I am a second-degree Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt, an IBJJF World Champion, a five-time IBJJF European Champion, and an ADCC veteran. Alongside my athletic career, I also work as a clinical physiotherapist within the United Kingdom's National Health Service.

I first met Ms. Nadine Tavares da Silva in 2017 in London. Shortly after we met, she joined the Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu academy where I trained, and since then I have had the opportunity to follow her development closely as a competitor and high-level practitioner. My assessment of her abilities is based on years of direct observation in training, preparation, and competition environments.

Ms. Tavares da Silva has built a strong international competitive profile. She is an IBJJF World No-Gi Champion, having won the 2024 IBJJF World No-Gi Championship in the Master 1 Black Belt Lightweight division. This is one of the most prestigious titles in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and reflects elite technical ability, composure, and consistency against highly skilled international opponents.

Her achievements are not limited to one event. Over the years, Ms. Tavares da Silva has earned medals and podium finishes in recognized international competitions across Europe, including IBJJF, ADCC, and AJP events. Her success across both gi and no-gi formats demonstrates adaptability, discipline, and sustained competitive excellence.

From my perspective as an IBJJF World Champion, five-time European Champion, and ADCC veteran, Ms. Tavares da Silva's technical level is exceptional. She demonstrates strong positional control, precise timing, strategic awareness, and the ability to perform under pressure. These qualities are consistent with athletes who compete at the highest levels of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission grappling.

Ms. Tavares da Silva is also highly respected among female athletes in the international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu community. Her results, consistency, and professionalism have established her as a serious competitor whose presence strengthens the competitive level of the events in which she participates.

Her continued participation in high-level competitions in the United States will contribute to stronger competition, increased visibility for women's Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, and greater prestige for the sport. Athletes with her background and competitive record help raise the standard of the events they enter.

I strongly support Ms. Tavares da Silva's application and am available to provide further information if required.

Sincerely,

Samantha Cook-Hill

Samantha Cook Biography

Samantha Cook was born on November 10, 1987 in Kingswood a neighbouring town of Bristol – England.

Being raised near Britain's countryside Cook grew fond of horse riding from a young age, a sport in which she competed throughout her teenage years and into her early adulthood as part of the British Showjumping Association. A career that went on from her 14th birthday all the way to her 20th.

At 21 Cook started dating a local mixed martial arts (MMA) fighter, and it was he who introduced Sam to Brazilian jiu-jitsu. Cook started training under Italo Ferreira, the coach who promoted her to blue belt. Not long after this promotion Ferreira moved to the United Arab Emirates, with Checkmat co-founder Chico Mendes moving into his space. Samantha spent the next few years under Chico's tutelage, a time when she fell in love with the sporting facet of jiu jitsu, becoming one of the top competitors in the country.

Samantha's drive to become the best grappler she could be led Cook to leave her job as a physiotherapist in 2014 to train jiu-jitsu full-time, this was followed by her winning quadruple gold at the IBJJF/UKBJJF British Nationals and securing an important sponsorship from one of the most prestigious brands in our sport- Shoyoroll (2015). With the SYR sponsorship and her family's support, Cook moved to London in order to be closer to a more competitive environment. Sam spent some time at London Fight Factory, later moving to Fight Zone London – both Checkmat affiliates in England's capital.

At Fight Zone London Samantha's coaching was left in the capable hands of Marco Canha, one of the top instructors in the country. Under Marco's guidance Cook conquered gold medals in the ADCC European Trials, IBJJF European Open (Gi and No-Gi) as well as a double silver medal at the IBJJF World Championship – weight and absolute. These wins would lead to her promotion to black belt, which took place on June 2017.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Julia Scardone Livesey, and I am a retired high-level judoka and an active Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling athlete and coach. I am the co-founder and coach at Carlson Gracie Hull in the United Kingdom and part of the Carlson Gracie Thalang Phuket team in Thailand. I am also the founder and organizer of Judo for BJJ Camps, an international camp initiative focused on the development of female athletes and high-level grapplers.

My background includes years of international competition in judo, during which I maintained top-three national rankings in Great Britain, won national titles at the English Senior Open and Scottish Open, and earned a bronze medal at the European Cup in Tampere. I later transitioned into Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling, where I continue to train, compete, and work within high-level international training environments.

