RE: Form I-918, Petition for U-1 Nonimmigrant Status
Petitioner: Geiliane Rebeca Messias

Dear Sir or Madam,

Please find enclosed the Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status, filed by counsel on behalf of Geiliane Rebeca Messias.

Summary of the Petition and Eligibility:
Ms. Geiliane Rebeca Messias meets all statutory requirements for U nonimmigrant status under INA § 101(a)(15)(U). Specifically, she is a victim of a qualifying criminal activity, suffered substantial physical or mental abuse as a result of having been a victim of criminal activity, possesses information concerning the criminal activity, and has been helpful, is being helpful, or is likely to be helpful to law enforcement authorities investigating or prosecuting the criminal activity, as certified via Form I-918, Supplement B.

Immigration History and Current Immigration Status:
Geiliane entered the United States on March 30, 2020, as a B-2 nonimmigrant visitor. Subsequently, she timely filed two applications to extend her B-2 visitor status and later successfully applied for a Change of Status to F-1 Academic Student, which was approved and granted for Duration of Status (D/S), valid starting February 2022.
The Beneficiary was enrolled as a student at California College of Music and consistently maintained the conditions of her F-1 status. However, an administrative error occurred regarding the school's reporting of her student status to U.S. immigration authorities (SEVIS). The school subsequently acknowledged this reporting issue and provided documentation accepting full responsibility for the oversight.
Due to this reporting error, the school has been unable to issue a new Form I-20, despite the Beneficiary remaining compliant with all F-1 requirements. Consequently, on November 25, 2024, Geiliane filed Form I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status (for Reinstatement of F-1 Status), which was received by USCIS under Receipt Number WAC2590032266. This application remains pending.

For the purposes of Form I-918, the Beneficiary identifies her current immigration status as "F-1 – Reinstatement Pending". The Beneficiary respectfully submits the pending Form I-539 Receipt Notice, the school's written statement taking responsibility for the SEVIS reporting error, and her most recent Form I-20 as supporting evidence. (See Exhibit 7).

Precautionary Form I-192 Waiver Application:

Ms. Geiliane's current immigration posture presents potential technical complexities due to an administrative SEVIS reporting error by her educational institution, which prevented the issuance of a current Form I-20 and necessitated the filing of Form I-539 for F-1 Reinstatement (Receipt No. WAC2590032266, pending since November 25, 2024).

Because her reinstatement remains pending and her Form I-20 is expired, there is inherent uncertainty regarding her formal nonimmigrant status and any status violation or unlawful presence could be determined by USCIS.

Consequently, Form I-192 is respectfully submitted out of an abundance of caution under INA § 212(d)(14). This application requests a waiver for any and all potential grounds of inadmissibility, unlawful presence, or status non-compliance that USCIS may deem applicable to Ms. Geiliane Rebeca Messias's history, ensuring that her Form I-918 petition may be fully adjudicated and approved without impediment.

Exhibit 2 – Geiliane Rebeca Messias' Personal Declaration

Statement Regarding the Crimes Committed Against Geiliane Rebeca Messias in the United States

1. My name is Geiliane Rebeca Messias. I was born on September 17, 1998, in Recife, Pernambuco, Brazil. I currently reside at 864 Commercial Ave, South San Francisco, CA 94080. I make this statement to describe the crimes and abuse I suffered during my relationship with Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues in the State of California, United States.

2. I am the youngest of three sisters. I grew up in Recife, where I lived with my parents until I was approximately 14 or 15 years old. At that time, I moved into the city to attend high school and live with my middle sister, Talita, with whom I have always shared a very close relationship, our bond goes far beyond that of sisters. Later, I enrolled in a Physical Education degree program. My oldest sister, Geisane, immigrated to Canada while I was still a teenager, and my sister Talita also lived in Canada and in Fernando de Noronha for a period before moving to the United States.

3. I came to the United States at the beginning of 2020, during the COVID-19 pandemic, at the invitation of my oldest sister, Geisane, who had been living here for about five years. I was close to completing my undergraduate degree in Brazil, and because schools had closed and there was so much uncertainty around the world, I decided to come to visit my newborn niece and spend some time with my family. With international borders closed and classes suspended, I ended up remaining in the United States. I completed my undergraduate thesis and my last university course remotely, through my university in Brazil. Subsequently, I obtained an extension of my tourist status and, later, changed my status to student (F-1 visa). My sister Talita also moved to the United States, and we now live together.

4. Before I became romantically involved with Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues, I was a cheerful, outgoing, sociable, and energetic person. I attended an evangelical church and actively participated in its youth group, where I had close friends and felt that I truly belonged. I enjoyed going out, going to the movies, and dining at restaurants, and I also always took care of my appearance, I even loved wearing high heels, despite being approximately 1.80m (5 feet 11 inches) tall. My sister Talita, my friend Maria Rute, and other people close to me all knew this cheerful and outgoing side of me.

5. I met Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues at the same church, in the youth group. Erick was born in the United States to Brazilian parents. He is four years younger than I am. For some time, we were only friends. He would come to my home, and I would visit him, without any romantic involvement. Erick was extremely charismatic and well-liked by everyone: at church, among our families, and among friends. He appeared to be responsible, hardworking, and to have strong values. He seemed to be a responsible, hardworking person with good values. It was impossible to imagine that anything could ever go wrong with him.

6. At the end of 2023, after going out a few times in October, we began a romantic relationship. In March or April of 2024, Erick proposed to me, and I accepted. I believed, at that moment, that we were building something solid together. At first, our relationship seemed normal, and he was attentive and kind. However, just a few months after we started dating, I began to feel something strange. My body seemed to be in a constant state of alert, although I could not clearly identify the reason. I later spoke with my sister Talita about this feeling, telling her that Erick seemed like a different person in private than he did in public.

7. As our relationship progressed, Erick's behavior became increasingly aggressive, controlling, and abusive. He had frequent outbursts of anger, almost every week, and sometimes even more often, during which he would yell at me and treat me with disrespect. After each episode, he would apologize, promise that he would change, and there would be a period of calm; however, those peaceful periods became shorter and shorter, while his abusive behavior continued to escalate.

8. Erick developed a habit of pinching me forcefully at random and without any apparent reason, even in front of his own family. On one particular occasion, while we were all sitting at the dining table in his parents' home, he pinched me so hard that I cried out in pain. His stepmother, who witnessed the incident, said, "Erick, don't do that, her father is coming in a week, and I want my son to stay alive." My sister Talita also witnessed this incident and was horrified. She later told me that it would be the last time she ever set foot in that house because she could not bear to witness that kind of treatment. Erick's stepmother's reaction made it clear that she was aware of his abusive behavior and chose to conceal it rather than intervene.

9. Erick also exercised constant control over my appearance and my freedom. He did not like me wearing high heels, even though I am a tall woman who had always loved wearing them. Over time, I stopped buying high heels and began purchasing only flat sandals. My sister Talita noticed this change and asked me about it, but I made excuses. I was erasing myself to please him and avoid conflict.

10. I gradually became isolated from my friends and from the church community. Before we arrived at any social event, Erick would subject me to such extreme stress that by the time we got there I was already upset and emotionally exhausted, while he appeared cheerful and friendly. People at church saw me as "the difficult one" in the relationship, without realizing that I had just endured another argument or abuse moments before arriving. Eventually, I stopped attending church altogether and stopped spending time with friends. People who were close to me frequently told me that I seemed "completely different", withdrawn, distant, and no longer like the person I had always been.

11. Erick also tried to pressure me into marrying him as quickly as possible. Although he did not openly say that he was in a hurry, he behaved as though he was determined to finalize the wedding without delay. On one occasion, when we visited a wedding venue in August or September 2024, he pressured me to sign the contract and pay the deposit. On the drive home, I experienced a severe anxiety attack in the car. When we arrived home, with my father and my sister present, I broke down in tears and said that I did not want to get married. Erick became furious and told me that because the deposit had already been paid, the wedding would happen no matter what. He also tried to manipulate me by saying that marrying him would provide me with immigration stability, to which I always responded that I was not getting married for immigration papers.

12. During our relationship and engagement, Erick committed multiple acts of sexual violence against me. On many occasions, when I told him that I did not want to have sexual intercourse, he ignored my refusal and proceeded anyway. At first, I did not have the words to describe what was happening, I believed it was simply something that happened in relationships. I would try to disconnect emotionally and hope it would end quickly so I could deal with the aftermath later.

13. I clearly remember one incident that occurred around September 2024 at Erick's apartment in Daly City. His family was away, and we were alone. I was lying on the bed while he was sitting at his desk. He got up, came over to me, and began trying to remove my clothes. I told him that I did not want to and asked him to stop. He stopped briefly, walked to the edge of the bed, and sat down, but shortly afterward he came back, this time more aggressively. I continued telling him that I did not want to. He kept taking off my clothes and, despite my repeated refusals, forcibly had sexual intercourse with me. When he finished, he returned to his desk and behaved as though nothing had happened. I was in pain and unable to feel any pleasure at all. After the incident, I gathered my belongings, went home, and cried the entire way.

14. I also remember another incident that occurred around October or November 2024 at Erick's parents' apartment in San Bruno. His parents were traveling, and we were staying there, as we usually did whenever they were away. We were lying on a mattress in the living room. Erick began trying to remove my clothes. I repeatedly told him that I did not want to, that I wasn’t enjoying it, and asked him to stop. He would stop briefly and then start again. Despite my repeated refusals, he had sexual intercourse with me. Afterward, I went to the bathroom, which was located inside his parents' bedroom, when I came out, he grabbed my head and forced me to perform oral sex. Immediately afterward, he pushed my head down and forcibly penetrated me anally while I told him that I was in pain and asked him to stop. He continued until he finished. I returned to the living room and lay on the mattress crying. He sat beside me and completely ignored that I was crying.

15. There were many other incidents of forced sexual acts throughout our relationship that were similar in nature to those described above. I cannot say exactly how many times this happened because it occurred repeatedly, sometimes on a weekly basis, whenever we were alone together. Erick never acknowledged that what he was doing was wrong. It was only when I began telling my therapist about these incidents toward the end of 2024 that she told me, "You are being raped. This is not normal." Until then, I hadn't put a name to what I was experiencing.

16. While I was still in the relationship, my therapist helped me realize what was happening. I shared everything with my sister Talita, who asked me: "Imagine it was me telling you this story, what would you say to me?" I answered that it was unacceptable and that she should never allow something like that to happen. My sister then asked me, "So, what is the difference between it happening to me and it happening to you?" That conversation became a turning point in my life. I also spoke with my older sister, Geisane. They were the first people I opened my heart to about everything I had been enduring.

17. In October or November 2024, after an intense argument with Erick, I reached my breaking point. I had a prescription sleep medication at home that I was supposed to take only as a single dose. That night, I took an overdose of that medication because I simply wanted to stop. I did not think about the consequences; I only wanted the pain to end. My sister Talita called me and realized that something was wrong. She immediately came to me, contacted a crisis support center, and stayed by my side throughout the entire night, monitoring me according to the professionals' instructions. That night marked a turning point for me: it was then that I decided I had to leave that relationship once and for all.

18. In November 2024, I tried to formally end the relationship. I went to Erick's house accompanied by my sister Talita, who waited in the car in front of his house - so that he would know there was a witness. I told him about my decision. He said he was very sad, but that he would make me change my mind. In the days and weeks that followed, Erick did not accept the breakup and began persistently harassing me: he would show up at my house at night and watch me; he sent me messages from different phone numbers after I blocked him; and he contacted me through his family to pressure me to reconsider. His family would send me messages such as, "Princess, Erick is so sad, please reconsider."
19. I traveled to Florida for about a week and a half to get away from Erick, taking advantage of a church conference that was taking place there. I did not tell Erick or his family about the trip. When I returned, we resumed some contact through text messages and eventually saw each other again—I was still not completely free from the cycle of violence. In February 2025, the last episode of sexual violence occurred. This time, unlike the previous ones, I already had a name for what I was living through: I knew that I was being raped. I called my sister Talita and said, "Come get me. I never want to see him again." From that moment on, I blocked Erick on every platform and told his family that, as far as I was concerned, the relationship was over for good.

20. After the relationship ended for good, Erick continued trying to contact me from other phone numbers and through his family. He also began showing up at my house. On one occasion, when I threatened to return to Brazil, he replied, "Before you go back to Brazil, I'll put you in a black body bag and throw you into a ditch." On other occasions, always during phone calls and never in writing, he said that if he ever saw me with someone else, he would kill me and kill that person. There is, however, one written record. Erick sent me a WhatsApp message showing that he had asked the platform's AI assistant, "How do I get rid of Rebeca?", to which the system replied that the request was very serious and that it could not provide information on that subject. I have a screenshot of that message.

21. On August 27, 2025, I went to the South San Francisco Police Department to formally report the sexual abuse I suffered during my relationship with Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues. The report resulted in a case that was transferred to the San Bruno Police Department (Case No. SNB2502187). On October 9, 2025, I went in person to the San Bruno Police Department, accompanied by my sister, to give a detailed account of the incidents. The case was approved by Lieutenant Ruocco. It was then referred for further investigation by the ISS and also to the Daly City Police Department.

22. The crimes and abuse I suffered caused profound and lasting consequences to my physical, mental, and emotional health. During the relationship, I developed severe chronic anxiety, with daily anxiety attacks, severe insomnia, and frequent episodes of vomiting with no organic cause for approximately three months. I gained weight without explanation, which my therapist attributed to the constant state of alert my body was in. I began taking medication for depression and to help me sleep,with dosages increasing each time I relapsed into the relationship cycle. Only after the relationship ended for good was I able to reduce and eventually stop taking the medication.

23. To this day, I continue to suffer from symptoms of hypervigilance: I am easily startled when someone touches me unexpectedly, I remain in a constant state of alert, and no detail around me goes unnoticed. I have difficulty relaxing my body. I am afraid of running into Erick or his family because we live in the same area. For a long time, I avoided going to places where I knew they might be present. I have been attending additional therapy sessions to work through these effects and recover some of the person I used to be, cheerful, communicative, and outgoing, before this relationship.

24. People who knew me before and during the relationship, and who saw me after it ended, noticed a striking contrast. One friend from church, when she saw me a few months after the breakup, said spontaneously, "You never had to tell me anything, but I could see that he destroyed you. I'm so happy you were able to get out of that." Another close friend, Bela, who lives in Los Angeles and knew me before, during, and after my relationship with Erick, recently said to my sister, "What a toxic relationship can do, she was devastated." My own father, when he visited me in August 2024 and met Erick in person during a private conversation between the two of them, said: "That guy is a psychopath. He's not for you." He realized that I was like "a walking dead body."

25. I provide this statement to describe what I lived through and the harm I suffered. I am willing to cooperate fully with law enforcement authorities and to provide additional information whenever necessary.

26. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and recollection.

Declaração sobre os crimes sofridos por Geiliane Rebeca Messias nos Estados Unidos

1. Meu nome é Geiliane Rebeca Messias. Eu nasci em 17 de setembro de 1998, em Recife, Pernambuco, Brasil. Atualmente resido em 864 Commercial Ave, South San Francisco, CA 94080. Eu faço esta declaração para descrever os crimes e abusos que sofri durante meu relacionamento com Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues no estado da Califórnia, Estados Unidos.

