RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE

The undersigned counsel hereby respectfully moves this Court pursuant to 8 C.F.R. §1003.29 for a continuance of the Master Calendar Hearing currently scheduled for August 26, 2026, and in support states the following:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. Respondent is a native and citizen of Brazil.
2. He has been in the United States since entering with a B-2 nonimmigrant visa on April 16, 2025. See Exhibit A-2, at 71-72.
3. Respondent was placed in proceedings following the denial of his Request for an Extension of Stay on March 19, 2026.
4. Respondent is currently in removal proceedings before this Court.

5. Respondent is next scheduled for a hearing on August 26, 2026, before the Los Angeles Immigration Court.
6. Respondent is married to Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo since February 25, 2026, who is a citizen of the United States. See Exhibit A-3, at 77.
7. Respondent is the beneficiary of a pending I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, that was filed by his U.S. citizen spouse Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo and received by USCIS on July 2, 2026, as evidenced by the Receipt Notice attached hereto. See Exhibits A and B.
8. Although Respondent's I-130 petition has not yet been approved, there is no reason to expect that USCIS will not approve it. Respondent and his U.S. citizen spouse, Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo, have been married for six months, and the bona fides of their marriage are well-established. The I-130 petition filed by Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo on Respondent's behalf is therefore prima facie approvable.
9. As the spouse of a U.S. citizen, Respondent falls into the “Immediate Relative” visa category, INA § 201(b)(2)(A)(i), and as such, a visa is “immediately available” to him.
10. Lastly, because the Respondent was lawfully admitted to the United States, he is permitted to adjust his status under INA § 245(a) once the I-130 petition is approved.
11. Respondent has never committed any crimes and is not inadmissible to the United States on any other grounds. He is therefore prima facie eligible for Adjustment of Status.

STATEMENT OF LAW

Immigration courts have broad discretion to grant continuances "for good cause shown". 8 C.F.R. §1003.29.

The Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) has held that a motion to continue removal proceedings "to await the adjudication of a pending family-based visa petition should generally be granted if approval of the visa petition would render him prima facie eligible for adjustment of status". Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 785 (BIA 2009), following Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653 (BIA 1978).

In Matter of Hashmi, the Board further set forth a non-exhaustive list of factors courts should consider when evaluating a motion to continue pending the adjudication of a visa petition, including, but not limited to: a) The DHS response to the motion; b) Whether the underlying visa petition is prima facie approvable; c) The Respondent's statutory eligibility for adjustment of status; d) Whether the Respondent's application for adjustment merits a favorable exercise of discretion; and e) The reason for the continuance and any other relevant procedural factors. 24 I&N Dec. 785 (BIA 2009).

In Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653, at 657 (BIA 1978), the Board held that "discretion should, as a general rule, be favorably exercised where a prima facie approvable visa petition and adjustment application have been submitted in the course of a deportation hearing or upon a motion to reopen". The Board recognized that a respondent who is the likely beneficiary of a visa petition conferring immediate eligibility for adjustment of status should be afforded the opportunity to await the outcome of the petition before proceedings conclude. Hashmi expressly followed Garcia, reinforcing this foundational presumption. Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785 (BIA 2009).

More recently, in Matter of L-A-B-R- et al., the Board recognized that "an immigration judge should assess whether good cause supports such a continuance by applying a multifactor analysis, which requires that the immigration judge's principal focus be on the likelihood that the collateral relief will be granted and will materially affect the outcome of the removal proceedings." 27 I&N Dec. 405, at 406 (A.G. 2018). Where, as here, the pending visa petition is prima facie approvable and approval would render Respondent immediately eligible for adjustment of status, the good cause standard is plainly satisfied.

Accordingly, Respondent now addresses each of the Hashmi factors individually to demonstrate why a continuance is warranted in this case.

a) DHS Response to the Motion

Respondent respectfully requests that DHS indicate whether it opposes or does not oppose the requested continuance. There is no legitimate basis for DHS to oppose this motion. Respondent is the beneficiary of a pending I-130 petition filed by his U.S. citizen spouse, the bona fides of the marriage are well-established, and Respondent is statutorily eligible for adjustment of status as an immediate relative. Granting the continuance would promote judicial economy by allowing USCIS to complete the adjudication of a petition that, if approved, would resolve these proceedings entirely.

Should DHS affirmatively express a lack of opposition, the continuance must ordinarily be granted. Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 791 (BIA 2009)

Should DHS choose to oppose the motion, the Immigration Judge should not treat such opposition as dispositive. Rather, the Court must evaluate any objection in light of the totality of the circumstances, weighing the reasons for opposition against all other relevant factors. See Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 791 (BIA 2009); see also Badwan v. Gonzales, 494 F.3d 566, 568 (6th Cir. 2007) (stating that DHS's lack of opposition "underscores the importance of the IJ's offering a coherent explanation as to why, from the perspective of the immigration courts, the motion should be denied"). Unsupported opposition, as the Board has made clear, "does not carry much weight." Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 791 (BIA 2009)

b) The Underlying I-130 Is Prima Facie Approvable

As the spouse of a U.S. citizen, Respondent qualifies as an immediate relative under INA § 201(b)(2)(A)(i), meaning that a visa is immediately available upon approval of the I-130, with no numerical limitation on immigrant visas applicable to his category.

The petitioner, Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo, is a citizen of the United States, as evidenced by her birth certificate attached hereto as Exhibit A-1, at 38-39. The marriage between Respondent and Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo took place on February 25, 2026, in Los Angeles, California, as evidenced by the marriage certificate attached hereto as Exhibit A-3, at 77. The marriage is bona fide, and the family relationship meets all statutory requirements for the filing of a visa petition on behalf of an immediate relative spouse, pursuant C.F.R. §§ 204.1–204.2. See Exhibits A-4, A-5, and A-6.

Although Respondent's I-130 petition has not yet been approved, there is no reason to expect that USCIS will not approve it. Respondent and his U.S. citizen spouse have been married for six months, and the bona fides of their marriage are well-established. The I-130 petition filed by Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo on Respondent's behalf is therefore prima facie approvable.

In support of this showing, Respondent submits the complete I-130 petition packet filed with USCIS as Exhibit 1, and the USCIS Receipt Notice as Exhibit 2. These submissions satisfy the evidentiary standard articulated by the Board in set in Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 791 (BIA 2009) ("respondent's request for a continuance should be supported by particularized facts and evidence, including a copy of the I-130 visa petition packet that the respondent filed with the USCIS, along with the USCIS Notice of Action (Form I-797) showing the date of receipt").

c) Respondent Is Statutorily Eligible for Adjustment of Status

Provided the I-130 is approved, Respondent intends to apply for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident pursuant to INA § 245(a). Respondent was admitted to the United States and therefore meets the threshold requirement of having been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States. Additionally, an immediate relative visa will be immediately available upon I-130 approval, satisfying the visa availability requirement under INA § 245(a)(3).