I first met Ms. Nadine Tavares da Silva in 2021 during a training exchange in Europe. Since then, we have trained together regularly and supported each other through different phases of competition preparation. My assessment of her abilities is based on direct and sustained interaction over several years in competitive and high-level training environments.

Ms. Tavares da Silva has built a strong and consistent competitive profile across major international organizations and circuits. In 2024, she won the IBJJF World No-Gi Championship in the Master 1 Black Belt Lightweight division, one of the most prestigious titles in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. This event attracts elite athletes from around the world and requires technical excellence, composure, strategy, and mental resilience. Her victory in this event clearly demonstrates world-class ability.

In addition to her IBJJF World title, Ms. Tavares da Silva has shown outstanding performance in the ADCC circuit. At the ADCC Spain National Championship in 2023, she won both her division and the absolute division. In 2024, she again reached the finals in both brackets, earning silver medals. Reaching the finals in both weight and absolute divisions in consecutive years reflects consistency, adaptability, and elite-level no-gi grappling ability.

Ms. Tavares da Silva has also earned podium finishes in AJP and other major European competitions in both gi and no-gi formats. Successfully competing across these circuits requires adapting to different rulesets, pacing, and styles of competition. Her results show that she can perform at a high level across different competitive structures, not only in one isolated event.

Among female competitors in the international grappling community, Ms. Tavares da Silva is recognized for her technical ability, professionalism, and strong competitive mindset. Her reputation is supported by her results, her consistency, and her presence in major events across Europe and internationally. From my perspective as an athlete, coach, and organizer of women-focused grappling camps, she is the type of competitor whose presence raises the standard of the athletes around her.

Ms. Tavares da Silva's continued participation in high-level competitions in the United States will elevate the technical level and visibility of women's Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling. Athletes with her competitive background contribute to stronger events, higher-level matchups, and increased prestige for the sport.

I strongly support Ms. Tavares da Silva's application and am available to provide further information if required.

An Interview With: Julia Scardone

blog.blitzsport.com/2023/06/01/an-interview-with-julia-scardone

Blitz 1 June 2023

- Interviews

The incredibly multi-talented Julia Scardone is one of the leading female Martial Artists and Martial Arts instructors in the UK. Born in Brazil, the Judo black belt and Brazilian Jiu Jitsu blue belt not only continues to compete at the highest level but, also fills her spare time running her own Martial Arts club to pass on her boundless knowledge to others. The English, Scottish and Northern Ireland Judo Open Champion also has one clear mission – to encourage more women to take part Martial Arts!

We talk to Julia, a truly dedicated and technically brilliant all round Champion and, very good friend to Blitz.

How did you get into or who introduced you to your Martial Art?

My older brother. My brother was quite naughty in school so, his teachers asked my parents to put him into a Martial Art. So, my Mum and Dad put him in Judo and he got a lot better. Then, growing up, I started to get a little naughty as well so, my parents knew what to do straight away and they just put me into Judo at the age of five.

How long have you been practicing your Martial Art?

I have been doing Martial Arts, Judo specifically, since I was five years old. So, for over 20 years. And I have started Brazilian Jiu Jitsu now for about five years.

Who or what was your biggest inspiration?

I think my biggest inspiration is probably my family – My mum, my dad, my brother, my son. They just inspire me to do really well in this sport all the time. So, I'd say it's definitely them.

What separates you from every other Martial Artist in your discipline?

I don't think I've got anything special or different, to be honest. I just work really hard every single day, every single training session. I try my best all the time which, I'm pretty sure most people do anyway.

Photographs courtesy of Julia Scardone

What have you achieved in your Martial Art?

In the years that I was competitive in Judo, I managed to stay in the top three in Great Britain. When I went abroad, I managed to achieve European Cup medals so, that's the level I got to.

What is your proudest moment of your career, thus far?

The proudest moment of my career so far, I think is coming back from pregnancy to the sport. I had a baby in September 2021, went back to training in December and, my first Invitational Competition that I did was Grapplefest against a really, really good opponent. I'm proud of that moment really as, I went up against someone very tough and was training full time – four months post pregnancy. I had a c-section as well so, it was a big deal for me to compete quite early on against someone so good and, I did well too. So, I think that's my proudest moment ever.

