RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
EXECUTIVE OFFICE FOR IMMIGRATION REVIEW
IMMIGRATION COURT
800 Dolorosa Street, Suite 300
San Antonio, TX 78207

In the Matter of
Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno	File No. A. 245-961-671
In Removal Proceedings

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE

The undersigned counsel hereby respectfully moves this Court pursuant to 8 C.F.R. §1003.29 for a continuance of the Master Calendar Hearing currently scheduled for September 1, 2026, and in support states the following:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. Respondent is a native and citizen of Brazil. See Exhibit B-2.
2. She has been in the United States since entering with a J-1 nonimmigrant visa on July 01, 2019. See Exhibit B-2.
3. Respondent was placed in proceedings after an encounter with Border Patrol agents and wrongfully charged with entering the country without admission or parole. See Notice to Appear. This charge did not hold and DHS filed a Form I-261, to alter the charges of inadmissibility. Consequently, Respondent was charged as removable under 237(a)(1)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as an alien admitted as a nonimmigrant that remained in the United States for a time longer than permitted. See I-261, Additional Charges of Inadmissibility/Deportability, filed on July 6, 2026.

4. It is not disputable, thus, that Respondent was inspected and admitted into the United States. See Exhibit B-2; see also I-261, Additional Charges of Inadmissibility/Deportability.
5. Respondent is currently in removal proceedings before this Court.
6. Respondent is next scheduled for a hearing on September 1, 2026, before the San Antonio Immigration Court.
7. Respondent is married to Mauricio Lopez since July 09, 2024, who is a citizen of the United States. See Exhibit B-3.
8. Mr. Lopez is a member of the U.S. Army in active duty. See Exhibit B-4.
9. Respondent is the beneficiary of a pending I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, that was filed by her U.S. citizen spouse Mauricio Lopez and received by USCIS on August 05, 2026, as evidenced by the Receipt Notice attached hereto. See Exhibit A.
10. Although Respondent's I-130 petition has not yet been approved, there is no reason to expect that USCIS will not approve it. Respondent and her U.S. citizen spouse have been married for over two years, and the bona fides of their marriage are well-established. The I-130 petition filed by Mauricio Lopez on Respondent's behalf is therefore prima facie approvable.
11. As the spouse of a U.S. citizen, Respondent falls into the “Immediate Relative” visa category, INA § 201(b)(2)(A)(i), and as such, a visa is “immediately available” to her.
12. Lastly, because the Respondent was lawfully admitted to the United States, she is permitted to adjust her status under INA § 245(a) once the I-130 petition is approved.
13. Respondent has never committed any crimes and is not inadmissible to the United States on any other grounds. She is therefore prima facie eligible for Adjustment of Status.

STATEMENT OF LAW

Immigration courts have broad discretion to grant continuances "for good cause shown". 8 C.F.R. §1003.29.

The Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) has held that a motion to continue removal proceedings "to await the adjudication of a pending family-based visa petition should generally be granted if approval of the visa petition would render her prima facie eligible for adjustment of status". Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, 785 (BIA 2009), following Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653 (BIA 1978).

In Matter of Hashmi, the Board further set forth a non-exhaustive list of factors courts should consider when evaluating a motion to continue pending the adjudication of a visa petition, including, but not limited to: a) The DHS response to the motion; b) Whether the underlying visa petition is prima facie approvable; c) The Respondent's statutory eligibility for adjustment of status; d) Whether the Respondent's application for adjustment merits a favorable exercise of discretion; and e) The reason for the continuance and any other relevant procedural factors. 24 I&N Dec. 785 (BIA 2009).

In Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653, 657 (BIA 1978), the Board held that "discretion should, as a general rule, be favorably exercised where a prima facie approvable visa petition and adjustment application have been submitted in the course of a deportation hearing or upon a motion to reopen". The Board recognized that a respondent who is the likely beneficiary of a visa petition conferring immediate eligibility for adjustment of status should be afforded the opportunity to await the outcome of the petition before proceedings conclude. Hashmi expressly followed Garcia, reinforcing this foundational presumption. Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785 (BIA 2009).

More recently, in Matter of L-A-B-R- et al., the Board recognized that "an immigration judge should assess whether good cause supports such a continuance by applying a multifactor analysis, which requires that the immigration judge's principal focus be on the likelihood that the collateral relief will be granted and will materially affect the outcome of the removal proceedings". 27 I&N Dec. 405, at 406 (A.G. 2018). Where, as here, the pending visa petition is prima facie approvable and approval would render Respondent immediately eligible for adjustment of status, the good cause standard is plainly satisfied.

Accordingly, Respondent now addresses each of the Hashmi factors individually to demonstrate why a continuance is warranted in this case.

I. A CONTINUANCE IS WARRANTED UNDER THE HASHMI FACTORS

A. DHS Response to the Motion

Respondent respectfully requests that DHS indicate whether it opposes or does not oppose the requested continuance. There is no legitimate basis for DHS to oppose this motion. Respondent is the beneficiary of a pending I-130 petition filed by her U.S. citizen spouse, the bona fides of the marriage are well-established, and Respondent is statutorily eligible for adjustment of status as an immediate relative. Granting the continuance would promote judicial economy by allowing USCIS to complete the adjudication of a petition that, if approved, would resolve these proceedings entirely.

Should DHS affirmatively express a lack of opposition, the continuance must ordinarily be granted. Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. at 791.

Should DHS choose to oppose the motion, the Immigration Judge should not treat such opposition as dispositive. Rather, the Court must evaluate any objection in light of the totality of the circumstances, weighing the reasons for opposition against all other relevant factors. See Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. at 791; see also Badwan v. Gonzales, 494 F.3d 566, 568 (6th Cir. 2007) (stating that DHS's lack of opposition "underscores the importance of the IJ's offering a coherent explanation as to why, from the perspective of the immigration courts, the motion should be denied"). Unsupported opposition, as the Board has made clear, "does not carry much weight." Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. at 791.

B. The Underlying I-130 Is Prima Facie Approvable

As the spouse of a U.S. citizen, Respondent qualifies as an immediate relative under INA § 201(b)(2)(A)(i), meaning that a visa is immediately available upon approval of the I-130, with no numerical limitation on immigrant visas applicable to her category.

The petitioner, Mauricio Lopez, is a citizen of the United States, as evidenced by her birth certificate attached hereto as Exhibit B-1. The marriage between Respondent and Mr. Lopez took place on July 09, 2024, in San Jose, California, as evidenced by the marriage certificate attached hereto as Exhibit B-3. The marriage is bona fide, and the family relationship meets all statutory requirements for the filing of a visa petition on behalf of an immediate relative spouse, pursuant C.F.R. §§ 204.1–204.2.

Although Respondent's I-130 petition has not yet been approved, there is no reason to expect that USCIS will not approve it. Respondent and her U.S. citizen spouse have been married for over two years, and the bona fides of their marriage are well-established. See Petition for Alien Relative Packet, submitted herein as Exhibit B. The I-130 petition filed by Mauricio Lopez on Respondent's behalf is therefore prima facie approvable.

In support of this showing, Respondent submits the complete I-130 petition packet filed with USCIS as Exhibit B, and the USCIS Receipt Notice as Exhibit A. These submissions satisfy the evidentiary standard articulated by the Board in set in Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. at 791 ("respondent's request for a continuance should be supported by particularized facts and evidence, including a copy of the I-130 visa petition packet that the respondent filed with the USCIS, along with the USCIS Notice of Action (Form I-797) showing the date of receipt").

C. Respondent Is Statutorily Eligible for Adjustment of Status

Provided the I-130 is approved, Respondent intends to apply for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident pursuant to INA § 245(a). Respondent was admitted to the United States and therefore meets the threshold requirement of having been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States. Additionally, an immediate relative visa will be immediately available upon I-130 approval, satisfying the visa availability requirement under INA § 245(a)(3).

Respondent is also admissible to the United States within the meaning of INA § 212(a). Respondent does not fall within any of the grounds of inadmissibility enumerated therein. Specifically, Respondent has no disqualifying criminal history, no prior orders of removal, and no other bar to admissibility that would preclude a grant of adjustment of status.

Therefore, Respondent is statutorily eligible for adjustment of status, and all prerequisites under INA § 245(a) are satisfied or will be satisfied upon approval of the pending I-130 petition.

D. Respondent's Case Merits a Favorable Exercise of Discretion

Adjudication of this motion should begin with the presumption, established in Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653 (BIA 1978), and reaffirmed in Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, 789 (BIA 2009), that discretion should be favorably exercised to await the resolution of the underlying visa petition. The equities of Respondent's case strongly support this presumption.

i) Family Ties. Respondent is married to Mauro Lopez, a United States citizen, and their marriage is bona fide, as demonstrated by the documentation submitted with this motion. The Board has recognized that the existence of qualifying family ties in the United States weighs in favor of a favorable exercise of discretion. Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. at 793.

ii) Length of Residence. Respondent has resided in the United States since her lawful admission on July 1, 2019. Therefore, she has accrued a continued residence of over 7 years. During this time, she has established strong family and community ties that demonstrate her integration within the United States.

iii) Good Moral Character and Criminal History. Respondent has no criminal history and presents no disqualifying factors under INA § 212(a). Respondent's lack of any criminal record is an affirmative equity that weighs in favor of a favorable exercise of discretion. See Abu-Khaliel v. Gonzales, 436 F.3d 627, at 634 (6th Cir. 2006).

iv) Lawful and Law-Abiding Immigration History. Respondent entered the United States lawfully on July 1, 2019, on a J-1 nonimmigrant visa. There is no evidence of preconceived intent to immigrate at the time of her entry as a nonimmigrant. She has since taken affirmative steps toward pursuing adjustment of status through the filing of a Form I-130 petition. This factor likewise weighs in Respondent's favor. See Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. at 793 (listing immigration history, including preconceived intent, as a relevant factor).

v) The Underlying Visa Petition Is Expected to Be Resolved Shortly. The underlying Petition for Alien Relative was received on August 5, 2026, and is being processed before the Texas Service Center (SCOPS). See Receipt Notice for Form I-130, attached hereto as Exhibit A. The processing time for complete adjudication of a Petition for Alien Relative (I-130) filed by a U.S. Citizen for a spouse at a Service Center Operations (SCOPS) is of approximately 21.5 months. See U.S. Citizenship & Immigr. Servs., Case Processing Times, https://egov.uscis.gov/processing-times (last visited August 11, 2026). Against the backdrop of typical immigration processing timelines, this period is relatively short and supports the conclusion that the petition is likely to be resolved within a limited timeframe.

vi) Processing Delay Not Attributable to Respondent. The delay associated with USCIS adjudication of the pending I-130 is entirely attributable to the government's own processing timelines and docket management, not to any dilatory conduct by Respondent. As the court held in Matter of Hashmi, "Delay that is not attributable to the respondent augurs in favor of a continuance". 24 I&N Dec. at 793. Respondent has diligently pursued the adjudication of her I-130 and should not be prejudiced by institutional processing delays beyond her control.

Taken together, these equities weigh heavily in favor of a favorable exercise of discretion. See Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653 (BIA 1978); Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 793 (BIA 2009).

E. The Continuance Is Sought in Good Faith and Not for Delay

This motion is filed in good faith and solely for the purpose of allowing USCIS to complete adjudication of the pending I-130. In Matter of L-A-B-R-, 27 I&N Dec. 405 (A.G. 2018), the Attorney General identified relevant secondary factors, including the respondent's diligence in seeking collateral relief, concerns of administrative efficiency, the number of continuances previously granted, and the timing of the motion. Each factor weighs in Respondent's favor.

This is Respondent's first continuance request in these proceedings. Although Respondent has previously sought changes of venue, those requests were prompted solely by bona fide changes in her physical residence and were not intended to evade these proceedings or postpone their resolution. Respondent is married to a member of the United States Army, whose military service requires frequent deployments and changes in duty stations, and Respondent has accompanied her husband as he has been assigned to different posts. Her changes of residence therefore reflect the practical realities of her family circumstances, not an effort to manipulate or avoid the immigration process.

Indeed, Respondent has consistently demonstrated her commitment to resolving these proceedings by actively defending against the allegations and charges in her Notice to Appear, including seeking to correct material inaccuracies in the allegations and charges lodged against her, and appeared for any hearings scheduled to this moment, with a genuine interest in resolving this matter. Her continued efforts to have her case adjudicated on an accurate factual and legal record further demonstrate that she has a genuine interest in obtaining a final resolution of her proceedings, rather than prolonging them.

Respondent married her U.S. citizen spouse on July 9, 2024, prior to the commencement of removal proceedings, and he filed I-130 on her behalf as soon as the errors contained in the Notice to Appear were corrected. The petition was not filed prior to the resolvement of these issues, to avoid any inconsistencies in her immigration history that could prejudice her petition, given her NTA contradicted her I-94.

Granting the continuance is also the most administratively efficient course, as proceeding to a final hearing before USCIS adjudicates the I-130 risks duplicative proceedings that could be avoided entirely upon approval of the petition.

WHEREFORE, the Respondent respectfully requests that this Court grant the Motion to Continue the Master Calendar Hearing currently scheduled for September 1, 2026, and reset the matter to a future date to allow USCIS sufficient time to adjudicate the pending Form I-130 filed by Respondent's U.S. citizen spouse.

Respectfully,

Options Regarding Receipt of USCIS Notices and Documents

USCIS will send notices to both a represented party (the client) and his, her, or its attorney or accredited representative either through mail or electronic delivery. USCIS will send all secure identity documents and Travel Documents to the client's U.S. mailing address.