Respondent is also admissible to the United States within the meaning of INA § 212(a). Respondent does not fall within any of the grounds of inadmissibility enumerated therein. Specifically, Respondent has no disqualifying criminal history, no prior orders of removal, and no other bar to admissibility that would preclude a grant of adjustment of status.

Therefore, Respondent is statutorily eligible for adjustment of status, and all prerequisites under INA § 245(a) are satisfied or will be satisfied upon approval of the pending I-130 petition.

d) Respondent's Case Merits a Favorable Exercise of Discretion

Adjudication of this motion should begin with the presumption, established in Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653 (BIA 1978), and reaffirmed in Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 789 (BIA 2009), that discretion should be favorably exercised to await the resolution of the underlying visa petition. The equities of Respondent's case strongly support this presumption.

i) Family Ties. Respondent is married to Claire Elizabeth Lombrozo, a United States citizen, and their marriage is bona fide, as demonstrated by the documentation submitted with this motion. The Board has recognized that the existence of qualifying family ties in the United States weighs in favor of a favorable exercise of discretion. Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 793 (BIA 2009).

ii) Length of Residence. Respondent has resided in the United States since his lawful admission on April 16, 2025. During this time, he has established strong family and community ties that demonstrate his integration within the United States. Furthermore, a substantial portion of his time in the United States has been in lawful status, and he has rapidly taken affirmative steps toward obtaining lawful status through the adjudication of his pending I-130 petition. Respondent's presence in the United States has at all times been consistent with his intent to regularize his immigration status through lawful channels.

iii) Good Moral Character and Criminal History. Respondent has no criminal history and presents no disqualifying factors under INA § 212(a). Respondent's lack of any criminal record is an affirmative equity that weighs in favor of a favorable exercise of discretion. See Abu-Khaliel v. Gonzales, 436 F.3d 627, at 634 (6th Cir. 2006).

iv) Lawful and Law-Abiding Immigration History. Respondent entered the United States lawfully on April 16, 2025, on a B-2 nonimmigrant visa, through Miami, Florida. There is no evidence of preconceived intent to immigrate at the time of his entry as a nonimmigrant. He has since taken affirmative steps toward pursuing adjustment of status through the filing of a Form I-130 petition. This factor likewise weighs in Respondent’s favor. See Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 793 (BIA 2009) (listing immigration history, including preconceived intent, as a relevant factor).

v) The Underlying Visa Petition Is Expected to Be Resolved Shortly. The underlying Petition for Alien Relative was received on July 2, 2026, and is being processed before the Texas Service Center (SCOPS). See Receipt Notice for Form I-130, attached hereto as Exhibit 2. The processing time for complete adjudication of a Petition for Alien Relative (I-130) filed by a U.S. Citizen for a spouse at a Service Center Operations (SCOPS) is of approximately 21.5 months. See U.S. Citizenship & Immigr. Servs., Case Processing Times, https://egov.uscis.gov/processing-times (last visited August 11, 2026). Against the backdrop of typical immigration processing timelines, this period is relatively short and supports the conclusion that the petition is likely to be resolved within a limited timeframe.

vi) Processing Delay Not Attributable to Respondent. The delay associated with USCIS adjudication of the pending I-130 is entirely attributable to the government's own processing timelines and docket management, not to any dilatory conduct by Respondent. As the court held in Matter of Hashmi, "Delay that is not attributable to the respondent augurs in favor of a continuance". 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 793 (BIA 2009). Respondent has diligently pursued the adjudication of his I-130 and should not be prejudiced by institutional processing delays beyond his control.

Taken together, these equities weigh heavily in favor of a favorable exercise of discretion. See Matter of Garcia, 16 I&N Dec. 653 (BIA 1978); Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785, at 793 (BIA 2009).

e) The Continuance Is Sought in Good Faith and Not for Delay

This motion is filed in good faith and solely for the purpose of allowing USCIS to complete adjudication of the pending I-130. In Matter of L-A-B-R-, 27 I&N Dec. 405 (A.G. 2018), the Attorney General identified relevant secondary factors, including the respondent's diligence in seeking collateral relief, concerns of administrative efficiency, the number of continuances previously granted, and the timing of the motion. Each factor weighs in Respondent's favor.

This is only the second continuance request in these proceedings. The first continuance was of only two months and was granted in light of Respondent's newly retained representation, to allow for legal counsel to review and prepare his case. This is Respondent's first request for a continuance in connection with the pending petition.

Respondent married his U.S. citizen spouse on February 25, 2026, prior to the commencement of removal proceedings, and filed the I-130 on his behalf within approximately one month of the issuance of the Notice to Appear. Removal proceedings have now been pending for solely three months. This timeline reflects diligence and a genuine intent to pursue lawful status through appropriate channels, not delay.

Granting the continuance is also the most administratively efficient course, as proceeding to a final hearing before USCIS adjudicates the I-130 risks duplicative proceedings that could be avoided entirely upon approval of the petition.

WHEREFORE, the Respondent respectfully requests that this Court grant the Motion to Continue the Master Calendar Hearing currently scheduled for August 26, 2026, and reset the matter to a future date to allow USCIS sufficient time to adjudicate the pending Form I-130 filed by Respondent's U.S. citizen spouse.

Respectfully,

RE: RESUBMISSION - Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative
Petitioner: Claire Elizabeth Prazeres
Beneficiary: Paulo Roberto Prazeres (Spouse) (A#210-670-060)
Prior Receipt Number: IOE0937313939
Prior Notice Date: June 22, 2026
Prior Received Date: June 16, 2026

Dear Sir or Madam,

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING PRIOR PAYMENT REJECTION
The prior filing (Receipt No. IOE0937313939) was rejected solely due to a payment processing error. The credit card information provided on Form G-1450 was complete, accurate, and valid. The payment of $675.00 was properly authorized.

Please find enclosed the resubmission of Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, and all requisite documentation, filed by counsel on behalf of the Petitioner, Claire Elizabeth Prazeres, for the benefit of her spouse, Paulo Roberto Prazeres. This resubmission is made in response to the Form I-797C, Notice of Action (Rejection Notice), dated June 22, 2026.

Regarding the Payment Rejection: The aforementioned rejection notice states that "the authorization for your payment is invalid due to incomplete information and/or the information you supplied was invalid and your payment has been denied." We respectfully but firmly disagree with this determination.

