RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR CUSTODY REDETERMINATION AND REQUEST FOR RELEASE ON RECOGNIZANCE OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, BOND

Pursuant to section 236(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA"), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), and 8 C.F.R. §§ 1003.19 and 1236.1, the Respondent, Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira ("Ms. Bueno Ferreira"), through undersigned counsel, respectfully moves this Court to conduct a custody redetermination hearing in her case at the earliest possible date. Ms. Bueno Ferreira is currently in the custody of the Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") under INA § 236(a) at the California City Immigration Processing Center, located at 22844 Virginia Boulevard, California City, CA 93505.

A prior request for custody redetermination was submitted on Respondent's behalf but was subsequently withdrawn before the Court conducted a bond hearing or reached the merits of the request. Accordingly, the Court has not previously adjudicated Respondent's eligibility for release on bond. Because no prior bond determination was made on the merits, the requirement under 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(e) that a subsequent application be accompanied by a showing of materially changed circumstances does not apply.

Respondent was lawfully inspected and admitted to the United States as a B-2 nonimmigrant. See Exhibit 2. She has no criminal history of any kind. See Exhibit 5. She is married to a United States citizen since July 1, 2024. See Exhibit 3. She resides with her spouse at a fixed address in 1177 Market St., Apt. 919, San Francisco, CA 94103. See Exhibit 4. She has established deep ties in San Francisco and is a pillar of her community, regarded by her friends and family as an honest, reliable and generous person. See Exhibit 6. Having been inspected and admitted into the United States, and as the immediate relative spouse of a U.S. citizen, she is eligible for adjustment of status pursuant to INA § 245(a) with an immigrant visa immediately available. See Exhibits 2-3.

Because Respondent has amply demonstrated that she is neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk, Respondent respectfully requests that this Court order her release on conditional parole or, in the alternative, set bond in the statutory minimum amount of $1,500. See INA § 236(a)(2).

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND CUSTODY STATUS

Respondent is a 28-year-old native and citizen of Brazil, born December 16, 1997. See Exhibit 2.

On November 9, 2018, the United States Department of State issued Respondent a B1/B2 visitor visa, valid through November 5, 2028. On November 28, 2018, Respondent was inspected and admitted at Houston, Texas, as a B-2 nonimmigrant visitor. Her Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record No. 60110501056, reflects a class of admission of "B2" and an admit-until date of May 27, 2019. See Exhibit 2.

On July 1, 2024, Respondent married Cristopher Jermaine Davis, a United States citizen born in Oakland, California on July 22, 1984, in a ceremony celebrated in Foster City, CA. Since then, the couple has continuously resided together in a stable, supportive marriage spanning more than two years. See Exhibits 3-4.

Respondent's spouse, Mr. Davis, recently filed a Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, on Respondent's behalf, which is currently pending with USCIS. The petition is bona fide, and there are no apparent grounds for its rejection. The filing further demonstrates the couple's commitment to pursuing Respondent's lawful immigration status and their substantial interest in the outcome of these proceedings, weighing against any risk of flight. See Evidence (I-130 Packet); see also Exhibit 4 (Christopher Jermaine Davis' Letter of Support).

Respondent maintains a fixed and documented residence with her spouse at 1177 Market St., Apt. 919, San Francisco, CA 94103. The spouses have cohabited since prior to their marriage and are in the process of renewing their lease to ensure their continued shared residence upon Mrs. Bueno Ferreira's release. See Exhibits 3-4.

Despite solid records of respondent's community ties and no indication she represents any danger or flight risk or intends to fail to comply with immigration proceedings, on August 28, 2026, ICE took Respondent into custody when she was departing on a domestic flight. Respondent had not departed from, and did not arrive in, the United States; her travel was entirely domestic and within the United States. A Form I-200, Warrant for Arrest of Alien, was issued the same day. No assessment regarding her flight risk and public danger were made when deciding to take her into custody. See Exhibit 9 (Warrant of Arrest; Notice of Custody Determination). Despite the Respondent's clear request for an Immigration Judge to review that custody determination, she was never provided a custody redetermination hearing before the Immigration Court. See Exhibit 9 (Notice of Custody Determination).

Following her arrest, DHS served Respondent with a Notice to Appear (Form I-862) on August 29, 2026, charging her as removable under section 237(a)(1)(B) of the Act, as a nonimmigrant who remained in the United States beyond the period authorized. See Exhibit 9 (Notice to Appear). The Notice to Appear was filed with this Court on or about August 31, 2026, and jurisdiction over the removal proceedings vested upon that filing. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.14(a). Respondent has been detained at the California City Immigration Processing Center since August 30, 2026, and her master calendar hearing is scheduled for October 8, 2026. See Exhibit 1. Pleadings have not been taken; Respondent has admitted no factual allegation and conceded no charge, and nothing in this Motion is intended or should be construed as a concession as to removability. The relief requested here concerns custody alone, and the record of these bond proceedings is separate from the record of the removal proceedings. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(d); EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(e)(5).

Respondent has no criminal convictions and no criminal arrests, in the United States or in any other country. Background clearance certificates on both federal and state level in Brazil were issued to confirm that Respondent has no criminal record in her country of nationality. See Exhibit 5. She has never previously been placed in removal proceedings, has never been ordered removed, and has never been the subject of an in absentia order.

Respondent is detained under INA § 236(a), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), and is therefore eligible for a custody redetermination by this Court.

Respondent has continuously resided in the United States for nearly eight years, building a strong marriage with a U.S. citizen and establishing deep community ties. She has a viable path to adjustment of status and every incentive to diligently pursue it. Continued detention serves no legitimate purpose, and only causes unnecessary hardship to her American family, disrupts her supporting community, and hinders her immigration proceedings.

II. THIS COURT HAS JURISDICTION TO REDETERMINE RESPONDENT'S CUSTODY

A. Respondent Was Inspected and Admitted and Is Detained Under INA § 236(a)

8 C.F.R § 1003.19(a) provides that custody determinations made by DHS pursuant to 8 C.F.R part 1236 may be reviewed by an Immigration Judge. Accordingly, The Immigration Judge is authorized to exercise the authority in section 236 of the Act to release the alien and determine the amount of bond, if any, for such release. 8 C.F.R. § 1236.1(d)(1).

INA § 236(a), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), authorizes the detention of a noncitizen "pending a decision on whether the alien is to be removed from the United States," and expressly permits release on conditional parole or on bond of at least $1,500. As the Supreme Court has explained, "as long as the detained alien is not covered by § 1226(c), the Attorney General 'may release' the alien on 'bond … or conditional parole,'" and federal regulations provide that noncitizens detained under § 1226(a) receive bond hearings at the outset of detention. Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281, [288–89] (2018) (citing 8 C.F.R. §§ 236.1(d)(1), 1236.1(d)(1)).

Conditional parole may also be granted upon a determination by the Attorney General that such release is in the public interest. The Attorney General has delegated this authority to certain designated officials by regulation. 8 C.F.R. § 2287.5(e)(2); Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. 666, 666 (BIA 1976). Conditional parole may be identified as release on recognizance. Cf. Brief for Petitioners at 6, Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281 (2018) (No. 15-1204).