If you want to have notices and/or secure identity documents sent to your attorney or accredited representative of record rather than to you, please select all applicable items below. You may change these elections through written notice to USCIS.

1.a. ☒ I request that USCIS send original notices on an application or petition to the business address of my attorney or accredited representative as listed in this form.

1.b. ☒ I request that USCIS send any secure identity document (Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document, or Travel Document) that I receive to the U.S. business address of my attorney or accredited representative (or to a designated military or diplomatic address in a foreign country (if permitted)).

NOTE: If your notice contains Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, USCIS will send the notice to the U.S. business address of your attorney or accredited representative. If you would rather have your Form I-94 sent directly to you, select Item Number 1.c.

1.c. ☐ I request that USCIS send my notice containing Form I-94 to me at my U.S. mailing address.

Part 4. Client's Consent to Representation and Signature

Consent to Representation and Release of Information

I have requested the representation of and consented to being represented by the attorney or accredited representative named in Part 1. of this form. According to the Privacy Act of 1974 and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) policy, I also consent to the disclosure to the named attorney or accredited representative of any records pertaining to me that appear in any system of records of USCIS, ICE, or CBP.

Options Regarding Receipt of USCIS Notices and Documents

USCIS will send notices to both a represented party (the client) and his, her, or its attorney or accredited representative either through mail or electronic delivery. USCIS will send all secure identity documents and Travel Documents to the client's U.S. mailing address.

If you want to have notices and/or secure identity documents sent to your attorney or accredited representative of record rather than to you, please select all applicable items below. You may change these elections through written notice to USCIS.

1.a. ☒ I request that USCIS send original notices on an application or petition to the business address of my attorney or accredited representative as listed in this form.

1.b. ☒ I request that USCIS send any secure identity document (Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document, or Travel Document) that I receive to the U.S. business address of my attorney or accredited representative (or to a designated military or diplomatic address in a foreign country (if permitted)).

NOTE: If your notice contains Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, USCIS will send the notice to the U.S. business address of your attorney or accredited representative. If you would rather have your Form I-94 sent directly to you, select Item Number 1.c.

1.c. ☐ I request that USCIS send my notice containing Form I-94 to me at my U.S. mailing address.

INFORMAÇÕES PARA O TITULAR

Este passaporte é propriedade da República Federativa do Brasil e qualquer tentativa de adulteração o tornará inválido.

O extravio – perda, roubo ou destruição – do passaporte constitui fato grave e deve ser comunicado imediatamente à autoridade policial e à Embaixada ou ao Consulado do Brasil, conforme o caso. Para isso, recomenda-se que o titular copie as informações da página 2. Se o passaporte for entregue a pessoa ou serviço que não pertença ao Governo Brasileiro (por exemplo, para obtenção de visto, compra de passagem, etc.) e não for restituído, o titular deve considerá-lo como extraviado. A concessão de novo passaporte em substituição ao extraviado depende de investigação.

Apenas o titular do passaporte poderá usá-lo. A utilização fraudulenta ou a cessão a outra pessoa constituem crimes, pela lei brasileira. Para ressalvar sua responsabilidade, o titular deve assinar seu passaporte, no local previsto na página 3, imediatamente após recebê-lo. Este passaporte só é válido com a assinatura do titular, salvo em caso de incapacidade.

É recomendável que o brasileiro residente no exterior, ou de passagem por região conturbada, matricule-se na Embaixada ou no Consulado do Brasil mais próximo. Impossibilitado de comparecer pessoalmente, poderá comunicar-se por outro meio, fornecendo nome completo, endereço e número do passaporte.

O brasileiro que viaje por áreas conturbadas deve ter presente que a assistência do Governo Brasileiro poderá ser limitada e dependerá das autoridades locais. A contratação de seguro de viagem poderá trazer tranquilidade ao viajante e a seus familiares.

É responsabilidade do titular verificar, antes da viagem, a validade do passaporte e a necessidade de visto. O titular poderá solicitar a substituição do passaporte mesmo antes do vencimento, em vista de que muitos países exigem prazo mínimo de validade.

O menor de idade, não emancipado, viajando desacompanhado de qualquer um dos pais, ou responsável legal, só poderá sair do Brasil munido da autorização pertinente prevista em lei.

O cidadão brasileiro que tenha outra nacionalidade deve ter em conta que a assistência consular brasileira no país de que também é nacional poderá ser consideravelmente limitada.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING DD FORM 93
(See appropriate Service Directives for supplemental instructions for completion of this form at other than MEPS)

All entries explained below are for electronic or typewriter completion, except those specifically noted. If a computer or typewriter is not available, print in black or blue-black ink insuring a legible image on all copies. Include "Jr.," "Sr.," "III" or similar designation for each name, if applicable. When an address is entered, include the appropriate ZIP Code. If the member cannot provide a current address, indicate "unknown" in the appropriate item. Addresses shown as P.O. Box Numbers or RFD numbers should indicate in Item 16, "Continuations/Remarks", a street address or general guidance to reach the place of residence. In addition, the notation "See Item 16" should be included in the item pertaining to the particular next of kin or when the space for a particular item is insufficient. If the address for the person in the item has been shown in a preceding item, it is unnecessary to repeat the address; however, the name must be entered. Those items that are considered not applicable to civilians will be left blank.

ITEM 1. Enter full last name, first name, and middle initial.

ITEM 2. Enter DoD Identification Number (located on DoD Identification Card) or SSN if DoD Identification Card is not issued yet. Upon issuance of DoD Identification Card, you will need to submit a new DD Form 93 with your DoD Identification Number to protect your personally identifiable information.

ITEM 3a. Service. Military: Mark X in appropriate block.
Civilian: Mark two blocks as appropriate. Examples: an Army civilian would mark Army and either Civilian or Contractor; a DoD civilian, without affiliation to one of the Military Services, would mark DoD and then either Civilian or Contractor as appropriate.

ITEM 3b. Reporting Unit Code/Duty Station. See Service Directives.

ITEM 3c. Select marital status.

ITEM 4a. Spouse Name. Enter last name (if different from Item 1), first name and middle initial on the line provided. If single, divorced, or widowed, mark appropriate block.

ITEM 4b. Address and Telephone Number. Enter the "actual" address and telephone number, not the mailing address. Include civilian title or military rank and service if applicable. If one of the blocks in 4a is marked, leave blank.

ITEM 4c. List home, mobile, and other phone numbers as appropriate.

ITEM 4d. Provide the preferred language spoken by the spouse.

ITEM 4e. Select from the dropdown menu the DoD affiliation of the spouse, if applicable.

ITEM 5a-d. Children. Enter last name (only if different from Item 1) first name and middle initial, relationship, and date of birth of all children. If none, so state. Include illegitimate children if acknowledged by member or paternity/maternity has been judicially decreed. Relationship examples: son, daughter, stepson or daughter, adopted son or daughter or ward. Date of birth example: 19950704. For children not living with the member's current spouse, include address and name and relationship of person with whom residing in item 5d.

ITEMS 6a. and 7a. Parent Name. Last name, first name and middle initial.

ITEMS 6b. and 7b. Address and Telephone Number of Parent. If unknown or deceased, so state. Include civilian title or military rank and service if applicable. If other than biological or adoptive parent is listed, indicate relationship.

ITEMS 8a. and 9a. Parent Name (if applicable). Last name, first name and middle initial.

ITEMS 8b. and 9b. Address and Telephone Number of Step Parent (if applicable). If deceased, so state. Include civilian title or military rank and service if applicable.

ITEM 10a. Do Not Notify Person Due to Their Ill Health. Last name, first name, and middle initial. If more than one person, indicate in ITEM 16, "Continuation/Remarks.

ITEM 10b. Notify Instead. Last name, first name, and middle initial and address of person(s) to be notified in lieu of person(s) listed on this form if they are not already listed on form. If ITEM 10a. is not applicable, leave blank.

ITEM 11a. This item will be used to record the name of the person or persons, if any, other than the member's primary next of kin or immediate family, to whom information on the whereabouts and status of the member shall be provided if the member is placed in a missing status. Reference 10 USC, Section 655.

ITEM 11b. Address and telephone number of Designated Person(s).

ITEM 12. Contracting Agency and Telephone Number (Contractors only). NOT APPLICABLE to military personnel. Civilian contractors will provide the name of their contracting agency and its telephone number. Example: XYZ Electric, (703) 555-5689. The telephone number should be to the company or corporation's personnel or human resources office.

ITEM 13a. Beneficiary(ies) for Death Gratuity (Military only). Enter first name(s), middle initial, and last name(s) of the person(s) to receive death gratuity pay. A member may designate one or more persons to receive all or a portion of the death gratuity pay. The designation of a person to receive a portion of the amount shall indicate the percentage of the amount, to be specified only in 10 percent increments, that the person may receive. If the member does not wish to designate a beneficiary for the payment of death gratuity, enter "None," or if the full amount is not designated, the payment or balance will be paid as follows:

(4) To the duly appointed executor or administrator of the estate of the person;
(5) If there are none of the above, to other next of kin of the person entitled under the laws of domicile of the person at the time of the person's death. The member should make specific designations, as it expedites payment. Seek legal advice if naming a minor child as a beneficiary. If a member has a spouse but designates a person other than the spouse to receive all or a portion of the death gratuity pay, the Service concerned is required to provide notice of the designation to the spouse. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

Item 13b. Relationship. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 13c. Enter beneficiary(ies) full mailing address and telephone number to include the ZIP Code. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 13d. Show the percentage to be paid to each person. Enter 10%, 20%, 30%, up to 100% as appropriate. The sum shares must equal 100 percent. If no percent is indicated and more than one person is named, the money is paid in equal shares to the persons named. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 14a. Beneficiary(ies) for Unpaid Pay/Allowance (Military only). Enter first name(s), middle initial, last name(s) and relationship of person to receive unpaid pay and allowances at the time of death. The member may indicate anyone to receive this payment. If the member designated two or more beneficiaries, state the percentage to be paid in each in item 14c. If the member does not wish to designate a beneficiary, enter "By Law." The member is urged to designate a beneficiary for unpaid pay and allowances as payment will be made to the person in order of precedence by law (10 USC 2771) in the absence of a designation. Seek legal advice if naming a minor child as beneficiary. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 14b. Enter beneficiary(ies) full mailing address and telephone number to include the ZIP Code. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 14c. If the member designated two or more beneficiaries, state the percentage to be paid each in this section. The sum shares must equal 100 percent. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 15a. Enter the name and relationship of the Person Authorized to Direct Disposition (PADD) of your remains should you die. Persons typically selected as a PADD include: surviving spouse, blood relative of legal age, or adoptive relatives. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 15b. Address and telephone number of PADD. NOT APPLICABLE to civilians.

ITEM 16. Continuation/Remarks. Use this item for remarks or continuation of other items, if necessary. Prefix entry with the number of the item being continued; for example, 5/John J./son/19851220/321 Pecan Drive, Schertz TX 78151. Also use this item to list name, address, and relationship of other persons the member desires to be notified. Other dependents may also be listed. This block offers the greatest amount of flexibility for the member to record other important information not otherwise requested but considered extremely useful in the casualty notification and assistance process. Besides continuing information from other blocks on this form, the member may desire to include additional information such as: communication barriers, location or existence of a Will, additional private insurance information, other family member contact numbers, etc. If additional space is required, attach a supplemental sheet of standard bond paper with the information.

ITEM 17. Signature of Service Member/Civilian. Check and verify all entries and sign all copies in ink as follows: First name, middle initial, last name. Include rank, rate, or grade if applicable. May be electronically signed (see DoD Instruction 1300.18 for guidelines).

ITEM 18. Signature of Witness. Have a witness (disinterested person) sign all copies in ink as follows: First name, middle initial, last name. Include rank, rate, or grade as appropriate. A witness signature is not required for electronic versions of the DD Form 93 (see DoD Instruction 1300.18).

ITEM 19. Date the member or civilian signs the form if not already indicated in the electronic signature block. This item must be completed as an ink entry.

Dear New TRICARE Beneficiary:

Welcome to TRICARE. TRICARE is the health care program for service members and their eligible family members worldwide. TRICARE connects military hospitals and clinics with a network of civilian health care providers to offer medical, dental, and pharmacy options.

You were automatically enrolled in TRICARE Prime on 01 Jan 2025. This is because you're an active duty service member (including a Reserve Component member called to active duty for more than 30 days) or a family member. You'll have an assigned primary care manager (PCM). Your PCM will provide your routine care and refer you to TRICARE network providers for specialty care. Your PCM may be at the military hospital or clinic, or within the civilian network.

If you're an active duty service member, you must remain enrolled in TRICARE Prime. All other eligible beneficiaries have the option to change their enrollment if they're eligible for other TRICARE plans. This includes TRICARE Select. You may also be eligible to enroll in the US Family Health Plan (USFHP), a TRICARE Prime option. You must live in an area where USFHP is available. Learn more at www.tricare.mil/usfhp. If you want to change your enrollment from TRICARE Prime to TRICARE Select or USFHP, you have 90 days from the date of this letter to do so.

Your PCM is STEIN,CARL at 4158612400. If your PCM's name and phone number are missing in this letter, call TRICARE Prime Enrollment (West Region) at 888-TRIWEST (874-9378) for more information or to review other PCM options.

If you're assigned to a PCM at a military hospital or clinic, you don't have to do anything. However, if you have any health concerns, call your PCM.

If you have a civilian PCM, be sure to contact them within 30 days to establish yourself as a new patient.