2. Sou a filha mais nova de três irmãs. Cresci em Recife, onde morei com meus pais até aproximadamente os 14 ou 15 anos. Nessa época, me mudei para a cidade para cursar o ensino médio e morar com minha irmã do meio, Talita, com quem sempre tive uma relação muito próxima e de grande cumplicidade, nossa parceria vai além de um vínculo de irmãs. Posteriormente, ingressei na faculdade de Licenciatura em Educação Física. Minha irmã mais velha, Geisane, emigrou para o Canadá quando eu ainda era adolescente, e minha irmã Talita também viveu um período no Canadá e em Fernando de Noronha antes de se mudar para os Estados Unidos.

3. Eu vim para os Estados Unidos no início de 2020, durante o período da pandemia de COVID-19, a convite da minha irmã mais velha, Geisane, que residia aqui há cerca de 5 anos. Eu estava próxima de concluir minha graduação no Brasil e, diante do fechamento das escolas e da incerteza global, decidi vir para visitar minha sobrinha recém-nascida e passar um período com a família. Com as fronteiras fechadas e as aulas suspensas, acabei ficando. Concluí meu TCC e a última disciplina do curso à distância, pelo Brasil. Posteriormente, obtive extensão do meu status de turista e, mais tarde, mudei meu status para estudante (visto F-1). Minha irmã Talita também se mudou para os Estados Unidos, e hoje moramos juntas.

4. Antes de conhecer Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues romanticamente, eu era uma pessoa alegre, comunicativa, sociável e cheia de energia. Frequentava uma igreja evangélica e participava ativamente de um grupo de jovens, onde tinha amigos próximos e me sentia pertencente à comunidade. Gostava de sair, de ir ao cinema e a restaurantes, e sempre me arrumava bem, inclusive adorava usar salto alto, apesar de medir aproximadamente 1,80 m de altura. Minha irmã Talita, minha amiga Maria Rute e outras pessoas próximas a mim conheciam essa minha essência alegre e extrovertida.

5. Conheci Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues nessa mesma igreja, no grupo de jovens. Erick é filho de pais brasileiros e nasceu nos Estados Unidos. Ele tem quatro anos a menos do que eu. Durante algum tempo, nos relacionamos apenas como amigos, ele frequentava minha casa e eu frequentava a dele, sem qualquer envolvimento romântico. Erick era extremamente carismático e querido por todos: na igreja, com as famílias, com os amigos. Parecia ser uma pessoa responsável, trabalhadora e com bons valores. Era impossível imaginar que algo poderia dar errado com ele.

6. No final de 2023, após sairmos algumas vezes em outubro, iniciamos um relacionamento romântico. Em março ou abril de 2024, Erick me pediu em noivado, e eu aceitei. Acreditei, naquele momento, que estávamos construindo algo sólido juntos. O início do relacionamento parecia normal, ele era atencioso e gentil. Contudo, poucos meses depois de começarmos a namorar, eu comecei a sentir algo estranho. Meu corpo sinalizava um estado de alerta constante, embora eu não conseguisse identificar claramente o motivo. Relembrei esse sentimento com minha irmã Talita, dizendo que Erick parecia uma pessoa diferente em particular do que em público.

7. À medida que o relacionamento avançou, o comportamento de Erick se tornou progressivamente mais agressivo, controlador e violento. Ele tinha crises de raiva frequentes, quase semanais, às vezes com maior frequência, nas quais gritava e me desrespeitava. Depois de cada crise, pedia perdão, prometia mudança, e havia um período de calmaria; mas esses períodos foram ficando cada vez mais curtos, e o comportamento violento foi se intensificando.

8. Erick desenvolveu um hábito de me beliscar com força de forma aleatória e sem motivo aparente, inclusive na frente de sua família. Em uma ocasião específica, que ocorreu quando todos estávamos sentados à mesa na casa dos pais dele, ele me deu um beliscão tão forte que eu gritei de dor. A madrasta dele, que estava presente, disse: 'Erick, não faça isso, o pai dela está chegando em uma semana, e eu quero meu filho vivo'. Minha irmã Talita presenciou esse episódio e ficou em choque. Ela me disse que aquela seria a última vez que entraria naquela casa, pois não conseguia testemunhar aquilo. A madrasta demonstrou assim que sabia do comportamento abusivo de Erick e optou por encobri-lo.

9. Erick também exercia um controle sistemático sobre minha aparência e minha liberdade. Ele não gostava que eu usasse salto alto, mesmo sendo eu uma mulher alta, que sempre gostou de saltos. Com o tempo, parei de comprar saltos e comecei a adquirir apenas sandálias rasas. Minha irmã Talita notou essa mudança e me questionou; eu inventava desculpas. Eu estava me apagando para agradar a ele e para evitar conflitos.

10. Fui me isolando progressivamente de amigos e da comunidade da igreja. Erick me levava a níveis altíssimos de estresse antes de chegarmos a qualquer evento social, de modo que, ao chegar, eu estava irritada e tensa, enquanto ele parecia feliz e animado. As pessoas da igreja me viam como 'a chata do relacionamento', sem saber que era eu quem chegava exausta de uma discussão ou agressão que acabara de ocorrer. Com o tempo, parei completamente de frequentar a igreja e de sair com amigos. Pessoas próximas frequentemente me diziam que eu estava 'muito diferente', distante e apagada, algo incompatível com quem eu sempre fui.

11. Erick também tentou me convencer a me casar rapidamente com ele, com muita pressão. Embora não verbalizasse diretamente sua pressa, agia como alguém com urgência em fechar o casamento. Em uma ocasião, ao visitarmos um local para o casamento em agosto ou setembro de 2024, ele pressionou para fecharmos o contrato e darmos o depósito. Na volta, tive uma crise de ansiedade intensa dentro do carro. Quando chegamos em casa, com meu pai e minha irmã presentes, eu desabei e disse que não queria casar. Erick ficou furioso e disse que, como o depósito já havia sido pago, o casamento aconteceria de qualquer forma. Ele também tentava me manipular dizendo que o casamento me daria estabilidade migratória, ao que eu sempre respondi que não estava casando por documento.

12. Durante o período do relacionamento e do noivado, Erick praticou contra mim múltiplos atos de violência sexual. Repetidas vezes, quando eu dizia que não queria ter relações sexuais, ele ignorava minha recusa e prosseguia de qualquer forma. No início, eu não nomeava o que estava acontecendo, achava que era algo que simplesmente acontecia nos relacionamentos. Tentava desligar a mente e torcer para que acabasse logo, para depois lidar com as consequências.

13. Recordo-me com clareza de um episódio que ocorreu em aproximadamente setembro de 2024, no apartamento de Erick na cidade de Daly City. Sua família havia viajado e estávamos sozinhos. Eu estava deitada na cama e ele estava sentado em sua escrivaninha. Ele se levantou, se aproximou de mim e começou a tentar tirar minha roupa. Eu disse a ele que não queria e pedi que parasse. Ele parou brevemente, foi até a beira da cama e sentou, mas logo voltou, desta vez de forma mais agressiva. Continuei dizendo que não queria. Ele continuou me tirando a roupa e, mesmo diante de minhas negativas repetidas, teve relação sexual comigo à força. Após terminar, voltou à escrivaninha e se comportou normalmente, como se nada tivesse acontecido. Eu estava com dor e não conseguia sentir prazer algum. Após o incidente, peguei meus pertences, fui para casa e chorei o caminho todo.

14. Lembro-me de outro episódio que ocorreu em aproximadamente outubro ou novembro de 2024, no apartamento dos pais de Erick em San Bruno. Os pais dele estavam viajando e nós ficamos lá, como era habitual quando eles viajavam. Estávamos deitados em um colchão na sala. Erick começou a tentar tirar minha roupa. Eu disse repetidamente que não queria, que não estava gostando, e pedi que parasse. Ele parava brevemente e tentava novamente. Apesar das minhas negativas constantes, ele teve relação sexual comigo. Em seguida, fui ao banheiro, que ficava no quarto dos pais, e ao sair, ele me agarrou pela cabeça e forçou a prática de sexo oral. Imediatamente após, empurrou minha cabeça para baixo e me penetrou analmente, enquanto eu dizia que estava com dor e pedia que parasse. Ele continuou até terminar. Eu voltei para a sala e chorei deitada no colchão. Ele se sentou ao meu lado e ignorou completamente o meu choro.

15. Houve muitos outros incidentes sexuais forçados ao longo do relacionamento, de natureza semelhante aos descritos acima. Não consigo precisar o número exato de vezes que isso ocorreu, pois se repetia com regularidade, às vezes semanalmente, sempre que estávamos sozinhos. Erick nunca reconheceu que estava agindo errado. Somente quando passei a narrar esses episódios à minha terapeuta, ao final do ano de 2024, é que ela me disse: 'Você está sendo estuprada. Isso não é normal'. Até então, eu não havia nomeado o que estava vivendo.

16. Ainda no período do relacionamento, minha terapeuta me revelou o que estava acontecendo. Compartilhei a situação com minha irmã Talita, que me disse: 'Imagina que sou eu te contando essa história, o que você me diria?' Eu respondi que aquilo era um absurdo, que ela não poderia deixar isso acontecer. Minha irmã então disse: 'Então o que diferencia de acontecer comigo do que está acontecendo com você?' Essa conversa foi um divisor de águas. Também conversei com minha irmã mais velha, Geisane. Foram as primeiras pessoas a quem abri meu coração sobre o que estava vivendo.

17. Em outubro ou novembro de 2024, após uma discussão intensa com Erick, cheguei ao limite do esgotamento. Eu estava com uma medicação prescrita para dormir em casa, a mesma que deveria tomar em dose única. Naquela noite, tomei uma overdose desse medicamento porque eu simplesmente queria parar. Não pensei nas consequências; só queria que a dor acabasse. Minha irmã Talita estava me ligando e percebeu que eu não estava bem. Ela veio correndo, ligou para um centro de ajuda de crise e ficou a noite inteira ao meu lado me monitorando, conforme orientação dos profissionais. Essa noite foi um ponto de virada: foi quando decidi que precisava sair daquela relação de uma vez por todas.

18. Em novembro de 2024, tentei terminar formalmente o relacionamento. Fui até a casa de Erick, acompanhada da minha irmã Talita, que ficou esperando no carro na frente da residência dele — para que ele soubesse que havia testemunha. Comuniquei a ele minha decisão. Ele disse que estava muito triste, mas que me faria mudar de ideia. Nos dias e semanas seguintes, Erick não aceitou o término e passou a me assediar persistentemente: aparecia na porta da minha casa à noite e ficava me observando; mandava mensagens de números diferentes após eu bloqueá-lo; entrava em contato pela família para me pressionar a reconsiderar. A família dele enviava mensagens como: 'Princesa, o Erick está tão triste, reconsidere.'

19. Viajei para a Flórida por cerca de uma semana e meia para me afastar de Erick, aproveitando um congresso da Igreja que estava acontecendo lá. Não avisei Erick nem sua família sobre a viagem. Quando retornei, voltamos a ter algum contato por mensagens e eventualmente a nos ver — eu ainda não estava completamente livre do ciclo de violência. Em fevereiro de 2025, ocorreu o último episódio de violência sexual. Nessa ocasião, diferente das anteriores, eu já havia recebido o nome do que estava vivendo: eu tinha consciência de que estava sendo estuprada. Liguei para minha irmã Talita e disse: 'Me busca, eu nunca mais quero ver ele.' A partir desse momento, bloqueei Erick em todas as plataformas e disse à família dele que, para mim, aquele relacionamento havia acabado definitivamente.

20. Após o término definitivo, Erick continuou tentando me contatar por outros números e através de sua família. Ele começou a aparecer na minha casa. Em uma ocasião, quando o ameacei de voltar para o Brasil, ele me respondeu: 'Antes de você voltar pro Brasil, eu te coloco no saco preto e jogo numa vala.' Em outras ocasiões sempre por ligação telefônica, sem registro em texto, ele afirmou que se me visse com outra pessoa, me mataria e mataria essa pessoa. Existe, contudo, um registro escrito: Erick me enviou uma mensagem de WhatsApp em que perguntou ao assistente de IA da plataforma 'Como que eu faço para me livrar da Rebeca?', ao que o sistema respondeu que o pedido era muito sério e não poderia fornecer informações a esse respeito. Eu possuo esse print.

21. Em 27 de agosto de 2025, fui ao Departamento de Polícia de South San Francisco para registrar formalmente os abusos sexuais sofridos durante o relacionamento com Erick Ribeiro Rodrigues. O relatório resultou em um caso transferido ao Departamento de Polícia de San Bruno (Caso nº SNB2502187). Em 9 de outubro de 2025, fui pessoalmente ao Departamento de Polícia de San Bruno, acompanhada de minha irmã, para relatar detalhadamente os incidentes. O caso foi aprovado pelo Tenente Ruocco. O caso foi encaminhado para investigação adicional pela ISS e também ao Departamento de Polícia de Daly City.

22. Os crimes e abusos que sofri causaram consequências profundas e duradouras na minha saúde física, mental e emocional. Durante o relacionamento, desenvolvi um quadro grave de ansiedade crônica, com crises diárias, insônia severa e episódios de vômito frequente sem causa orgânica, por um período de aproximadamente três meses. Ganhei peso de forma inexplicável, fenômeno que minha terapeuta atribuiu ao estado constante de alerta em que meu corpo se encontrava. Comecei a usar medicação para depressão e para dormir, e a dose foi sendo aumentada a cada recaída no ciclo do relacionamento. Somente após o término definitivo consegui reduzir e eventualmente interromper as medicações.

23. Até hoje, sofro com sintomas de hipervigilância: me assusto com facilidade ao ser tocada de surpresa, fico em estado de alerta permanente e nenhum detalhe ao meu redor passa desapercebido. Tenho dificuldade de relaxar o corpo. Tenho medo de encontrar Erick ou sua família, pois moramos na mesma área. Por muito tempo evitei frequentar lugares onde sabia que eles poderiam estar presentes. Tenho feito sessões adicionais de terapia para trabalhar esses efeitos e recuperar algo da pessoa que eu era alegre, comunicativa, extrovertida, antes desse relacionamento.

24. Pessoas que me conheciam antes e durante o relacionamento, e que me viram depois do término, registraram um contraste marcante. Uma amiga da igreja, ao me ver meses após o término, disse espontaneamente: 'Você nunca precisou me falar nada, mas eu vi que ele acabou com você. Estou muito feliz que você conseguiu sair dessa.' Uma outra amiga próxima, Bela, que mora em Los Angeles e que me conheceu antes, durante e depois do relacionamento com Erick, ao me ver recentemente, disse à minha irmã: 'O que um namoro tóxico não faz, ela estava destruída.' Meu próprio pai, ao me visitar em agosto de 2024 e conhecer Erick pessoalmente em uma conversa privada entre os dois, disse: 'Esse cara é um psicopata. Não é para você.' Ele percebeu que eu estava como um 'corpo morto andando'.
25. Eu forneço esta declaração para relatar o que vivi e os danos que sofri. Estou disposta a cooperar plenamente com as autoridades policiais e a fornecer informações adicionais sempre que necessário.
26. Declaro, sob pena de perjúrio, sob as leis dos Estados Unidos da América, que as informações acima são verdadeiras e corretas conforme meu conhecimento e minha memória.