Respondent presented herself for inspection at a port of entry and was admitted as a B-2 nonimmigrant on March 29, 2024. Her Form I-94 documents that admission. See Exhibit 3. Her detention is therefore governed by INA § 236(a), and this Court has authority to redetermine its conditions. 8 C.F.R. §§ 1003.19, 1236.1. DHS's own charging document confirms as much See Exhibit 1. The NTA reflects that Respondent was "admitted to the United States at HOUSTON, TEXAS on or about November 28, 2018, as a B2 VISA nonimmigrant Visitor for Pleasure" and charges her under section 237(a)(1)(B) of the Act — a provision that, by its express terms, reaches only a noncitizen who is removable "after admission as a nonimmigrant." Id. DHS has therefore itself determined, in the very document that initiated these proceedings, that Respondent is a person who was admitted and is not an applicant for admission. This fact is undisputed.

B. Respondent Is Not an Applicant for Admission and INA § 235(b) Does Not Apply

The Board's recent decisions limiting bond eligibility have no application here. In Matter of Q. Li, 29 I&N Dec. 66 (BIA 2025), the Board held that an applicant for admission arrested while arriving in the United States is detained under INA § 235(b) and is ineligible for release on bond under INA § 236(a). In Matter of Yajure-Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025), the Board extended that reasoning to noncitizens who are present in the United States without admission.

Neither decision reaches the Respondent. She did not enter without inspection and is not an applicant for admission; she was inspected and admitted, and her Form I-94 so reflects this as does DHS's Notice to Appear. See Exhibits 2 and 9. She was not arriving in the United States when apprehended; she was within the interior of the United States, about to travel on a domestic flight. She is not a person "present in the United States without having been admitted" within the meaning of INA § 235(a)(1). She is prosecuted under INA § 237(a)(1)(B), not INA § 212, as an individual who was lawfully inspected and admitted to the United States. INA § 236(a) governs.

Nor is Respondent an "arriving alien" as that term is defined at 8 C.F.R. § 1001.1(q). The regulatory bar on custody redetermination for arriving aliens, 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(h)(2)(i)(B), is therefore inapplicable. See Matter of Q. Li, 29 I&N Dec. 66 (BIA 2025); see also Matter of Oseiwusu, 22 I&N Dec. 19, 20 (BIA 1998).

C. Respondent Is Not Subject to Mandatory Detention Under INA § 236(c)

Respondent has no criminal convictions and no criminal history. She has not been charged under any provision of INA § 236(c), and none of the categories set out at 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(h)(2)(i) applies to her. See Exhibit 1.

D. Venue Is Proper Before This Court

A request for custody redetermination is made, in order of preference, to the Immigration Court having jurisdiction over the place of detention, or the immigration court with administrative control over the case. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(c)(1). EOIR Policy Manual, Part II (Immigration Court Practice Manual), Ch. 8.3(c)(3). Respondent is detained at the California City Detention Facility, which is currently within this Court's jurisdiction. See Exhibit 1. The San Diego Immigration Court also has administrative control over her removal proceedings. Therefore, venue is proper before this Court.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Respondent is detained under INA § 236(a), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), which grants discretion to continue detention or to release a noncitizen on bond or conditional parole during the pendency of removal proceedings.

Section 236(a)(2) of the Act affords this Court two distinct means of releasing a noncitizen from custody: release on bond of at least $1,500, or release on conditional parole — the mechanism by which a noncitizen is released on her own recognizance, without the posting of a monetary bond. INA § 236(a)(2)(A)–(B), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2)(A)–(B). Conditional parole under section 236(a)(2)(B) is a distinct statutory procedure, separate from parole under section 212(d)(5)(A) of the Act. Matter of Castillo-Padilla, 25 I&N Dec. 257, 258–63 (BIA 2010).

The showing required is the same for either form of release. The respondent must demonstrate that her release "would not pose a danger to property or persons" and that she "is likely to appear for any future proceeding." 8 C.F.R. § 1236.1(c)(8). Section 236(a)(2)(B) imposes no additional requirement, and conditional parole is not conditioned on the "urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit" showing that governs parole under section 212(d)(5)(A) of the Act. See Matter of Castillo-Padilla, 25 I&N Dec. at 258–63. Where a respondent satisfies the danger and flight-risk inquiry, release on conditional parole is available to her on the same terms as release on bond.

That reading accords with the Board's longstanding view that a noncitizen "generally is not and should not be detained or required to post bond except on a finding that he is a threat to the national security or that he is a poor bail risk". Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. 666, 666 (BIA 1976) (emphasis added). Patel treats detention and the imposition of a monetary bond as two forms of the same restraint, each requiring the same predicate finding. The Board extended the national security aspect of custody determinations to include the assessment of dangerousness in the general criminal context, accounting for criminal background. See Matter of Fatahi, 26 I&N Dec. 791 (BIA 2016); see also Matter of Andrade, 19 I&N Dec. 488, 490 (BIA 1987); Matter of Drysdale, 20 I&N Dec. 815, 816−18 (BIA 1994).

The Court first determines whether the respondent has established that she is not a danger to the community; only if that showing is made does the Court proceed to assess risk of flight and the amount of bond necessary to secure her appearance. Matter of Urena, 25 I&N Dec. 140, 141 (BIA 2009).

An Immigration Judge "has broad discretion in deciding the factors that he or she may consider in custody redeterminations" and "may choose to give greater weight to one factor over others, as long as the decision is reasonable." Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. at 40. The factors that may be considered include: whether the respondent has a fixed address in the United States; her length of residence; her family ties, and whether they may entitle her to reside permanently in the United States in the future; her employment history; her record of appearance in court; her criminal record; her history of immigration violations; any attempts to flee prosecution or otherwise escape from authorities; and her manner of entry into the United States. Id.

IV. ARGUMENT

A. Respondent Is Not a Danger to the Community

There is no evidence that Respondent poses any danger to the safety of persons or property. She has no criminal convictions and no criminal arrests, in the United States or in Brazil, as confirmed by the Brazilian Background Checks. See Exhibit 5. Respondent was unable to obtain her U.S. criminal records due to her current detention. Nevertheless, the record before the Court strongly demonstrates her law-abiding conduct, including through the testimony of multiple witnesses attesting to her lack of a criminal history and outstanding moral character. See Exhibit 6.

DHS has not alleged any conduct on Respondent's part bearing on dangerousness. She has never been accused of violence, of any offense involving controlled substances, of any driving offense, or of any other conduct that has been held relevant to the danger inquiry. Cf. Matter of Siniauskas, 27 I&N Dec. 207 (BIA 2018).

Likewise, nothing in the record raises any national security concern, and DHS has made no such allegation. See Matter of Fatahi, 26 I&N Dec. at 793–94.

To the contrary, Respondent has had "a real and positive impact" on her community, making it stronger by her presence and contribution. See Exhibit 6 (Will Moraza's Letter of Support and Robert March's Letter of Support). Respondent devotes her time to uncompensated service in her church, fully committed to her faith and the community she built around it. Those who know her best describe her as a church leader, a trusted friend, and a remarkably generous and hardworking individual. See Exhibit 6. Church members and friends entrust her with the care of their children, relying on her for steadfast support during times of hardship. See Exhibit 6 (Sajan Patel's Letter of Support). In particular, she leads the Kids Team within her congregation, playing a fundamental role in providing care to these children. See Exhibit 6 (William Moraza's Letter of Support). As evidenced by the record, Respondent is unequivocally "a person of high moral character" and "a cornerstone of the community". See Exhibit 6 (Qi Hao Tan's Letter of Support).