The original submission included a properly completed Form G-1450, Authorization for Credit Card Transactions, with the following accurate and complete information:

- Credit card type duly selected;
- Full credit card number provided;
- Credit card expiration date (mm/yyyy) correctly entered;
- CVV security code included;
- Authorized payment amount of $675.00 - the exact filing fee for Form I-130;
- Complete credit card billing information, including cardholder's name, billing address, and contact details;
- Cardholder's original signature affixed to the form.

The credit card used is a valid card issued by a U.S. financial institution, was active and in good standing at the time of the original filing, and had sufficient available credit to cover the $675.00 filing fee. We have confirmed with the cardholder's financial institution that no charge from USCIS or the U.S. Department of Homeland Security was attempted or declined on the card during the relevant time period. This strongly suggests that the payment processing error occurred on the USCIS side, rather than due to any deficiency in the information provided.

New Payment Authorization: To facilitate the prompt processing of this resubmission, a new, fully completed Form G-1450 is enclosed with this filing package, authorizing payment of $675.00. All credit card information has been carefully verified for accuracy. We respectfully request that this payment authorization be processed with due care to ensure the petition is properly accepted.

Part 4. Client's Consent to Representation and Signature

Consent to Representation and Release of Information

I have requested the representation of and consented to being represented by the attorney or accredited representative named in Part 1. of this form. According to the Privacy Act of 1974 and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) policy, I also consent to the disclosure to the named attorney or accredited representative of any records pertaining to me that appear in any system of records of USCIS, ICE, or CBP.

Options Regarding Receipt of USCIS Notices and Documents

USCIS will send notices to both a represented party (the client) and his, her, or its attorney or accredited representative either through mail or electronic delivery. USCIS will send all secure identity documents and Travel Documents to the client's U.S. mailing address.

If you want to have notices and/or secure identity documents sent to your attorney or accredited representative of record rather than to you, please select all applicable items below. You may change these elections through written notice to USCIS.

1.a. ☒ I request that USCIS send original notices on an application or petition to the business address of my attorney or accredited representative as listed in this form.

1.b. ☒ I request that USCIS send any secure identity document (Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document, or Travel Document) that I receive to the U.S. business address of my attorney or accredited representative (or to a designated military or diplomatic address in a foreign country (if permitted)).

NOTE: If your notice contains Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, USCIS will send the notice to the U.S. business address of your attorney or accredited representative. If you would rather have your Form I-94 sent directly to you, select Item Number 1.c.

1.c. ☐ I request that USCIS send my notice containing Form I-94 to me at my U.S. mailing address.

Part 4. Client's Consent to Representation and Signature

Consent to Representation and Release of Information

I have requested the representation of and consented to being represented by the attorney or accredited representative named in Part 1. of this form. According to the Privacy Act of 1974 and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) policy, I also consent to the disclosure to the named attorney or accredited representative of any records pertaining to me that appear in any system of records of USCIS, ICE, or CBP.

Options Regarding Receipt of USCIS Notices and Documents

USCIS will send notices to both a represented party (the client) and his, her, or its attorney or accredited representative either through mail or electronic delivery. USCIS will send all secure identity documents and Travel Documents to the client's U.S. mailing address.

If you want to have notices and/or secure identity documents sent to your attorney or accredited representative of record rather than to you, please select all applicable items below. You may change these elections through written notice to USCIS.

1.a. ☒ I request that USCIS send original notices on an application or petition to the business address of my attorney or accredited representative as listed in this form.

1.b. ☒ I request that USCIS send any secure identity document (Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document, or Travel Document) that I receive to the U.S. business address of my attorney or accredited representative (or to a designated military or diplomatic address in a foreign country (if permitted)).

NOTE: If your notice contains Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, USCIS will send the notice to the U.S. business address of your attorney or accredited representative. If you would rather have your Form I-94 sent directly to you, select Item Number 1.c.

1.c. ☐ I request that USCIS send my notice containing Form I-94 to me at my U.S. mailing address.

Scan for important passport information and travel requirements.
IF YOUR PASSPORT EXPIRES WITHIN SIX MONTHS OF YOUR DATE OF DEPARTURE, YOU MAY BE DENIED ENTRY INTO SOME COUNTRIES.
It is recommended to renew your passport at least one year prior to the expiration date of the passport.
TRAVEL INFORMATION You can find travel and country specific information, including Travel Advisories and Public Announcements at travel.state.gov.
EMERGENCIES AND REGISTRATION If you require assistance due to an emergency or if you are in trouble with foreign authorities, contact the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate. When visiting a foreign country for a prolonged stay, traveling to remote or volatile areas, or residing overseas, register with the U.S. embassy or consulate by telephone, fax, in person, or online at step.state.gov.
This passport is not valid unless signed by the bearer in the area designated on page three.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

IT IS UNLAWFUL for any person other than the original, lawful recipient to use this passport. It is unlawful to use this passport in violation of passport regulations or of the conditions or restrictions set out in the passport, or for travel to countries where use of a U.S. passport is restricted (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1544). For further information, contact the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate, or visit travel.state.gov.

U.S. GOVERNMENT PROPERTY This passport is the property of the United States (Title 22, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 51.7). It must be surrendered upon demand by an authorized representative of the United States Government.

LOSS, THEFT, OR ALTERATION OF PASSPORT The loss, theft, or destruction of a passport is serious and should be reported immediately. If lost, stolen, or found in the United States, contact the National Passport Information Center at 1-877-487-2778. If abroad, contact the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate. This passport must not be altered or damaged. Alteration could make the passport invalid, and if willful, may subject you to prosecution (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1543). Only authorized officials may place stamps or make notations or additions in this passport.

FOREIGN LAWS While in a foreign country, you are subject to its laws. Penalties for violating local laws, including possession, or trafficking of illegal drugs can be more severe than in the U.S. for similar offenses and convicted offenders can expect prison sentences and heavy fines.

DUAL CITIZENSHIP Dual nationality may hamper efforts to provide U.S. consular protection to dual citizens in the foreign country of their other nationality. Dual citizens who encounter problems abroad, including possible conscription for military service, should contact the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

PARENTAL CHILD ABDUCTION For information on prevention of international parental child abduction, or help if your child has been taken, contact the U.S. Department of State's Office of Children's Issues at 1-202-501-4444, or consult our home page at travel.state.gov.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

LOSS OF U.S. CITIZENSHIP U.S. citizens who wish to learn more about potentially expatriating acts or how to renounce their U.S. citizenship should visit travel.state.gov.

IMPORTATION OF GOODS AND SERVICES Contact the Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control, for more information at www.treas.gov.

CUSTOMS AND BORDER PROTECTION Contact Customs & Border Protection for information about entering the United States at www.cbp.gov.

AGRICULTURE For information on bringing food, plant, and animal products into the United States, contact the U.S. Department of Agriculture at www.aphis.usda.gov.