SUMMARY:

A Confidential Victim (will be referred to as CV for the remainder of this report) came to the San Bruno Police Department and reported multiple incidents of sexual assault that occurred during her relationship with S-Erick Ribiero Rodrigues. CV described an incident that occurred in the City of San Bruno that was a violation of PC 261- Rape, PC 287- Sodomy and PC 286- Oral Copulation. CV described an incident that occurred in the City of Daly City that was a violation of 261 PC- Rape.

NARRATIVE:

On 10/08/2025, I received a courtesy report from the South San Francisco Police Department (Case #25-3118). The report contained the following information in summary:

On 08/27/2025, CV responded to the South San Francisco Police Department to make a report regarding domestic abuse that occurred during her relationship with her ex-Fiance, S-Erik Rodrigues. The report does not share details regarding the domestic abuse shared by CV, only that it was determined that the incidents took place at S-Rodrigues' parents home in San Bruno ([redacted]rtment 1), and S-Rodrigues' home [redacted].

I contacted CV via telephone call on 10/08/2025, and arranged a time on 10/09/2025 to meet in person to discuss the incidents.

On 10/09/2025, at approximately 1700 hours, I met with CV at the San Bruno Police Department. It should be noted that CV requested her sister be present during our interview. Due to the sensitive nature of the incidents, CV's sister accompanied her in the interview.

CV then told me the following in summary:

CV had previously been in a relationship with S-Erick Ribiero Rodrigues ([redacted]) from approximately November or December of 2023 until December 2024. During that time frame, the two became engaged in March of 2024. CV described the first few months of the relationship as normal, and they had a normal sexual relationship.

CV stated that shortly before the engagement, CV started to notice an increase in aggressive behavior. CV stated that he had a short temper, he would yell, and she described his driving behavior as "crazy". CV noticed that during this time, S-Rodrigues was getting more aggressive in their sexual relationship, making their sexual intercourse painful and unenjoyable for her. As a result, she was not wanting to have sexual intercourse with him on a regular basis.

During this time, if S-Rodrigues attempted to be intimate with her, she would often tell him that she was not in the mood in an attempt to dissuade him.

CV then stated that there were numerous times in which S-Rodrigues had sexual intercourse or other acts with her after she told him that she did not want to, and she would often just let him do it, hoping that it would be over quickly. CV stated that this behavior went on for a long time, and that she could not remember exactly how many times incidents like this occurred, as she tried to turn her mind off and forget about it. However, CV stated that she remembered two incidents very vividly.

In approximately September of 2024, CV was with S-Rodrigues at his apartment in Daly City, [redacted]. CV stated that S-Rodrigues lives with his brother, and three other roommates, but on this occasion, no one was home. CV was laying on the bed and S-Rodrigues was seated at his desk. S-Rodrigues got up from the desk, approached CV and began attempting to take off CV's clothes. CV stated that she told S-Rodrigues to stop, and that she did not want to, but he persisted. CV stated that S-Rodrigues stopped, and went and sat on the edge of the bed. S-Rodrigues then approached her again, and this time was more aggressive. CV stated that she continued to tell him to stop and that she did not want to. S-Rodrigues continued to take her clothes off, and she kept telling him that she didn't want to, until "he was in". I asked CV to clarify what she meant by "he was in" and she stated that S-Rodrigues put his penis into her vagina. CV stated that she was in pain, and that she was not enjoying it. CV then stated that S-Rodrigues appeared to enjoy it more that she was in pain. CV stated that S-Rodrigues finished really quickly, and went back to his desk. CV stated that she cleaned herself, and put her clothes back on. S-Rodrigues then apologized to her, stating "I'm sorry, I can't control myself".

After the incident, CV grabbed her belongings and went home. CV described being in both physical and emotional pain, crying on her way home after the incident.

CV then described a second incident that occurred at S-Rodrigues' parents' apartment, [redacted]. In approximately October or November 2024, CV believes that S-Rodrigues' parents were traveling, and they were staying together at S-Rodrigues' parents' apartment. CV stated that this was normal for them to do while S-Rodrigues' parents traveled.

CV stated that they were both laying on a mattress in the living room. S-Rodrigues began attempting to take CV's clothes off, during which she repeatedly told him "no", that she did not want to, that she was not enjoying that, and to please stop. CV stated that it was common for S-Rodrigues to stop when CV repeatedly told him that she did not want to, but then he would try again. CV then stated that S-Rodrigues had sexual intercourse with her on the mattress in the living room, despite her repeated statements stating that she did not want to. CV later elaborated and stated that S-Rodrigues had sex with her, but he did not finish.

CV stated that following this interaction between her and S-Rodrigues, she went to use the bathroom, which is attached to S-Rodrigues' parent's room. After exiting the bathroom, S-Rodrigues grabbed CV's head, and "forced her to suck him". CV then clarified that to mean that S-Rodrigues grabbed her by the head, and put his penis into her mouth. Immediately after, S-Rodrigues put her "into the dog position" by pushing her head down, and inserted his penis into her anus. CV stated that she told S-Rodrigues that it was painful, and told him to stop, but he continued until he finished.

CV stated she returned to the living room, laid on the mattress, and cried. CV stated that S-Rodrigues sat down on the mattress next to her, but he ignored her cries.

CV stated that there were numerous incidents similar in nature to the two incidents described in detail above. CV stated that she could not remember exact dates, or precisely how many times this happened. CV stated that incidents such as the incidents described above occurred on a regular basis, sometimes once a week, whenever S-Rodrigues had the opportunity. CV stated that she and S-Rodrigues would spend time together multiple times per week, but these incidents would only happen when they were alone, detailing that this behavior did not occur when CV's roommates were around at her apartment, or S-Rodrigues' roommates were home at his apartment.

It should be noted that CV stated that during this time frame of her and S-Rodrigues' relationship, she was feeling heightened anxiety, and required increasing dosages of medication to address her anxiety. In addition, CV described having feelings of wanting to harm herself during this time.

I concluded my interview with CV.

Additional Information:

I provided CV with a copy of San Bruno PD Form 20A Notice to Victims of Sexual Assault and San Bruno PD Form 20 Notice to Victims of Domestic Violence.

I asked CV if she ever sought out medical treatment related to any of the incidents that occurred during this time frame, and she stated that she did not, so I did not obtain a Medical Release Authorization.

Due to the crimes occurring approximately one year ago, S-Rodrigues and CV not living together, and no information to suggest a threat of immediate violence, this incident did not qualify for an Emergency Protection Order. CV was given advice on how to obtain a restraining order against S-Rodrigues.

I completed a Victim of Violent Crime Notification Request, which CV signed.

CV told me that she may have had text messages between her and S-Rodrigues discussing the incidents, but S-Rodrigues never admitted any wrongdoing. CV stated that she would review all of her text messages and contact me immediately if she found conversations discussing the incidents.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

At this time, I request this report be forwarded to ISS for follow up investigation, and forwarded to Daly City Police Department for their review.

Clinical Interview

Qualifying Crime

Ms. Messias reported that she was a victim of intimate partner violence from her ex-fiance, Erick Ribiero Rodrigues, and reported details about various types of abuse, including emotional, physical, and sexual abuse. Ms. Messias reported that she met her ex-fiance at a Brazilian church in San Francisco, and initially began a friendship with him. She stated that they began a romantic relationship after they had been friends for several years. Ms. Messias reported that after they began dating, her ex-fiance's behavior changed, which is a common occurrence in abusive relationships – the abusive partner's behavior changes to become more abusive with time. Ms. Messias detailed the ways in which their relationship became abusive. ("I knew him as a friend at first; we were always in groups and he always seemed to be a good and calm friend. I saw who he presented himself as at church. When we started dating, everything was very good in the beginning for the first few months. I thought I was living a dream. I always wanted to get married and have a family and I thought maybe he could be the one. After a few months of dating, his personality started to change. I didn't understand how someone who seemed to be such a good person could change so drastically…especially when we were alone, not in public, and this was confusing to me. My sister, who is my best friend – she started to notice that something was changing in me because I started to lose my shine. I didn't notice this but she did. She asked me if everything was okay and I said, 'I am, he's just having a hard time and I don't know what's going on. He's just going through something.' Then after a while he started to get more aggressive. We had an episode in which he threw a suitcase at me. At the time I was afraid but I thought it was normal. He apologized for it and told me that it wasn't going to happen again. He cried and everything. I can see now that he was abusing me emotionally but at the time I just thought he was going through something. He would tell me things like my teeth were yellow and crooked and I was too skinny. So I tried to get better for him. He would get aggressive with me when he was driving in the car. He would drive fast and say he was going to crash the car with us both in it. I still struggle with being in the car with someone else driving. So many things happened and I would hear it wouldn't happen again, until it did…After that was when the sexual abuse started. At the time, I didn't understand it was abuse because I thought he was allowed to do what he wanted because we were in a relationship. I noticed that he started to feel pleasure only when I was in pain, so I started to avoid sex with him because it was very painful for me. This made him angrier with me…the more I would say no the angrier he got. He would force me and it would be worse the more I fought against him. Every time we had sex I had to close my eyes and just wait for him to finish. I would even have to exaggerate the pain I was feeling so he would finish sooner…Then there were the times he forced me to perform oral sex on him when I was on my period…He pinched me, pulled my hair in front of his parents and they would tell me to have patience with him and say it was just a phase. I didn't want my sister to see us together because she didn't accept it the same way his parents did.")

Ms. Messias reported two specific incidents of sexual assault that were reported to the police. The first incident of sexual assault that she reported occurred in September of 2024 in Daly City, California. ("He was living with a brother of his and roommates but they were gone for the day so we were alone there. We were in his room and he started to try to take my clothes off. I remember telling him no and he still forced me and I tried to tell him to stop and he wouldn't stop. Then he finished and left me there crying in the bed to go play videogames. Then he came back and said, 'I'm sorry. This won't happen again. I can't control myself. I'm a man.' And I thought, 'He's right, he's a man and if I didn't want it I wouldn't be here. We're a couple and this is part of being in a relationship.'") The second incident of sexual assault that Ms. Messias reported occurred between October and November of 2024 in San Bruno, California. ("We were at his parents' house because we were taking care of the house while his parents were traveling. We were on a mattress in the living room and I remember telling him, 'No,' 'I don't want to have sex,' 'Just leave me alone,' and he kept pushing me and then forced me to have sex. I went to the bathroom and when I came out he pushed me up against the wall and put his penis in my mouth. Then he turned me around and forced me into a dog position and he raped me anally. I bled a lot and I didn't want it. I went and laid down on the mattress and cried and he went to play videogames.")

Ms. Messias reported that the abuse caused a significant decline in her overall functioning, and reported a negative impact on both her physical and mental health both during and immediately following the relationship. ("When I was with him I was so afraid, I had gained 35 kilos because I was trying to protect myself. I was living on autopilot. Nothing brought me pleasure. I was always on high alert; everything made me really stressed out. I was the crazy one; he would make me feel crazy. I didn't sleep or eat right. I didn't go out with my friends anymore. I isolated myself from everyone except him. I stopped going to church. I lost hope for myself and my life. I felt like it was my destiny; that I wasn't going to be able to get out of that relationship. I had completely lost my will to live. I started to have these episodes where I couldn't stop throwing up. My body ached. I started having memory issues and couldn't focus. I noticed myself dissociating more. I was completely checked out.")

Affective and Behavioral Observations

Ms. Messias reported with anxious features throughout the interview, including overall nervousness, fidgeting, difficulty making eye contact, and difficulty concentrating on questions asked of her. Ms. Messias became emotional when answering questions about her abusive relationship and discussing her current mental health symptoms.

History of Trauma

Ms. Messias reported no notable history of trauma prior to the qualifying incident.

Inventory of Current Symptoms

Ms. Messias reported that she suffers from intrusive thoughts and memories about the traumatic event that come into her mind without warning in response to cues that symbolize or resemble aspects of the traumatic event, including internal cues such as thinking about or feeling emotions related to the abuse and external cues such as loud sounds, being in the passenger seat of a car, and other situations that remind her of her ex-fiance. She reported that she experiences intrusive psychological reactions in the form of intrusive emotions, intrusive physical reactions, as well as nightmares. ("It happens a lot…when someone says or does something that reminds me of him or I'm in the car or hear a loud sound, I feel like it's happening again. I feel really sad and also afraid, like my body goes into a panic. My hands get clammy, my heart starts beating fast, I feel like I can't breathe, and my body feels warm like I need to run. I have nightmares about what happened on a weekly basis and he's always in it.")

Ms. Messias reported that she engages in significant avoidance behaviors in regards to external content such as people, places, and situations in attempts to avoid her intrusive symptoms. ("There's a lot of things I don't do anymore because they remind me of him. I don't engage in physical contact even with people that I know, go to places we used to go to together…places where I might run into him. I don't like talking about relationships in general so people don't ask about my relationship, listening to music that reminds me of him, food that reminds me of him, seeing people we know in common.") Ms. Messias reported that she also engages in avoidance behaviors of internal content, including active avoidance (i.e. trying not to think about her ex-fiance) as well as passive avoidance behaviors (i.e. excessive self-reassurance, neutralization of negative thoughts related to memories, etc.).

Ms. Messias reported that she has noticed a significant change in her mood since the traumatic event, noting that she experiences a persistent negative emotional state and that it is consistently difficult for her to feel positive emotions. She also reported that she experiences other depressive-like symptoms, such as excessive sleepiness (i.e. hypersomnia), feelings of detachment from others, and little interest or pleasure in doing things. ("I isolate myself from other people. I stopped responding to messages from friends and family. I often want to go to bed at 7pm. Sometimes it feels like things are getting better and then something reminds me of him and it changes my mood completely.") Ms. Messias reported experiencing negative cognitions about the world as a result of the trauma she experienced, including thoughts that she can't trust other people. ("I've lost a lot of trust in people, especially people I don't know well.") Ms. Messias also reported experiencing negative cognitions about the cause of the traumatic event that lead her to blame herself for the traumatic event. ("I blame myself a lot for what happened, for not leaving the relationship, that I let him do all of that to me. Even though I know that's not how it worked, I still blame myself for it.") Ms. Messias reported that she experiences significant dissociation in which she feels outside of her body and mild suicidal ideation with no planning or intent to act on a plan. Ms. Messias reported that she suffers from an inability to remember significant aspects of the trauma she experienced. ("I don't remember a lot of what happened. There's things that happened that I can't remember well. It seems my mind just deleted certain things. I don't know if it's good or bad. I also forgot good things that happened in my life at that time. 2024 was just a blank space in my life because I was just trying to survive.")