Mr. Tan, who has known the Respondent for seven years, stated "she has never broken the law and is always quick to do the right/moral thing". See Exhibit 6 (Qi Hao Tan's Letter of Support). This impression reflects her outstanding character and cannot be construed as indicating any danger, threat, or hazard to the community.

Respondent has therefore carried her burden on the threshold question of dangerousness, and because the Government cannot present evidence to show she presents a danger to the community, the Court may proceed to consider risk of flight. Matter of Urena, 25 I&N Dec. at 141.

B. Respondent Is Not a Flight Risk

Every factor identified in Matter of Guerra weighs in Respondent's favor. 24 I&N Dec. at 40.

Family ties that may entitle Respondent to reside permanently in the United States. Respondent is married to a United States citizen. See Exhibits 3 and 7. As the spouse of a United States citizen, she is an immediate relative within the meaning of INA § 201(b). Because she was inspected and admitted, she may apply for adjustment of status under INA § 245(a), and the bar at INA § 245(c)(2) for failure to maintain lawful status does not apply to her. Guerra directs the Court to consider whether family ties "may entitle the alien to reside permanently in the United States in the future." 24 I&N Dec. at 40 – this is precisely the case before this Court.

Her spouse, a native-born U.S. citizen, has filed a Petition for Alien Relative, Form I-130, on her behalf, in order to address and confirm her eligibility for adjustment of status. See Evidence (I-130 Packet). This pending petition provides Respondent with a direct, viable path to lawful permanent residence. Rather than posing a flight risk, Respondent and her spouse are fully invested in the lawful outcome of these proceedings; absconding would directly jeopardize the very relief they are actively pursuing. Her strong marital bonds and immediate access to legal status give her every incentive to appear for all future hearings and fully abide by the law. A respondent with an active pathway to lawful permanent residence has every incentive to remain available and engaged, and none to disappear.

This is not a speculative or hypothetical avenue of relief. Respondent’s immediate family has already taken concrete steps toward regularizing her immigration status by filing a Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, on her behalf, which is currently pending with USCIS. See Evidence. Thus, unlike the speculative future eligibility cautioned against in Matter of A-L-S-, 29

I&N Dec. 794 (BIA 2026), Respondent's potential pathway to lawful permanent residence is grounded in an actual, pending petition and a bona fide marital relationship that has been established and maintained for more than two years, rather than conjectures or hypothesis. Once the I-130 is approved, a visa is immediately available to Respondent, making this a direct pathway to lawful permanent residence. The pending I-130 therefore provides an objective and concrete indication of Respondent's continued incentive to participate in these proceedings and pursue lawful status in the United States.

Respondent's ongoing detention, on the other hand, actively hinders her ability to pursue this lawful status. Detaining Respondent creates severe logistical barriers to gathering civil documents, collecting supporting evidence, executing immigration forms with counsel, complying with deadlines imposed by USCIS or appearing for interviews. Releasing Respondent is therefore vital to preserving her family unit, allowing her to assist in her own defense, and ensuring she can efficiently complete her adjustment of status process and appear for that proceeding.

Therefore, Respondent's deep family ties and steadfast commitment to the U.S. immigration process underscore both her incentive to comply with all court requirements and the necessity of her release.

Manner of entry. Respondent entered the United States lawfully, presenting herself for inspection at a port of entry on a valid B-2 visa. She did not evade inspection, did not use fraudulent documents, and did not enter surreptitiously. See Exhibit 2.

Fixed address in the United States. She resides with her spouse and a friend at 1177 Market Street, San Francisco, CA 94103, where they cohabited for nearly two years prior to her detention, and she intends to immediately resume living at this address upon her release. Proof of such joint residence is submitted herein as Exhibit 4 (Lease Agreements for 2024 through 2026). Furthermore, Respondent and Mr. Davis have just renewed this lease for another year, demonstrating their clear commitment to maintaining this home. See Exhibit 4. Therefore, Respondent has presented a stable, verifiable fixed address in the United States, underscoring both her deep and long-term ties to the community and her transparency with immigration authorities.

Length of residence. Respondent has resided continuously in the United States since November 28, 2018 – nearly eight years. See Exhibits 2 and 9. During this extensive period, she has built deep, irreversible ties to this country, anchored by her bona fide marriage to a U.S. citizen, active leadership in her faith community, and an established home. Her life is here: her home, her family, her church, and her community. This lengthy, continuous presence reflects deep integration into American society and strongly favors her release.

Community ties. Respondent is deeply embedded in the San Francisco community, where she has lived for many years and established a stable home and meaningful relationships. She has developed strong connections within her community and has consistently contributed her time and efforts to support those around her. Respondent is a committed and active member of Epic Church of San Francisco. She regularly and actively serves within the church and makes herself available to assist with church activities and events whenever needed. Through her consistent involvement and willingness to serve others, she has become a trusted and valued member of the congregation and is recognized as a leader within the church. Respondent is described as "the kind of friend" and "the kind of leader" that her community values and seeks to uphold. See Exhibit 6 (Robert March's Letter of Support). Ultimately, she is "a cornerstone of the community". See Exhibit 6 (Qi Hao Tan's Letter of Support). Her longstanding participation reflects the depth of her community ties and the meaningful life she has built in San Francisco.

Respondent has built a family for herself in the U.S.: she married Christopher Jermaine Davis, a U.S. citizen and is now an integral member of his family, playing a vital role in her 11-year-old stepdaughter's life and cherished by her mother-in-law as her own daughter. See Exhibit 3; see also Exhibit 6 (Ethel Davis' Letter of Support). She is valued as a committed, generous, and caring wife, making a positive impact on her family's life. See Exhibit 6 (Christopher Jermaine Davis' Letter of Support, Ethel Davis' Letter of Support). Ethel Davis, Respondent's mother-in-law, shared that "she has truly become part of [their] family" and is very missed since her detention, pleading for her to be reunited with them at home. See Exhibit 6 (Ethel Davis' Letter of Support). In addition, she has made her community a second family, and her absence is deeply felt by the friends and congregation members who value her presence, support, and leadership as an important member of the church. See Exhibit 6.

Ten letters of support attached as Exhibit 6 were submitted by friends, her church congregation, and family members, who have known her for years. Their accounts are consistent: Respondent is described as reliable, honest, responsible, generous, and deeply invested in the people around her, and every writer states an independent belief that she will comply with her obligations in these proceedings. Beyond those letters, members of Respondent's community have contributed to a fund organized by her spouse and her friend Qi Hao Tan, (who adopted the name Adrian Tan upon naturalization), gathering money to help her with the compliance of all her obligations regarding these immigration proceedings. See Exhibit 8 (GoFundMe Account) and 3 (Christopher Jermaine Davis' Letter of Support). Respondent has shown that she "has friends and a church community who will stand beside her and help her meet her responsibilities, including appearing for any required immigration proceeding". See Exhibit 6 (Felicity Hector-Bruder's Letter of Support). These are not the ties of a person who would disappear; they are the ties of a person with a great deal to return to.