U.S. TAXES All U.S. citizens working and residing abroad are required to file and report on their worldwide income. Find more information at www.irs.gov.

SOCIAL SECURITY Before going abroad contact the Social Security Administration, Office of International Operations, about receiving payments while outside of the U.S. While abroad contact a U.S. embassy or consulate or find more information at www.ssa.gov.

INFORMAÇÕES PARA O TITULAR

Este passaporte é propriedade da República Federativa do Brasil e qualquer tentativa de adulteração o tornará inválido.
O extravio – perda, roubo ou destruição – do passaporte constitui fato grave e deve ser comunicado imediatamente à autoridade policial e à Embaixada ou ao Consulado do Brasil, conforme o caso. Para isso, recomenda-se que o titular copie as informações da página 2.

Se o passaporte for entregue a pessoa ou serviço que não pertença ao Governo Brasileiro (por exemplo, para obtenção de visto, compra de passagem, etc.) e não for restituído, o titular deve considerá-lo como extraviado.
A concessão de novo passaporte em substituição ao extraviado depende de investigação.
Apenas o titular do passaporte poderá usá-lo. A utilização fraudulenta ou a cessão a outra pessoa constituem crimes, pela lei brasileira. Para ressalvar sua responsabilidade, o titular deve assinar seu passaporte, no local previsto na página 3, imediatamente após recebê-lo. Este passaporte só é válido com a assinatura do titular, salvo em caso de incapacidade.

REPÚBLICA FEDERATIVA DO BRASIL

É recomendável que o brasileiro residente no exterior matricule-se na Embaixada ou Consulado do Brasil mais próximo de seu local de residência. Brasileiros de passagem por região conturbada devem entrar em contato com a Embaixada ou o Consulado do Brasil mais próximo para fornecer nome completo, endereço e número do passaporte. Impossibilitado de comparecer pessoalmente, poderá comunicar-se por outro meio, fornecendo nome completo, endereço e número do passaporte.
O brasileiro que viaje por áreas conturbadas deve ter presente que a assistência do Governo Brasileiro poderá ser limitada e dependerá das autoridades locais. A contratação de seguro de viagem poderá trazer tranquilidade ao viajante e seus familiares.

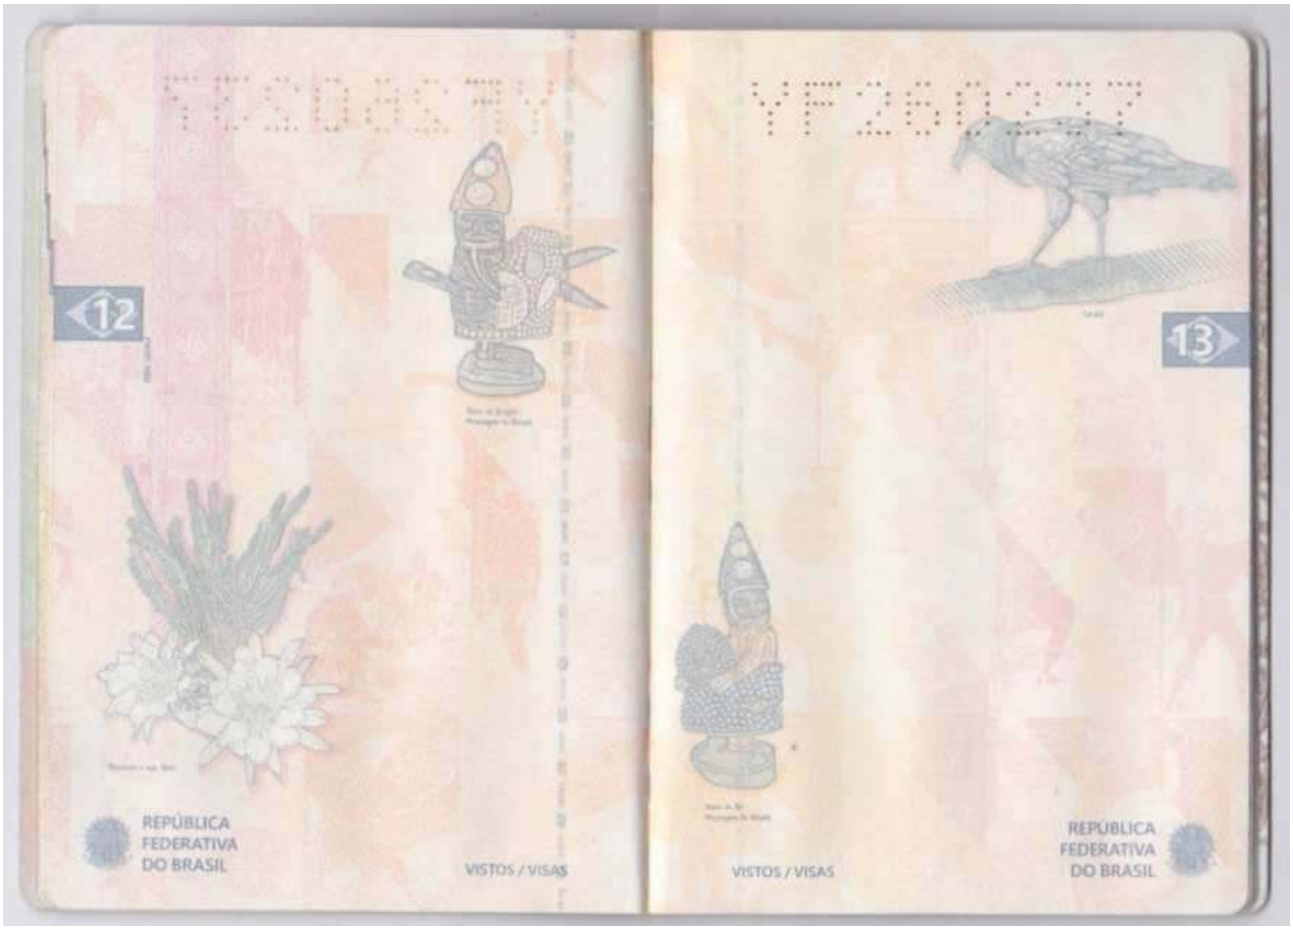

É responsabilidade do titular verificar, antes da viagem, a validade do passaporte e a necessidade de visto. O titular poderá solicitar a substituição do passaporte mesmo antes do vencimento, em vista que muitos países exigem prazo mínimo de validade.
O menor de idade, não emancipado, viajando desacompanhado de qualquer um dos pais, ou responsável legal, só poderá sair do Brasil munido de documentação pertinente prevista em lei.
O cidadão brasileiro que tenha outra nacionalidade deve ter em conta que a assistência consular brasileira no país de que também é nacional poderá ser consideravelmente limitada.