Photographs courtesy of Julia Scardone

What would you say are your biggest strengths?

My biggest strength is that I'm very stubborn. I just don't give up, no matter how many times I lose. I just keep going, keep going, keep going!

What does your training schedule consist of?

With my training schedule, I train every single day. So, I try to do strength and conditioning at least three times a week. If not, definitely two. I do grappling and wrestling, sometimes two sessions per night or, one session minimum. I do try to give myself Sunday's off to give my body a break.

What are your goals for the future?

I think my biggest goal for the future has changed now. Obviously, I still want to win. I still want to be invited to good grappling shows and things like that. But, one of the biggest things, and my goal now, is to encourage women to take part in a fighting sport for so many different reasons, not just competitive. For women to learn a form of self defence, to up their confidence. So, I'm on a big mission now to get more girls involved in the sport because, all of the benefits it gives us. A big goal for the future is to increase the participation of women in Martial Arts.

Photographs courtesy of Julia Scardone

Do you have any words of advice to anyone wishing to take up a Martial Art?

Just do it! It might be a biased opinion but, I really do think Martial Arts – specifically Judo, wrestling, Brazilian Jiu Jitsu – is the best sport for a person to improve; not only anything physical but, mental as well. It's a tough sport but, you can achieve little wins at every level that you play at. So, just go and do it. That's my advice. It's the best discipline in the world.

How do you divide your time between training and teaching?

So, the way that I divide my time between teaching and training myself is that, I teach after school clubs to kids. So, all of my afternoons are booked to teach children. I then teach kid's classes at mine and Owen's (Livesey) club, Carlson Gracie Hull. These classes tend to be before the adult classes later in the evening so, I'm already there for my own training. So, I teach kid's classes mid-afternoon and early evening. And then, I'm already there for the adult training sessions after for my own training.

What are your plans in the upcoming months?

I've just been training for Polaris that, I'm going to be doing this weekend. That's what I've been doing the past couple of months. At the minute, my plans are to just train lots and put on a show at the biggest grappling event in Europe. So, hopefully, I'll do well in that!

Tell us about your club, Carlson Gracie Hull.

Carlson Gracie Hull includes classes for all, no matter your ability. We run Judo, BJJ, MMA, Wrestling and Boxing clubs. For adults, we have mixed classes and women's only sessions. For children, we have beginners and advanced classes in Judo and Brazilian Jiu Jitsu.

It has taken us a while to get to where we are but, we can now say we provide everything you need if you're realistically looking to achieve your goals. Whether that is to compete at the highest levels or, simply to just get fit and work through your grades.

We now provide a full time schedule with morning and evening classes, both for beginners and competitors. All of our coaches have also been there and done it themselves from 2014 Judo Commonwealth Games Champion, Owen Livesey, to European MMA Champion, Danny Mitchell.

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Gustavo "Siri" dos Santos Pires. I am a fourth-degree Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt, international competitor, professor, and founder of Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. Siri BJJ is a growing team with affiliated academies and athletes competing in Brazil, the United States, and internationally.

I received my black belt in 2003 directly from Carlos Gracie Jr., one of the most important figures in the modern history of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. He is the son of Carlos Gracie, one of the pioneers of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu in Brazil, and has helped develop generations of athletes and professors around the world. For those of us who live this sport, receiving a black belt within that lineage carries a very strong meaning.

As a competitor, I had the opportunity to compete in some of the most important Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu events. Among my most relevant achievements, I became an IBJJF World No-Gi Champion, an IBJJF Masters World Champion, an IBJJF Pan Champion, and an IBJJF American No-Gi Nationals Champion. Those years on the competition mats taught me, in practice, what separates an ordinary athlete from someone who can truly compete at a high level for many years.

I also know Joseph Stahl III, the owner and head instructor of Oregon BJJ LLC, which operates as Siri BJJ SW Portland in Oregon. His academy is affiliated with Siri Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and is part of the team structure we are building in the United States.

In Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, this kind of affiliation is very common. An academy may operate independently while representing a larger team, sharing the same athletic identity, competition culture, and team name. Athletes who compete under the Siri BJJ affiliation are not employees of Siri BJJ simply because they represent the team in tournaments. It is an athletic relationship between the athlete, the academy, and the team.