To learn more about TRICARE, go to www.tricare.mil. You can also visit the TRICARE Prime Enrollment (West Region) website at www.tricare.mil/west or call 888-TRIWEST (874-9378).

Make sure you have a valid email address listed in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System. That way, you'll receive email updates from the Defense Manpower Data Center. These will direct you to milConnect to get TRICARE-related correspondence. If you'd like to receive benefits correspondence via email instead of postal mail, please go to https://idco.dmdc.osd.mil/idco. Click "Continue" in the "My Profile" option to sign up for emails.

You may also qualify to purchase vision coverage through the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP). The U.S. Office of Personnel Management offers FEDVIP. To find out about FEDVIP vision coverage options, go to www.benefeds.com.

The goal of TRICARE is the same wherever you are. It is to provide you access to the best possible health care. We look forward to serving your health care needs.

Sincerely,

Enrollment Department

Title Insurance Premiums

If you are buying both an owner's policy and a loan policy the title insurance premiums on this form might be different than the premiums on the Closing Disclosure. The owner's policy premium listed on the Closing Disclosure will probably be lower than on this form, and the loan policy premium will probably be higher. If you add the two policies' premiums on the Closing Disclosure together, however, the total should be the same as the total of the two premiums on this form.

The premiums are different on the two forms because the Closing Disclosure is governed by federal law, while this form is governed by Texas Law. The owner's policy and loan policy premiums are set by the Texas commissioner of insurance. When you buy both an owner's policy and a loan policy in the same transaction, you are charged the full premium for the owner's policy but receive a discount on the loan policy premium. Federal and Texas law differ on where the discount is shown. Texas law requires the discount to be reflected in the loan policy premium, while federal law requires the discount to be reflected in the owner's policy premium.

Title Agent:	Poise Title Company	Owner's Policy Premium	$	2,150.00

Underwriter:	AmTrust Title Insurance Company	Endorsements	$	159.45
		Other	$	0.00
		TOTAL	$	2,448.45

Of this total amount: $ 367.27 (or ____%) will be paid to the Underwriter; the Title Agent will retain $ 1,248.71 (or ____%); and the remainder of the premium will be paid to other parties as follows:

REAL ESTATE LEASE

This Lease Agreement (this "Lease") is dated 07 August 2024, by and between Zack P. Latham ("Landlord") and Mauricio Lopez and Sanara Fernanda Da Silva Bueno ("Tenants"). Subject to the terms and conditions stated below the parties agree as follows:

1. PREMISES. Landlord, in consideration of the lease payments provided in this Lease, leases to Tenant One Bed – One Bath and shared backyard, with heating oil, water/sewer are all included with the property located at 1175 Vickie Ln, Apt #D, Fairbanks, Alaska 99705. No other portion of the building (hereinafter, the Building), wherein the Premises is located is included unless expressly provided for in this Agreement.

2. TERM. The lease term will begin on 07 August 2024 ("Commencement Date") and will terminate on 31July 2025, and thereafter shall be on a month to month lease.

Tenant shall vacate the Premises upon termination of the Agreement, unless: (i) Landlord and Tenant have extended this Agreement in writing or signed a new agreement; (ii) mandated by local rent control law; or (iii) Landlord accepts Rent from Tenant (other than past due Rent), in which case a month-to-month tenancy shall be created which either party may terminate by Tenant giving Landlord written notice of at least 30 days prior to the desired termination date, or by Landlord giving Tenant written notice as provided by law. Rent shall be at a rate agreed to between Landlord & Tenant, or as allowed by law. All other terms and conditions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

3. MANAGEMENT. The Tenant is hereby notified that Zack P. Latham the property manager in charge of the Property. Should the tenant have any issues or concerns the Tenant may contact Zack P. Latham at (907) 750-5307.

4. RENT; LEASE PAYMENTS. "Rent" shall mean all monetary obligations of Tenant to Landlord under the terms of this Agreement, except the Security Deposit.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord a $1400.00 security deposit at the beginning of the lease and that will be returned to tenant upon termination of lease if no damages are present. Rent payments of $1400 payable in advance on the first day of each month, and is delinquent by the 5 day of the month and a late fee of $100.00 will be charged. Lease payments shall be made to Landlord at the address of Landlord noted in the Notices provision of this Lease which may be changed from time to time by Landlord. If tenant wishes to have a pet an additional $250 pet fee as well as a $75.00 non-refundable pet fee per month will be charged.

(b) Rent shall be paid by the following method(s):

Personal Check
Cashier's Check
Direct Deposit – Zachariah Latham
Alaska USA – Routing # 325272021
Acct # 5128338 Electronic Acct # 1700051283384

Initials: ML

If any payment is returned for non-sufficient funds or because Tenant stops payments, then, after that, (i) Landlord may, in writing, require Tenant to pay Rent in cash for three months and (ii) all future Rent shall be paid by cashier's check.

5. POSSESSION. Tenant shall be entitled to possession on the first day of the term of this Lease, and shall yield possession to Landlord on the last day of the term of this Lease, unless otherwise agreed by both parties in writing. At the expiration of the term, Tenant shall remove its goods and effects and peaceably yield up the Premises to Landlord in as good a condition as when delivered to Tenant, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

6. USE OF PREMISES/ABSENCES. Tenant shall occupy and use the Premises as a full-time residential dwelling unit. Tenant shall notify Landlord of any anticipated extended absence from the Premises not later than the first day of the extended absence.

No retail, commercial or professional use of the Premises is allowed unless the Tenant receives prior written consent of the Landlord and such use conforms to applicable zoning laws. In such case, Landlord may require Tenant obtain liability insurance for the benefit of Landlord. Landlord reserves the right to refuse to consent to such use in its sole and absolute discretion.

The failure to abide by the provisions of this section shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and is a just cause for eviction.

7. OCCUPANTS. No more than 4 person(s) may reside on the Premises unless the prior written consent of the Landlord is obtained.

This Lease and occupancy of the premises is binding, individually and severally, on each person(s) specifically named and who signs this Lease, regardless of the named person's occupancy of the Premises.

Authorized Tenants/Occupants:

Tenant may have guests on the Premises for not over 2 consecutive days or days in a calendar year, and no more than two guests per bedroom at any one time. Persons staying more than 2 consecutive days or more than 24 days in any calendar year shall NOT be considered original tenants of the Premises. Tenant must obtain the prior written approval of Landlord if an invitee of Tenant will be present at the Premises for more than 10 consecutive days in a month.

8. PETS. No pets, dogs, cats, birds, fish or other animals shall be allowed on the Premises, even temporarily or with a visiting guest, without prior written consent of Landlord. As required by law, Service Animal(s) are the only exception to this rule. If a pet has been in a Tenants apartment or allowed into the building, even temporarily (with or without Landlords permission) Tenant may be charged for cleaning, de-fleeing, deodorizing or shampooing any portion of the building or Premises at the discretion of Owner. At the time of signing this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, in trust, a deposit of $250.00, to be held and disbursed for pet damages to the Premises (if any) as provided by law. This deposit is in addition to any other security deposit stated in this Lease. Tenant will review and sign the Pet Agreement Form and Landlord will keep on file. Tenant will take pet off side walk into parking area to urinate and will pick up any feces and or poop and dispose in bag and or dumpster.

Strays shall not be kept or fed in or about the Premises. Strays can be dangerous and Owner must be notified immediately of any strays in or about the Premises.

9. KEYS. Tenant will be given 2 key(s) to the Premises and 1 mailbox key(s). If all keys are not returned to Landlord following termination of the Lease, Tenant shall be charged $10.00. Tenant is not permitted to change any lock or place additional locking devices on any door or window of the Premises without Landlords approval prior to installation. If allowed, Tenant must provide Landlord with keys to any changes lock immediately up installation.

10. LOCKOUT. If Tenant becomes locked out of the Premises, Tenant will be charged $50.00 to regain entry.

11. STORAGE. No additional storage space outside the Premises is provided or authorized by this Lease. Tenant shall not store any property in any area outside of the rented Premises at any time.

12. PARKING. This lease does include two parking spots adjacent to the building with a receptacle linked to your apartment.

13. MAINTENANCE. Landlord shall have the responsibility to maintain the Premises in reasonably good repair at all times and perform all repairs reasonably necessary to satisfy any implied warranty of habitability except that Tenant will be responsible for: Trash Except in an emergency, all maintenance and repair requests must be made in writing and delivered to Landlord or its Agent. A repair request will be deemed permission for the Landlord or its Agent to enter the Premises to perform such maintenance or repairs in accordance with ACCESS BY LANDLORD TO PREMISES herein unless otherwise specifically requested, in writing, by Tenant. Tenant may not place any unreasonable restrictions upon Landlords or Landlords Agents access or entry. Landlord shall have expectation that the Premises is in a safe and habitable condition upon entry.

14. UTILITIES AND SERVICES. . Landlord shall be responsible for all utilities (except for electric and phone/cable for the apartment) and services incurred in connection with the Premises. Tenant will keep thermostat at or below 70 degrees Fahrenheit or additional charges will apply. If heat is excessive or not working tenant will advise landlord.

15. TAXES. Taxes attributable to the Premises or the use of the Premises shall be allocated as follows:

REAL ESTATE TAXES. Landlord shall pay all real estate taxes and assessments for the Premises.

Initials: ML

PERSONAL TAXES. Landlord shall pay all personal taxes and any other charges which may be levied against the Premises which are attributable to Tenant's use of the Premises, along with all sales and/or use taxes (if any) that may be due in connection with lease payments.

16. PROPERTY INSURANCE. Tenant shall maintain casualty insurance on the Premises in an amount equal to 100 % of the full replacement value. Landlord shall be named as an insured in such policies. Tenant shall deliver appropriate evidence to Landlord as proof that adequate insurance is in force issued by companies reasonably satisfactory to Landlord. Landlord shall have the right to require that the Landlord receive notice of any termination of such insurance policies. Tenant shall also maintain any other insurance which Landlord may reasonably require for the protection of Landlord's interest in the Premises. Tenant is responsible for maintaining casualty/renters insurance on its own property.

17. OTHER. Between the months of October to April windows will remain closed except occasionally for fresh air, due to extreme temperatures, the cost of heating fuel and the potentially for extensive damage to occur (freezing pipes, etc.) A verbal warning will be given after that a $50 per incident fee will be charged. Windows can remain open momentarily between the Octobers through April months for fresh air.

18. NON-SUFFICIENT FUNDS. Tenant shall be charged $50.00 as reimbursement of the expenses incurred by Landlord for each check that is returned to Landlord for lack of sufficient funds. In addition, a check returned due to insufficient funds will be subject to any and all Late Payments provisions included in this lease. All charges will be immediately due from Tenant and failure to make immediate payment will constitute a default under the terms of this Lease.

Landlord reserves the right to demand future payments by cashier's check, money order or certified funds on all future payments in the event of a check returned for insufficient funds. Nothing in this paragraph limits other remedies available to the Landlord as a payee of a dishonored check. Landlord and Tenant agree that three returned checks in any twelve month period constitutes frequent return of checks due to insufficient funds and may be considered a just cause for eviction.

19. LATE PAYMENTS. For any payment that is not paid within 05 days after its due date, Tenant shall pay a late fee of $100.00.

20. DEFAULTS. Tenant shall be in default of this Lease if Tenant fails to fulfill any lease obligation or term by which Tenant is bound. Subject to any governing provisions of law to the contrary, if Tenant fails to cure any financial obligation within 10 days (or any other obligation within 0 days) after written notice of such default is provided by Landlord to Tenant, Landlord may elect to cure such default and the cost of such action shall be added to Tenant's financial obligations under this Lease. All sums of money or charges required to be paid by Tenant under this Lease shall be additional rent, whether or not such sums or charges are designated as "additional rent". The rights provided by this paragraph are cumulative in nature and are in addition to any other rights afforded by law.

Initials: ML

21. TERMINATION UPON SALE OF PREMISES. Not withstanding any other provision of this Lease, Landlord may terminate this lease upon 30 days' written notice to Tenant that the Premises have been sold.

22. EARLY TERMINATION CLAUSE. Reference the Alaska Landlord and Tenant Act published 01/2015, page 18 (Moving prior to the end of a lease).

23. MILITARY TERMINATION CLAUSE. In the event, the Tenant is, or hereafter becomes, a member of the United States Armed Forces on extended active duty and hereafter the Tenant receives permanent change of station orders to depart from the area where the Premises are located, or is relieved from active duty, retires or separates from the military, or is ordered into military housing, then in any of these events, the Tenant may terminate this lease upon giving thirty (30) days written notice to the Landlord. The Tenant shall also provide to the Landlord a copy of the official orders or a letter signed by the tenant's commanding officer, reflecting the change, which warrants termination under this clause. The Tenant will pay prorated rent for any days (he/she) occupy the dwelling past the first day of the month. Any security deposit will be promptly returned to the tenant, provided there are no damages to the premises.

24. DESTRUCTION OR CONDEMNATION OF PREMISES. If the Premises are partially destroyed by fire or other casualty to an extent that prevents the conducting of Tenant's use of the Premises in a normal manner, and if the damage is reasonably repairable within sixty days after the occurrence of the destruction, and if the cost of repair is less than $500.00, Landlord shall repair the Premises and a just proportion of the lease payments shall abate during the period of the repair according to the extent to which the Premises have been rendered un-rentable. However, if the damage is not repairable within sixty days, or if the cost of repair is $500.00 or more, or if Landlord is prevented from repairing the damage by forces beyond Landlord's control, or if the property is condemned, this Lease shall terminate upon twenty days' written notice of such event or condition by either party and any unearned rent paid in advance by Tenant shall be apportioned and refunded to it. Tenant shall give Landlord immediate notice of any damage to the Premises.