- Effective April 26, 2013, DHS began automating the admission process. An alien lawfully admitted or paroled into the U.S. is no longer required to be in possession of a preprinted Form I-94/I-95. A record of admission printed from the CBP website constitutes a lawful record of admission. See 8 CFR § 1.4(d).
- What to do if someone requests your admission info: If an employer, local, state or federal agency requests admission information, present your admission (I-94/I-95) number along with any additional required documents requested by that employer or agency.
- For security, close your browser after retrieving your I-94/I-95 number.
- Nonimmigrant travelers departing the United States by land or private vessel can now use the CBP Link Mobile Application to report their departure. Please note that departure should only be reported after you have physically left the United States. If you departed by air or sea, your departure was likely recorded automatically.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

NOTICE TO APPEAR

In removal proceedings under section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act:

File No: A210670060

In the Matter of:

Respondent: PAULO ROBERTO PRAZERES DA ROCHA currently residing at:

1436 S SHENANDOAH ST APT. 204, LOS ANGELES, CA, 90035

(Number, street, city, state and ZIP code) (Area code and phone number)

☐ You are an arriving alien.

☐ You are an alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or paroled.

☒ You have been admitted to the United States, but are removable for the reasons stated below.

The Department of Homeland Security alleges that you:

1. You are not a citizen or national of the United States;
2. You are a native of Brazil and a citizen of Brazil;
3. You were admitted to the United States at Miami, Airport Concourse A, B, Miami, FL on or about April 16, 2025, as a B2 nonimmigrant with authorization to remain in the United States for a temporary period not to exceed October 15, 2025;
4. On September 24, 2025, you filed Form I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status (WAC2590212723), seeking to extend your B2 nonimmigrant status, which was denied on March 19, 2026;

On the basis of the foregoing, it is charged that you are subject to removal from the United States pursuant to the following provision(s) of law:

Section 237(a)(1)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), as amended, in that after admission as a nonimmigrant under Section 101(a)(15) of the Act, you have remained in the United States for a time longer than permitted, in violation of this Act or any other law of the United States.

☐ This notice is being issued after an asylum officer has found that the respondent has demonstrated a credible fear of persecution or torture.

☐ Section 235(b)(1) order was vacated pursuant to: ☐ 8CFR 208.30 ☐ 8CFR 235.3(b)(5)(iv)

YOU ARE ORDERED to appear before an immigration judge of the United States Department of Justice at:

5245 PACIFIC CONCOURSE DR, #100, LOS ANGELES, CA, 90045

(Complete Address of Immigration Court, including Room Number, if any) on 2026-06-23 (Date) at 08:00 AM (Time) to show why you should not be removed from the United States based on the charge(s) set forth above.

Notice to Respondent

Alien Registration: This Notice to Appear serves as evidence of your alien registration pursuant to INA § 262. If you are 18 years or older, failure to carry this Notice to Appear, or other evidence of alien registration as provided in 8 C.F.R. § 264.1(b), on your person at all times is a criminal offense pursuant to INA § 264(e), for which you may be subject to a criminal penalty of $5,000 and imprisonment of up to 30 days.

Notification to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) of Change of Address: All aliens aged 14 years or older, and all parents and legal guardians of aliens under the age of 14, must report a change of address to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, a component of DHS, within 10 days of moving, pursuant to INA § 265(a). Failure to notify DHS of your change of address is a criminal offense pursuant to INA § 266(b), for which you may be subject to a criminal penalty of $5,000 and imprisonment of up to 30 days. More information is available online at https://www.uscis.gov/addresschange. This obligation is in addition to your obligation to notify the Immigration Court of your change of address.

Representation: If you choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to INA §§ 240(b)(4)(A) and 292. Unless you request otherwise in writing, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than 10 days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost is provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in this Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or deportable. You will be advised by the immigration judge of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible, including the privilege of voluntary departure. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge. At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross-examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. The Form I-589, Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/i-589. Failure to file the Form I-589 within one year of arrival may bar you from eligibility to apply for asylum pursuant to INA § 208(a)(2)(B).

Notification to the Immigration Court of Change of Address: You are required to notify the Immigration Court, in writing, of your full mailing address and telephone number (if any). You must also immediately notify the Immigration Court whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding by using Form EOIR-33/IC, Change of Address/Contact Information Form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you file a Form EOIR-33/IC with the Immigration Court, you must serve a copy on the ICE Office of the Principal Legal Advisor. If you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding and do not submit Form EOIR-33/IC, the Immigration Court shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. This obligation is in addition to your obligation to notify DHS of your change of address.

Failure to Appear: If you fail to attend the hearing at the date, time, and place designated on this notice, or any date, time, or place later directed by the Immigration Court, the immigration judge shall order you removed in your absence upon determining that you were provided written notice and are removable. If you are arrested by ICE after being ordered removed in your absence by the immigration judge pursuant to INA § 240(b)(5), you will be required to pay a minimum fee of $5,000, adjusted for inflation, or a greater amount as established by the Secretary of Homeland Security.

Mandatory Duty to Depart the United States: If you become subject to a final order of removal as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 1241.1, you must depart the United States within 90 days of the order. If you do not depart, you may be subject to a civil penalty under INA § 274D(a) of $500 per day, adjusted for inflation, and imprisonment of up to 4 years (or 10 years if you belong to certain specified classes described in INA § 237(a)(1)(E), (2), (3), or (4)). If you are granted voluntary departure, you must comply with the terms of the voluntary departure order. If you fail to voluntarily depart within the time provided, you will be subject to a final order of removal, may be ineligible for certain immigration benefits for a period of 10 years from the date you overstayed the order, and may be subject to a civil penalty from $1,000 to $5,000, adjusted for inflation. For additional information, refer to the order granting voluntary departure, as well as INA § 240B(d).

Sensitive Locations: To the extent that an enforcement action leading to a removal proceeding was taken against Respondent at a location described in INA § 239(e)(1), such action complied with 8 U.S.C. § 1367.

Upon information and belief, the language that the alien understands is PORTUGUESE.

Privacy Act Statement

Authority:
The Department of Homeland Security through U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), U.S Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) are authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to Sections 103, 237, 239, 240, and 290 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended (8 U.S.C. 1103, 1229, 1229a, and 1360), and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Purpose:
You are being asked to sign and date this Notice to Appear (NTA) as an acknowledgement of personal receipt of this notice. This notice, when filed with the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), initiates removal proceedings. The NTA contains information regarding the nature of the proceedings against you, the legal authority under which proceedings are conducted, the acts or conduct alleged against you to be in violation of law, the charges against you, and the statutory provisions alleged to have been violated. The NTA also includes information about the conduct of the removal hearing, your right to representation at no expense to the government, the requirement to inform EOIR of any change in address, the consequences for failing to appear, and that generally, if you wish to apply for asylum, you must do so within one year of your arrival in the United States. If you choose to sign and date the NTA, that information will be used to confirm that you received it, and for recordkeeping.