That is important in Nadine's case because she already represents Siri BJJ internationally as part of her athletic affiliation. She competes under our team name, carries our flag in tournaments, and is recognized within that competitive environment. Her opportunity to compete in the United States through Oregon BJJ LLC, operating as Siri BJJ SW Portland, is a natural continuation of that same athletic relationship.

It is from this perspective that I speak about Nadine Tavares da Silva.

I know Nadine as a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu athlete and have followed her path in international competitions. She is a very experienced black belt, technically strong, competitive, and used to competing in high-level events. Nadine is not an athlete who appeared because of one isolated result. She has built a consistent career, with presence in important tournaments and results against strong competitors.

Among her main achievements, I highlight her title at the 2024 IBJJF World No-Gi Championship, a very important accomplishment within the international IBJJF calendar. She also has relevant results in European championships, international IBJJF events, AJP Tour competitions, and events connected to ADCC.

More recently, Nadine has continued to show that she remains active at a high level. In 2026, she won a bronze medal at the ADCC South American Trials, one of the most important qualifiers in submission grappling. She also had an excellent performance in AJP Tour events, including a strong result in Sevilla while competing under the Siri BJJ affiliation. To me, these recent results show that Nadine is not relying only on past achievements. She continues to compete, challenge herself, and represent her team very well in internationally respected events.

Today, Siri BJJ has nine affiliated academies. Among brown and black belts alone, we have more than thirty athletes. When blue and purple belts are also considered, the community formed by the affiliated academies includes more than three hundred athletes. This shows that Siri BJJ has developed into a serious and growing Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu team.

Having an athlete like Nadine competing for the Portland academy strengthens Joseph's work, raises the local competitive level, and also helps Siri BJJ grow in a serious way within the American scene. For a growing academy in the United States, being represented by an athlete with Nadine's experience and international results is very valuable.

Based on my experience as a fourth-degree black belt, international competitor, professor, and founder of Siri BJJ, I strongly recommend Nadine Tavares da Silva. She is a serious and experienced athlete, with important results and a technical level compatible with highly respected competitions.

I believe Nadine has the full ability to represent Oregon BJJ LLC, operating as Siri BJJ SW Portland, in professional Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling competitions in the United States. I strongly support her opportunity to compete in the United States and to continue her athletic career at this level.

Sincerely, GUSTAVO PIRES

Gustavo Pires Biography

Gustavo Pires was born on the 20th of November, 1979 in Rio de Janeiro – Brazil.

Siri started training jiu jitsu in his mid teens (15/16), influenced by his older brother Marcelo, who already trained at Gracie Barra's headquarters in Barra da Tijuca, RJ.

Gustavo's first class was taught by the legendary developer of the half guard position, Roberto "Gordo" Correa, who was one of the head coaches at the gym.

Going through the belt system of jiu jitsu, Gustavo earned many important titles, including Brazilian National and Pan American titles, quickly establishing himself as one of the top prospects in the sport.

His competitive success led to his black belt, which he earned on the 12th of August, 2003 from the hands of Carlos Gracie Junior. After receiving his black belt, Gustavo Siri received an offer to move to the South of Brazil, and establish an academy there. He remained in the South for many years, after which he moved to London – United Kingdom, where he remained for almost two years.

In 2009 Gustavo was invited by his older brother to move to California in the United states. Pires accepted his brother's invitation and settled in the American state. Later he founded his own academy, Gracie Barra Fullerton though he chose to leave the academy in 2017, moving to Kennewick (Washington State) where he set base.

To USCIS,

As Head Coach at Carlson Gracie Hull and as a coach at Bangtao MMA in Thailand, I've had the privilege of working with elite athletes across disciplines. My background includes a gold medal at the Commonwealth Games in judo for England and championship titles at the ADCC European, Middle East, and Africa Trials. I have also competed at the ADCC World Championships, where I faced some of the sport's top grapplers. Over the past year, I've had the opportunity to train alongside Nadine Tavares da Silva through a series of high-level camps and competitive preparations, where she consistently stood out for her athletic skill, focus, and technical precision.