25. HABITABILITY. Tenant has inspected the Premises and fixtures (or has had the Premises inspected on behalf of Tenant), and acknowledges that the Premises are in a reasonable and acceptable condition of habitability for their intended use, and the agreed lease payments are fair and reasonable. If the condition changes so that, in Tenant's opinion, the habitability and rental value of the Premises are adversely affected, Tenant shall promptly provide reasonable notice to Landlord.

26. HOLDOVER. If Tenant maintains possession of the Premises for any period after the termination of this Lease ("Holdover Period"), Tenant shall pay to Landlord lease payment(s) during the Holdover Period at a rate equal to the most recent rate preceding the Holdover Period. Such holdover shall constitute a month-to-month extension of this Lease.

27. CUMULATIVE RIGHTS. The rights of the parties under this Lease are cumulative, and shall not be construed as exclusive unless otherwise required by law.

Initials: ML

28. REMODELING OR STRUCTURAL IMPROVEMENTS. Tenant shall be allowed to conduct construction or remodeling (at Tenant's expense) only with the prior written consent of the Landlord which shall not be unreasonably withheld. At the end of the lease term, Tenant shall be entitled to remove (or at the request of Landlord shall remove) any such fixtures, and shall restore the Premises to substantially the same condition that existed at the commencement of this Lease.

29. ACCESS BY LANDLORD TO PREMISES. Subject to Tenant's consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), Landlord shall have the right to enter the Premises to make inspections, provide necessary services, or show the unit to prospective buyers, mortgagees, tenants or workers. Landlord will provide 24 hour notice of its intention to enter the Premises. If Tenant has, after written notice to cease, continued to deny Owner access to the unit, as required by State law, such failure is a substantial breach of this agreement and is a just cause for eviction. However, Landlord does not assume any liability for the care or supervision of the Premises. As provided by law, in the case of an emergency, Landlord may enter the Premises without Tenant's consent. During the last three months of this Lease, or any extension of this Lease, Landlord shall be allowed to display the usual "To Let" signs and show the Premises to prospective tenants.

30. INDEMNITY REGARDING USE OF PREMISES. To the extent permitted by law, Tenant agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend Landlord from and against any and all losses, claims, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, if any, which Landlord may suffer or incur in connection with Tenant's possession, use or misuse of the Premises, except Landlord's act or negligence. Tenant hereby expressly releases Landlord and/or Agent from any and all liability for loss or damage to Tenants property or effects whether in the Premises, garage, storerooms or any other location in or about the Premises, arising out of any cause whatsoever, including but not limited to rain, plumbing leakage, fire or theft, except in the case that such damage has been adjudged to be the result of the gross negligence of Landlord, Landlords employees, heirs, successors, assignees and/or Agents.

31. ACCOMMODATION. Landlord agrees to and is committed to complying with all applicable laws providing equal housing opportunities. To ensure compliance, Landlord will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or a tenant, unless undue hardship would result. It is the applicant or tenants responsibility to make Landlord aware of any required accommodation. In writing, the individual with the disability should specify the nature and effect of the disability and any accommodation he or she needs. If after thoughtful consideration and evaluation, the accommodation is reasonable and will not impose an undue hardship, Landlord will make the accommodation. Owner reserves the right to require appropriate medical verification of the disability.

32. DANGEROUS MATERIALS. Tenant shall not keep or have on the Premises any article or thing of a dangerous, flammable, or explosive character that might substantially increase the danger of fire on the Premises, or that might be considered hazardous by a responsible insurance company, unless the prior written consent of Landlord is obtained and proof of adequate insurance protection is provided by Tenant to Landlord.

33. COMPLIANCE WITH REGULATIONS. Tenant shall promptly comply with all laws, ordinances, requirements and regulations of the federal, state, county, municipal and other authorities, and the fire insurance underwriters. However, Tenant shall not by this provision be required to make alterations to the exterior of the building or alterations of a structural nature.

34. MECHANICS LIENS. Neither Tenant nor anyone claiming through the Tenant shall have the right to file mechanics liens or any other kind of lien on the Premises and the filing of this Lease constitutes notice that such liens are invalid. Further, Tenant agrees to (1) give actual advance notice to any contractors, subcontractors or suppliers of goods, labor, or services that such liens will not be valid, and (2) take whatever additional steps that are necessary in order to keep the premises free of all liens resulting from construction done by or for the Tenant.

35. SUBORDINATION OF LEASE. This Lease is subordinate to any mortgage that now exists, or may be given later by Landlord, with respect to the Premises.

36. ASSIGNABILITY/SUBLETTING. Tenant may not assign or sublease any interest in the Premises, nor assign, mortgage or pledge this Lease. This is a blanket prohibition, meaning no replacement tenant(s) will be permitted and no additional tenant or occupant will be allowed in the Premises even if a Tenant leaves the Premises. This prohibition applies to each and every term of this Lease in regard to space leased to Tenant. Any waiver of this prohibition must be secured from the Landlord in writing, and the consent of which Landlord may withhold in its sole and absolute discretion. In the event the prohibition is invalidated or lifted, Tenant, Landlord and any subtenant or assignee agrees to be bound by each and every provision contained in this Lease.

37. NOTICE. Notices under this Lease shall not be deemed valid unless given or served in writing and forwarded by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the party at the appropriate address set forth below. Such addresses may be changed from time to time by either party by providing notice as set forth below. Notices mailed in accordance with these provisions shall be deemed received on the third day after posting.

LANDLORD:

Zack P. Latham

38. GOVERNING LAW. This Lease shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Alaska.

39. ENTIRE AGREEMENT/AMENDMENT. This Lease contains the entire agreement of the parties and there are no other promises, conditions, understandings or other agreements, whether oral or written, relating to the subject matter of this Lease. This Lease may be modified or amended in writing, if the writing is signed by the party obligated under the amendment.

Initials: ML

40. SERVICEABILITY; WAIVER. If any portion of this Lease shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable. If a court finds that any provision of this Lease is invalid or unenforceable, but that by limiting such provision it would become valid and enforceable, then such provision shall be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced as so limited. The failure of either party to enforce any provisions of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver or limitation of that party's right to subsequently enforce and compel strict compliance with every provision of this Lease.

41. TIME OF ESSENCE. Time is of the essence with respect to the execution of this Lease.

42. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE. Tenant shall execute and return a tenant estoppel certificate delivered to Tenant by Landlord or Landlord's agent within 3 days after its receipt. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be deemed Tenant's acknowledgment that the estoppel certificate is true and correct, and may be relied upon by a lender or purchaser.

43. TENANT REPRESENTATION; CREDIT. Tenant represents and warrants that all statements in Tenant's rental application are accurate. Tenant authorizes Landlord and any broker to obtain Tenant's credit report periodically during the tenancy in connection with the modification or enforcement of this Lease. Landlord may cancel this Lease (i) before occupancy begins, (ii) upon disapproval of the credit report(s), or (iii) at any time, upon discovering that information in Tenant's application is false.

44. BINDING EFFECT. The provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of both parties and their respective legal representatives, successors and assigns.

Personal Statement regarding my Relationship

To whom it may concern,

I met my husband in October 2023 through a friend, Luiz Bartow Simões, who is also stationed at the army base here in Alaska.

After 2 years of marriage, I feel complete by Maurício's side, and our relationship keeps growing stronger, and I am very happy. I cannot imagine my life without him by my side.

I met Maurício in 2023 through my friend Luiz; we were introduced through mutual friends in San Francisco, and I immediately connected with his wife Olivia's personality. Olivia has always been very attentive and patient in keeping a conversation in English with me, as she is American.

In one of my FaceTime conversations with Luiz, I asked if he knew anyone he could introduce me to, someone I could talk to and practice English with. A few weeks later, Luiz sent me a message saying he might know someone I could connect with, build a friendship with, and practice the language with. Luiz mentioned Maurício's shy personality, but described him as a serious and respectful man, a man of few words but responsible, and he also added that Maurício is descended from Mexican immigrants, and that I might feel more comfortable speaking Portuguese at some point, since his fluency in Spanish could make communication more effective.

Our first contact was on October 20, 2023.

At first, we started by exchanging text messages with basic everyday questions, such as "how is your day going?", "how was work today?", and so on.

As the week went on, we would talk more in the evenings when we were free from our daily obligations, allowing us to get to know each other better. On weekends, our online conversations became longer.

I remember our first FaceTime call as if it were yesterday, Maurício was wearing a black t-shirt, constantly fixing his hair with a shy smile, and being funny. We greeted each other and started laughing at the same time, showing a bit of shyness toward one another, but little by little the conversation began to flow. Maurício had bought Mexican food, and I had learned to make tacos for the first time with the family I had worked for as an au pair, so I explained how I was used to preparing them. It was fun because, since his family is Mexican, we were able to have a great exchange about how I had learned to prepare one of their most traditional dishes.

Maurício also told me about his day at work and that in a few weeks he would be traveling for training. I was still cooking while Maurício already had his dinner ready. As I did not want his food to get cold, I sat down at the table so we could talk, but he said it was no problem at all for me to finish what I was doing, that he would wait for me... That gesture made me admire him as a man, a gentleman, and it was then that I realized my feelings for him began to grow stronger.

When I finished cooking my dinner, I sat down to talk with Maurício and we had our first online dinner together. We talked about cultural topics, food, and favorite hobbies. I was very shy since it was the first time we were seeing each other on a video call, and I could tell he was too, but we kept talking for quite a long time. His smile was charming.

It was 8 months of online meetings. With each call, I grew more and more interested in Maurício's life, and he became more detailed and attentive as well. Before I even realized it, I was already thinking about what to wear for our online calls and feeling anxious to see Maurício and his shy smile.

Although I am more communicative, his shy yet confident nature won me over. He is a man with composure, able to hold a conversation on many subjects, yet I can still see deep in his eyes that shy side of him that never fails to bring a smile to my face.

Somehow my friendship with Maurício was building bonds, I trusted him, even without knowing him as well as I wish I had, partly due to the language barrier and the limits of a virtual connection, although he always complimented my English, saying the improvements in our communication were remarkable. We talked like old friends, and he also seemed to trust me deeply, sharing things about his life with me.

Maurício and I talked about our families, how we were raised, and how working in the army has been a great opportunity to gain many experiences. We found ourselves relating to each other and growing closer in light of the challenges life had brought us, especially the sacrifices our parents made to give us the best. I grew up with my father's family, with my paternal grandparents, aunts, and uncles. Maurício spent part of his childhood in Mexico with his mother, and around the age of 10 he came to the United States, to Denton, Texas, to live with family members. Seven years later he moved to Grapevine, where he finished high school and enlisted in the army. We both had modest means and faced many challenges, but even so, those difficulties gave us the strength to keep going and move forward in pursuit of our dreams.

During one of our dinners, I shared how I felt about having been alone for so long, and that I had ended a 7-year relationship when I decided to come to the United States to study abroad. I went through depression and was in a very difficult place, and since I was solely focused on work, I was not socializing with other people to improve my English, but only with people from the Brazilian community, as I felt more comfortable in my comfort zone due to how vulnerable I was feeling.

Maurício also opened up and told me about his last relationship, he had also dated long distance, but his move to Alaska gradually led to the end of that relationship. Connecting with someone in Alaska also turned out to be a great challenge, so he focused solely on himself, dedicating his time to training and his military career goals.

On weekends here and there, when I would visit my friends, Maurício and I would FaceTime, and through that he got to know more about the people around me. Our long-distance relationship began to feel more meaningful, and my friends always approved of Maurício.

He would always say, "I'm having really good times in our meetings and always excited for the next one." I was trying not to get my hopes up, but I thought about him all day and was always eager for our next call. When he was away for weeks at a time for training, I would feel anxious and apprehensive, knowing that the distance would be a little more complicated. I shared those feelings with my best friend, Cristiano, and little by little the anxiety faded and the distance no longer frightened me, so I decided to bring it up with Maurício.

After 4 months of online conversations, in February 2024, feeling less shy, I decided to open up and tell Maurício how I felt about us. I told him that even though I was afraid the distance might be a problem, I could no longer imagine my life without him in it, and that with every call I felt more in love, happier with every exchange, and could hardly wait to meet him in person. He said he felt the same way, that he was becoming more and more invested, and that he would very much like to have something more, and that even with the distance, he also wanted to try. It was then that we knew we were on the same page, as we were both deeply involved and considered each other much more than friends. It was during that phone call that I asked him if he would like to come visit me so we could meet in person. We were silent for a few seconds, and then Maurício lovingly said yes. Shortly after, he came to visit me in San Francisco. We spent only a few days together, as he needed to return to work, and during that trip he expressed his feelings with beautiful words, telling me how special I was becoming in his life, and asked me to be his girlfriend.

I accepted, and on February 10th we officially started dating.

Upon his return to Alaska, we grew closer and more intimate with each passing day, sharing with each other aspects of our lives, our daily routines, our desires and fears, with the certainty that there were still barriers, but even so I could watch him get ready for work, he would tell me in more detail how his weekend had gone, and I always knew when he was out with friends having a good time. I only wanted to be closer and closer to my boyfriend, wondering how that would ever be possible.

Maurício has always been very patient with me and always tells me he loves my accent. When I struggle to say something, he does not try to correct me, he says my way of speaking English is something special about me.