Routine Uses:
For United States Citizens, Lawful Permanent Residents, or individuals whose records are covered by the Judicial Redress Act of 2015 (5 U.S.C. § 552a note), your information may be disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b), including pursuant to the routine uses published in the following DHS systems of records notices (SORN): DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefit Information System, DHS/ICE-011 Criminal Arrest Records and Immigration Enforcement Records (CARIER), and DHS/ICE-003 General Counsel Electronic Management System (GEMS), and DHS/CBP-023 Border Patrol Enforcement Records (BPER). These SORNs can be viewed at https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorns. When disclosed to the DOJ's EOIR for immigration proceedings, this information that is maintained and used by DOJ is covered by the following DOJ SORN: EOIR-001, Records and Management Information System, or any updated or successor SORN, which can be viewed at https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records. Further, your information may be disclosed pursuant to routine uses described in the abovementioned DHS SORNs or DOJ EOIR SORN to federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement agencies for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

For all others, as appropriate under United States law and DHS policy, the information you provide may be shared internally within DHS, as well as with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement; other government agencies; and other parties for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

Disclosure:
Providing your signature and the date of your signature is voluntary. There are no effects on you for not providing your signature and date; however, removal proceedings may continue notwithstanding the failure or refusal to provide this information.

Letter in Support of My Marriage to Paulo Roberto Prazeres

Dear Officer,

My name is Claire Prazeres, and I am a U.S. citizen. I am writing this letter in support of my husband, Paulo Roberto Prazeres, who is a Brazilian national. My husband and I were married on February 25, 2026 in Beverly Hills, California. We currently live together at 3416 Manning Ave, Apt 1710, Los Angeles, CA, 90064.

I first met Paulo in November 2025 in Los Angeles. At that time, he was in the United States after entering with a valid visitor visa. We met through the Hinge dating app. From the beginning, our connection felt natural and comfortable, I felt completely safe with him as I have never felt with a partner before. He messaged about his charity work with his parents in favelas and his passion for mental health which really resonated with me. We exchanged phone numbers soon after and were constantly texting every day with each other. Our first date was on November 5, 2025. I took him to the only Brazilian restaurant I knew of which I have since discovered is the most American Brazilian restaurant ever. He was very sweet and we talked about ourselves and our values. We went to my apartment after dinner and at one point I remember him struggling for quite a while on how to properly ask for consent to kiss me. At that moment I knew I could really love this man. After we met, we continued speaking and spending time together. After the first date Paulo texted me every day asking how I was doing and we'd talk for the rest of the day. We saw each other a few times that first week and by the second week we spent every day together, which we have continued to do ever since. Around the second week I got really sick and Paulo took care of me every day until I was better, at which point I started to fall in love. About a month in I brought him to my family Thanksgiving, as I wanted him to experience his first Thanksgiving, and my family loved him and immediately approved. He came with me to my family Christmas/Hannukah and recently attended Easter with my family and Passover with my friends. Our relationship developed naturally from the time we spent together, the conversations we had, and the way we began to support and understand each other. As we continued dating, our relationship became more serious. We spent time learning about each other's lives, families, cultures, and future goals. Although we come from different countries and backgrounds, our relationship felt real from the beginning. Very early on we made it clear that we both wanted to marry and start a family as soon as possible, as I am almost 34 and want to have multiple children.

In this way we very quickly became a team working to build a strong future together. He made me feel completely cared for and safe, and would always be the one to initiate communication as soon as a problem came up, so I knew he was the one I wanted as my partner forever.

We mutually decided to marry at the beginning of February as we didn't want to wait any longer. I married Paulo because I love him, trust him, and want to spend my life with him. There was never any payment, arrangement, pressure, or deal between us. Our decision to marry came from our relationship, our commitment to each other, and our shared desire to build a real future together in the United States. We were married on February 25, 2026 in Beverly Hills, California. Our wedding was held at the Beverly Hills courthouse and was very small and intimate. My parents attended and Paulo's parents watched over FaceTime. Afterwards my parents took us out to STK for a late lunch to celebrate. What mattered most to us was not the size of the ceremony, but the commitment we were making to each other as husband and wife.

Since our marriage, Paulo and I have continued building our life together. We share our home, our daily routines, and our responsibilities. We share rent on a one-bedroom apartment in Palms with the utilities under my name but us splitting costs equally. We have a joint savings account, share household expenses, and receive mail at the same address. We may not have every document in both names yet, but we are continuing to organize our lives together as a married couple and as our circumstances allow. Our daily life is ordinary, but it is real. We wake up together and get ready side by side, constantly talking and sharing affection. When we have time off we will run errands together such as getting groceries and going to the bank. He helps me care for my cats and handles most of the grosser chores like cleaning the bathroom and taking out the trash, while I tidy up and take care of the dishes. He usually will be the one to cook us breakfast and dinner, but I try to help when I can even though I'm not the best cook. Most nights we'll watch a movie together, usually a drama or action film. Paulo loves Rick and Morty and since meeting him I have probably watched the whole series about 10 times.

I am currently working as a server/bartender as well as a front desk receptionist. My parents also financially support us where we need it. We support each other emotionally, practically, and financially in the ways we are able. We discuss our finances and future plans together and I have supported him emotionally while his immigration case is pending. One of the things I appreciate most about Paulo is how he is always able to keep a positive attitude and makes everyone around him feel better.

Our marriage is not perfect because no marriage is perfect, but it is genuine. We live together, share a home, make decisions together, support each other, and continue building our future as husband and wife. We have created a life together through everyday routines, shared responsibilities, affection, trust, and commitment. Our relationship grew into a real marriage, and we intend to continue building our life together in the United States.

I respectfully ask that USCIS recognize our marriage as genuine and approve our Form I-130 petition so that my husband and I can continue building our life together in the United States as husband and wife. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Sincerely,

Claire Prazeres 6/10/2026

To whom it may concern,

My name is Paulo Roberto Prazeres. I am a Brazilian citizen and national, and write this letter in support of my marriage to my wife, Claire Prazeres, who is a United States citizen. Claire and I got married on February 25, 2026, in Beverly Hills, California. We currently live together at 3416 Manning Avenue, Apartment 1710, Los Angeles, California 90064.