Ms. Messias reported that she experiences significant hypervigilance that leaves her constantly feeling on guard and alert. She reported feeling afraid that her ex-fiance will be outside of her home. ("During the winter when I have to leave for work I feel terrified that he's going to be there when I open the door. I have been late to work because even seeing someone outside my window made me afraid to go out. I feel afraid to go to bed alone, especially in the dark.") Ms. Messias also reported that she experiences an exaggerated startle response and frequently feels jumpy in response to being touched by other people or hearing loud noises.

History of Mental Health Treatment

Ms. Messias reported that she has been in mental health treatment off and on over the past 6 years and was previously prescribed an antidepressant and Trazodone to sleep, which she stopped after the end of the relationship. Ms. Messias was offered and accepted referrals to mental health treatment in her area.

Summary

Ms. Messias currently meets criteria for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). The essential feature of PTSD, as described in the DSM 5, is the development of characteristic symptoms following exposure to an extreme traumatic event involving actual or threatened death, serious injury, or sexual violence. In order to meet criteria for a diagnosis of PTSD, symptoms resulting from exposure to the trauma must include a requisite number of symptoms in the following categories:

1. At least one Intrusion Symptom (e.g. thoughts or images that come into the person's mind without warning, flashbacks, or nightmares, psychological or physiological reactions to internal or external cues that symbolize or resemble an aspect of the traumatic event).

Ms. Messias reported that she experiences intrusive thoughts, memories, nightmares, psychological and physiological reactions to cues that remind her of the traumatic event.

2. At least one Avoidance Symptom (e.g. avoidance or efforts to avoid distressing memories, thoughts, or feelings about or closely associated with the traumatic event or external reminders that arouse distressing memories, thoughts or feelings)

Ms. Messias reported engaging in significant avoidance both of distressing memories and thoughts about the traumatic event, as well as external reminders that arouse these distressing thoughts and memories.

3. At least two symptoms of Negative Alterations in Cognition or Mood (e.g. inability to remember significant aspects of the trauma; persistent negative beliefs about oneself, others, or the world; persistent negative cognitions about the cause or the consequences of the traumatic event that lead the individual to blame him/herself or others; persistent negative emotional state; diminished interest in significant activities; feelings of detachment from others, persistent inability to experience positive emotions)

Ms. Messias reported experiencing an inability to remember significant aspects of the trauma, persistent negative beliefs about others, persistent negative cognitions about the cause of the traumatic event that lead her to blame herself, feelings of detachment from others, diminished interest in significant activities, persistent negative emotional state, and a persistent inability to experience positive emotions.

4. At least two Hyperarousal Symptoms (e.g. feeling jumpy, irritable/angry, reckless/self-destructive, hypervigilance, exaggerated startle response, sleep disturbance).

Ms. Messias reported experiencing significant hypervigilance and an exaggerated startle response.

Although PTSD does not manifest in all people and each person's reaction to trauma is dependent upon multiple biological and psycho-social factors, the diagnosis is an accepted way to describe the effect a trauma has had on a person's mood and functioning, even if the trauma occurred in the remote past. The diagnosis can be present after only one traumatic event or after many, though if a person has experienced multiple traumas, their symptoms tend to be compounded and become more severe.

Ms. Messias would benefit from trauma-informed psychotherapy related to this incident to better target and treat the trauma symptoms that persist and for which she meets criteria for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder.

CLÍNICA RESIGNIFICAR

Psychologist Elen Cristine Araújo Almeida

PSYCHOLOGICAL REPORT

1. Identification

Name: Geiliane Rebeca Messias

Female patient, young adult, student, residing in the United States since 2020.

Presents a previous diagnosis of Attention-Deficit and Hyperactivity Disorder, under clinical follow-up.

2. Chief complaint

The patient presents with intense psychic suffering associated with an affective relationship marked by psychological and sexual violence, resulting in significant emotional and somatic repercussions.

3. Clinical history and context

The patient moved to the United States in 2020, experiencing a process of cultural and academic adaptation.

Between 2021 and 2022, she began attending a religious environment, where she met her partner. In 2023, they established a friendship, which evolved into an affective relationship at the end of the same year.

Initially, the partner exhibited behavior that was perceived as welcoming and attentive. In November 2023, they began a formal relationship.

Starting in December 2023, the patient began to identify behavioral inconsistencies (lies), which were systematically justified by the partner, contributing to the maintenance of the bond.

It is important to highlight that the relationship developed within a highly normative religious context, in which discourses associated with morality, guilt, and submission were mobilized.

Additionally, the perpetrator's stepmother played an active role in maintaining the bond, utilizing religious arguments "in the name of God" to:

- reinforce permanence in the relationship
- delegitimize the patient's doubts and perceptions
- induce feelings of guilt and moral obligation

Such dynamics significantly contributed to the impairment of the patient's capacity for discernment, hindering the recognition of the violence experienced.

Throughout 2024, a progressive escalation of abusive behaviors was observed, including:

- control and emotional manipulation
- sexual coercion and non-consensual intercourse
- emotional punishment following refusals
- death threats

- partner's criminal history (including sexual offense)

During this period, the patient lacked sufficient psychic resources to name the violence, remaining embedded in a dynamic marked by distortion of reality.

In May 2024, the engagement took place, accompanied by expectations of relational improvement, which did not materialize. There was an intensification of aggressiveness and obsessive behavior.

In September 2024, after a financial investment in the wedding, the patient experienced intense suffering when attempting to call it off, being subjected to psychological pressure and victim-blaming.

Between November 2024 and March 2025, there were attempts to break up, with an intermittent pattern of distancing and reconciliation.

In April 2025, the partner was arrested, interrupting direct contact.

4. Current symptomatology

The patient presents with:

- intense and persistent anxiety
- hypervigilance
- constant fear
- recurrent guilt
- affective ambivalence
- difficulty trusting relationships
- emotional dysregulation

Somatic symptoms:

- intense vomiting episodes following abuse situations

→ configuring a psychosomatic response to trauma

Medication use:

- under pharmacological management for anxiety

5. Psychosocial impact

Impairment in:

- Emotional: intense suffering and difficulty in processing the trauma
- Relational: anxious attachment pattern
- Academic: functional impairment
- Sociocultural Context: vulnerability amplified by migratory and religious factors

6. Diagnostic hypotheses (suggestive nature)

- Post-Traumatic Stress
- Generalized Anxiety Disorder
- Attention-Deficit and Hyperactivity Disorder
- Adjustment Disorder

With associated psychosomatic manifestations.

7. Clinical understanding (psychodynamic reading)

The case evidences a trauma bond sustained by intermittent reinforcement, associated with an anxious attachment pattern, with significant difficulty in achieving a rupture.

The presence of Attention-Deficit and Hyperactivity Disorder contributes to:

- greater emotional intensity
- relational impulsivity
- fragility in risk assessment

The religious context operated as a structuring element of the abusive dynamic, functioning as a mechanism of:

- symbolic control
- maintenance of guilt
- subjective submission

The vomiting episodes indicate somatization of the trauma, evidencing a failure in psychic symbolization.

8. Clinical considerations on the analytical process

The patient was embedded in a dynamic marked by Gaslighting, intensified by external validations (partner and religious figure).

It is emphatically emphasized that:

Without the analytical process, the patient lacked the psychic conditions to name, recognize, and take ownership of the violence experienced.

The analysis enabled:

- the construction of meaning for the traumatic experience
- the recovery of the capacity for discernment
- the differentiation between reality and distortion
- the recognition of the violence
- the progressive rupture of the bond

Remnants of the gaslighting process still persist, including:

- doubt regarding her own perception
- internalized guilt
- fragility in internal validation

9. Management and referrals

- continuity of trauma-focused psychotherapy
- interventions addressing the effects of Gaslighting
- management of the anxious attachment pattern
- strengthening of psychic autonomy
- psychiatric follow-up

10. Final considerations

High-complexity case involving:

- severe psychological and sexual violence
- trauma bond
- neurodivergence

- somatization
- influence of the religious context as a vector for maintaining the violence

The analytical process proves to be central to the patient's psychic reconstruction and the recovery of her capacity for discernment.

CLINÍCA RESSIGNIFICAR

Psicóloga Elen Cristine Araújo Almeida

RELATÓRIO PSICOLÓGICO

1. Identificação

Nome: Geiliane Rebeca Messias

Paciente do sexo feminino, jovem adulta, estudante, residente nos Estados Unidos desde 2020.

Apresenta diagnóstico prévio de Transtorno de Déficit de Atenção e Hiperatividade, em acompanhamento clínico.

2. Queixa principal

A paciente apresenta sofrimento psíquico intenso associado a relacionamento afetivo marcado por violência psicológica e sexual, com repercussões emocionais e somáticas significativas.

3. Histórico e contexto clínico

A paciente mudou-se para os Estados Unidos em 2020, vivenciando processo de adaptação cultural e acadêmica.

Entre 2021 e 2022, passou a frequentar ambiente religioso, no qual conheceu o parceiro. Em 2023, estabeleceram vínculo de amizade, evoluindo para relacionamento afetivo no final do mesmo ano.

Inicialmente, o parceiro apresentava comportamento percebido como acolhedor e atencioso. Em novembro de 2023, iniciaram relacionamento formal.

A partir de dezembro de 2023, a paciente começou a identificar inconsistências comportamentais (mentiras), as quais eram sistematicamente justificadas pelo parceiro, contribuindo para manutenção do vínculo.

Importante destacar que o relacionamento se desenvolveu em um contexto religioso fortemente normativo, no qual discursos associados à moral, culpa e submissão foram mobilizados.

Adicionalmente, a madrasta do agressor exercia papel ativo na manutenção do vínculo, utilizando argumentos religiosos "em nome de Deus" para:

- reforçar a permanência no relacionamento
- deslegitimar dúvidas e percepções da paciente
- induzir sentimentos de culpa e obrigação moral

Tal dinâmica contribuiu significativamente para o comprometimento da capacidade de discernimento da paciente, dificultando o reconhecimento da violência vivenciada.

Ao longo de 2024, observou-se escalada progressiva de comportamentos abusivos, incluindo:

- controle e manipulação emocional
- coerção sexual e relações sem consentimento
- punição emocional diante de negativas
- ameaças de morte

- histórico criminal do parceiro (incluindo crime sexual)

Durante esse período, a paciente não dispunha de recursos psíquicos suficientes para nomear a violência, permanecendo inserida em dinâmica marcada por distorção da realidade.

Em maio de 2024, ocorreu noivado, acompanhado de expectativa de melhora relacional, o que não se concretizou. Houve intensificação da agressividade e comportamento obsessivo.

Em setembro de 2024, após investimento financeiro em casamento, a paciente apresentou intenso sofrimento ao tentar desistir, sendo submetida a pressão psicológica e culpabilização.

Entre novembro de 2024 e março de 2025, ocorreram tentativas de rompimento, com padrão intermitente de afastamento e reaproximação.

Em abril de 2025, o parceiro foi preso, interrompendo o contato direto.

4. Sintomatologia atual

A paciente apresenta:

- ansiedade intensa e persistente
- hipervigilância
- medo constante
- culpa recorrente
- ambivalência afetiva
- dificuldade de confiar em relações
- desregulação emocional

Sintomas somáticos:

- episódios de vômitos intensos após situações de abuso

→ configurando resposta psicossomática ao trauma

Uso de medicação:

- em acompanhamento farmacológico para ansiedade

5. Impacto psicossocial

Comprometimento em:

- Emocional: sofrimento intenso e dificuldade de elaboração
- Relacional: padrão de apego ansioso
- Acadêmico: prejuízo funcional
- Contexto sociocultural: vulnerabilidade ampliada por fatores migratórios e religiosos

6. Hipóteses diagnósticas (caráter sugestivo)

- Transtorno de Estresse Pós-Traumático
- Transtorno de Ansiedade Generalizada
- Transtorno de Déficit de Atenção e Hiperatividade
- Transtorno de Ajustamento

Com manifestações psicossomáticas associadas.

7. Compreensão clínica (leitura psicodinâmica)

O caso evidencia vínculo traumático sustentado por reforço intermitente, associado a padrão de apego ansioso, com dificuldade significativa de ruptura.

A presença de Transtorno de Déficit de Atenção e Hiperatividade contribui para:

- maior intensidade emocional
- impulsividade relacional
- fragilidade na avaliação de risco

O contexto religioso operou como elemento estruturante da dinâmica abusiva, funcionando como dispositivo de:

- controle simbólico
- manutenção da culpa
- submissão subjetiva

Os episódios de vômito indicam somatização do trauma, evidenciando falha na simbolização psíquica.

8. Considerações clínicas sobre o processo analítico

A paciente encontrava-se inserida em dinâmica marcada por Gaslighting, intensificada por validações externas (parceiro e figura religiosa).

Ressalta-se de forma enfática que:

Sem o processo analítico, a paciente não apresentava condições psíquicas de nomear, reconhecer e se apropriar da violência vivenciada.

A análise possibilitou:

- construção de sentido para a experiência traumática
- recuperação da capacidade de discernimento
- diferenciação entre realidade e distorção
- reconhecimento da violência
- rompimento progressivo do vínculo

Persistem resquícios do processo de gaslighting, incluindo:

- dúvida sobre a própria percepção
- culpa internalizada
- fragilidade na validação interna

9. Conduta e encaminhamentos

- continuidade da psicoterapia focada em trauma
- trabalho sobre efeitos do Gaslighting
- abordagem do apego ansioso
- fortalecimento da autonomia psíquica
- acompanhamento psiquiátrico

10. Considerações finais

Caso de alta complexidade, envolvendo:

- violência psicológica e sexual grave
- vínculo traumático
- neurodivergência

- somatização
- influência de contexto religioso como vetor de manutenção da violência

O processo analítico mostra-se central na reconstrução psíquica e retomada da capacidade de discernimento da paciente.

Notes from Care Team

Progress Notes by Timothy Sinclair at 12/2/2024 4:30 PM

Pt on time to scheduled appt. Last PC psychiatry visit 10/7/2024

Interval hx: Pt reports some worsening of baseline mood, mood variability and anxiety since last visit in the setting of multiple psychosocial stressors including breaking up with her fiance, complications with her visa, has to look for a new job and learning that her pet dog in Brazil is dying. Pt has noticed lower mood, sleeping longer, feels tired during the day, increase in worry and difficulty relaxing. Took an overdose of trazodone 3 weeks ago (8 pills of 50 mg), had not planned this but was having racing thoughts and wanted to sleep, knew this could be dangerous. Told sister who encouraged going to ED, called a hotline that recommended supervising pt for 6 hours, pt was not ultimately evaluated in ED. Hx self-injurious behavior, previously resolved but in the last month pt reports using a knife or her nails to scratch her wrists

- No HI
- Support system: lives with sister. Has a therapist who she is seeing twice a week recently
- Protective factors: religion, listens to worship music when she feels overwhelmed
- Lifestyle factors: Seeing a nutritionist, goes on daily walks and structured exercise 3 times weekly. Working as a nanny and taking a college class in music

Pt reported these changes at PC visit last week and sertraline dose was increased to 150 mg/d targeting residual sx's.
Also takes Trazodone 50 mg PRN (pt reports taking about once a week)

Denies EtOH or substance use.