The last few months of our calls became more intense, the desire to be together and to truly have more contact was causing me a great deal of anxiety.

My best friend had a wonderful conversation with him over FaceTime, telling him that he should visit us more often and that we were eagerly waiting for him, and since I do not have my family nearby, he wanted to be a good friend to me and get to know Maurício better. From that point on, Maurício began asking me questions about the possibility of me having to live in Alaska, whether I would be willing to try if we truly connected, warning me about the new challenges I would face as a soldier's wife, such as when he travels for weeks at a time for training, or how cold and isolated life in Alaska can be. I knew it would not be easy, as I was not used to living in such a cold place, but I was willing to try, because I could no longer see myself with anyone other than Maurício.

Maurício was more than a boyfriend, he was, and still is, a true partner and friend, and having that kind of friendship, to me, is one of the most important things in a relationship, for it is through friendship that bonds, affection, respect, and companionship are built for a lifetime.

In March 2024, I already had in mind that Maurício would be here during the summer vacation to see each other again. We were already making plans for him to come to San Francisco, I could not have been happier knowing that Maurício would be traveling to spend his vacation with me.

In April 2024, I decided to travel to Texas, as a solar eclipse was taking place in the state and I was also curious to see the state where Maurício had grown up with his family. Unfortunately, along the route, I was stopped and detained at a checkpoint, as I was already out of status, and I received a NTA, initiating my removal proceedings. I returned to San Francisco and told Maurício everything that had happened in Texas, and he kept his word about coming to visit me during the vacation so we could talk about it in person.

In May 2024, Maurício came to visit me again, so we had a long conversation and reached the conclusion that we wanted to build a life together, but that it would not be possible with the distance, so he proposed to me, asking if I would accept living with him in Alaska. I already loved what we had from a distance, and the desire to see him, hold him, kiss him, and be by his side was overwhelming. I said yes.

My father, my stepmother, and my sister, who are the most important people in my life, were very supportive of my relationship with Maurício. They always found Maurício to be a good and very trustworthy man, having been introduced through a friend who also serves in the army.

My father was very happy for me, and since he was also overcoming a battle with cancer, this was one more reason for joy for the family. During the period when my father fell ill and throughout his treatment, Maurício was a tremendous partner and provided me with a great deal of emotional support, he showed his love by always being there to talk with me and bringing me comfort with loving words in every call.

After Maurício's trip was set, the wait and the anticipation made the days feel longer. We made all the preparations, yet our union seemed like it would never come. Until finally, on July 7, 2024, I went to pick up my future husband at the airport. My heart was racing so fast that I could barely speak, when he arrived, I stepped out of the car and we embraced each other tightly, and I cried a great deal. All I could feel was his love, as he calmed me down and telling me he was there I knew with certainty that Maurício is the man of my life, his love, his dedication, his patience, his tenderness, and everything... everything we had been through and are still going through only made our love stronger and gave us the strength to move forward, and right there were all the answers we needed to continue our story.

Our wedding was on July 9, 2024. On that day I experienced the best moments of my life with the man God placed in my path to make me happy and to prove that neither distance nor anything else can separate what He has brought together. Through so many challenges, our love prevailed, and every day we continue to make the same choice of being together. His visits to San Francisco, in the face of so many challenges that could have led him to give up on our union, were the greatest proof of love he could have given me. Maurício has been my companion, he held my hand and never let go, and we have been married for 2 years.

After my husband returned to Alaska to continue his military service, I sought guidance through friends and legal consultations, informing myself and resolving all matters of my life in California in preparation for my permanent move to Alaska in October 2024.

That period was very meaningful in our lives, as we were both eager to finally live together, he was taking care of the paperwork and getting our home ready during those 3 months after the wedding, while I was also wrapping up my responsibilities before leaving the state.

We took a short trip for our honeymoon, as our main goal was to buy a house right after we moved away from Alaska in 2026.

On our honeymoon he took me to see the northern lights, it was my birthday in September 2024, so it was the most beautiful birthday and wedding gift that God and Maurício could have given me. We knew with certainty that we made the best choice in living together now rather than waiting until the end of his military enlistment, we are one, me for him and him for me.

At first it was a great challenge, Alaska was very cold and far removed from social life, so when my husband traveled for training I would take advantage of outdoor activities, go on long walks, or drive to the nearest city to run errands and make the most of my time. Even as a married couple, we respect each other's space. I love what we have; we are so much more than husband and wife, we are friends, confidants, and deeply in love with each other.

Today I can see how much my eating habits have changed, and even though I do not like cilantro or jalapeño, I cook some dishes separately since my husband is of Mexican descent and loves that cuisine. He also continues to learn about Brazilian food and is always in the kitchen, sometimes he helps me cook, teaches me how to prepare certain dishes, and also cooks for us I especially love his quesadillas.

After living in Alaska for a while, I realized he was right, there was not much to do where we lived, but I was exactly where I wanted to be, by my husband's side, improving my English every day, and very proud to have married a soldier. This time with him has made me develop a much deeper respect for the army, and today I feel flattered to be a soldier's wife and to learn daily what the life of one is truly like, my favorite soldier, my dear husband Maurício.

I lived with Maurício in Alaska for approximately one year and three months. Despite the intense cold, the distance from family, and a routine completely different from the one I had known, we built very special memories together. We learned to face together the challenges of living in such a remote place, and also to appreciate the peace and simplicity of that chapter of our lives.

However, in June 2025, we faced the greatest difficulty of our marriage up to that point. I began experiencing severe pain and was taken to the hospital. After running tests, the doctors identified that a cyst had ruptured inside my body, causing a serious infection that had spread to other organs. I had to undergo multiple surgical procedures, was hospitalized for approximately one month, was intubated, and remained in critical condition for part of that period. Beyond the physical impact, I faced a great deal of fear, stress, and concern about the possibility of infertility due to the complications.

I felt deeply loved by Maurício throughout my recovery during such a vulnerable time in my life. My husband was present at every step, accompanying me to appointments and throughout the long hospitalization. He took care of me when I needed it most, offering support, strength, and reassurance.

In one of the most difficult moments of my life, I knew with certainty that I had chosen the right man to build a family with. I am deeply grateful to God for preserving my life and for giving me such a dedicated, loving, and present husband.

After my recovery, although I am still continuing medical follow-up, we said goodbye to Alaska in January 2026 and began a new chapter of our lives in Killeen, Texas. It was a big change: we left behind the harsh winter to live in a completely different climate. We also fulfilled an important dream by purchasing our first home, a symbol of the life we are building together.

We look to the future with hope. I plan to continue my studies, and Maurício has received a new assignment in the Army, being deployed to South Korea for approximately ten months. We know that this period will once again demand sacrifice and strength from our marriage, but we also know that we have already overcome far greater challenges. From the very beginning of our relationship we learned to face distance when necessary, maintaining our communication, our respect, and our commitment to one another.

Looking back over the past few years, I can see how much we have grown as a couple. Every challenge has strengthened our union and reinforced the certainty that we want to continue building our life together. Our greatest dream is to start a family and to keep sharing every step of our journey. Although Maurício's upcoming deployment will bring longing, I am confident that it will only strengthen our marriage even further, just as every phase we have lived through together has done.

I declare, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the foregoing is true and correct.

Sincerely,

Declaração Pessoal sobre Meu Relacionamento

A quem possa interessar,

Eu conheci meu marido em Outubro de 2023 através de um amigo Luiz Bartow Simões que também está localizado na base do exército aqui no Alasca.

Após 2 anos de casados, me sinto completa ao lado de Maurício e a nossa relação está cada vez mais sólida e estou muito feliz. Não imagino minha vida sem ele ao meu lado.

Eu conheci o Maurício em 2023, por meio do meu amigo Luiz, nos conhecemos através de amigos em comum em San Francisco e eu me identifiquei muito com a personalidade de sua esposa Olivia. Olivia sempre foi muito atenciosa e paciente para mantermos um diálogo em inglês já que é americana.

Em uma de nossas conversas entre eu e Luiz por facetime cheguei a perguntar se ele teria algum amigo para me apresentar, alguém que eu pudesse conversar e praticar inglês. Semanas depois, Luiz me enviou uma mensagem dizendo que poderia ter alguém com quem eu pudesse me identificar, fazer amizade e praticar o idioma. Luiz comentou sobre a personalidade tímida de Mauricio, porém, um homem sério e respeitoso, de poucas palavras mas responsável, também acrescentou dizendo sobre ser descendentes de imigrantes mexicanos, e que eu poderia me sentir mais confortável em falar português em algum momento pois ele sendo fluente em espanhol a comunicação poderia ser mais assertiva.

Nosso primeiro contato foi dia 20 de outubro de 2023.

Primeiramente, iniciamos enviando mensagens de texto com perguntas básicas do dia a dia como por exemplo “como está sendo o seu dia?”, “como foi o trabalho hoje?”, etc...

Ao decorrer da semana, falávamos mais no período da noite quando estávamos livres das obrigações diárias, podendo nos conhecer melhor. Já aos finais de semana, nossos encontros online se tornaram mais longos.

Lembro como se fosse hoje nosso primeiro facetime, Mauricio usava uma camiseta preta e ele estava sempre arrumando o cabelo com um sorriso tímido e sendo engraçado. Nos cumprimentamos e começamos a dar risada ao mesmo tempo, demonstramos um para o outro timidez, mas aos poucos a conversa foi fluindo. Maurício havia comprado comida mexicana e eu aprendi a fazer tacos pela primeira vez com a família que eu havia trabalhado como uma au pair, então expliquei como eu era acostumada a preparar. Foi divertido pois como sua família e mexicana nós podemos ter uma boa troca de como eu havia aprendido a fazer um dos pratos mais típicos.

Maurício também me contava como havia sido o trabalho e que em algumas semanas viajaria a treinamento. Eu estava cozinhando e Maurício já estava com o seu jantar pronto. Como eu não queria que a comida dele esfriasse, eu sentei na mesa para conversarmos, mas ele disse que não haveria problema algum em eu finalizar o que estava fazendo, que ele esperaria por mim... Aquele gesto fez com que eu o admirasse como homem, um cavalheiro, e foi então que percebi que os meus sentimentos por ele começaram a se fortalecer.

Quando terminei de cozinhar meu jantar, sentei para conversar com Maurício e tivemos o nosso primeiro jantar online. Conversamos sobre assuntos culturais, comidas, hobbies favoritos. Eu estava muito tímida por ser a primeira vez que nos víamos por chamada de vídeo, e pude perceber que ele também estava, mas ficamos ali conversando por bastante tempo. O sorriso dele era encantador.

Foram 8 meses de encontros online. A cada conversa fui me interessando mais pela vida de Maurício e ele também foi ficando mais detalhista e atencioso... quando me dei conta, já estava pensando em meu outfit para ficar online e me deixando ansiosa para ver Maurício e seu sorriso tímido.

Embora eu seja mais comunicativa, o jeito tímido e confiante dele me ganharam. Ele é um homem que tem postura, sabe conversar sobre vários assuntos, mas ainda posso ver lá no fundo dos seus olhos seu jeito tímido que me roubam sorrisos.

De alguma forma a minha amizade com Maurício foi criando laços, eu confiava nele, mesmo não o conhecendo tanto quanto eu gostaria, tanto pelo inglês e os limites da virtualidade, embora ele sempre elogiasse meu inglês, dizendo que era notável as melhorias na nossa comunicação. Conversávamos como amigos de longa data, ele também parecia confiar bastante em mim, me contando coisas sobre sua vida.

Mauricio e eu conversávamos sobre nossas famílias, como fomos educados, como está sendo uma grande oportunidade trabalhar no exército e adquirir muitas experiências. Fomos nos identificando e nos tornando cada vez mais ligados diante dos desafios que a vida nos trouxe, principalmente os desafios de nossos pais para nos oferecermos o melhor. Eu cresci com a família do meu pai, com meus avós e tias e tios paternos. Maurício passou parte de sua vida no México quando criança com a mãe, por volta dos 10 anos de idade veio para os estados unidos em Denton Texas para viver com os familiares e após 7 anos se mudou para Grapevine, onde finalizou o high school e se alistou para o exército. Nós tivemos recursos básicos e com muitos desafios, mas ainda assim as dificuldades fizeram com que tivéssemos forças para continuar e seguir adiante para realizarmos nossos sonhos.

Durante um dos nossos jantares, compartilhei como me sentia em relação a estar a tanto tempo sozinha, que havia finalizado um relacionamento de 7 anos quando resolvi vir para os Estados Unidos para fazer intercâmbio. Eu tive depressão e fiquei muito mal e como estava apenas focando no trabalho não me socializava com outras pessoas para aprimorar o inglês, somente com pessoas da comunidade brasileira por me sentir na minha zona de conforto por estar muito fragilizada.

Maurício também se abriu e me contou sobre seu último relacionamento, que também namorou a distância, mas sua mudança para o Alasca fez com que pouco a pouco o relacionamento chegasse ao final. Se conectar no Alasca com alguém também acabou sendo um grande desafio e apenas focou em si mesmo dedicando-se nos treinamentos e objetivos de sua carreira militar.

Entre um e outro final de semana, quando eu ia visitar meus amigos, eu e Maurício fazíamos facetime e assim ele foi conhecendo mais sobre as pessoas ao meu redor e o nosso relacionamento a distância foi começando a fazer mais sentido e meus amigos sempre aprovaram o Maurício.