One of the clearest demonstrations of Ms. Silva's elite ability was her recent victory at the IBJJF World No-Gi Championship, a title that represents the highest level of competitive success in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. Becoming a world champion requires elite technical discipline, adaptability, consistency, and physical and mental resilience to prevail against the strongest international opponents. In training, I've seen the same qualities that led her to that title: precision, composure, and a relentless drive to improve. Whether sparring with world-class athletes or pushing through intense sessions, she consistently brings a level of performance that reflects true world-champion caliber.

I have also had the opportunity to observe Ms. Silva in high-level competitive training environments involving elite athletes preparing for international competitions. In these settings, she consistently demonstrated professionalism, discipline, and the technical ability expected of a world-class competitor. Her focus, athletic intelligence, and ability to perform under pressure distinguish her among elite athletes in the sport.

These camps brought together high-level athletes preparing for international competitions, and the intensity and expectations were consistently high. Ms. Silva consistently performed at an elite level in these demanding environments and demonstrated the discipline and resilience required to succeed at the highest levels of the sport.

In addition to her competitive accomplishments, Ms. Silva has gained recognition within the sport through her participation in internationally recognized events and her professional reputation among athletes and organizers.

Her combination of technical excellence, modern approach to Jiu-Jitsu, and commitment to excellence make her highly valuable within the sport. She brings a level of professionalism, discipline, and competitive ability that directly benefits the continued development and visibility of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu internationally.

For these reasons, I strongly support Ms. Silva's application. She is an athlete of exceptional skill and integrity, and I am confident that she will make meaningful contributions wherever she competes and trains. I remain available to provide any additional information if necessary.

Prior to becoming a judoka, Livesey was a participant in rugby league.[2] He had hoped to be selected to represent Great Britain in judo at the 2012 Olympic Games held in London, but was not, a disappointment which made Livesey ponder his continuation of the sport.[2] Livesey is a 2nd dan black belt in judo, gaining his 1st dan at the age of 16, and trained at SKK Judo Club where he was coached by Peter Blood and Luke Preston.[3]

To whom it may concern,

My name is Vinicius Cesare Modemel Canevari, also known in the Jiu-Jitsu community as "Magoo." I am a 6th-degree black belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and the founder of Magoo Jiu-Jitsu Academy, in Londrina, Paraná. I began practicing Jiu-Jitsu in 1989, and in late 1995, after receiving my brown belt, I moved to Londrina, where I established the Magoo Jiu-Jitsu team, today one of the most traditional teams in southern Brazil. In 1999, I was promoted to black belt by my friend and instructor Eduardo Brigadeiro.

Over more than 30 years dedicated to Jiu-Jitsu, I have served as an athlete, instructor, and competitor developer. Throughout this journey, I have promoted over 100 black belts and achieved significant titles, including South American championships, Brazilian championships through the CBJJ, the World Championship through the CBJJE in 2019, the European Championship through the IBJJF in 2020, and the Brazilian absolute No-Gi title.

Through this experience on the mat, both as a competitor and as an instructor responsible for developing athletes across multiple generations, I am able to recognize when an athlete demonstrates true progression, competitive maturity, and the ability to perform consistently at a high level. This is the case of Nadine Tavares da Silva.

I have known Nadine since 2019, when she began training at my academy on different occasions. Since then, I have been able to follow her development not only through competition results, but also through her behavior in training, the way she refines her technique, the seriousness with which she prepares, and the maturity she has developed as a competitor.

This long-term observation matters. In Jiu-Jitsu, a single strong result can happen for a variety of reasons, but an athlete's consistent development reveals something deeper. In Nadine's case, I witnessed a competitor who matured technically, began making better decisions during matches, and demonstrated a growing ability to apply her technique under pressure.

What stands out to me is that her development has been built consistently. Nadine does not rely solely on strength, explosiveness, or natural talent. She demonstrates discipline, fight intelligence, body control, a strong ability to read positions, and the capacity to adapt against different opponents. These skills are essential for an athlete who intends to remain competitive at a high level.

I also consider it highly relevant that she is able to transfer that development from training into competition. Many athletes train well but fail to perform at the same level when competing in high-stakes tournaments. Nadine has already demonstrated that she can compete in serious and structured environments, including recognized circuits such as the International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation and the Abu Dhabi Jiu-Jitsu Pro.

Her IBJJF World Championship title in 2024 confirms that she has already proven her worth on the international competitive stage.