No criminal record and no attempt to flee. Respondent has no criminal record. She has never fled prosecution, never absconded, and never concealed her whereabouts. She was located at an airport, traveling openly under her own name on a domestic flight. See Exhibit 5.

Willingness to comply with conditions of release. Respondent is prepared to comply with any conditions this Court or DHS may impose, including reporting requirements, electronic monitoring, travel restrictions, and continued residence at 1177 Market Street, Apt. 0919. Her spouse has guaranteed to provide support, supervision and assistance to help ensure her full compliance with any such requirements. See Exhibits 3 and 7. Her community has likewise offered to assist and support her throughout her immigration proceedings, further providing her with a strong network of accountability and support to ensure that she complies with all court requirements. See Exhibit 6.

Proposed obligor. Respondent's spouse, Christopher Jermaine Davis, is a United States citizen by birth and is prepared to serve as obligor and post bond. He understands that he assumes responsibility for ensuring Respondent's appearance and that the bond will be breached and the funds forfeited if Respondent fails to appear. See Exhibit 7.

D. Release Without Bond Is Appropriate in This Case

Section 236(a)(2) of the Act affords this Court two means of ordering Respondent's release: bond of at least $1,500, or conditional parole, meaning release on her own recognizance, without the posting of a monetary bond. INA § 236(a)(2)(A)–(B). The showing required is identical for both, and Respondent has made it: she is not a danger to persons or property, presents no threat to the national security, and is not a flight risk.

The Board has long held that a noncitizen "generally is not and should not be detained or required to post bond except on a finding that he is a threat to the national security or that he is a poor bail risk." Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. 666, 666 (BIA 1976) (emphasis added). Patel treats detention and the imposition of a monetary bond as two forms of the same restraint, each requiring the same predicate finding. Neither predicate is present here. Respondent has no criminal history of any kind, in the United States or in Brazil. See Exhibit 5. DHS has alleged no fact bearing on dangerousness, and has charged a single ground of removability that involves no conduct beyond remaining past an authorized stay. See Exhibit 9.

Nor is a monetary bond necessary to secure Respondent's future appearances, as her track record and deep equities already guarantee her full compliance. Respondent is actively engaging with the immigration system alongside her U.S. citizen spouse to pursue a Form I-130 petition – a vital proceeding in which she is deeply invested and has every incentive to participate. Fleeing would permanently destroy her only pathway to lawful status and is logically counter to her own interests. Anchored by a bona fide marriage, established home, and deep community ties, Respondent has every incentive to appear for all scheduled proceedings and fully comply with the law. A monetary bond is redundant where Respondent's vested legal interest and profound ties to this country already ensure her presence.

What binds Respondent to this district is not money but her deep ties to her community. Her family, her home, her church, and her closest relationships are all here, and none of them can be carried anywhere else. Respondent is prepared to accept any condition of supervision this Court or DHS may impose, including reporting requirements, electronic monitoring, travel restrictions, and continued residence at her fixed address.

Respondent therefore respectfully requests release on conditional parole pursuant to INA § 236(a)(2)(B), subject to such conditions of supervision as the Court deems appropriate.

E. Alternatively, Reasonable Bond of Not More Than $1,500 Is Appropriate

Bond is not punitive. Its function is to secure the respondent's appearance at future proceedings. Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. at 667. Where a respondent has a United States citizen spouse, a viable path to lawful status, a fixed shared residence, community ties, and no criminal history, a bond in the statutory minimum amount of $1,500 is more than sufficient. INA § 236(a)(2)(A).

A bond set beyond the means of Respondent and her proposed obligor would operate as an order of detention while serving no legitimate regulatory purpose. Thus, in the alternative, Respondent respectfully requests that the Court set bond in the minimum amount permitted by law, subject to any reasonable conditions the Court may impose.

V. CONCLUSION

Respondent entered the United States lawfully on a valid visa. She has a clear path to lawful permanent residence as the spouse of a U.S. citizen. She has already taken concrete and documented steps to pursue that relief. She has no criminal history of any kind. She has continuously lived in the United States for nearly eight years, two of which she has lived with her spouse at a fixed address. She is an active and reliable member of her congregation, regularly volunteers with children, and has become a pillar of both her faith community and the broader community in which she lives. She has every incentive to comply with immigration proceedings and no intention of absconding.

On this record, continued detention is not justified under INA § 236(a). Respondent has established that she is neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk.

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that this Court: (1) grant this Motion for Bond Redetermination; (2) schedule a custody redetermination hearing at the earliest available date; (3) upon such hearing, order Respondent released on conditional parole pursuant to INA §

236(a)(2)(B), subject to such conditions of supervision as the Court deems appropriate; (4) in the alternative, set bond in an amount not to exceed $1,500, or in the minimum amount permitted by law; and (5) grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully,

I am writing this letter with tears in my eyes because it is difficult to put into words what Isabelle means to me and what it feels like to be going through this without her.

I first met Isabelle at the birthday celebration of a close friend. From the beginning, we connected in a way that felt almost like we had known each other for much longer. Her energy was contagious, and I remember thinking her accent was so cute. We also discovered that we had the same favorite song, “Firestone” by Kygo, which is still our song today. The conversation between us came so naturally, and from that day on, we became very close.

Isa has a special way of listening to people and understanding what they are feeling, even when they do not know how to put it into words themselves. I have never known anyone as generous and loving as she is. I often tell her that sometimes it feels like a dream to be loved by someone with such a good heart.

I proposed to her at one of our favorite places, overlooking San Francisco City Hall during sunset. She was wearing a green dress and looked beautiful. I still remember the way she smiled with her eyes. Looking at her in that moment, I knew I was making one of the best decisions of my life.

I have grown so much since meeting Isa. She has helped me become a better man and has brought me closer to God. She is the kind of person who serves and cares for others without even having to think about it. She is there for her friends, for people in our church community, and for anyone she believes needs her. That is simply who she is. She has a genuinely pure heart.

Isa and I were married on July 1, 2024. Since then, we have continued building our life together. We lived together in San Francisco at the Trinity building at 1177 Market Street, and throughout our relationship we have shared our everyday routines, responsibilities, family moments, trips, and plans for our future.

It is difficult to explain everything Isa brings to my life because so much of it is found in ordinary moments that may seem small to other people. She knows how I like my coffee and can tell what kind of day I have had just by looking at my face. She reminds me to eat when I get busy, asks me to text her when I arrive somewhere safely, and sometimes saves me the last piece of something because she knows I like it.

At the end of the day, we talk about the little things—what happened at work, what we need from the grocery store, what we are going to watch before bed. None of these moments may sound extraordinary on their own, but together they are our life. They are what make our home feel like home.

I am asking with all my heart that you please consider how important Isa is to me and to my family. She has helped me grow in ways I did not fully understand I needed. She has taught me the importance of certain values and helped me strengthen my relationships with the people around me, including my relationship with my daughter.