Relevant hx:
Pt has has previous trials of:

- Sertraline (up to 75 mg/d) - Good initial response with fading of benefit after 6-8 months.
- Fluoxetine (up to 40 mg/d) with little benefit
- Duloxetine (up to 60 mg/d) with little benefit

Labs:
TFT's WNL 6 mos ago.

MSE: Cooperative, pleasant, Speech: WNL, Mood: dysphoric, Process: linear, logical, Content: WNL, Sensorium intact.

I/R:
Assessment
The patient presents with worsening depressive and anxiety symptoms, characterized by mood variability, increased worry, fatigue, and difficulty relaxing, alongside a recent resurgence of NSSI behavior. These symptoms have intensified in the context of significant psychosocial stressors, including a recent breakup, visa issues, concerns about job security, and grief over her pet's impending death.

The recent trazodone overdose (8 pills of 50 mg) appears to have been impulsive rather than premeditated, reflecting poor distress tolerance rather than clear suicidal intent. Protective factors include her religious faith, structured lifestyle habits, and a strong therapeutic relationship.

The patient's presentation is consistent with Major Depressive Disorder (MDD), recurrent, with anxious distress, with possible contributions from a comorbid anxiety disorder (e.g., Generalized Anxiety Disorder).

Recommendations:
Psychopharmacology
Continue Sertraline at 150 mg/day: Allow 4-6 weeks at this dose to assess for optimal response. This increase is appropriate given the partial response to prior lower doses.
Consider augmenting with hydroxyzine 25-50 mg PRN for acute anxiety/distress: Provides a non-addictive option for managing transient, high-anxiety periods.
Evaluate trazodone use and necessity: Given the impulsive overdose, assess the patient's ongoing need for trazodone as a sleep aid. If PRN use is essential, provide education on safe dosing and consider alternatives (e.g., melatonin).
Monitor for safety: Reassess risk of impulsive behaviors, including medication misuse or further NSSI.

Psychotherapy
Continue with twice-weekly therapy sessions, emphasizing skills-based approaches (e.g., Dialectical Behavioral Therapy (DBT) or Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Suicide Prevention [CBT-SP]) to enhance emotional regulation and distress tolerance.
Lifestyle and Support Recommendations
Maintain structured activities: Daily walks, exercise routines, and academic pursuits are protective and should be encouraged.
Leverage religious/spiritual practices: Support the patient's use of worship music and faith-based coping mechanisms as a source of resilience.

Strengthen social supports: Engage her sister in reinforcing safety plans and provide resources for additional support if needed.

Provide access to crisis resources: Reiterate the use of hotlines or crisis text services for immediate support.

Primary Care Monitoring
Monitor mood, anxiety, and sleep symptoms every 2-4 weeks during dose titration.
Screen for suicidal ideation at regular intervals given recent impulsivity.
Recheck thyroid function tests if somatic fatigue persists despite psychiatric interventions.

Simultaneous with starting sertraline, recommend decrease duloxetine dose to 30 mg/d x 7 days then stop.

Asked to speak with this 25 y/o female with a h/o depression and anxiety, also with h/o NSSI behavior (cutting). Current treatments include regular psychotherapy visits with therapist in Brazil (tele visits,+ benefit) and pharmacotherapy managed by PC team - duloxetine started 3/2024 and has been taking 40 mg/d for several months. Since starting duloxetine, pt reports partial improvement of mood and anxiety sx's with up-titration of dose though has noticed some return of low mood and feeling easily stressed over the past two weeks. Pt reports that un-triggered panic attacks remain in remission though describes episodes of reactive anxiety in the presence of situational triggers/stressors. Denies recent NSSI behaviors.

Tried propranolol 10 mg BID prn to help abate episodes of peak anxiety with little improvement. Counseled pt to trial taking BID on days when aware of potential anxiety triggers later in the day as this may help to lessen physical signs of anxiety (such as tachycardia).

Sleeping well, generally, Takes trazodone very occasionally if she has trouble falling asleep with good effect.

Pt has has previous trials of:

Exhibit 6 - Evidence That the Individual Was a Victim of a Qualifying Criminal Activity – Letters of Support

Letter of Testimony - Giuliane Talita Messias

Full Name: Giuliane Talita Messias
Phone Number: (925)354-7021
Email: giuliane.messias@gmail.com
Date of Birth: December 5, 1994
Place of Birth: Recife, Pernambuco, Brazil

My name is Giuliane Talita Messias, and I am Geiliane Rebeca Messias's sister. Since we were children, we have had a very good relationship, one of friendship and shared experiences. We have always kept in touch with each other, and for over four years, we have lived in the same house, so I witnessed up close the entire process of her relationship with Erick Rodrigues. In November 2023, they started dating, and before that, they were already friends, so I already knew Erick from seeing and hearing about him, he seemed like a good and gentle young man, always very polite and cordial. In December 2023, on my birthday (the 5th), I noticed Beca was acting strange, appearing sad and confused, and I saw that on that day Erick was more distant, on his phone. From that day on, I began to observe the relationship more closely. As the months went by, I noticed more and more that Beca was becoming increasingly sad, her anxiety attacks were considerably more frequent, and she was very anxious. When I questioned her about why she was feeling that way, she would say it was stress, work, or studies, and every time I mentioned the relationship, she would say everything was fine, that she was just very jealous, and that the two of them were learning how to relate to each other better.

In mid-May 2024, after six months of relationship, they got engaged, and I thought that after the engagement, things would improve and Beca's "insecurities" would calm down, since they were now engaged and she had this very strong desire to get married and start a family. As I got closer to them during dinners, him coming over to our house, and me visiting his family's home, I began to notice something strange about his behavior in general. One of the things I clearly remember avoiding was hitching a ride with Erick. On a few occasions when I was in the same car with him, he was very inattentive and did not drive safely, so I started avoiding riding in the car with him driving because I did not feel safe. Meanwhile, I kept noticing that my sister would come home sad and crying almost 90% of the time she returned from a date with him, whether at his home or his family's house, church, the movies, or any other plans they had together, she would return extremely irritated, crying, or just very sad. And whenever I asked, she would say everything was fine, that it was just a phase, and that she was adapting to the relationship.

In July 2024, she came home sad, crying, and with severe chest pain. When I asked her what happened, she showed me that her chest area was completely bruised. When I asked what caused it, she said she hadn't been able to open the car door because Erick had locked the car, and she was forcing it open until the moment she pulled with a lot of strength and he unlocked it without warning, causing it to hit her chest directly. Months later, she told this same story in a different way, saying that he was the one who opened it with a lot of force and accidentally hit her chest. I believe this was the first time I saw a physical injury on her that was somehow related to Erick. I remember she had many marks on her body at the time, but whenever I asked what they were, she would say they were stress marks.

I was already avoiding outings and plans that involved Erick because the atmosphere would get heavy, seeing the two of them fighting made things feel tense, and I began to realize he wasn't as good and gentle as he had seemed. On July 21, 2024, his stepmother, Wyara Rodrigues, invited me to her house for a dinner that would also include Erick and Rebeca. Even though I was already avoiding Erick and his family at that time, I went. And on that day, I became certain that something very wrong was happening. While we were gathered around the table for dinner, in the middle of a "silly" argument, Erick pinched Beca under the table. I saw it and heard Beca say, "Stop that, it hurts." His stepmother then said, "Erick, stop doing that, your father-in-law will be here soon." Our father was about to arrive to visit us. At that moment, I froze because Wyara's words made me realize that this was a recurring behavior, and that it had to stop only because our father was about to arrive and would not like seeing a situation like that, which was apparently commonplace for them.

From that episode on, I started connecting the dots regarding Beca's physical and mental state, the inconsolable sadness of the past few months, the increase in her antidepressant dosage, the increase in her anxiety attacks, a considerable weight gain, a lack of energy, and her becoming more and more distant from me and our family. When we went out to the movies or for dinner together, just the two of us, Erick would call all the time, controlling the location, the time we would return home, and who she was with. It was after this moment that I began sharing my concerns with our father, Edilson Luís Messias, about Erick and Rebeca's relationship. I told him that I had witnessed that scene, and putting everything together made me very worried.

On August 8, 2024, our father arrived to visit us, and though I do not remember the exact date, we all went together to a venue to finalize the booking for Erick and Rebeca's wedding. It was strange to see that Beca was not enthusiastic about the wedding, which in theory was supposed to take place in approximately 8 months. Erick was very rushed to lock in the venue and quickly sign the contract to guarantee the date. in the end, the contract was signed and the amount to secure the date was paid. Upon arriving home, I saw that Beca was not happy and asked her what was going on, she said she was scared and feeling strange, and that she was not comfortable moving forward with the wedding plans, at least not at that moment. Once again, a red flag went off inside me, and I realized she was not doing well. A few days later, she made the decision not to continue with the venue contract and suspended the wedding arrangements.

I remember at some point going to pick her up from Erick's parents' house, and Beca was crying a lot, sad and anxious. When I asked her what was going on, she would always say that everything was fine, that it was just a phase of her anxiety attacks that apparently came "for no reason." When I pointed out that we didn't do things together anymore and that she could simply choose not to go back to their house and just spend the rest of the day with me, she said, "If I do that, it's worse." Without giving much explanation, she happening, so I respected her space because I didn't want to push her even further away.

On November 2, 2024, I was not at home and Beca called me crying, very anxious, and saying that she couldn't take everything that was happening anymore, that it was too heavy, and that she was "going away", asking me to forgive her, but everything was just too heavy. I couldn't fully understand everything that was happening at that moment, I asked her to stay calm and to wait for me to get home. She said she would take a shower and wait for me. After about 20 minutes, I called her to check if she was better and calmer, and she said, "Forgive me, I won't be able to stay here anymore." I then asked her what she had done, and she told me she had taken several pills of the medication Trazodone hydrochloride 50mg. I don't remember exactly how many pills it was, but I remember it was a high dose, so I dropped everything and rushed back home to help her. She was okay after this episode, but my concern regarding her relationship with Erick only grew, because I later found out that the reason she had become so sad to the point of taking the pills was an argument with Erick over the phone.

After that episode, I started to become more alert and talked to Beca more about it, until a point when she felt comfortable enough to open up and tell me that Erick forced her to have sex with him, oral, vaginal, and anal. I do not remember all the details of the conversation, I only remember comforting her, telling her that she did not need to feel ashamed, and that I would help her get out of that situation. Still in the month of November, I remember she ended the relationship. I went to pick her up at his house after that breakup conversation, and she cried heavily in the car, saying that she wouldn't be able to move forward with that decision and that it would be worse for her. They still met a few times after this breakup due to a lot of persistence on his part, as he would always come looking for her, call, and send messages. However, they never actually resumed the relationship. In mid-February 2025, she made the decision to completely distance herself from him cutting off calls, messages, and meetings and was moving on with her life until Erick called from prison in April 2025. When Beca asked, "What did you do? Did you rape someone?" he said, "Yes." She asked who it was, "Was it Ana Clara?" and he said yes.

It was a huge shock for Rebeca to receive this news, and Erick would always call her from prison to talk about how things were, which ended up connecting with her deeply. As time went by, she began to detach herself and was able to reflect on everything that had happened in the relationship. The fact that he was imprisoned and could not get access to her for months was very beneficial because it gave her the space to find herself again and get her life back on track. At some point, she asked him to stop contacting her, blocked the prison number, and tried to move on with her life. He still managed to send messages and even tried to call from another number belonging to another inmate. Every single time he made contact, it shook her deeply in some way, and all the inner light she was rebuilding would crumble. Regardless, she kept pushing forward and improving and in August 2025, she made the decision to report him for the crimes he had committed against her. It was a very difficult phase because she had to face the whole story once again, remember the details, and repeat them over and over. In October 2025, we received the unfortunate news that Erick had been released, and this brought back fear, sadness, and anguish for Rebeca. She was terrified that he would come after her, especially after her police report. There were many sleepless nights, a lot of crying, and immense fear.

Every time she came home, I would stand at the door waiting for her to come inside and to make sure no one was following her. As the days went by and she continued to cooperate with the authorities, things have calmed down. Despite this, even today she says she would like to change our address, the address where we have been living for more than 4 years, because she is afraid he will come after her to confront her. I lost my sister, she will never be the same again. She is afraid of getting into relationships, afraid of going out, and afraid of doing things alone. She frequently has anxiety attacks triggered by things that remind her of her relationship with Erick. During these attacks, she cries, cannot breathe properly, vomits a lot, and does not sleep well. It makes me deeply sad to witness everything she went through and is still going through following this trauma.

Even to this day, he tries to make contact in some way, whether by following her on Instagram or something similar, and every single time it triggers a crisis. Anything that might remind her of the relationship or of him makes her lose her footing for a few days and causes her to become entangled in pain, fear, and sadness all over again.

Data de nascimento: 05 de Dezembro de 1994

Me chamo Giuliane Talita Messias, sou irmã de Geiliane Rebeca Messias. Desde de crianças tivemos uma relação muito boa, de amizade e compartilhamento de experiências. Sempre mantivemos contato uma com a outra, faz mais de quatro anos que moramos na mesma casa e vi de perto todo o processo do relacionamento com Erick Rodrigues. Em novembro de 2023 eles começaram a namorar e antes disso eles já eram amigos, então eu já conhecia o Erick de vê e ouvir falar, parecia um rapaz bom e gentil, sempre muito educado e cordial. Em dezembro de 2023 no dia do meu aniversário (05) eu percebi a Beca estranha, parecia triste e confusa e vi que nesse dia o Erick estava mais afastado, no celular a partir desse dia comecei a observar mais de perto o relacionamento. Os meses foram passando e fui percebendo cada vez mais que a Beca estava ficando cada vez mais triste, suas crises de ansiedade consideravelmente mais constantes e muito ansiosa. Quando eu questionava o motivo dela estar assim, ela dizia que era estresse, trabalho, estudo, e todas as vezes que eu mencionava o relacionamento ela dizia que estava tudo bem e que ela era muito ciumenta e que os dois estavam aprendendo a se relacionar melhor.

Em meados de maio de 2024 após seis meses de relacionamento eles noivaram, e eu pensei que após o noivado as coisas iriam melhorar e que as "inseguranças" da Beca iriam se acalmar agora que estavam noivos e ela tinha esse desejo muito forte de casar e formar uma família. Conforme eu ia me aproximando deles, nos jantares, ele indo lá em casa, eu frequentando a casa da família dele, o comportamento dele no geral eu fui percebendo que tinha alguma coisa estranha. Uma das coisas que me lembro claramente de evitar foi parar de pegar carona com Erick, algumas das vezes que fui no mesmo carro com ele, ele era muito desatento e não conduzia a direção de forma segura, então comecei a evitar ir no carro com ele dirigindo por que eu não me sentia segura. Enquanto isso, eu ia observando que minha irmã chegava triste e chorando quase 90% das vezes que voltava de algum encontro com ele, na casa dele ou da família dele, da igreja, cinema ou qualquer programação que eles iam juntos ela voltava extremamente irritada, chorando ou só muito triste. E sempre quando eu perguntava ela dizia que tava tudo bem, que era uma fase e que estava se adaptando na relação.