I met Claire in November 2025, in Los Angeles. We met through the dating app Hinge. At first, I did not know that meeting her would become one of the most important moments of my life. What started as a simple conversation quickly turned into something real. From the beginning, I felt comfortable opening up to Claire. I remember talking to her about my charity work with my parents in Brazil, my passion for mental health, my family, and my core values. I could tell she listened attentively and genuinely cared about what I was saying. She immediately made me feel understood, safe, and deeply respected.

After we matched, Claire and I exchanged phone numbers and started texting every day. Our first date was on November 5, 2025. Claire took me to a local Brazilian restaurant so I would feel at home, and she even tried traditional coxinha and pão de queijo (cheese bread) with me. I clearly remember that date because she was incredibly sweet, attentive, and very patient with my English. I found her beautiful and loved her green eyes.

After our first date, I texted Claire every day to check on her, and we kept talking throughout the day. We saw each other several times during that first week and, by the second week, we were already spending almost every day together. She introduced me to several places around the city, taking me hiking, to Hollywood, the Walk of Fame, the gym, mini golf, and different restaurants.

About a month into our relationship, Claire took me to her family's Thanksgiving. It was my first Thanksgiving, and it meant a lot that she wanted me to experience it with the people closest to her. It was a challenging experience at first because I was nervous about not being accepted by her family, but everyone was incredibly kind, polite, and genuinely interested in learning about me and my Brazilian culture. I loved being there and felt completely included.

Since then, I have also shared Christmas, Easter, and Passover with Claire and her loved ones. Christmas was a memorable and emotional experience for me, as her family showered me with gifts, making me feel incredibly special. On Easter, we spent time with Claire's friends and participated in a small Jewish ceremony where I got to try some traditional foods, which further expanded my connection to her world.

As Claire and I continued dating, our relationship became serious very quickly. Early on in our relationship, Claire was honest with me and I with her about the desire to get married and have a family. Claire told me she wanted to get married and have children, and I wanted exactly the same kind of future. These conversations were not based on immigration pressure. They arose from the fact that we share the same core values and life goals, and we both knew exactly what we wanted from life. We talked openly about family plans, finances, work goals, where we would live, what kind of home we wanted, raising children, and the future we hoped to build together. What connected me to Claire on a deeper level was the absolute trust between us. Claire made me feel safe, and I tried every day to make her feel equally safe. Over time, I realized that our relationship was not temporary or casual. We were already building a permanent life together. Before my visa extension was denied, Claire and I had already discussed marriage and our future together. We talked seriously about the life we wanted to build as husband and wife. I had shared with her that I wished to stay longer and that I was waiting for the response on my extension, and we proactively discussed that, when we got married in the future, I would seek to formally legalize my status here.

I did not marry Claire to obtain an immigration benefit. I married Claire because I love her, because I trust her, and because I want to spend my life with her. There was never any payment, agreement, pressure, or arrangement between us. Our decision to get married arose from our relationship, our mutual commitment, and our shared desire to build a real future together in the United States. I chose Claire because I found in her the peace and support I needed to begin building our empire, and marriage is the milestone that marks the beginning of our story and our family in this world.

Claire and I got married on February 25, 2026, at the Beverly Hills courthouse. Our wedding was small and intimate. Claire's parents attended in person and my parents watched via FaceTime from Brazil. After the ceremony, Claire's parents took us to STK for a late lunch in celebration. It was the happiest moment for me and for our entire family, seeing my wife with her beautiful smile and seeing our parents so happy and proud. What mattered most was that Claire and I were making a sincere and lifelong commitment to each other as husband and wife.

Since our wedding, Claire and I have continued building our life together. We live together in a one-bedroom apartment in Palms, at the address 3416 Manning Avenue, Apartment 1710, Los Angeles, California 90064. We share the rent and household expenses, although some utility bills are in Claire's name. We receive mail at the same address, share a joint savings and investment account, and continue organizing our finances and responsibilities together as a married couple.

One of the things I admire most about Claire is her unwavering loyalty. She has stood by my side during one of the most uncertain periods of my life. Even without knowing the immediate outcome of my status or having any guarantees, she spares no effort to ensure that I am here by her side. I try every day to support her as her husband, taking care of her nutrition, maintaining the home environment she lives in, caring for the animals she loves, and looking after her health and overall well-being.

I want to be Claire's husband in every sense — emotional, practical, financial, and legal. I want to build a stable home with her, have children, protect her, secure her future and our children's future, and build a strong and prosperous family. We want a large family, and I want to begin that journey soon. Our relationship is reflected in the daily life we share, in our mutual affection, in our commitment to remaining together permanently, and in our common goal of building our empire together.

Claire is my wife, my partner, and the person I want to spend my life with. I know that I made a mistake by remaining in the United States after the end of my authorized period of stay. I regret that and take responsibility for it. I respectfully ask that USCIS consider that my overstay occurred in the context of a genuine relationship that had already become serious and entered a bona fide marriage. I am asking for the opportunity to adjust my status, remain with my American citizen wife, and build the stable life we promised each other when we got married.

Thank you for considering my statement and all the circumstances of my case. I respectfully ask that USCIS recognize the bona fide nature of my marriage to Claire and exercise discretion favorably on my Form I-130 and my application for adjustment of status. I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the above information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Sincerely,

A quem possa interessar,

Meu nome é Paulo Roberto Prazeres. Sou cidadão e nacional do Brasil e escrevo esta carta em apoio ao meu casamento com minha esposa, Claire Prazeres, que é cidadã dos Estados Unidos. Claire e eu nos casamos no dia 25 de fevereiro de 2026, em Beverly Hills, Califórnia. Atualmente, moramos juntos no endereço 3416 Manning Avenue, Apartamento 1710, Los Angeles, Califórnia 90064.

Conheci a Claire em novembro de 2025, em Los Angeles. Nós nos conhecemos através do aplicativo de relacionamento Hinge. No início, eu não sabia que conhecê-la se tornaria um dos momentos mais importantes da minha vida. O que começou como uma simples conversa transformou-se em algo real muito rapidamente. Desde o início, senti-me confortável para me abrir com a Claire. Lembro-me de conversar com ela sobre meu trabalho de caridade com meus pais no Brasil, minha paixão por saúde mental, minha família e meus valores fundamentais. Eu percebia que ela ouvia com atenção e genuinamente se importava com o que eu estava dizendo. Ela imediatamente me fez sentir compreendido, seguro e profundamente respeitado.

Depois que demos "match", Claire e eu trocamos números de telefone e começamos a enviar mensagens todos os dias. Nosso primeiro encontro foi no dia 5 de novembro de 2025. A Claire me levou a um restaurante brasileiro local para que eu me sentisse em casa, e ela até experimentou coxinha tradicional e pão de queijo comigo. Lembro-me claramente desse encontro porque ela foi incrivelmente doce, atenciosa e muito paciente com o meu inglês. Achei ela linda e adorei seus olhos verdes.