Isa is wonderful with children, and she has always treated my daughter with so much love, patience, and care. The relationship they have means so much to me. Isa is not simply my wife. She is part of my family, my everyday life, and the future I have imagined for us. I need her here with me, and I deeply miss the emotional support, love, and stability she brings into my life. We still have so many plans for our future and for our family. The thought of losing the life we have been building together is incredibly painful.

If you allow Isa to be released, she will live with me, and I will be by her side throughout this entire process. I will support her in every way necessary, including providing housing, transportation, financial support, helping her communicate with her attorney, making sure she attends every immigration appointment and court hearing, and doing anything else that is required of us.

All of her friends and I have also started a GoFundMe page which currently has over $10k in donations, attesting to how much she is loved by her community. the funds collected are to be used to her entire immigration case (retaining counsel for representation at removal proceedings, filing of her family-based application, representation at bond proceedings and payment of bond itself).

I am also already working with an attorney to file the I-130 petition for her. I cannot explain how guilty I feel that we did not take care of this sooner. I keep thinking that we should have done it before, and now I am facing the possibility of losing the love of my life because we waited. That is something I am struggling with deeply.

I respectfully ask that you consider our marriage, the life we have built together, the support Isa has from me and from our family, and the person she is when making your decision.

Thank you for taking the time to read this declaration and for considering the very real human impact that her continued detention is having on me and our family. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Resident bears the risk of loss or delay of any payment made by mail, delivery service or Electronic Funds Transfer. Owner must receive rent payments on or before the Due Date.

   In the event of multiple Residents, roommates, or any other forms of multiple occupancy, Residents understand and agree that rent shall be paid with a single payment and that it is up to the Residents to collect individual rent dues independently in order to submit a combined single payment.

   Owner may apply any payment made by Resident to any obligation of Resident to Owner notwithstanding any dates or other direction from Resident that accompanies such payment. Any attempt by Resident to allocate a payment in any other way shall be null and void, including the use of application of a restrictive endorsement on the front or back of any check. Owner will accept rent payments only from the actual Resident(s). No third party checks will be accepted, nor shall Owner be liable to Resident in any way as a result of refusing any third party check. Should Owner elect to accept a third party check such acceptance shall not be construed as a waiver of this provision, nor shall acceptance of the third party payment be deemed as acceptance or acknowledgment of any third party or roommate as Resident of Owner. Exhibit 6 - Evidence of Community Ties

To whom it may concern,

My name is Qi Hao Tan and I am a friend of Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira and her husband Christopher Jermaine Davis. I am roommates with Isabelle and Chris and have known Isabelle for 7 years since 2019. We met as through some friend in 2019 and have been very good friends with each other since then.

Isabelle is one of the most genuine and ethical people that I know. Everyone who interacts with her is immediately impacted positively by her and she has made an incredibly positive impact on my life. I remember when I was going through a hard time with my family, she was the first one to provide helping hand and was the most empathetic person to listen to my heartache for weeks. All our shared friends sing her praises and many of them consider her to be family, including myself.

She is deeply ingrained into the community here is San Francisco. She serves at her local church 3-4 times a week, every week. She makes it a priority to serve the community there and will often drop anything she is doing if someone is in trouble or needs her help. You will see from all the letters pouring in that she is, without a doubt, a cornerstone of the community and well regarded as a person of high moral character.

From observing her over the last 7 years, she has never broken the law and is always quick to do the right/moral thing, even if it is the hard thing to do. Her care for people in her community is a joy to watch and only impressively matched by her care for those that she may not know well – which is a special trait that speak to her compassion for others.

I and many others would like her back in the community, being selfless and serving those around her as she has always done. I hope the court will allow her to continue to contribute to the rich community around her.

With all sincerity,

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Ethel Davis, and I am the mother of Chris Davis and the mother-in-law of Isabelle Bueno Ferreira.

I have known Isa for 3 years now and over time I have had the opportunity to get to know her better and to see her relationship with my son grow.

We have spent time together as a family on many occasions, including dinners at my home and at Chris and Isa's home. Through these simple moments together, I have been able to see the way they care for each other, support one another, and enjoy their life together as a couple.

Isa has always been warm and kind with me, and over time she has truly become part of our family. I consider her my daughter-in-law not only because she is married to my son, but because of the relationship we have built with each other.

From what I have personally seen, Chris and Isa have a genuine and loving marriage. They are committed to each other and have built a life together based on love, companionship, and mutual support.

I know that Isa is currently in immigration custody, and this has been a very difficult time for Chris and for our family. We all care about her very much and fully support her. If she is released, she will have her husband and family here to support her throughout this process and help her with anything she may need.

I sincerely hope that their marriage, their life together, and the strong family support Isa has around her will be taken into consideration in her case.

Sincerely,

Ethel Davis

Epic Church

September 2, 2026

Subject: Character Reference Letter for Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira (A-246934756)

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Will Moraza, and I serve as Executive Pastor of Epic Church San Francisco, located at 414 Brannan St, San Francisco, CA. I am writing this letter on behalf of Isabell Kauany Bueno Ferreira, whom I have known for close to two years through our church community. I know her well through her active service and involvement in the life of our congregation, and I am glad to speak to her character.

Isabell is one of the most faithful and dependable individuals in our church. She carries a warmth and kindness that puts everyone around her at ease, and she has consistently shown herself to be honest, responsible, and generous with her time. Rather than serving in just one area, Isabell has given herself to several: she is a regular presence on our Host Team, welcoming newcomers and guests with genuine care; she serves faithfully with our Kids Team, where parents trust her with their children week after week; and she is actively involved in our Groups Ministry, helping build authentic community among our members.

Beyond these formal ministries, Isabell has also given of her time to help our church staff organize our office and pantry, a task she took on simply because she saw a need and wanted to help — no one had to ask her twice. This example of care and service is not an exception for Isabell; it simply represents who she is. Isabell's presence has truly had a real and positive impact on our church family.

I have no reservations in saying she is a person of good moral character — honest, faithful, community-minded, and deeply caring toward others. I respectfully ask that those reviewing her case take her strong moral character, her contributions to our church and community, and the many lives she has touched into consideration as they determine the outcome of her situation. I believe our community is better because Isabell is part of it, and I hope she will have the opportunity to continue that good work among us.

Please do not hesitate to contact me directly if I can be of further help or provide any additional information.

Sincerely,

Will Moraza

Re: Isabelle Bueno Ferriera
A-246934756

To the Honorable Judge:

I am writing on behalf of my friend Isabelle, whom I have known for about a year and have come to regard as a sister. Professionally, I am an executive in the electrical construction industry and am actively involved in my church community, where I serve alongside her. In the time I have known Isabelle, what has stood out most is how consistently she encourages, serves, and builds up the people around her.

I have had the opportunity to know Isabelle across many parts of her life, including meeting friends from different backgrounds and some of her employees. Across those relationships, I have seen both the respect people have for her and the kindness and dignity with which she treats them. When I was traveling alone, before I knew her well, she welcomed me into her circle of friends without hesitation. Making people feel included is simply part of who she is.