In my view, Nadine's move to the United States to compete represents a natural step in the development I have been following since 2019. She has already demonstrated that she possesses the technical foundation, competitive maturity, and adaptability to face qualified opponents. The American circuit offers precisely that kind of environment: strong divisions, frequent tournaments, and athletes from different schools and countries. For a rising competitor like Nadine, these championships are essential for her to continue testing her growth, pursuing new titles, and consolidating her presence among high-level athletes.

Based on my experience of more than three decades in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, and especially through my observation of Nadine's development since 2019, I consider Nadine Tavares da Silva a serious, disciplined athlete, in full progression and with the genuine ability to continue achieving significant results in high-level competitions in the United States.

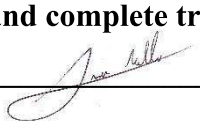

For these reasons, I support her continued participation in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling competitions in the United States.

Sincerely,

A quem possa interessar,

Meu nome é Vinicius Cesare Modernel Canevari, também conhecido no meio do Jiu-Jitsu como "Magoo". Sou faixa-preta 6º grau de Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro e fundador da Magoo Jiu-Jitsu Academy, em Londrina, Paraná. Comecei a praticar Jiu-Jitsu em 1989 e, no final de 1995, após ser graduado faixa marrom, me mudei para Londrina, onde dei início à equipe Magoo Jiu-Jitsu, hoje uma das equipes mais tradicionais do sul do Brasil. Em 1999, fui graduado à faixa-preta pelo meu amigo e professor Eduardo Brigadeiro.

Ao longo de mais de 30 anos dedicados ao Jiu-Jitsu, atuei como atleta, professor e formador de competidores. Durante essa trajetória, formei mais de 100 faixas-pretas e conquistei títulos importantes, incluindo títulos sul-americanos, títulos brasileiros pela CBJJ, o Campeonato Mundial pela CBJJE em 2019, o Campeonato Europeu pela IBJJF em 2020 e o título brasileiro absoluto No-Gi.

Por essa experiência no tatame, tanto como competidor quanto como professor responsável pela formação de atletas por várias gerações, consigo reconhecer quando uma atleta apresenta evolução real, maturidade competitiva e capacidade de se manter em ambientes de alto nível. Esse é o caso de Nadine Tavares da Silva.

Conheço Nadine desde 2019, quando ela passou a treinar em minha academia em diferentes ocasiões. Desde então, pude acompanhar sua evolução não apenas por resultados de campeonato, mas também pelo comportamento dela no treino, pela forma como ajusta sua técnica, pela seriedade com que se prepara e pela maturidade que desenvolveu como competidora.

Esse acompanhamento ao longo dos anos é importante. No Jiu-Jitsu, um bom resultado isolado pode acontecer por vários fatores, mas a evolução constante de uma atleta mostra algo mais profundo. No caso da Nadine, vi uma competidora que amadureceu tecnicamente, passou a tomar melhores decisões durante as lutas e demonstrou cada vez mais capacidade de aplicar sua técnica sob pressão.

O que me chama atenção nela é que sua evolução foi construída de forma consistente. Nadine não depende apenas de força, explosão ou talento natural. Ela demonstra disciplina, inteligência de luta, controle corporal, boa leitura de posições e capacidade de adaptação contra adversárias diferentes. Essas características são fundamentais para uma atleta que pretende se manter competitiva em alto nível.

Também considero muito relevante o fato de ela conseguir transferir essa evolução do treino para a competição. Muitos atletas treinam bem, mas não conseguem apresentar o mesmo rendimento quando estão em torneios importantes. Nadine já demonstrou que consegue competir em ambientes sérios e estruturados, incluindo circuitos reconhecidos como a International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation e a Abu Dhabi Jiu-Jitsu Pro.

Seu título mundial pela IBJJF em 2024 confirma que ela já provou seu valor em um cenário competitivo internacional.

Na minha visão, a ida da Nadine aos Estados Unidos para competir representa uma etapa natural da evolução que venho acompanhando desde 2019. Ela já demonstrou que possui base técnica, maturidade competitiva e capacidade de adaptação para enfrentar adversárias qualificadas. O circuito americano oferece exatamente esse tipo de ambiente: divisões fortes, torneios frequentes e atletas de diferentes escolas e países. Para uma competidora em crescimento como Nadine, esses campeonatos são fundamentais para que ela continue testando sua evolução, buscando novos títulos e consolidando sua presença entre atletas de alto nível.