Em julho de 2024 ela aparece em casa triste, chorando e com muita dor no peito e quando eu perguntei o que foi, ela me mostrou que estava toda roxa na parte do peito e quando eu perguntei o que foi isso ela disse que não estava conseguindo abrir a porta do carro que o Erick tinha trancado o carro e que ela estava fazendo força pra abrir até o momento que ela colocou muita força e ele destrancou sem avisar e foi direto em seu tórax. Meses depois ela contou essa mesma história de outra forma como ele que abriu com muita força e sem querer bateu no tórax dela. Acredito que essa foi a primeira vez que vi um machucado físico nela e que de alguma forma teve relação com o Erick. Lembro que ela tinha muitas marcas no corpo na época, mas sempre que eu perguntava o que tinha sido aquilo ela dizia que era marcas de estresse.

Eu já não fazia tantas programações que envolvessem o Erick por que o clima ficava pesado, vê os dois brigando o clima ficava meio pesado fui percebendo que ele não era aquele rapaz tão bom e gentil quanto parecia. No dia 21 de julho de 2024 a madrasta dele Wyara Rodrigues me convidou pra passar na casa dela pra um jantar que incluiria Erick e Rebeca também, apesar de nessa época já estar evitando o Erick e a família dele, eu fui. E nesse dia tive a certeza que algo de muito errado estava acontecendo. Enquanto estávamos ao redor da mesa pra jantar no meio de uma discussão "boba" o Erick beslicou a Beca por debaixo da mesa e eu vi e ouvi a Beca falar "para com isso que está doendo", a madrasta falou em seguida "Erick pare de fazer isso que logo o pai dela chega". O nosso pai estava prestes a chegar para nos visitar, na hora fiquei sem reação pois a fala da Wyara me fez perceber que isso era um comportamento recorrente e que deveria parar por que nosso pai estava prestes a chegar e vendo uma situação como essa, aparentemente corriqueira, não iria gostar.

A partir desse epsódio comecei a ligar os pontos da situação física e mental da Beca, a tristeza inconsolável dos últimos meses, aumento de doses de anti depressivos, aumento de crises de ansiedade, aumento considerável de peso, falta de energia e cada vez mais distante de mim e da nossa família. Quando iamos para um cinema ou jantar juntas, só eu e ela o Erick ligava o tempo inteiro, controlando o lugar, a hora que iriamos voltar pra casa, com quem ela estava. Foi depois desse momento que comecei a compartilhar minha preocupação com nosso pai Edilson Luís Messias sobre o relacionamento de Erick e Rebeca. Que eu tinha presenciado essa cena e ligando tudo me deixava muito preocupada.

Dia 8 de agosto de 2024, nosso pai chega para nos visitar e não lembro exatamente a data mas fomos todos juntos a um venue pra fechar o casamento de Erick e Rebeca, foi esquisito ver que a Beca não estava entusiasmada com aquele casamento que na teoria aconteceria em aproximadamente 8 meses. O Erick muito afobado pra fechar logo o venue e assinar rapidamente o contrato pra garantir a data, no fim das contas o contrato foi assinado e pago o valor pra garantir a data, ao chegar em casa eu vi que a Beca não estava feliz e perguntei o que estava acontecendo, ela disse que tava com medo e se sentindo estranha e que não estava confortável de continuar com esse plano de casamento, pelo menos não naquele momento. Mais uma vez um alerta se ascendeu dentro de mim e percebi que ela não estava bem. Poucos dias depois ela tomou a decisão de não continuar contrato com o venue e suspendeu as organizações pro casamento.

Lembro de algum momento ir buscar ela na casa dos pais do Erick e a Beca estava chorando muito, triste e ansiosa. E eu perguntei o que estava acontecendo, ela sempre dizia que estava tudo bem que era fase das ansiedades dela que aparentemente vinha "sem motivo", quando eu questionei que já não fazia mais coisas juntas e que ela poderia simplesmente não voltar pra casa deles, só seguir o dia comigo ela disse: "se eu fizer isso é pior" sem muitas explicações ela calou e ficou triste e quieta no carro. Ela não gostava de falar muito sobre o que de fato estava acontecendo, então eu respeitava por que não queria afastar ela ainda mais.

Dia 02 de novembro de 2024, eu não estava em casa e a Beca me liga chorando, muito ansiosa e falando que não consegue mais aguentar tudo que estava acontecendo e que estava muito pesado e que ela iria "embora" que eu a perdoasse mas que estava tudo muito pesado. Eu não conseguia entender tudo que estava acontecendo naquele momento, pedia que ela tivesse calma e que esperasse que eu chegasse em casa, ela disse que tomaria um banho e iria me esperar, depois de uns 20 minutos eu ligo pra saber se ela estava melhor e mais calma e ela disse que "me perdoa, eu não vou conseguir ficar mais aqui" e aí perguntei o ela tinha feito e ela disse que tinha tomado algumas pílulas do remedio Trazodone hydrochloride 50mg. Eu não lembro ao certo quantos remédios foram mas lembro que foi uma dose alta e eu larguei tudo e voltei pra casa pra ajuda-la. Ela ficou bem depois depois desse episódio e minha preocupação só aumentava em relação ao relacionamento dela com Erick pois depois descobri que o motivo pelo qual ela tinha ficado tão triste a ponto de tomar os remédios foi uma briga com o Erick no telefone.

Depois desse episódio comecei a ficar mais alerta e conversar mais com Beca a respeito até um ponto que ela se sentiu confortável o suficiente para se abrir e dizer que o Erick a forçava a fazer sexo com ela, oral, vaginal e anal. Eu não lembro de todos os detalhes da conversa, só lembro de ter acolhido, ter dito pra ela que ela não precisava sentir vergonha e que eu iria ajudar ela a sair dessa situação. Ainda no mês de novembro lembro que ela terminou o relacionamento, eu fui buscar ela na casa dele depois dessa conversa de término e ela chorava muito no carro dizendo que não iria conseguir prosseguir com essa decisão e que seria pior pra ela. Eles ainda se encontraram algumas vezes depois desse termino por muita insistência da parte dele de sempre ir procurar, ligar e mandar mensagem. Porém nunca assumiram de fato o retorno do relacionamento, em meados de fevereiro de 2025 ela tomou a decisão de se afastar completamente dele, ligação, mensagem e encontros e foi seguindo a vida até que o Erick liga em abril de 2025 da cadeia e quando a Beca perguntou o que você fez? você estuprou alguém? E ele diz que "sim''. Ela pergunta quem, foi a Ana Clara? E ele diz que sim.

Foi um choque muito grande para Rebeca receber essa notícia e o Erick sempre ligava pra ela da prisão pra falar como estavam as coisas e acabava conectando muito com ela. Conforme o tempo foi passando, ela foi se desvinculando e podendo observar tudo que tinha acontecido no relacionamento, o fato dele estar preso e não conseguir acesso à ela por meses foi muito bom por que deu espaço pra que ela voltasse a si e retomasse o rumo da vida. Em algum momento ela pediu que ele parasse de contactar, bloqueou o número da cadeia e tentou seguir a vida. Ele ainda conseguia mandar mensagens e até tentou ligar de um outro número de outro colega de prisão. Todas as vezes em que ele entrava em contato de alguma forma a abalava muito e todo o brilho que ela estava reconstruindo caia por terra. De qualquer forma ela foi seguindo e melhorando em agosto de 2025 ela tomou a decisão de denunciá-lo pelos crimes que ele cometeu contra ela, foi uma fase bem complicada por que ela teve de entrar em contato com toda história mais uma vez, lembrar dos detalhes e repetir e repetir várias vezes. Em outubro de 2025 temos a infeliz noticia de que o Erick foi solto, e isso acarretou em um medo, tristeza e angustia por parte da Rebeca, ela tinha medo que ele viesse atrás dela, principalmente depois de sua denúncia. Foram muitas noites sem dormir, muito choro, muito medo.

Todas as vezes que ela chegava em casa eu ficava na porta esperando pra que ela entrasse e pra ter certeza que não tinha ninguém seguindo ela. Os dias foram passando e ela foi colaborando com as autoridades as coisas tem se acalmado. Apesar de ainda hoje ela fala que gostaria de mudar de endereço, endereço esse que já estamos há mais de 4 anos pois ela tem medo que ele venha atrás dela pra tomar alguma satisfação. Eu perdi minha irmã, ela nunca mais será a mesma. Tem medo de se relacionar, tem medo de sair, tem medo de fazer as coisas sozinha. Muitas vezes tem crise de ansiedade por alguns gatilhos que a lembram o relacionamento com o Erick, ela chora e não consegue respirar direito, vomita muito nessas crises e não dorme bem. Fico triste de testemunhar tudo isso que ela passou e está passando pós esse trauma.

Até os dias de hoje de alguma forma ele tenta contato, seja seguindo no Instagram ou algo do tipo e todas as vezes é uma crise. Qualquer coisa que possa lembrar do relacionamento ou dele faz ela perder o eixo por alguns dias e se emaranhar na dor, medo e tristeza novamente.

It has always been so easy to talk about Rebeca because we've been best friends for 16 years. Since we've shared a friendship since 2010, not only do we know each other, but our families know each other too. We went to middle school and high school together and we were always together, hanging out at each other's houses, spending vacations together, church camp together, New Year's Eves together... we even knew each other's email and social media passwords, that's the level of our friendship.

Rebeca has always been a calm, completely sweet, and cheerful girl. She never really liked to show off or draw a lot of attention to herself, and she's still that way today. Rebeca has always been very determined in what she sets out to do, full of dreams and with a huge desire to live and see the world. She's always been very responsible too, doing the right thing ever since she was a little girl.

I also always followed her past relationships. Of course, arguments and fights happen in relationships, and that was true with her ex-boyfriends too, but none of them was as devastating as this one with Erick. I had already seen her cry over a relationship that wasn't going as well as expected, obviously, but I had never seen her lose all her spark and want to take her own life because of it. Until Erick entered her life.

Even before the relationship with Erick started, Rebeca and I always talked about it, how it was in the beginning, what they were up to, how things were going at church, what people were saying about them getting closer, and so on.

When they actually started dating, for a while, things stayed the same, we talked all the time, and she introduced him to me over a video call. I found it a bit strange that long conversations never happened between the three of us, they were very quick, so I didn't really know Erick, but it was fine... When he proposed to her, she called me from the car with him. They seemed happy, she showed me the ring, and I was super happy too. We were already excited about the wedding, even though I thought it was too early since they had only been dating for a short time, just about 7 to 8 months. But up until then, as far as I was concerned, nothing was wrong, just two happy people who love each other, and want to build a family and live together.

Shortly after, the calls to me with her current fiancé by her side didn't happen anymore and were replaced by calls of her crying, saying she was sad and that they had had a fight. When I questioned her about the fights, she would say that no matter what went wrong, he blamed her, but it was always like that, very vague. I remember one time she called me crying a lot, she was in the car, in the gym parking lot waiting for him, and saying that everything was crap, that she didn't know what to do, a complete state of agony and suffering, and I didn't understand exactly why, because she wouldn't say what was happening. And honestly, I never imagined I would hear everything she told me a few months later. In the meantime, they broke up and got back together maybe 2 or 3 times, I think, and every time they broke up again, she came back worse. I remember that for a long time, every time we talked on the phone, when I hung up, I would tell my mom that she wasn't doing well and that I needed to visit her. Clearly, she wasn't doing well, always with a sad, blank expression, as if she were out of it all the time, trying to escape from that reality.

When they went to choose the wedding venue, that was another exhausting moment she told me about. I don't remember the story very well, with all the details of that day, but I know that Rebeca was the one who paid to reserve the venue because Erick didn't have any money. Rebeca's dad was also with them that day, and he noticed that something was wrong too. If my memory serves me right, Rebeca hadn't liked the place they chose for the wedding, or it was too expensive for their budget, something like that. But, once again, Erick pushed hard, manipulated the situation, and she paid for the venue. She paid against her will because, even though I don't remember all the details, what I remember most about that day is that she wasn't satisfied, let alone happy. She also told me that when they got home, Uncle Edilson told Beca that he wanted to talk to Erick alone and that he didn't like the direction their relationship was heading. And in the end, Rebeca ended up losing the money paid for the reservation because they broke off the engagement.

Since they were from the church, they were living a holy dating and engagement period, where you can't have sexual relations before marriage. But she had already told me that it ended up happening, and up to that point I understood, we are weak after all, it's common for that to happen, it doesn't mean it's right, but sometimes it happens to church couples. What raised a red flag for me was that she told me she didn't want to do it, it ended up happening because he pushed very hard. And since we always think bad things won't happen to us or to those we love, I refused to believe that he was the one who had forced a sexual relationship.

Until at the beginning of 2025, she said she needed to tell me something, but it had to be over a phone call, so I knew something very serious was about to be said. That was when she told me that he was in prison, accused of raping his own sister, who was 9 years old. As if that devastating news weren't enough, Rebeca truly told me everything she had gone through with him, everything he had done against her. That back when they had sex, even though they weren't supposed to because of what they practiced at church, it didn't happen because she gave in after a lot of pushing and because she wanted to too, but because he forced her. And how can you admit that to someone or to yourself? Admit that your own fiancé, who in theory is the person who is supposed to love and protect you, forced you to do something you didn't want to? And it wasn't just that one time, it happened repeatedly, not only sexual assault, but physical abuse too. She told me about one time when he was stressed out and simply threw a suitcase at her, a travel suitcase.

It was devastating to hear all of that. Going through things of that level definitely changes us as a person, besides leaving unimaginable trauma. That was when I understood why she was so different, so bitter and disgusted with life. She didn't look at all like the person I knew and grew up with in Brazil.

Several times I heard and read in Rebeca's messages to me that she wanted to die, that she was trying, but it was just too hard. And a few times, she actually tried. She took a lot of pills at the same time and ended up unconscious. Luckily, she was never alone, Talita, her sister, was always with her and carried an unimaginable burden.

I followed things a bit more closely during those months he was in prison. I messaged Rebeca every day because even with her ex behind bars, he kept trying to mess with her head, talking to her as if he hadn't almost managed to end her life. I think you should consider reading the messages they exchanged while he was locked up. In fact, I remember that back then, Rebeca even blocked the number that was calling and texting her from jail, and then Erick, not satisfied, got in touch through another number, probably from another inmate.

One day she sent me a video on Instagram with funeral music that sounded like a goodbye. The video's caption said that everything was just too hard, and then she apologized, asking me to understand her reasons because she needed to go. I was desperate because I was on the other side of the world and couldn't do anything to help. I called her several times, but she wouldn't answer, I called her sister, Talita, so she could check if everything was okay, and thank God the worst didn't happen, but it came very close. And all of this happened after her relationship with her ex-fiancé, Erick.