I serve alongside Isabelle on the Host Team at our church, where she warmly welcomes longtime members and new visitors alike. She also serves with young children and has taken on greater responsibility by leading a group. Her welcoming spirit has even led our church to feature her in some of its materials. That same care extends beyond church. She has supported me through difficult situations, and when a friend needed help moving, Isabelle took time away from work, drove six hours, and helped her pack, move, and unpack. When someone needs help, Isabelle does not simply express concern—she shows up.

Perhaps the strongest example of her character is how she has responded to her current detention. Despite the uncertainty she faces, she remains concerned about the people and responsibilities she has left behind. Even while detained, she continues encouraging other women, sharing Scripture, and praying with them. In difficult circumstances, her instinct remains to care for others.

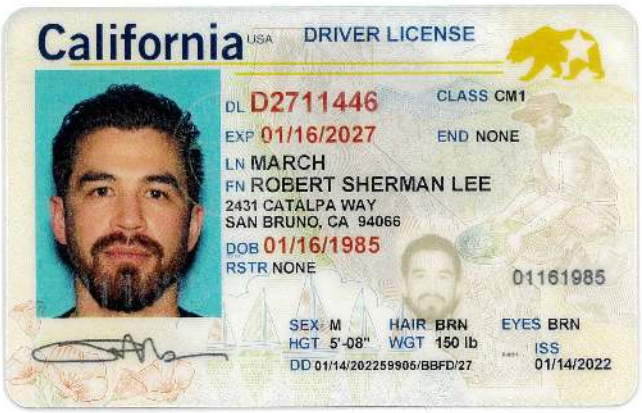

I believe Isabelle embodies values that strengthen our communities: responsibility, compassion, generosity, service, hard work, faith, and concern for one's neighbors. She does not simply participate in her community—she makes it stronger. She is the kind of friend I want in my life and the kind of leader I want in my church. I respectfully ask the Court to consider her character, service, and positive impact on those around her when considering her case.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Robert March

Re: Letter of Support for Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira
A-Number: A-246934756

Dear Immigration Judge,

My name is Felicity Hector-Bruder, and I am writing in strong support of my dear friend, Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira. I am a United States citizen and a resident of San Francisco, California.

I have had the privilege of knowing Isabelle for the past year through our local church community, Epic Church in San Francisco. Over that time, we have served together in the children's ministry, participated in book club, organized social events, and, most importantly, become friends. Through these experiences, I have come to know Isabelle as an exceptionally kind, hardworking, responsible, and generous person who is deeply committed to the people around her.

Isabelle has become an important part of our church community, particularly through the care she provides to young babies and their families. She regularly volunteers in our children's ministry and serves as a lead Sunday school teacher for the babies. One Sunday last month, we had five babies in our care when all five began crying at once. Without hesitation, Isabelle calmly picked them up two at a time, comforting them, and making sure each child was cared for. That small moment captures the Isabel I know; she sees when someone needs help and immediately steps in. I could give many examples of Sundays when she has arrived early, stayed late, or taken on an extra responsibility when someone needed her. She gives her time freely and consistently, without expecting recognition.

Isabelle has also built meaningful friendships and strong ties within our community in San Francisco. One of my favorite memories with her is celebrating the Fourth of July together this year. We took the ferry to Sausalito with some friends and spent the ferry ride talking and reflecting on freedom, our faith, and the things we value about the community we have in San Francisco. Isabelle fully participates in the lives of the people around her and she is deeply loved by many.

In every interaction I have had with Isabelle, I have known her to be peaceful, responsible, trustworthy, and respectful of others. She has a strong community here that cares about her and is ready to support her. She has friends and a church community who will stand beside her and help her meet her responsibilities, including appearing for any required immigration proceedings.

Isabelle's detention has already been deeply felt by those of us who know and love her. Her absence is felt in our church, among our friends, and by our whole community to which she has so generously given her time. I respectfully ask that you consider the strength of her character, her ties to our community, and the support system waiting for her in determining whether she may be released from detention.

Thank you for your time and careful consideration. I would be willing to provide any additional information that may be helpful, and I can be reached at 847-942-0021.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Sincerely,
Felicity Hector-Bruder

To the Honorable Judge and Whom It May Concern:

I met Isabelle in March 2026 at Epic Church in San Francisco while she was volunteering on the church's host team. From our very first interactions, I could see her kindness, compassion, and genuine care for others. She is one of those people that makes whoever she is talking to feel so seen and appreciated. We grew very close, and Isabelle has been incredibly supportive during my health struggles and relationship challenges, often offering comfort, encouragement, and prayer. I saw how skilled she was at bringing others together to grow in community and in our faith. She has a natural leadership ability that is evident in the way that she encourages others, builds meaningful relationships, and leads with compassion. I grew very close to Isabelle from the time I first met her, and through many shared experiences and memories, I came to understand just how special and wonderful she is as a person.

Isabelle is an outstanding member of our Epic Church community. She serves in the children's ministry at Epic Church, attends multiple church community groups, and looks after babies and young children with remarkable patience, care, and a motherly instinct. Isabelle also proudly welcomes and talks with new people at our church on the host team, thoughtfully connecting with people who are attending church for the first time in years, and sometimes for the very first time. I have seen Isabelle be exceptional at bridging the gap for those who are hurting or isolated and helping them find community.

Throughout the time I have known Isabelle, I have found her to be honest, trustworthy, and consistently guided by strong values. She listens attentively, shows compassion to those who are hurting, and intentionally includes people in our church and community who may feel left out. One of Isabelle's most admirable qualities is her ability to connect with people from all walks of life. Whether speaking with a longtime friend or someone she has just met, she treats others with dignity, respect, and genuine care.

I have seen Isabelle encourage people through difficult relationships and life circumstances, offering thoughtful advice, praying with those in need, and providing genuine support. Isabelle comforts so many people around her, and I have both witnessed this firsthand and experienced it in my own life. Through my friendship with Isabelle, I have also seen her natural leadership abilities. She brings people together, fosters community, and leads by example through her actions.