Ele sempre dizia “I’m having really good times in our meetings and always excited for the next one”. Eu estava tentando não criar expectativas, mas pensava nele o dia todo e estava sempre ansiosa para a nossa próxima ligação. Quando ele ficava por semanas em treinamento, eu ficava ansiosa e com receio, pois sabia que a distância seria um pouco mais complicada. Compartilhei esses sentimentos com meu melhor amigo, Cristiano, e aos poucos a ansiedade foi ficando de lado e a questão da distância já não me assustava mais então resolvi conversar a respeito com Maurício.

Após 4 meses de conversas online, em Fevereiro de 2024, sendo menos tímida, resolvi me abrir e dizer pro Maurício como eu me sentia em relação a nós. Eu disse a ele que mesmo com receio de que a distância seria um problema, eu não conseguia mais ficar sem ele na minha vida e que a cada encontro eu me sentia mais apaixonada, feliz com a cada troca e mal poderia esperar para conhecê-lo pessoalmente. Ele disse que se sentia da mesma forma, que estava cada vez mais envolvido e que gostaria muito de ter algo a mais e mesmo estando distante ele também gostaria de tentar. Foi então que tivemos a certeza de que estávamos na mesma página, já que estávamos muito envolvidos e que nos considerávamos muito mais do que amigos. Foi durante essa conversa por telefone que perguntei se ele gostaria de vir me visitar e nos conhecermos pessoalmente. Ficamos em silêncio por alguns segundos e amorosamente Maurício respondeu que sim. Então logo em seguida ele veio me visitar em San Francisco. Passamos apenas alguns dias juntos, pois ele precisava voltar ao trabalho, e, nessa viagem ele se declarou com palavras lindas dizendo o quanto eu estava me tornando especial em sua vida e me pediu em namoro.

Eu aceitei seu pedido e dia 10 de fevereiro começamos a namorar.

Em seu retorno ao Alasca nos tornamos mais próximos e íntimos a cada dia, compartilhando um com o outro coisas da nossa vida, do nosso dia a dia, dos nossos desejos e medos com certeza ainda haviam barreiras mas ainda sim eu podia ver ele se arrumar para o trabalho, ele me detalhava mais como havia sido o final de semana e sabia quando ele estava com os amigos se divertindo. Eu só queria estar cada vez mais próxima do meu namorado e imaginando como isso seria possível.

Maurício sempre foi muito paciente comigo e sempre me diz que ama o meu sotaque. Quando não consigo dizer algo, ele não tenta me corrigir, ele diz que a minha forma de pronunciar inglês é algo especial em mim.

Os últimos meses das nossas ligações foram mais intensos, a vontade de estar juntos e realmente termos mais contato estava me causando muita ansiedade.

Meu melhor amigo teve uma linda conversa com ele por facetime dizendo que ele deveria nos visitar com mais frequência e que estávamos aguardando-o ansiosamente, já que não tenho minha família por perto, ele queria ser um bom amigo e conhecê-lo melhor. A partir de então, Maurício começou a me questionar, fazendo perguntas sobre a possibilidade de eu ter que morar no Alasca, se eu estaria disposta a tentar caso nós realmente nos conectássemos, me alertando sobre os novos desafios que eu teria que enfrentar sendo uma mulher de soldado quando como ele viaja por semanas em treinamento ou quão frio e isolado pode ser viver no Alasca. Eu sabia que não seria fácil, porque não estava acostumada a morar em um lugar tão frio, estava disposta a tentar, porque eu não conseguia mais me ver com mais ninguém senão o Maurício.

O Maurício era mais do que um namorado, ele era, e ainda é, um grande parceiro e amigo, e ter uma amizade assim, para mim, é uma das coisas mais importantes entre um casal, pois a partir da amizade que se constrói laços, carinho, respeito e companheirismo para toda a vida.

Em março de 2024, já tinha em mente que Maurício estaria aqui nas férias de verão para nos vermos novamente. Já estávamos fazendo planos para ele vir para San Francisco, eu não poderia estar mais feliz que Maurício viajaria para passar suas férias comigo.

Em abril de 2024, resolvi viajar para o Texas, pois estaria acontecendo um eclipse solar no estado e também tinha curiosidade de conhecer o estado em que Maurício cresceu com sua família. Infelizmente, ao decorrer da rota, fui parada e detida em um checkpoint, pois já estava fora de status, e recebi uma NTA, iniciando meu processo de remoção. Voltei para San Francisco e contei tudo o que havia ocorrido no Texas para Maurício e ele manteve a sua palavra em vir me visitar nas férias e conversaríamos a respeito pessoalmente.

Em Maio de 2024, Maurício veio novamente me visitar, tivemos uma conversa longa e chegamos ao consenso de que queríamos ter uma vida juntos, mas não seria possível assim a distância, então ele me propôs casamento, perguntando se eu aceitaria viver com ele no Alasca. Eu já amava o que tínhamos a distância e a vontade de vê-lo, abraçá-lo, beijá-lo, e estar junto dele era incontrolável. Eu aceitei.

Meu pai, minha madrasta e minha irmã, que são as pessoas mais importantes da minha vida, apoiaram muito o meu namoro com Maurício. Eles sempre acharam o Maurício um homem bom e muito confiável, por ter sido apresentado através de um amigo que também serve o exército.

Meu pai ficou muito feliz por mim e, como ele também estava vencendo a batalha contra um câncer, esse foi mais um motivo de alegria para a família. Durante o período em que meu pai adoeceu e durante o tratamento dele, Maurício foi um grande parceiro e me deu muito suporte emocional, demonstrava seu amor conversando muito comigo e me passava tranquilidade com palavras amorosa em cada ligação.

Após a viagem marcada de Maurício, a espera e a ansiedade tornaram os dias mais longos. Fizemos os preparativos, mas nossa união parecia não chegar nunca. Até que no dia 07 de julho de 2024 eu fui buscar meu futuro marido no aeroporto. Meu coração estava muito acelerado que eu mal conseguia falar com ele, quando ele chegou eu desci do carro e nos abraçamos intensamente e eu chorei muito. Eu só conseguia sentir seu amor, ele me acalmando e dizendo que estava aqui eu tive certeza de que o Maurício e o homem da minha vida, o seu amor a sua dedicação a sua paciência, o seu carinho e tudo... tudo o que passamos e ainda estamos passando fez com que o nosso amor fortalecesse e tivéssemos mais força para seguir adiante e ali estavam todas as respostas que precisávamos para darmos continuidade a nossa história.

Nosso casamento foi dia 09 de julho de 2024. Nesse dia tive os melhores momentos da minha vida com o homem que Deus colocou no meu destino pra me fazer feliz e pra provar que nem a distância e nem nada separa o que ele uniu. Entre tantos desafios o nosso amor venceu e continuamos fazendo todos os dias a mesma escolha de estarmos juntos. Suas visitas a San Francisco diante de tantos desafios que poderiam fazer com que ele desistisse da nossa união foram as maiores prova de amor que ele poderia me dar. Maurício foi meu companheiro, segurou minha mão e não soltou mais, e estamos casados há 2 anos.

Após a volta do meu marido para o Alasca para continuar o serviço militar, fui buscando direcionamentos e me orientei através de amigos e consultas jurídicas, me informando e resolvendo todas as questões da minha vida na Califórnia para a minha definitiva mudança para o Alasca, em outubro de 2024.

Esse período foi muito marcante para as nossas vidas, pois estávamos ansiosos para morarmos juntos, ele estava cuidando da documentação e deixando a nossa casa pronta no período desses 3 meses depois do casamento, eu também finalizando as minhas responsabilidades antes de deixar o estado.

Fizemos uma curta viagem para nossa lua de mel, já que nosso objetivo principal já era de comprar uma casa depois que nos mudássemos do Alasca em 2026.

Em nossa lua de mel ele me levou para ver a aurora boreal, foi meu aniversário em setembro de 2024 então foi o presente de aniversário e casamento mais lindo que Deus e Maurício poderiam me proporcionar. Tivemos certeza de que fizemos a melhor escolha em vivermos juntos agora e não esperar para o final do alistamento militar, somos um só eu para ele e ele para mim.

No início foi um grande desafio, o Alasca era muito frio e afastado do convívio social, então quando meu marido viajava para os treinamentos eu aproveitava as atividades ao ar livre, fazia várias caminhadas ou dirigia para a cidade mais próxima para fazer minhas compras e aproveitar meu tempo. Mesmo casados, respeitamos nossos espaços. Eu amo o que temos, somos muito mais que marido e esposa, somos amigos, confidentes e apaixonados um pelo outro.

Atualmente vejo como mudei meus hábitos alimentares e mesmo não gostando de coentro e jalapeno cozinho alguns pratos separados pois meu marido é descendente de mexicanos e ama a culinária. Ele também continua aprendendo sobre comida brasileira e sempre está na cozinha, as vezes me ajuda a cozinhar e aprender como preparar me ensina e também cozinha para nós, inclusive eu amo suas quesadillas.

Depois de um tempo morando no Alasca percebi que ele tinha razão, não havia muito o que fazer onde morávamos lá, mas eu estava onde eu gostaria de estar, ao lado do meu marido, melhorando a cada dia o meu inglês e eu muito orgulhosa em ter casado com um soldado. Esse tempo com ele me fez passar a respeitar muito mais o exército, eu hoje me sinto lisonjeada em ser mulher de soldado e aprender diariamente como é a vida de um deles, o meu favorito, meu querido marido Maurício.

Morei com o Mauricio no Alasca por aproximadamente um ano e três meses. Apesar do frio intenso, da distância da família e da rotina completamente diferente daquela que eu conhecia, construímos lembranças muito especiais. Aprendemos a enfrentar juntos os desafios de morar em um lugar tão remoto e também a valorizar a tranquilidade e a simplicidade daquela fase das nossas vidas.

No entanto, em junho de 2025, enfrentamos a maior dificuldade do nosso casamento até aquele momento. Comecei a sentir dores muito fortes e fui levada ao hospital. Após exames, os médicos identificaram que um cisto havia se rompido dentro do meu corpo, causando uma infecção grave que se espalhou para outros órgãos. Precisei passar por diversos procedimentos cirúrgicos, fiquei internada por aproximadamente um mês, fui entubada e permaneci em estado crítico durante parte desse período. Além do impacto físico, enfrentei muito medo, estresse e preocupações sobre a possibilidade de infertilidade em razão das complicações.

Me senti muito amada pelo Maurício no processo de recuperação nesse momento tão frágil da minha vida, meu marido esteve presente em cada etapa, acompanhando consultas e o longo período de internação. Ele cuidou de mim quando eu mais precisava, oferecendo apoio, força e segurança.

Em um dos momentos mais difíceis da minha vida, tive a certeza de que havia escolhido o homem certo para construir uma família. Sou profundamente grata a Deus por ter preservado a minha vida e por ter me dado um marido tão dedicado, amoroso e presente.

Após a minha recuperação, embora eu ainda continue realizando acompanhamento médico, nos despedimos do Alasca em janeiro de 2026 e iniciamos uma nova fase da nossa vida em Killeen, no Texas. Foi uma grande mudança: deixamos para trás o inverno rigoroso para viver em um clima completamente diferente. Também realizamos um sonho importante para nós ao comprar a nossa primeira casa, um símbolo da vida que estamos construindo juntos.

Olhamos para o futuro com esperança. Pretendo dar continuidade aos meus estudos, e Maurício recebeu uma nova missão no Exército, sendo designado para servir na Coreia do Sul por aproximadamente dez meses. Sabemos que esse período exigirá novamente sacrifício e força do nosso casamento, mas também sabemos que já superamos desafios muito maiores. Desde o início do nosso relacionamento aprendemos a enfrentar a distância quando necessário, mantendo nossa comunicação, nosso respeito e nosso compromisso um com o outro.

Ao olhar para os últimos anos, vejo o quanto crescemos como casal. Cada desafio fortaleceu a nossa união e reforçou a certeza de que queremos continuar construindo nossa vida juntos. Nosso maior sonho é formar uma família e seguir compartilhando todas as etapas da nossa caminhada. Embora a próxima missão de Maurício traga saudade, tenho confiança de que ela também fortalecerá ainda mais o nosso casamento, assim como aconteceu em todas as fases que vivemos até aqui.

Declaro, sob pena de perjúrio de acordo com as leis dos Estados Unidos da América, que o conteúdo acima é verdadeiro e correto.

Dear Immigration Officer,

I, Mauricio Lopez, solemnly state and affirm hereunder:

- I reside at 3102 Baldwin Loop Unit B Killeen, Texas, 76549.
- I just to reside at 1175 Vicki Ln Apt#D North Pole, Alaska, 99705.
- My phone number is (940) 465-5150
- My email address is mauricio128capulines@gmail.com
- I was born on 08/11/2003, in San Antonio, Texas.
- Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno is my wife.

I first met my wife Samara Bueno in October, 2023 through a friend from work Luiz Bartow, he mentioned that Samara was looking for a friend who she could practice English with. I instantly offered after seeing pictures of her through social media.

Our first interaction was through messages. I still remember when she used to ask me how to pronounce different words. I instantly felt attracted to her accent. Our relationship grew, we started to see each other through video calls. I was very nervous and shy most of the time. It is impossible to forget that first video call. We talked for uncountable minutes, quickly discovering that we shared many things in common, such as having our parents far apart from us, hard to make new friends when trying to learn English and the most important thing in common is looking after our families. We began communicating regularly such as greetings every morning and long conversations at night. As our relationship developed, we spent more time talking together and grew closer emotionally. Keeping our conversation in friendship for 4 months, one day in February 2024, Samara opened up her feelings. I was really shy and nervous, making it a new experience especially for my culture, instantly falling in love with her confidence.