Until at the end of 2025, I arrived in the United States. It was hard to recognize her. It was even worse to see the trail of damage her ex left behind. In one of our conversations, right after I arrived, she told me, crying, that she was so sorry for being so different, for no longer being that person full of dreams she used to be in Brazil. As the days went by, I started noticing more things, a simple run to the grocery store near her house, where she bumped into him a few times, was terrifying. It caused anxiety, it was a reason to look around all the time... once she thought she saw him, she stopped walking and talking right away and threatened to go back to the car, but when she realized it wasn't him, the tension eased a bit and we kept going. Another day we went out for a walk at Pier 39, and she saw his brother too, it completely ruined our day out, gave way to a panic attack, and we ended up leaving. Nothing related to Erick, whether it's his family, a memory, or anything else, is good for Rebeca.

Everything good that happens from now on won't change the past, but it will bring the feeling that justice still prevails and that good always wins. Because he is still out there, a person like Erick, who did so many bad things, not only to Rebeca but also to his own sister, is free out there, walking around the country, capable of making more victims. I truly hope this doesn't happen to other people, but as long as he is able to move around freely, no one will ever be safe. I'm afraid that even today he might try something against Rebeca.

Sempre foi muito fácil falar de Rebeca porque somos melhores amigas há 16 anos. Como compartilhamos uma amizade desde 2010, não só nos conhecemos como nossas famílias se conhecem também. Estudamos juntas no ensino fundamental, no ensino médio e vivíamos juntas, uma na casa da outra, passávamos férias juntas, acampamento de igreja juntas, réveillons juntas... até as senhas de e-mails e redes sociais sabíamos uma da outra, esse é o nível da nossa amizade.

Rebeca sempre foi uma menina calma, completamente amável e alegre. Nunca gostou muito de aparecer e chamar muita atenção, e é assim até hoje. Rebeca sempre foi muito determinada no que se propõe a fazer, cheia de sonhos e com muita vontade de viver e conhecer o mundo. Muito responsável também, sempre fazendo o certo, desde pequena.

Eu também sempre acompanhei antigos relacionamentos dela, claro que relacionamentos existem brigas e discussões, isso também existia com seus ex namorados. Mas nenhum foi tão devastador como esse com o Erick. Eu já a vi chorar por conta de um namoro que não tava indo tão bem como o esperado, obviamente. Mas nunca tinha visto ela perder todo seu brilho e querer tirar a própria vida por conta disso. Até o Érick entrar na vida dela.

Antes mesmo do relacionamento com o Erick começar eu e Rebeca sempre conversamos sobre o assunto, como estava o início, o que eles faziam, como estava na igreja, o que as pessoas falavam sobre a aproximação deles e etc.

Quando eles de fato começaram a namorar, por um tempo, as coisas continuaram as mesmas, nos falávamos sempre, ela me apresentou ele por chamada de vídeo. Eu estranhava um pouco, nunca acontecia conversas longas entre nos 3, eram bem rápidas, então eu não conhecia o Erick de fato, mas tudo bem... Quando ele a pediu em casamento ela me ligou, junto com ele no carro, pareciam felizes, me mostrou a aliança, eu fiquei super feliz também, já estavamos empolgadas para o casamento, mesmo eu achando que era cedo demais, afinal tinham pouco tempo de namoro, uns 7 a 8 meses só. Mas até então, para mim, não tinha nada de errado acontecendo, duas pessoas felizes, que se amam e querem construir uma família e viver juntos.

Pouco tempo depois, as ligações para mim ao lado do seu atual noivo não existiam mais, e deram lugar a ligações dela chorando, falando que estava triste, que tinha brigado com ele. Quando eu questionava as brigas, ela dizia que qualquer coisa que acontecesse de errado, ele a culpava, mas sempre assim, muito vago. Lembro de uma vez que ela me ligou chorando muito, estava no carro, no estacionamento da academia esperando por ele e dizendo que estava tudo uma merda, que ela não sabia o que fazer, um completo estado de agonia e sofrimento, e eu não entendia exatamente o porquê, porque ela não falava o que estava acontecendo. E sinceramente, nunca imaginei que iria escutar tudo que ela me disse alguns meses depois. Nesse meio tempo, eles acabaram e voltaram umas 2 ou 3 vezes eu acho, e sempre que acabavam novamente, ela voltava pior. Lembro que por muito tempo, todas as vezes que nos falávamos por telefone, quando eu desligava, eu dizia a minha mãe que ela não está bem e que eu precisava visitá-la. Claramente ela não estava bem, sempre uma expressão triste, vaga, como se estivesse fora de si o tempo inteiro, tentando fugir daquela realidade.

Quando eles foram escolher o local do casamento, também foi outro momento de desgaste que ela me relatou, eu não lembro muito bem da história, com tantos detalhes desse dia, mas sei que foi Rebeca quem pagou pela reserva do local, porque o Erick não tinha dinheiro, que o pai da Rebeca também estava com eles no dia, e que ele também percebeu que tinha alguma coisa de errada, se não me falha a memória, Rebeca não havia gostado do lugar que ele escolheram para o casamento, ou tava muito caro pra o orçamento deles, algo do tipo. Mas, mais uma vez, o Erick insistiu muito manipulou a situação, e ela pagou o local. Pagou a contra agosto, porque mesmo não lembrando de todos os detalhes, o que eu mais me lembro desse dia é que ela não estava satisfeita e muito menos feliz. Ela me contou também que ao chegar em casa tio Edilson falou para Beca, que queria conversar a sós com o Erick, e que não estava gostando do rumo que o relacionamento deles estava levando. E no fim Rebeca acabou perdendo o valor pago da reserva, porque eles acabaram o noivado.

Como eles eram da igreja, eles viviam um namoro e noivado santo, onde não se pode ter relações sexuais antes do casamento. Mas ela já havia me relatado que acabou acontecendo, e até aí eu entendi, somos fracos mesmo, é comum acontecer isso, não quer dizer que é certo, mas às vezes acontece com casais da igreja. O que me acendeu um alerta foi que ela me disse que não queria ter feito, acabou acontecendo porque ele insistiu muito. E como sempre achamos que coisas ruins não vão acontecer conosco ou com quem nós amamos, me neguei acreditar que eu era que tinha forçado uma relação sexual.

Até que no início do ano de 2025, ela disse que precisava me contar algo, mas que precisava ser por ligação, então eu sabia que algo de muito sério estava prestes a ser dito. Foi quando ela me contou que ele estava preso, acusado de estuprar a própria irmã, de 9 anos de idade. Como se não bastasse essa notícia se devastadora o suficiente, Rebeca me contou realmente tudo que havia passado com ele, tudo o que ele havia feito contra ela. Que na época em que eles transaram, mesmo não podendo por conta do que eles viviam na igreja, não aconteceu porque ela cedeu após muita insistência e porque ela queria também, mas porque ele a forçou. E como você pode admitir isso pra alguém ou para si mesma? Admitir que seu próprio noivo, que em tese é a pessoa que deve lhe amar e lhe proteger, forçou você a fazer algo que você não queria? E não foi só essa vez, acontecia repetidas vezes, não só agressão sexual, mas agressões físicas também, ela me relatou uma vez que ele estava estressado e simplesmente jogou uma mala nela, uma mala de viagem.

Foi devastador escutar tudo aquilo. Viver coisas desse nível, com certeza nos modifica como pessoa, além de deixar traumas inimagináveis. Foi aí que eu entendi o motivo dela estar tão diferente, tão amarga e desgostosa da vida. Não parecia em nada com a pessoa que eu conheci e cresci junto no Brasil.

Diversas vezes escutei e li nas mensagens de Rebeca para mim, que queria morrer, que estava tentando, mas estava muito difícil. E algumas vezes, ela de fato tentou. Tomou muitos remédios ao mesmo tempo, ficou desacordada. Por sorte ela nunca esteve só, Talita, sua irmã sempre esteve com ela, segurou uma barra inimaginável.

Acompanhei um pouco mais de perto esses meses que ele estava preso, todos os dias mandava mensagem pra Rebeca, porque mesmo o seu ex preso, ele continuava querendo mexer com a cabeça dela, falando com ela como se não tivesse quase conseguido acabar com a vida dela. Acho que vocês podem considerar ler as mensagens que eles trocavam quando ele estava preso, inclusive, eu lembro que nessa época, a Rebeca chegou a bloquear o número que ligava e mandava mensagem pra ela da cadeia, e aí o Eric não satisfeito entrou em contato através de um outro número, provavelmente de um outro preso.

Um dia ela me mandou um vídeo no instagram, com uma música fúnebre que parecia uma despedida, a legenda do vídeo dizia que estava tudo muito difícil e então se desculpava, mas pedia que eu entendesse os motivos, porque ela precisava ir. Fiquei desesperada, porque estava do outro lado do mundo, não podia fazer nada para ajudar, liguei diversas vezes pra ela, mas ela não atendi, liguei pra irmã dela, a Talita, pra ela checar se estava tudo bem, e graças a Deus o pior nao aconteceu, mas chegou bem perto. E tudo isso aconteceu depois do seu relacionamento com seu ex noivo, o Erick.

Até que no final do ano de 2025 eu cheguei nos Estados Unidos. Foi difícil reconhecê-la. Foi pior ainda ver o rastro que o ex dela deixou. Em uma das nossas conversas, assim que eu cheguei ela dizia, chorando, que sentia muito por estar tão diferente, por não ser mais aquela pessoa cheia de sonhos que era no Brasil. Com o passar dos dias fui observando mais coisas, uma ida simples ao mercado, próximo a casa dela, onde algumas vezes ela esbarrou com ele, era terrível. Causava ansiedade, era motivo de olhar ao redor o tempo inteiro... uma vez ela achou que o viu, parou na mesma hora de andar e falar e ameaçou voltar pro carro, mas quando percebeu que não era ele, a tensão aliviou um pouco e seguimos. Outro dia saímos para passear no Píer 39, e ela viu o irmão dele também, acabou completamente com o passeio, deu lugar a crise de ansiedade, e acabamos indo embora. Nada relacionado ao Erick, seja a família, uma lembrança ou qualquer outra coisas, faz bem a Rebeca.

Tudo que acontecer a partir de agora, de bom, não vai mudar o passado, mas vai trazer a sensação de que a justiça ainda prevalece, e que o bem sempre vence. Porque ele ainda está solto, uma pessoa como Erick, que fez tantas coisas ruins, não só para Rebeca mas também para a própria irmã, está livre por aí, solto no país, podendo fazer mais vítimas. Eu espero de verdade que isso não aconteça com outras pessoas, mas enquanto ele estiver podendo circular livremente, ninguém nunca vai estar seguro. Tenho medo que ainda hoje ele tente algo contra a Rebeca.

My name is Edilson Messias, and I am the father of Geiliane Rebeca Messias,

I write this letter from the bottom of my heart, as a simple father from the Northeast of Brazil who raised three daughters with a lot of hard work, love, and dedication. Today, all three of my daughters live far away from me, outside of my country, and that is already very hard for a father. But the hardest part of all is knowing that your daughter is suffering and you cannot protect her from up close. Over the last few years, I followed my daughter Geiliane's pain within a relationship that did her a lot of harm. As a father, I noticed profound changes in her. I saw my daughter lose her joy, her peace of mind, her confidence, and even her desire to experience happy moments like before. In 2024, my Geiliane started dating an American guy. At first, everything seemed very well. After just a short time dating, this guy rushed things to get married and I immediately felt uncomfortable with the rush and said I wanted to meet him in person. And so I did, I left everything behind in Brazil and went to the USA to see up close what was really happening. Over a 30-day period, I realized that this guy wasn't who he was trying to appear to be. Right away, I arranged to talk to him alone, just as two friends, and I asked him some very direct questions like: Why are you in such a rush to get married? Do you have a job to cover the expenses of a family or even a wedding party? Do your parents agree with this rushed marriage since you are so young? Among others. His answers were inconsistent and insecure, and most importantly, he wouldn't look me in the eye for even a second. I left that conversation convinced that this relationship wasn't right for my daughter. Even so, I thanked him for talking with me and told him I thought this rush to get married was a bit too hasty. I got home, talked to her, explained the situation, and said, "Cancel any date for this wedding and get to know this guy better." However, I let her make her own choice and said, "If you want to stay with this guy, you will have my blessing, but I do not agree with this relationship."

I finished my 30-day stay and returned to Brazil.

Many times I felt helpless being so far away. A father wants to hug, protect, advise, and take care of his daughter, but the distance makes everything more painful. Even so, I never stopped being by her side in prayer, in words, and trying to give her strength so she wouldn't give up on herself. Afterwards, he truly showed who he really was, and from then on it was only suffering for my daughter. She started taking antidepressants, stopped socializing with people, and I began to see my daughter dying inside.

What I desire most today is to see my daughter recover her emotional health, her peace, her dignity, and to truly smile again. No father deserves to see a daughter suffer this way.

I humbly and respectfully ask that you look at her situation with humanity and compassion.

Sincerely,
Edilson Luís Messias

Meu nome é Edilson Messias e sou pai de Geiliane Rebeca Messias,

Escrevo essa carta de coração, como um pai simples do Nordeste do Brasil, que criou três filhas com muito esforço, amor e dedicação. Hoje, minhas três filhas moram longe de mim, fora do meu país, e isso já é muito dificil para um pai. Mas o mais dificil de tudo é saber que uma filha sua está sofrendo e você não pode protegê-la de perto.Nos últimos anos, acompanhei a dor da minha filha Geiliane dentro de um relacionamento que fez muito mal a ela. Como pai, percebi mudanças profundas nela. Vi minha filha perder a alegria, a tranquilidade, a confiança e até a vontade de viver momentos felizes como antes. Em 2024 minha Geiliane iniciou um namoro com um rapaz americano, no início se parecia tudo muito bem, com pouco tempo de namoro esse rapaz apressou para casarem, eu de imediato fiquei incomodado com a pressa e falei que queria conhecê-lo pessoalmente. E assim o fiz deixei tudo no Brasil e fui até USA ver de perto o que realmente estava acontecendo, e no período de 30 dias eu percebi que esse rapaz não era aquele que tentava aparecer, e de imediato, eu marquei para conversar com ele a sós como dois amigos, e fiz algumas perguntas muito objetivas com: porque você está com tanta pressa para casar? Você tem emprego para arcar com despesas de uma família ou até mesmo de alguma festa? Os seus pais concordam com esse casamento às pressas já que você é tão jovem? E outras às respostas foram desencontradas sem segurança, e o principal não olhava nos meus olhos um segundo pelo menos. Sair daquela conversa convicto que esse relacionamento não era para a minha filha. Mesmo assim agradeci a ele por ter conversado comigo e disse que achava essa pressa para casar um tanto precipitada. Cheguei em casa conversei com ela expliquei a situação e disse desmarque qualquer data para esse casamento e conheça esse rapaz melhor. Com tudo deixei ela a vontade e disse " Se você quiser continuar com esse rapaz, você terá a minha benção, mas não eu não concordo com esse relacionamento."

Terminei minha estadia dos 30 dias e voltei ao Brasil.

Muitas vezes me senti impotente por estar tão longe. Um pai quer abraçar, proteger, aconselhar e cuidar, mas a distância torna tudo mais doloroso. Mesmo assim, nunca deixei de estar ao lado dela em oração, em palavras e tentando dar força para que ela não desistisse dela mesma. Depois ele foi se mostrando realmente quem era e daí por diante só foi sofrimento da minha filha passou a tomar anti depressivo, não se socializar com as pessoas e comecei ver minha filha morrendo viva.