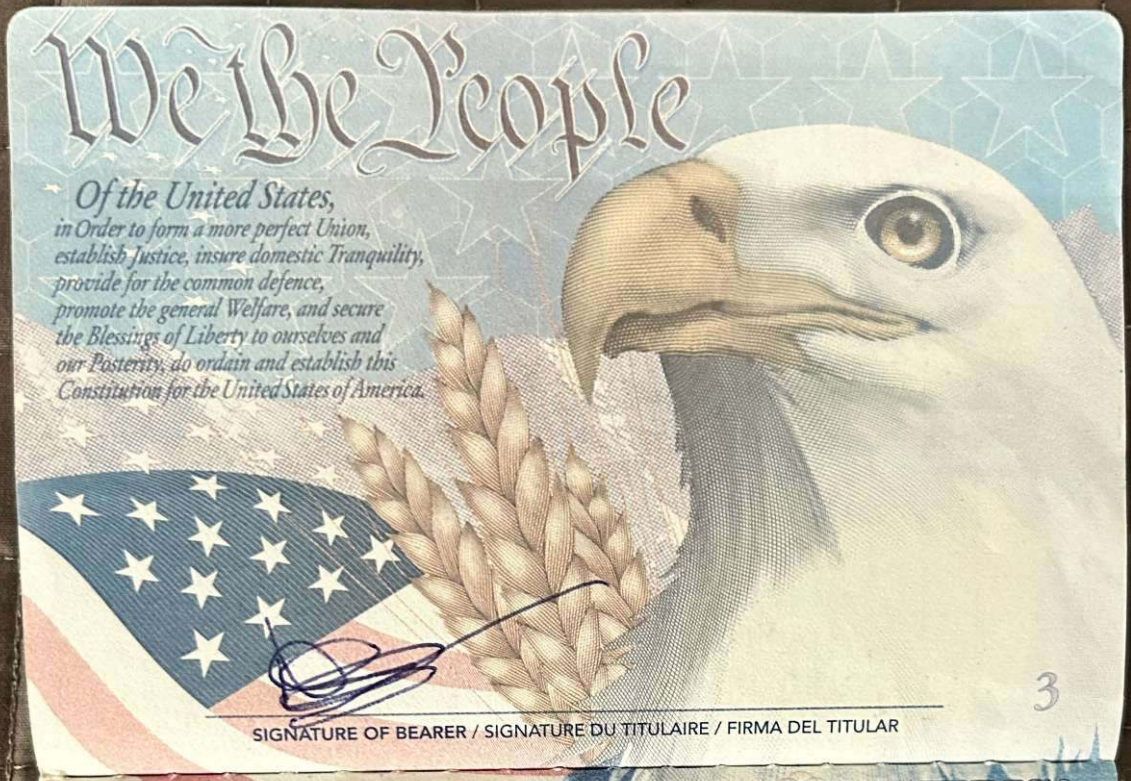

Isabelle has introduced me to people of all ages and helped me become more confident in meeting new people from different backgrounds. Some of my favorite memories with Isabelle include our park days together, where I would watch her effortlessly move between conversations and lovingly care for young children who sometimes felt left out when many adults were present. Isabelle is so kind-hearted and someone who always supports, asks how others are feeling, and offers advice and guidance without reservation or judgment. Isabelle and I have attended countless dinner gatherings, birth parties for friends, park days, celebrations for different milestones, and hangouts around the city. What I cherish the most is our one-on-one dinners together where we can laugh, share stories, and pray for one another.

Based on my experiences with Isabelle, I can confidently say that she is a person of strong moral character who contributes positively to my life, the lives of those around her, and the broader community. She is attentive to those in need, compassionate towards people she has just met, appreciates the little things in life, and is an inspiration to her friends. I hope everyone in their life has someone like her as a friend. Isabelle is an honorable and valuable member of our community here at Epic Church and in San Francisco, and overall, a wonderful human being.

Sincerely,

Nicole Montague

Re: Character Support for Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in strong support of Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira and to speak to her character and the important role she has in our community.

My wife and I have known Isabelle since 2019, when she began helping us care for our home. Over the past seven years, we have consistently found her to be kind, honest, dependable, hardworking, and trustworthy. She has always treated our family and our home with care and respect and is unfailingly warm, pleasant, and positive.

Since the birth of our son, we have also seen how wonderful Isabelle is with children. She is gentle, patient, affectionate, and genuinely caring toward him, and he is always happy to see her. As parents, there are few stronger demonstrations of trust than feeling completely comfortable having someone around your child, and we have always felt that way about Isabelle.

Isabelle is also well known and cared for within our building community. Over the years, I have seen her develop longstanding relationships with many of our neighbors and their families. Several families trust her to care for their children and to babysit, which I believe speaks strongly to her character and the trust she has earned.