As our relationship grew, we began spending more time together and meeting each other's families and friends. We realized that our bond was deep and meaningful, and we decided to take the next step in our relationship. I traveled to San Francisco and met her friend who treated me fabulous, making the trip unforgettable. We visited beautiful places making our relationship stronger. I couldn't wait to share my life with her and began our journey together deciding to get married in California July 09, 2024. It was a joyful celebration of our commitment to each other, making it impossible to forget.

Since our marriage, we have continued to build a life together. Sharing responsibilities, supporting each other emotionally, and planning for the future. We lived together at 1175 Vicki Ln North Pole, Alaska. Due to me being part of the ARMY active duty, we are in the process of a plan for what should be next as my duty station and how our life should be together. Her support for my dreams are unequaled, leaving her past life and adjusting her plans for the sake of my career. I am in immense gratitude with my wife for such support and always being there for life's ups and downs.

Living in Alaska was a challenge for the both of us, we both come from warm states. Experiencing extreme cold temperatures and extended darkness, nights are 13 to 17 hours in the middle of winter. We both liked to spend time indoors going out sometimes just for groceries or once a week to get a nice warm dinner. The best moment that I will never forget is when we went and experienced the northern lights in a beautiful place called Chena Hot Spring, a 2 and a half hour drive. We planned it at the end of September 2024 due to military training. We made it possible to go on October 10, 2024. Alaska gave us such wonderful adventures. I enjoyed having to experience those beautiful adventures with my wife, which made it even more special and beautiful.

Since my wife doesn't have family in the USA she grew a close relationship with her friends. She traveled to San Francisco once every three months. In one of her travels she suffered a severe health injury. I still remember the day she called me and said that she was feeling a little sick, feeling pain in her stomach. It didn't sound like a big issue at first until she stopped texting me or calling for one day. The second day June 02, 2025 I received a call from a place called Davies Campus. I answered and they said that my wife was currently in Intensive Medical Care care and she needed a surgery needing my approval to proceed. I immediately said yes, in my mind it was the right choice since it was something that needed to happen in order for my wife to get a second chance. The next day June 03 they called and explained that the surgery went well. After that call I felt an immense relief knowing that everything went well.

During my wife's admission to the ICU, I experienced significant emotional stress due to being geographically separated from her. As a Soldier, I understand and accept the responsibilities that come with military service; however, being unable to be present during a serious medical emergency involving my spouse was one of the most difficult situations I have faced. Especially since I was in the middle of the most important and meaningful event of my career which was the opportunity to obtain my EIB (Expert Infantry Badge) I had only two options leave in the middle of the event and loose that opportunity and be there with my wife or stay and get the opportunity to obtain it. Hearing that my wife was hospitalized and in serious conditions while I was far away created feelings of anxiety, helplessness, and concern. The uncertainty surrounding her condition made it difficult to find peace of mind, knowing I was unable to provide the support and reassurance that a husband would normally offer during such a critical time. The emotional burden of being separated from my family during this emergency was significant. So I made one which in my heart felt the best decision ever which was to leave and be there for the love of my life. Immediately informing my platoon Sargent informed him of my situation and thankfully he understood the situation and the importance of being there for my family he immediately sent me home and walked me through every single regulation I had to follow in order for me to get to my wife. I am forever grateful for having such a leader SFC. Stone David. The process only took days and I got the opportunity to get 20 days to be there with my wife. The moment I saw her in that bed with countless tubes coming out of her body and the amount of weight she lost had me in tears making it an unbelievable experience, something very traumatic that is still going through my mind to this day. This is definitely something that I will never recommend to anyone. It's a terrible experience, especially with my job requiring numerous mental and physical stress.

This experience reinforced the importance of family readiness and highlighted the challenges military families face when emergencies occur while Soldiers are stationed away from their loved ones. It also strengthened my appreciation for the Army's emphasis on taking care of Soldiers and their Families.

Due to her accident I decided to go to a place warmer and with more medical care than Alaska. On September 26 2025, I signed my second contract for two more years. I moved out from Alaska on January 2, 2026. Leaving Alaska, friends, and the environment was difficult and emotionally challenging but my wife was supporting me emotionally and always checked on me. Being in Texas is great for the both of us, with more work opportunities for my wife when she is ready to find a job. As of right now we have a house and we are working together on the home, we are slowly painting the house making small adjustments. We are amazed with the decision we made and we are looking forward to settling here in Texas.

We are sincerely committed to our marriage, always open for new things to make our bond stronger. One of the many things that we have in common is that we both know the struggle of being in a beautiful country without our family, always finding ways to make our future brighter. The gratitude for having Samara as a wife is beyond comparison, making it impossible to believe how I got married to such wonderful women.

Gratitude can not be said enough. We are blessed for such a wonderful opportunity to share our life and love together. To whoever read this letter I give my most sincere gratitude and deepest thanks for taking the time to read this. Please feel free to contact me at any given time for further or precise details.

Exhibit 6 - Evidence of Bona Fide Marriage: Affidavits of Support

Declaration in support of Mauricio Lopez

Dear Immigration Officer. I, Beatriz Velazquez Bailon, declare and solemnly state the following:

- I currently reside at 128 Lechuza, Celaya, GTO, 38034
- My phone number is + 52 (461) 354-0372
- My e-mail is betivelazquez35@gmail.com
- I was born on 07/14/1985 in Celaya Guanajuato, Mexico
- I've known Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno since February 2024, and Mauricio Lopez is my son.

I'm Beatriz Velázquez Bailón, Mauricio's mother. I'd like to share my deep gratitude to Samana Fernanda, and for the love, kindness, and strength that she gives to my son's life and our family. From the very moment I met her, I could appreciate the warmth in her heart. She is not only a wonderful wife for my son, but also an extraordinary person who brightens the lives of everybody around her. Her patience, understanding, and unconditional support for Mauricio are qualities I deeply admire. She gets along gracefully and kindly, always prioritizing family, and doing that, everybody feels loved and valued. I've seen how she is by my son's side in the ups and downs of life, offering him laughter and infinite love.

I have an excellent relationship with my son, as I raised him and his two siblings as a single mother. He calls me at least twice, or even four times when he is not working. We share stories and talk about our problems. One day, I think by the end of December 2023, he mentioned a special girl he had met; he commented that he had met Samara in October through a friend who works with him in Alaska. He also commented that Samara was a very mature and sweet woman. I had never heard my son talk the way he talks about Samara. As a mother, I told him that he was mature enough to know who the right woman for him was. We kept talking as usual, he even told me stories from work. I had the honor to see and talk to Samara, as my son wanted to introduce her to us, this happened in February 2024 in a group call. Just by talking to Samara I could tell that she is a very kind, loving, and understanding woman.

As a mother-in-law, I couldn't ask for a better wife for my son. She has a generous spirit, a loving heart, and a strength that inspires everyone around her. I could notice these strengths every time I talk to my son during video calls. I'm very grateful for my son having met a partner who really supports and loves him. She is a blessing for all of us, and I will be forever thankful for the joy she brings into my son's life.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the above is true and correct.

Declaración jurada en apoyo de Mauricio Lopez

Estimado Oficial de Inmigración yo, Beatriz Velazquez Bailon, declaro y afirmo solemnemente a continuación:

- Actualmente resido en 128 Lechuza, Celaya, GTO, 38034
- Mi número telefónico es +52 (461) 354-0372
- Mi correo electrónico es betivelazquez35@gmail.com
- Nací el 07/14/1985, en Celaya Guanajuato, México
- Conozco a Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno desde Febrero de 2024 y Mauricio Lopez es mi hijo.

Soy Beatriz Velázquez Bailón, madre de Mauricio. Quería compartir mi profunda gratitud por Samara Fernanda y el amor, la bondad y la fortaleza que aporta a la vida de mi hijo y a nuestra familia. Desde el momento en que la conocí pude apreciar la calidez de su corazón. No solo es una esposa maravillosa para mi hijo, sino una persona extraordinaria que ilumina la vida de quienes la rodean. Su paciencia, comprensión y apoyo incondicional a Mauricio son cualidades que admiro profundamente. Se desenvuelve con gran gracia y bondad, siempre priorizando a la familia y haciendo que todos se sientan amados y valorados. He visto como ella acompaña a mi hijo en altibajos de la vida ofreciendo risas y un amor infinito.

Tengo una excelente relación con mi hijo ya que lo crié a él y sus dos hermanos como madre soltera. Me llama al menos dos veces, o incluso cuatro veces cuando no trabaja. Compartimos historias y hablamos de nuestros problemas. Un día creo que a finales de diciembre 2023, mencionó a una chica especial que había conocido; comentó que conoció a Samara en octubre a través de un amigo que trabaja con él en Alaska. También comentó que Samara era una mujer muy madura y dulce. Nunca había escuchado a mi hijo expresarse de la manera que se expresa de Samara. Como madre, le comenté que él era lo suficientemente maduro para darse cuenta quien era la mujer adecuada para él. Seguimos hablando como siempre, incluso me contó historias de su trabajo. Tuve el honor de ver y conversar con Samara, ya que mi hijo quería introducirnos, esto sucedió en Febrero de 2024 a través de una llamada en grupo. Con sólo conversar con Samara pude definir que ella es una mujer muy amable, amorosa y comprensiva.

Como suegra, no podría pedir una mejor esposa para mi hijo. Tiene un espíritu generoso, un corazón amoroso y una fuerza que inspira a quienes la rodean. Pude darme cuenta de estas fortalezas de todas las veces que hablo con mi hijo por videollamada. Estoy muy agradecida de que mi hijo haya encontrado a una pareja que realmente lo apoya y lo aprecia. Ella es una bendición para todos nosotros y estaré eternamente agradecida por la alegría que aporta a la vida de mi hijo.

Declaró bajo pena de perjurio que lo anterior es verdadero y correcto.

- I currently reside at Park Regency Apartments, 3146 Oak Road, apartment 306, B5 Walnut Creek, CA, 94597
- My phone number is (650)333-1453
- My email address is ccgeua@gmail.com
- I was born on 05/24/1990, in Cachoeiro de Itapemirim, state of Espírito Santo, Brazil.
- I have known Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno since September 2023, and Mauricio Lopez since October 2023.

I met Samara in September 2023. At that time, I was working as an assistant at a hair salon in San Francisco.

Samara had scheduled an appointment to have her hair done and seemed very happy and excited about getting ready to celebrate her birthday with a new look. From then on, right there at my workplace, we were able to get to know each other a little better and grew closer with each visit.

After a few meetings at the hair saloon, we made plans to hang out and since then we have become best friends. We have a large Brazilian community around here and since we do not have family in the country, the connections among friends become like family ties.

Samara often mentioned that she felt uncomfortable in certain situations because she did not fully master English. As she had connected with other Brazilians, a long-time friend mentioned a man who was in the military and felt lonely. In this way, she could improve her English, and he could have some company and form a new friendship.

I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.

Date: 05/05/2025

As time went on, I noticed that she was becoming increasingly enthusiastic and talking more about the exchanges they were having, how she was learning more English, and how much fun she was having during their online meetings. Samara told me that she had some reservations because of the distance, as a previous long-distance relationship had not worked out when she decided to do an exchange program and move to the United States. However, I noticed that Samara and Maurício were growing closer and closer. She told me that they would have online dinners together and share experiences throughout the week.

After a few months having a virtual relationship with Mauricio, Samara told us that she had decided to move to Alaska. We cried a lot, and even though she was no longer as present in my life here, I was happy that my friend was having a new beginning and happy to know she was with the person she loves.

I spoke with Maurício by video call and told him that, although my English was not good enough to say everything I wanted, he would need to come visit us before Samara moved to Alaska.

And then Maurício and Samara began talking about wedding plans, and when he would come to San Francisco on vacation. I had the opportunity to be by their side that day. I did her hair just as I had on the day we first met, and that strengthened our friendship even more. I was also their best man at the wedding, so I was able to witness the union of these two hearts that love each other deeply. I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.

Declaração em apoio a Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno

Caro oficial de imigração,

Eu, Cristiano Cardoso Gomes, declaro e afirmo solenemente:

- Atualmente resido no Park Regency Apartments, 3146 Oak Road, apartment 306, B5 Walnut Creek, CA, 94597
- Meu número de telefone e (650)333-1453
- Meu endereço de e-mail e ccgeua@gmail.com
- Nasci em 05/24/1990, em Cachoeiro de Itapemirim, Espírito Santo.
- Eu conheci ambos Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno desde setembro de 2023 e Mauricio Lopez desde outubro de 2023.

Eu conheci Samara em setembro de 2023. Eu estava trabalhando como ajudante em um salão de cabelereiro em São Francisco.

Samara havia agendado para arrumar seu cabelo e mostrava se muito feliz e animada por estar se preparando para celebrar seu aniversário de cabelos novos e então ali mesmo no meu trabalho podemos nos conhecer um pouco mais e ficarmos mais próximos a cada visita.

Após alguns encontros no salão de cabelereiro fizemos planos de sairmos juntos e a partir de então nos tornamos melhores amigos. Temos uma grande comunidade brasileira por aqui e como não temos familiares no país as coneccoes entre os amigos tornassem como se fossemos membros familiares.

Samara sempre comentava que se sentia desconfortável em algumas situações por não dominar o inglês. Como havia se conectado com outros brasileiros, um amigo de longa data comentou sobre um homem que estava no exército e se sentia solitário. Assim, ela poderia melhorar seu inglês, e ele poderia se distrair e fazer uma nova amizade.