O que mais desejo hoje é ver minha filha recuperar sua saúde emocional, sua paz, sua dignidade e voltar a sorrir de verdade. Nenhum pai merece ver uma filha sofrer dessa forma.

Peço com humildade e respeito que olhem para a situação dela com humanidade e compaixão.

Atenciosamente,

I met Geiliane Rebeca Messias around five and a half years ago when I started attending the same church she attended. After getting to know each other, we quickly became very close friends and have remained close ever since. Because of our friendship, I had frequent contact with her throughout the years and personally observed many changes in her emotional condition, behavior, and overall well-being during her relationship with Erick.

Rebeca has always been a very caring, calm, and genuine person. She is the type of person who is always willing to help others and put other people's needs before her own. Before her relationship with Erick, she was social, took pride in her appearance, enjoyed spending time with friends and church members, and generally seemed emotionally stable and hopeful about life.

In 2024, she began dating Erick, who also attended our church. In the beginning, he appeared to be a good guy, and Rebeca seemed genuinely happy. Although I initially had some concerns because he seemed very different from the type of partner she had always described wanting, I supported the relationship because she cared about him and appeared to be happy.

After some time, I began noticing major changes in her behavior and emotional state (everyone around us did). She became increasingly isolated and distant from people around her. She frequently appeared emotionally exhausted, discouraged, anxious, and sad. She stopped participating socially the way she used to and often avoided conversations about her personal life.

I also noticed significant changes in her physical appearance and self-care habits during that period. Rebeca gained a considerable amount of weight, stopped wearing makeup, rarely got ready anymore, and developed the habit of constantly biting her nails. Those changes were very unlike the person I had known for years. Whenever I asked her if something was wrong, she usually minimized the situation and would simply say she was tired or stressed.

During that same period, I remember she started going to doctors very frequently and trying different medications but nothing appeared to improve her condition. I remember seeing bruises on different parts of her body on more than one occasion. When I asked her about them, she would usually avoid the conversation or blame anxiety.

As time passed, her emotional condition became noticeably worse. There were multiple occasions when she called me crying uncontrollably and saying that she no longer wanted to live. I spent hours talking to her, praying with her, and trying to calm her down because I was genuinely concerned for her emotional safety. She appeared emotionally broken and severely distressed during that period.

At the time, I knew the relationship was unhealthy, but I did not fully understand the extent of what was happening behind closed doors. It was only after the relationship ended, sometime in late 2025 as far as I can remember, that she finally told me about the abuse she had experienced throughout the relationship.

Rebeca shared with me that Erick emotionally abused her constantly and physically assaulted her multiple times during the relationship. She also disclosed to me that there were several occasions in which he forced her to have sexual relations against her will. She told me that some of those incidents left her bleeding, and crying, and he showed no concern for her condition and would continue doing other activities, including playing video games, as if nothing had happened.

After learning the full extent of the abuse, many of the changes I had witnessed over time finally made sense to me.

I personally witnessed the level of fear and anxiety Rebeca carried both during and after the relationship. She was frequently afraid that Erick would come after her or harm her sister. There were periods when she was afraid to leave the house alone, and I remember times when she went weeks without sleeping properly because of fear and anxiety.

When Erick was eventually arrested, it brought a sense of relief to me and to others close to her because we were genuinely concerned for her safety and well-being. In my opinion, it was one of the first times she appeared to feel even slightly safe again.

After we discovered he was released from jail, I observed her fear return almost immediately. She became extremely anxious again, and many of us who cared about her were concerned for her safety. Even now, I can still see emotional trauma and fear affecting her life. At the same time, I have seen improvement in her emotional condition since she completely stopped having contact with him. Little by little, she began regaining some stability, peace, and hope for the future.

Based on everything I personally observed throughout those years and everything she later disclosed to me, I truly believe Rebeca suffered severe emotional, physical, and psychological abuse during that relationship.

Rebeca is a kind and honest person who deserves the opportunity to continue rebuilding her life in peace and safety. I sincerely hope she is able to fully heal from the trauma she experienced.

I am willing to answer any additional questions or provide further information if necessary.

Hello,

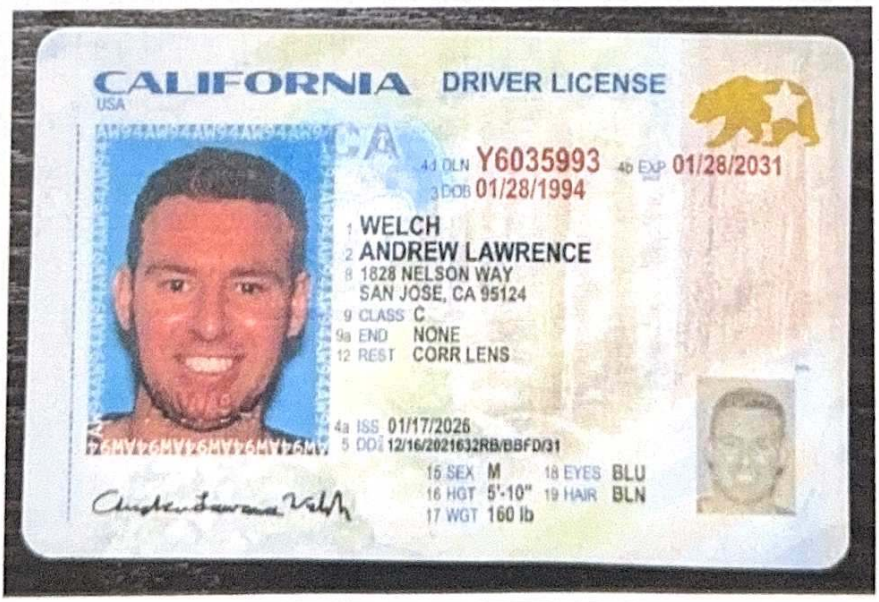
It is my pleasure to write this letter in regards to Geiliane Rebeca Messias' character. I have known Geiliane for just over a year, as she is the best friend of my wife, whom I met in January 2025. Geiliane has always been a very kind and welcoming person. The first time I met her, it was the two of us and my wife Maria getting together for church and lunch afterwards. She has a warm personality with an inviting smile, and is an easy going person who is enjoyable to be around.

Geiliane has always been a very responsible and reliable friend. I consider her honest and a person of great integrity. She is on-time and organized. She is a good listener and has been very supportive to Maria and I. Maria and I got married very recently, and Geiliane was Maria's maid of honor. She helped orchestrate a wonderful bridal shower for Maria and took great care of us in the lead up and on our wedding day to ensure it went smoothly. She is someone you can trust.

I am very appreciative to know Geiliane and to get to be friends with her. She is the kind of person who anyone would be lucky to know!

Sincerely,

Andrew Welch



To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Theresa Bella Silvestre dos Santos, born on September 27, 1993. My phone number is 808-724-2414, and my email address is mailto:theresabella.ss@gmail.com.

I am writing this statement based on my personal observations of Rebeca and my interactions with her over the past several years. I met Rebecca in 2022 after I moved to California. When I first got to know her, she was a cheerful, happy, energetic, and positive person. She was outgoing, smiled often, and always seemed excited about life and her future.

Toward the end of 2023, Rebecca began dating her former partner, Erick. Over time, I noticed changes in her behavior and personality. She seemed less like the confident and upbeat person I had known when we first met. She appeared more withdrawn and different from her usual self. In 2024, Rebeca and Erick visited my home and spent a weekend with me. During that visit, I noticed that Rebecca did not seem like the same person I had known before. She appeared uncomfortable and behaved differently than she had in the past. The interactions I observed made me concerned about her well-being and the effect the relationship was having on her.

After their relationship ended, I noticed she was still dealing with a lot of stress and trauma from the relationship but seeing her now I can tell a significant change. From my observations, she appeared to regain the happiness and confidence that I remembered when we first met. She seemed healthier, smiled more often, and appeared genuinely happier. She looked more energetic, positive, and engaged with the people around her. In my opinion, she appeared to have regained the spark and joy that had been missing while she was in that relationship.

This statement is based on my personal observations and experiences. I declare that the information provided above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Sincerely,

I-20 Activation Issue

<admissions@ccmla.edu> Fri, Oct 18, 2024 at 5:28 PM
To: <geiliane29@gmail.com>

Dear Geiliane Rebeca Messias,

I hope this message finds you well. I regret to inform you that, during a routine audit of student files, we have identified an issue with your SEVIS record related to your student transfer.

As soon as we became aware of this issue, we took immediate steps to address it, but unfortunately, after several attempts to correct the matter through SEVIS, the problem remains unresolved.

We fully understand the importance of maintaining your status and deeply regret the inconvenience this situation has caused you. While we are unable to reverse this issue directly, we would like to offer you the following options:

- Begin a process to resolve the issue through California College of Music. In this case, the process will be $470 plus any legal fees and tuition cannot be refunded.

- Pursue a resolution process with another school you have interest in. If you choose this option, we can refund any tuition paid to CCM.

We sincerely apologize for this situation and are here to assist you in every way possible. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any further questions or need support. If you have any further questions, please contact your Agent.

Sincerely,

Michelle Ishii

INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

STUDENT ATTESTATION. You should read everything on this page carefully. Be sure that you understand the terms and conditions concerning your admission and stay in the United States as a nonimmigrant student before signing the student attestation on page 1 of the Form I-20 A-B. The law provides severe penalties for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact, or using any false document in the submission of this form.

FORM I-20. The Form I-20 (this form) is the primary document to show that you have been admitted to school in the United States and that you are authorized to apply for admission to the United States in F-1 class of admission. You must have your Form I-20 with you at all times. If you lose your Form I-20, you must request a new one from your designated school official (DSO) at the school named on your Form I-20.

VISA APPLICATION. You must give this Form I-20 to the U.S. consular officer at the time you apply for a visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements). If you have a Form I-20 from more than one school, be sure to present the Form I-20 for the school you plan to attend. Your visa will include the name of that school, and you must attend that school upon entering the United States. You must also provide evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States.

ADMISSION. When you enter the United States, you must present the following documents to the officer at the port of entry: 1) a Form I-20; 2) a valid F-1 visa(unless you are exempt from visa requirements); 3) a valid passport; and 4) evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States. The agent should return all documents to you before you leave the inspection area.

REPORT TO SCHOOL NAMED ON YOUR FORM I-20 AND VISA. Upon your first entry to the United States, you must report to the DSO at the school named on your Form I-20 and your F-1 visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements). If you decide to attend another school before you enter the United States, you must present a Form I-20 from the new school to a U.S. consular officer for a new F-1 visa that names the new school. Failure to enroll in the school, by the program start date on your Form I-20 may result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

EMPLOYMENT. Unlawful employment in the United States is a reason for terminating your F-1 status and deporting you from the United States. You may be employed on campus at your school. You may be employed off-campus in curricular practical training (CPT) if you have written permission from your DSO. You may apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for off-campus employment authorization in three circumstances: 1) employment with an international organization; 2) severe and unexpected economic hardship; and 3) optional practical training (OPT) related to your degree. You must have written authorization from USCIS before you begin work. Contact your DSO for details. Your spouse or child (F-2 classification) may not work in the United States

PERIOD OF STAY. You may remain in the United States while taking a full course of study or during authorized employment after your program. F-1 status ends and you are required to leave the United States on the earliest of the following dates: 1) the program end date on your Form I-20 plus 60 days; 2) the end date of your OPT plus 60 days; or 3) the termination of your program for any other reason. Contact your DSO for details.

EXTENSION OF PROGRAM. If you cannot complete the education program by the program end date on page 1 of your Form I-20, you should contact your DSO at least 15 days before the program end date to request an extension.

SCHOOL TRANSFER. To transfer schools, first notify the DSO at the school you are attending of your plan to transfer, then obtain a Form I-20 from the DSO at the school you plan to attend. Return the Form I-20 for the new school to the DSO at that school within 15 days after beginning attendance at the new school. The DSO will then report the transfer to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). You must enroll in the new school at the next session start date. The DSO at the new school must update your registration in SEVIS.

NOTICE OF ADDRESS. When you arrive in the United States, you must report your U.S. address to your DSO. If you move, you must notify your DSO of your new address within 10 days of the change of address. The DSO will update SEVIS with your new address.

REENTRY. F-1 students may leave the United States and return within a period of five months.To return, you must have: 1) a valid passport; 2) a valid F-1 student visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements); and 3) your Form I-20, page 2, properly endorsed for reentry by your DSO. If you have been out of the United States for more than five months, contact your DSO AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE INFORMATION BY SCHOOL. DHS requires your school to provide DHS with your name, country of birth, current address, immigration status, and certain other information on a regular basis or upon request. Your signature on the Form I-20 authorizes the named school to release such information from your records.

PENALTY. To maintain your nonimmigrant student status, you must: 1) remain a full-time student at your authorized school; 2) engage only in authorized employment; and 3) keep your passport valid. Failure to comply with these regulations will result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SCHOOLS

Failure to comply with 8 CFR 214.3(k) and 8 CFR 214.4 when issuing Forms I-20 will subject you and your school to criminal prosecution. If you issue this form improperly, provide false information, or fail to submit required reports, DHS may withdraw its certification of your school for attendance by nonimmigrant students.

ISSUANCE OF FORM I-20. DSOs may issue a Form I-20 for any nonimmigrant your school has accepted for a full course of study if that person: 1) plans to apply to enter the United States in F-1 status; 2) is in the United States as an F-1 nonimmigrant and plans to transfer to your school; or 3) is in the United States and will apply to change nonimmigrant status to F-1. DSOs may also issue the Form I-20 to the spouse or child (under the age of 21) of an F-1 student to use to enter or remain in the United States as an F-2 dependent. DSOs must sign where indicated at the bottom of page 1 of the Form I-20 to attest that the form is completed and issued in accordance with regulations.

ENDORSEMENT OF PAGE 2 FOR REENTRY. If there have been no substantive changes in information, DSOs may endorse page 2 of the Form I-20 for the student and/or the F-2 dependents to reenter the United States. If there have been substantive changes, the DSO should issue and sign a new Form I-20 that includes those changes.

RECORDKEEPING. DHS may request information concerning the student's immigration status for various reasons. DSOs should retain all evidence of academic ability and financial resources on which admission was based, until SEVIS shows the student's record completed or terminated.

AUTHORITY FOR COLLECTING INFORMATION. Authority for collecting the information on this and related student forms is contained in 8 U.S.C. 1101 and 1184. The Department of State and DHS use this information to determine eligibility for the benefits requested.The law provides severe penalties for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact, or using any false document in the submission of this form.

REPORTING BURDEN. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement collects this information as part of its agency mission under the Department of Homeland Security. The estimated average time to review the instructions, search existing data sources, gather and maintain the needed data, and complete and review the collection of information is 30 minutes (.50 hours) per response. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to an information collection unless a form displays a currently valid OMB Control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: Office of the Chief Information Officer/Forms Management Branch, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. 801 I Street NW Stop 5800, Washington, DC 20536-5800.