Com base na minha experiência de mais de três décadas no Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro, e especialmente pelo acompanhamento que tenho da evolução da Nadine desde 2019, considero Nadine Tavares da Silva uma atleta séria, disciplinada, em plena evolução e com capacidade real de continuar conquistando resultados importantes em competições de alto nível nos Estados Unidos.

Por esses motivos, apoio sua continuidade em competições de Jiu-Jitsu Brasileiro e grappling nos Estados Unidos.

Atenciosamente,

Vinicius Cesare Modernel Canevari

Vinicius "Magoo" Canevari Biography

Vinicius "Magoo" Canevari was born on March 28,1974 in Rio de Janeiro – Brazil.

Canevari started his jiu jitsu career in 1989 with coach Cláudio França at the historical Clube Barra de Jiu Jitsu, where two other important instructors taught, namely Joe Moreira and Marcos Vinicius de Lucia (all of which went on to lead important grappling schools in the United States at a later stage). As a purple belt, seeing his instructor move away from Rio de Janeiro, Magoo joined the Brigadeiro academy led by Eduardo Venâncio.

In 1996 Vinicius moved to Londrina, in the Brazilian state of Paraná, to work as an airline pilot for a local company. At the time jiu jitsu was not truly embedded in the lifestyle of Paraná, as a result Magoo opened his own academy in an attempt to keep his techniques sharp, and to spread this combat style outside of Rio de Janeiro's borders.

While working in Paraná and building his team, Magoo frequently visited his hometown to visit family and train, earning his brown belt and later his black belt (1999) from the hands of Master Brigadeiro.

Vinicius' team quickly became one of the strongest academies in the South of Brazil. While leading Magoo Jiu Jitsu, Canevari also tested the waters in mixed martial arts, winning a match by submission at Shooto Brazil in 2005.

Over the many years spent developing his academy, Magoo Jiu Jitsu, Vinicius has graded over 30 black belts of his own.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Riccardo Ammendolia, also known in the Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu community as "Baleia." I am a Canadian-born Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt under Guilherme and Rafael Mendes, and I was the first black belt promoted by the Mendes Brothers. Over the years, I have worked closely within the professional grappling scene as a commentator, presenter, and event professional, including work with organizations and platforms such as ADCC, FloGrappling, FIVE Grappling, Copa Podio, and Who's Number One (WNO).

Through my work in Jiu-Jitsu, media, events, and athlete development, I have had the opportunity to follow athletes, matches, technical trends, and the continued evolution of the sport.

I am writing this letter in support of Nadine Tavares da Silva, an athlete I have had the opportunity to meet and follow within the sport.

I first met Nadine during BJJ Summer Week in 2024, in an environment that brought together high-level athletes, coaches, and practitioners. At that time, I was able to observe her attitude in training, her seriousness, and the way she carried herself around the sport. What stood out to me was that Nadine was not there simply to take part. She showed focus, discipline, and a clear desire to keep growing as a competitor.

Since then, I have followed her path and her results in Jiu-Jitsu and submission grappling. Nadine, an IBJJF No-Gi World Champion in her category, is an athlete who is constantly looking to test herself on the biggest stages possible, competing in major Jiu-Jitsu and grappling events in Brazil and across international circuits.

One recent result I followed was her participation at the 2026 ADCC Indaiatuba Trials, held on March 21, 2026. Nadine competed in a strong bracket and defeated respected athletes, including Julia Boscher by points and Angela Correa Alarcon by decision. ADCC is a demanding format that requires physical intensity, wrestling, takedowns, control, submission attacks, defense, and constant decision-making. Nadine demonstrated composure and competitive intelligence throughout the event.

In my opinion, Nadine is part of a generation of female athletes helping to raise the level of Jiu-Jitsu and grappling. She is technical, competitive, professional, and serious about her athletic career. I believe she has the ability to continue competing at a high level and to represent Jiu-Jitsu very well in major events.

I support Nadine Tavares da Silva and believe she has everything necessary to continue growing as a competitor on the international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and submission grappling scene.

Sincerely,

Riccardo Ammendolia