Declaro, sob pena de perjúrio, que o exposto acima é verdadeiro e correto.

Data: 05/05/2025

Assinatura: Cristiano Cardoso Gomes

Com o passar do tempo, percebi que ela estava cada vez mais animada e falando mais sobre as trocas que eles tinham, como estava aprendendo mais inglês e se divertindo nos encontros online. Samara me contou que tinha receio por conta da distancia pois teve um relacionamento anterior, nao havia dado certo à distância, quando decidiu fazer um intercâmbio e se mudar para os Estados Unidos. Mas notei que Samara e Maurício estavam cada vez mais próximos. Ela me contou que eles faziam jantares online e compartilhavam experiências ao longo da semana.

Depois de meses me relacionando virtualmente com Maurício, Samara nos contou que havia decidido se mudar para o Alaska. Choramos muito e, mesmo que ela não estivesse tão presente na minha vida aqui, eu ficava feliz por minha amiga estar tendo um novo começo e feliz por estar com a pessoa que ama.

Conversei com o Mauricio por videochamada e disse que, embora meu inglês não fosse bom o suficiente para dizer tudo, ele teria que vir nos visitar antes que a Samara se mudasse para o Alaska.

E então o Mauricio e a Samara começaram a conversar sobre os planos do casamento quando viria para São Francisco nas férias. Tive a oportunidade de estar ao lado deles naquele dia. Arrumei o cabelo dela como no nosso primeiro encontro, e isso fortaleceu ainda mais a nossa amizade. Também fui padrinho de casamento deles, então pude testemunhar a união desses dois corações que se amam muito.

Declaro, sob pena de perjúrio, que o exposto acima é verdadeiro e correto.

Declaration in Support of Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno

Dear Immigration Officer,

I, Luiz Bartow Simões, hereby declare and solemnly affirm:

- I currently reside at 4385 9th Street, Unit R, Fort-Wainwright AK 99703
- My phone number is (530) 410-2988
- My email address is lbartowsimoes68@bethelu.edu
- I was born on 04/27/1996, in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.
- I have known Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno since June 2021, and Mauricio Lopez since May 2023.

I have known Samara since June 2021, when I was still living in Redding, 5 hours away from San Francisco, and would visit the city sporadically for some Brazilian events with my wife, Olivia.

We met through mutual friends, and because there was a strong bond between Samara and my wife, we became closer.

Since we did not go to San Francisco very often, we stayed in touch by phone, and almost every month we would talk. When I enlisted and moved to Alaska to serve in the military, calls with friends and family became very important, and among my friends, I also kept in touch with Samara, and we were able to talk about life.

Samara has always been very hardworking and a person of strong character and integrity, a great friend.

In mid-May 2023, I met Mauricio at the base while we were in training. We were part of a four-soldier team. Mauricio was a grenadier, and I became part of his team as the machine gun leader. We worked together for several months and became good friends outside the base as well, spending time together on weekends.

My friend Samara remained in contact with my wife and me, and in some of our conversations, she mentioned her interest in meeting someone with whom she could practice her English. I then thought of my friend Mauricio, who had been at the base a few months longer than I had, and that it might be a good idea for him to have a female friendship to add some variety to his life in Alaska. I therefore connected the two of them in October 2023.

I am very happy to have made the connection between the couple. From the very beginning, I felt that, knowing my friends, they would make a wonderful match, and time has proven that to be true. I am able to witness their happiness living together, and through my daily contact with Mauricio, I see how much the marriage has been good for him.

I have always been present in the couple's story, and Mauricio always speaks very highly of Samara, just as she is always enthusiastic and grateful that I made the connection between them.

I was not able to be present at their wedding, as I was traveling during my vacation to visit my family in Brazil. However, as soon as my friend Samara moved to Alaska, we had a dinner together, and I was able to witness her happiness being by Mauricio's side. Every time we see or speak to each other, she is smiling and speaking positively about her husband.

They truly make a beautiful couple, and I am very happy about their union.

I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.

Declaração em apoio a Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno

Caro oficial de imigração,

- Nasci em 27/04/1996 no Rio de Janeiro no Brasil.
- Eu conheci ambos, Samara Fernanda da Silva Bueno Junho de 2021 e Mauricio Lopez desde Maio de 2023.

Eu conheço a Samara desde junho de 2021 quando eu ainda morava em Redding a 5 horas de San Francisco e visitava a cidade esporadicamente para alguns eventos brasileiros com minha esposa Olivia.

Nos conhecemos através de amigos em comum e como havia uma grande afinidade entre Samara e minha esposa ficamos mais próximos.

Como não frequentávamos muito San Francisco mantínhamos contato por telefone e quase todos os meses estávamos em ligação. Quando me alistei e fui morar no Alaska para servir o exército as ligações de amigos e familiares se tornam muito importantes e entre meus amigos Samara também mantinha contato e podíamos conversar sobre a vida.

Samara sempre foi muito batalhadora e uma pessoa de caráter e respeito, uma grande amiga.

Em meados de maio de 2023 eu conheci o Maurício na base quando estávamos em treinamento, nós tínhamos uma equipe de 4 soldados. Maurício era um lançador de granadas e eu passei a fazer parte de seu time sendo o líder de metralhadora. Passamos a trabalhar por alguns meses juntos nos tornando bons amigos também fora da base, fazendo outras atividades aos finais de semana.

Minha amiga Samara mantinha contato com minha esposa e comigo, e em algumas de nossas conversas, mencionou seu interesse em conhecer alguém com quem ela pudesse praticar mais inglês e então pensei no meu amigo Maurício que já estava a alguns meses a mais do que eu na base e poderia ser uma boa ideia ter uma amizade feminina para diversificar um pouco sua vida no Alaska. Então fiz a conexão entre os dois em outubro de 2023.

Fico muito feliz em ter feito a conexão entre o casal, desde o princípio eu senti que conhecendo meus amigos eles poderiam formar um belo par e o tempo mostrou isso, eu posso presenciar a alegria dos mesmos vivendo juntos e diariamente em contato com Mauricio, vejo o quanto o casamento lhe fez bem.

Eu sempre estive presente na história do casal e o Maurício sempre fala muito bem da Samara e ela também sempre está entusiasmada e agradecida por eu ter feito a conexão entre eles.

Não pude estar presente quando se casaram, estava viajando nas minhas férias para visitar minha família no Brasil, mas assim que minha amiga Samara se mudou para o Alaska fizemos um jantar e pude presenciar sua felicidade ao estar ao lado de Maurício e sempre que nos vemos ou nos falamos ela está sorridente e falando positivamente do marido.

Eles realmente formam um lindo casal e estou contente diante dessa união.

Declaro, sob pena de perjúrio, que o exposto acima é verdadeiro e correto.

Privacy Act Statement

Authority:
The Department of Homeland Security through U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), U.S Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) are authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to Sections 103, 237, 239, 240, and 290 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended (8 U.S.C. 1103, 1229, 1229a, and 1360), and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Purpose:
You are being asked to sign and date this Notice to Appear (NTA) as an acknowledgement of personal receipt of this notice. This notice, when filed with the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), initiates removal proceedings. The NTA contains information regarding the nature of the proceedings against you, the legal authority under which proceedings are conducted, the acts or conduct alleged against you to be in violation of law, the charges against you, and the statutory provisions alleged to have been violated. The NTA also includes information about the conduct of the removal hearing, your right to representation at no expense to the government, the requirement to inform EOIR of any change in address, the consequences for failing to appear, and that generally, if you wish to apply for asylum, you must do so within one year of your arrival in the United States. If you choose to sign and date the NTA, that information will be used to confirm that you received it, and for recordkeeping.

Routine Uses:
For United States Citizens, Lawful Permanent Residents, or individuals whose records are covered by the Judicial Redress Act of 2015 (5 U.S.C. § 552a note), your information may be disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b), including pursuant to the routine uses published in the following DHS systems of records notices (SORN): DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefit Information System, DHS/ICE-011 Criminal Arrest Records and Immigration Enforcement Records (CARIER), and DHS/ICE-003 General Counsel Electronic Management System (GEMS), and DHS/CBP-023 Border Patrol Enforcement Records (BPER). These SORNs can be viewed at https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorns. When disclosed to the DOJ's EOIR for immigration proceedings, this information that is maintained and used by DOJ is covered by the following DOJ SORN: EOIR-001, Records and Management Information System, or any updated or successor SORN, which can be viewed at https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records. Further, your information may be disclosed pursuant to routine uses described in the abovementioned DHS SORNs or DOJ EOIR SORN to federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement agencies for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

For all others, as appropriate under United States law and DHS policy, the information you provide may be shared internally within DHS, as well as with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement; other government agencies; and other parties for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

Disclosure:
Providing your signature and the date of your signature is voluntary. There are no effects on you for not providing your signature and date; however, removal proceedings may continue notwithstanding the failure or refusal to provide this information.

Change of Address/Contact Information Form
Immigration Court

Instructions: To complete this form, fill out all blanks below, including proof of service, which certifies that you will provide a copy of this form to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). After filling in the blanks and signing both the declaration and proof of service, you must submit the form electronically, in person, or by mail. If submitting electronically, file in Respondent Portal at https://respondentaccess.eoir.justice.gov. Attorneys and fully accredited representatives submitting this form electronically must file in Case Portal at https://portal.eoir.justice.gov. If submitting by mail, follow the mailing instructions on Page 2. You must submit a separate copy of this form for each individual who has a case pending in immigration court and whom the change of information affects.

You must file this form with the immigration court within five working days of the change to your contact information, or your receipt of a charging document (e.g., a Notice to Appear) with incorrect contact information. The immigration court will send all official correspondence (e.g., notices, decisions) to the address you provide. The immigration court will only make any change(s) to your contact information in EOIR's records upon receipt of this form; the immigration court will not change your contact information based on different information on pleadings, motions, or other communications with the court.

If you fail to appear at any hearing before an immigration judge when notice of that hearing or other official correspondence was served on you or sent to the address you provided, DHS may take you into custody. In addition, the immigration court may conduct your hearing in your absence and enter an order of removal, deportation, or exclusion against you. If the court enters such an order, you may be ineligible for certain forms of relief from removal under the Immigration and Nationality Act as follows:

- If you are in removal proceedings: You will be subject to an order of removal for a period of ten years after the date of entry of the final order. You may also become ineligible for voluntary departure, cancellation of removal, and adjustment of status or change of status.
- If you are in deportation proceedings: You will be subject to an order of deportation for a period of five years after the date of the entry of the final order. You may also become ineligible for voluntary departure, suspension of deportation or voluntary departure, and adjustment of status or change of status.
- If you are in exclusion proceedings: Your application for admission to the United States may be considered withdrawn.

Instrucciones Para el Aviso de Comparecencia

Este documento explica lo que debe esperar mientras continúa con los procedimientos de su caso de inmigración en los Estados Unidos. No proporciona asesoramiento legal ni sustituye la información incluida en los formularios a los que se hace referencia a continuación. Es necesario que revise TODA su documentación y comprenda las condiciones de su liberación.

USTED DEBE:

1) Preséntese al ICE como se requiere en su documentación.
   - Usted debe presentarse al ICE.
   - Programe una cita para presentarse en www.ice.gov/check-in
   - Para encontrar la oficina más cercana, llame al 1-888-351-4024 o vaya a www.ice.gov/contact/field-offices?office=16.
   - Si se presenta a una oficina de ICE en persona, lleve sus documentos de identificación (pasaporte, acta de nacimiento, licencia de conducir, etc.) y TODOS los documentos de inmigración.

2) Notifique al ICE y al tribunal de inmigración en un plazo de 5 días si cambia de dirección o número de teléfono.
   - Si se muda a una nueva dirección o consigue un número de teléfono, usted DEBE proporcionar al ICE y al tribunal de inmigración el nuevo domicilio o número de teléfono en un plazo de 5 días.
   - Haga estas 3 cosas:
     1) Póngase en contacto con su oficina local del ICE directamente para proporcionar su nuevo domicilio o número de teléfono.
     2) Para cambiar su domicilio en el tribunal de inmigración, usted debe presentar el Formulario EOIR-33, disponible en: www.justice.gov/eoir/form-eoir-33-eoir-immigration-court-listing.
     3) Pregunte al tribunal de inmigración o a un abogado si necesita cambiar el lugar de su audiencia judicial.

3) Asista a sus audiencias en el tribunal de inmigración.
   - Revise su Aviso de Comparecencia (Formulario I-862). Incluye la dirección del tribunal, el numero de la sala, la fecha y la hora de su audiencia con un Juez de Inmigración.
   - Usted DEBE asistir a sus audiencias en la corte de inmigración.
   - ADVERTENCIA: La fecha y la hora de su audiencia pueden cambiar. Llame al tribunal de inmigración al 1-800-898-7180 para confirmar su próxima fecha de audiencia o escanee el código QR.

IMPORTANTE:

Las citas del ICE y las audiencias del tribunal de inmigración son dos obligaciones diferentes. Usted debe cumplir con ambas obligaciones.

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are under removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office of the Immigration Review. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this Notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents which you desire to have considered in connection with you case. If any document is a foreign language, you must bring the original and a certified English translation of the document. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing.

At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all the allegations in the charging document and that you are inadmissible or deportable on the charges contained in the charging document. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on you own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government.

You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear, of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of departing voluntarily. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the INS, in writing, with you full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court immediately by using form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the INS.