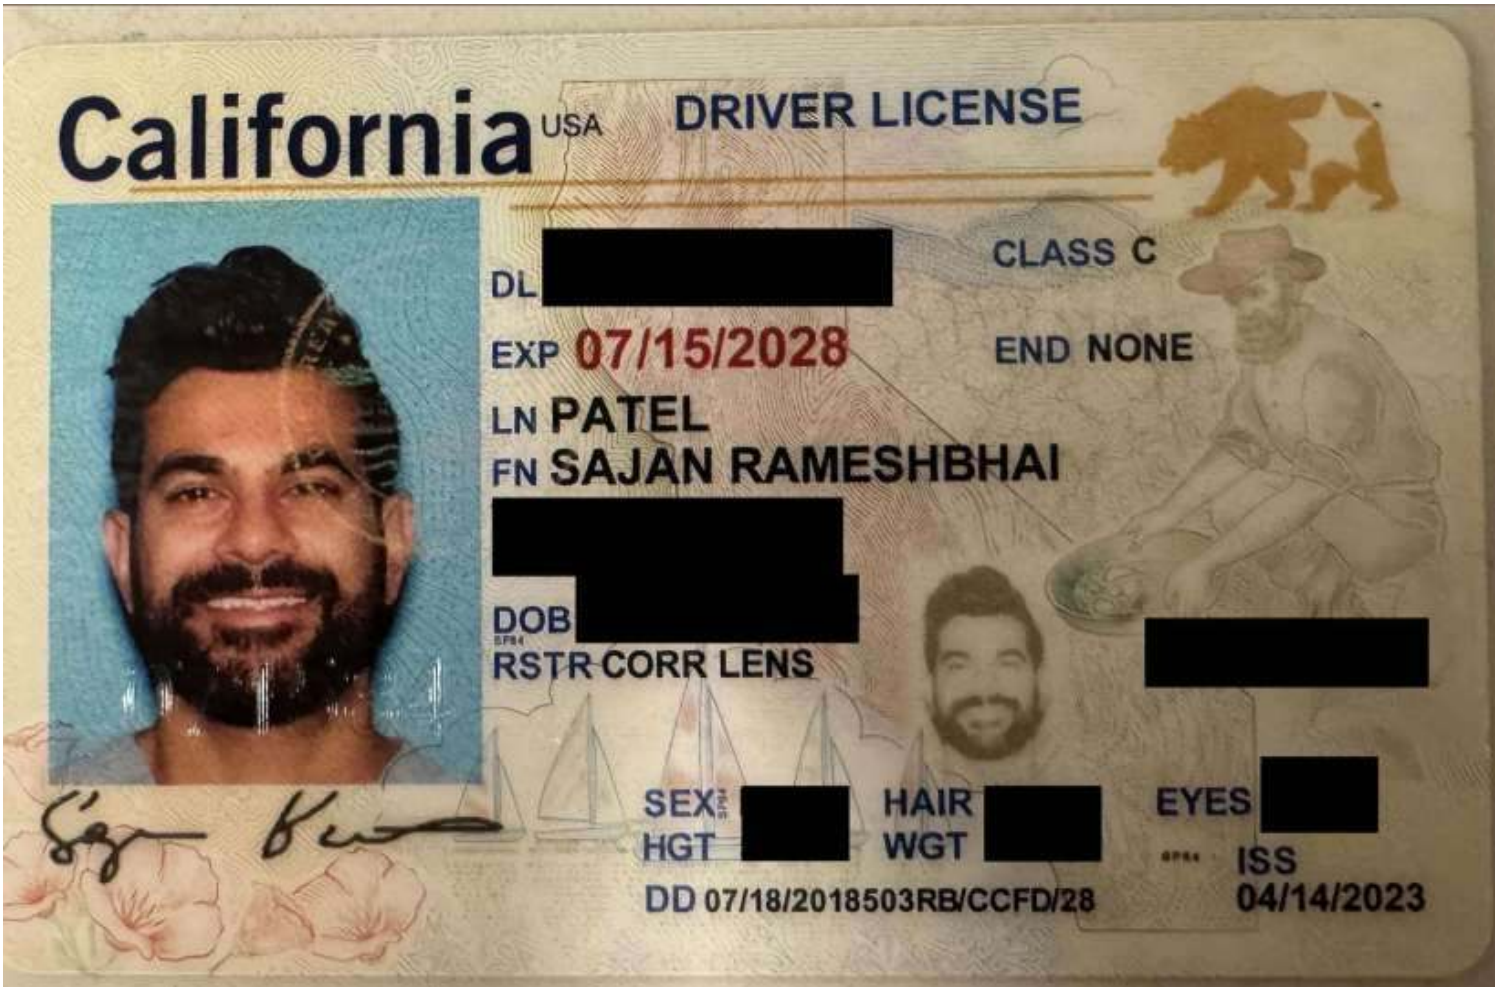

In the seven years I have known Isabelle, I have never known her to be anything other than honest, responsible, respectful, and conscientious. She is someone our family trusts and cares about very much, and she has made a genuinely positive impact on our community.

I respectfully ask that Isabelle's character, her longstanding community ties, and the support she has from the many families who know and trust her be given full consideration in connection with her immigration case.

Sincerely,

Honorable Immigration Judge

In the matter of: Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira
A-246934756

Dear Judge,

My name is Diane Helke. I am a friend and fellow church member of Isabelle Kauany Bueno Ferreira. I have know Isabelle for seven months now. We attend the same church, and we met when Isabelle joined a small church group that meets in our home.

Isabelle is new to her faith and she is dedicated to growing in that faith. She is sincerely studying the Bible, looking to learn what kind of woman God wants her to be. As part of her involvement in the church, Isabelle serves in a number of capacities. She cares for and teaches small children. She serves on the host team for Sunday mornings, and she is involved in more than one small group, actually planning to lead a group this fall. She has proven herself to be trustworthy with each task she has taken on.

As I have gotten to know Isabelle, I have found her to be a loving and caring person. When a member of our group needed help financially, Isabelle contributed to our friend's need. She also took the time to help the same friend move to Los Angeles, driving with her to LA for the actual move. She makes herself available to those around her.

I have been very impressed with Isabelle's maturity. I know Isabelle to be an asset to our community. Because of her strong character and her desire to please God. I believe Isabelle will follow every court order and make herself available for future hearings.

Thank you for your consideration,

To Whom It May Concern,

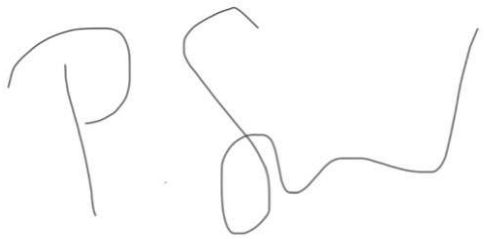

I am writing this letter in support of Isabelle Bueno Ferreira, whom I have known since March 2024.

Isabelle is a patient, hardworking, reliable, and trustworthy person. Over the time I have known her, I have come to know her as someone who is kind, dependable, and genuinely caring toward others. She is someone I have always felt comfortable around and someone I know I can count on. She has built strong relationships within her community and has earned the trust and respect of the people who know her.

I was deeply saddened and concerned to learn that Isabelle was detained. I sincerely hope that her character, contributions to her community, and the many people whose lives she positively impacts will be taken into consideration.

I respectfully ask that you consider this letter as a sincere statement of my support for Isabelle.

To Whom It May Concern,

I have known Isabelle Bueno Ferreira as a friend and member of my church since May of 2026. She has always been an incredibly kind and welcoming person every time I have interacted with her. She serves as a part of our church's Welcome Team regularly, as well as a part of the Kid's ministry, and is involved in church events with small group Bible studies and the Young Adults ministry. She is thoughtful and generous, and makes sure her friends know how much she cares about them.

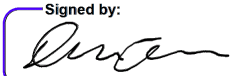

I have served at our church with her, and seen the way she welcomes people into the building on a Sunday, and stops to talk with newcomers who have questions, or don't yet know anyone. She is consistent, friendly, and finds ways to be helping always.

She is such a great friend, and has brought so much joy and positivity into my life, the life of my friends, and the church ministries she helps serve. She has made a direct positive impact by caring for others' children in our church childcare, and in welcoming people into the building. She has had a positive impact in my life by being encouraging and upbeat, and by being inquisitive and earnest in discussing our shared faith in Jesus.

Based on my experience, I believe she is a person of good moral character.

Sincerely,

Isaac Chunn

Exhibit 7 - Evidence Identifying the Obligor

DECLARATION OF CHRISTOPHER DAVIS IN SUPPORT OF REQUEST FOR BOND REDETERMINATION FOR ISABELLE BUENO FERREIRA

I, Christopher Davis, declare under penalty of perjury that the following statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I am a United States citizen and currently reside at 1177 Market St Apt 919 San Francisco Ca, 94103. I am submitting this declaration in support of ISABELLE BUENO FERREIRA, who is currently detained by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at California City Immigration Processing Center.

I am the husband of ISABELLE BUENO FERREIRA. I have known her for approximately 3 years. During that time, I have come to know ISABELLE as a responsible, hardworking, and caring person. She has strong ties to the United States through family, community, employment, and/or other meaningful connections.

Isa is a sweet family-oriented, charismatic, humble, compassionate human being that volunteers and dedicates her own time at church helping those with jobs or passing out food to families that are struggling through hard times.

I am also aware that ISABELLE is eligible for a family based visa based on our marriage and intends to continue pursuing her case in accordance with the law. I understand that she has a scheduled hearing on October 8, 2026 before the San Diego Immigration Court.

If ISABELLE is released, she will reside with me at 1177 Market St Apt 919 San Francisco Ca, 94103. I will assist her in maintaining a stable residence, attending all required immigration court hearings, ICE check-ins, appointments, and any other immigration-related proceedings or obligations.

If ISABELLE is released from custody, I am willing and able to serve as the bond obligor and to post the bond ordered by the Immigration Judge. I understand that, as the obligor, I may be required to provide the funds for the bond and comply with the applicable requirements for posting the bond.

I have the financial ability to pay the bond without relying on ISABELLE to provide the funds. The money I intend to use for the bond comes from Travis Credit Union account and GoFundMe account. I understand that the bond is intended to ensure ISABELLE compliance with the conditions of release and appearance at future immigration proceedings.

I will assist ISABELLE in complying with all requirements imposed by the Department of Homeland Security, the Immigration Court, and any other applicable authorities. In particular, I will remind her of upcoming immigration court hearings and help ensure that she has transportation or other means to appear as required.

I am willing to provide ongoing support to ISABELLE throughout her immigration proceedings.

I respectfully request that the Immigration Court grant bond to ISABELLE BUENO FERREIRA and allow her to be released while the immigration case remains pending. I am prepared to provide support, supervision, and assistance to help ensure full compliance with all immigration requirements.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.