Após o nosso primeiro encontro, enviei mensagens para a Claire todos os dias para saber como ela estava, e continuamos conversando ao longo do dia. Nós nos vimos várias vezes durante aquela primeira semana e, na segunda semana, já estávamos passando quase todos os dias juntos. Ela me apresentou a vários lugares da cidade, levando-me para fazer trilhas, para Hollywood, a Calçada da Fama, à academia, ao mini-golfe e a diferentes restaurantes.

Com cerca de um mês de relacionamento, a Claire me levou ao Dia de Ação de Graças (Thanksgiving) da sua família. Foi o meu primeiro Thanksgiving, e significou muito o fato de ela querer que eu vivenciasse isso com as pessoas mais próximas a ela. Foi uma experiência desafiadora no início porque eu estava nervoso com a possibilidade de não ser aprovado por sua família, mas todos foram incrivelmente gentis, educados e genuinamente interessados em aprender sobre mim e sobre a minha cultura brasileira. Adorei estar lá e me senti completamente incluído. Desde então, também compartilhei o Natal, a Páscoa e o Passover (Páscoa Judaica) com a Claire e seus entes queridos. O Natal foi uma experiência marcante e emocionante para mim, pois a família dela me encheu de presentes, fazendo-me sentir incrivelmente especial. Na Páscoa, passamos um tempo com os amigos da Claire e participamos de uma pequena cerimônia judaica onde pude experimentar algumas comidas tradicionais, o que expandiu ainda mais minha conexão com o mundo dela.

À medida que a Claire e eu continuávamos namorando, nosso relacionamento tornou-se sério muito rapidamente. Bem no início do nosso namoro, Claire foi honesta comigo e eu com ela sobre o desejo de casar e ter uma família. A Claire me disse que queria se casar e ter filhos, e eu queria exatamente o mesmo tipo de futuro. Essas conversas não foram baseadas em pressão imigratória. Elas surgiram do fato de compartilharmos os mesmos valores fundamentais e objetivos de vida, e ambos sabíamos exatamente o que queríamos da vida. Conversamos abertamente sobre planos familiares, finanças, metas de trabalho, onde moraríamos, que tipo de casa queríamos, criação de filhos e o futuro que esperávamos construir juntos. O que me conectou à Claire em um nível mais profundo foi a confiança absoluta entre nós. A Claire me fazia sentir seguro, e eu tentava todos os dias fazê-la se sentir igualmente segura. Com o tempo, percebi que nosso relacionamento não era temporário ou casual. Já estávamos construindo uma vida permanente juntos. Antes de a extensão do meu visto ser rejeitada, Claire e eu já tínhamos discutido sobre casamento e nosso futuro juntos. Conversamos seriamente sobre a vida que queríamos construir como marido e mulher. Eu havia compartilhado com ela que desejava permanecer por mais tempo e que estava aguardando a resposta sobre a minha extensão, e discutimos proativamente que, quando nos casássemos no futuro, eu buscaria legalizar formalmente meu status aqui.

Não me casei com a Claire para obter um benefício imigratório. Casei-me com a Claire porque a amo, porque confio nela e porque quero passar a minha vida com ela. Nunca houve qualquer pagamento, acordo, pressão ou negócio entre nós. Nossa decisão de nos casar surgiu do nosso relacionamento, do nosso compromisso mútuo e do nosso desejo compartilhado de construir um futuro real juntos nos Estados Unidos. Escolhi a Claire porque encontrei nela a paz e o apoio de que precisava para começar o nosso império, e o casamento é o marco que assinala o início da nossa história e da nossa família neste mundo.

Claire e eu nos casamos no dia 25 de fevereiro de 2026, no cartório de Beverly Hills. Nosso casamento foi pequeno e íntimo. Os pais da Claire compareceram pessoalmente e meus pais assistiram pelo FaceTime do Brasil. Após a cerimônia, os pais da Claire nos levaram ao STK para um almoço tardio em comemoração. Foi o momento mais feliz para mim e para toda a nossa família, ver minha esposa com seu lindo sorriso e ver nossos pais tão felizes e orgulhosos. O que mais importava era que a Claire e eu estávamos assumindo um compromisso sincero e para toda a vida um com o outro como marido e mulher.

Desde o nosso casamento, Claire e eu continuamos construindo nossa vida juntos. Moramos juntos em um apartamento de um quarto em Palms, no endereço 3416 Manning Avenue, Apartamento 1710, Los Angeles, Califórnia 90064. Compartilhamos o aluguel e as despesas domésticas, embora algumas contas de serviços públicos estejam em nome da Claire. Recebemos correspondência no mesmo endereço, compartilhamos uma conta conjunta de poupança e investimentos e continuamos organizando nossas finanças e responsabilidades juntos como um casal casado.

Uma das coisas que mais admiro na Claire é sua lealdade inabalável. Ela esteve ao meu lado durante um dos períodos mais incertos da minha vida. Mesmo sem saber o resultado imediato do meu status ou ter garantias, ela não poupa esforços para garantir que eu esteja aqui ao seu lado. Tento todos os dias apoiá-la como seu marido, cuidando da sua alimentação, mantendo o ambiente do lar em que ela vive, cuidando dos animais que ela ama e zelando por sua saúde e bem-estar geral.

Quero ser o marido da Claire em todos os sentidos — emocional, prático, financeiro e legal. Quero construir um lar estável com ela, ter filhos, protegê-la, garantir o futuro dela e dos nossos filhos, e construir uma família forte e próspera. Queremos uma família grande, e quero começar essa jornada em breve. Nosso relacionamento reflete-se na vida diária que compartilhamos, no nosso afeto mútuo, no nosso compromisso de permanecermos juntos permanentemente e no nosso objetivo comum de construirmos o nosso império juntos.

A Claire é minha esposa, minha parceira e a pessoa com quem quero passar a minha vida. Sei que cometi um erro ao permanecer nos Estados Unidos após o término do meu período de permanência autorizada. Lamento isso e assumo a responsabilidade por isso. Peço respeitosamente ao USCIS que considere que a minha permanência além do prazo ocorreu no contexto de um relacionamento genuíno que já havia se tornado sério, e de um casamento contraído de boa-fé. Estou pedindo a oportunidade de corrigir meu status, permanecer com minha esposa cidadã americana e construir a vida estável que prometemos um ao outro quando nos casamos.

Agradeço por considerar minha declaração e todas as circunstâncias do meu caso. Peço respeitosamente ao USCIS que reconheça a natureza de boa-fé do meu casamento com a Claire e exerça a discricionariedade favoravelmente em meu Formulário I-130 e em meu pedido de ajuste de status. Declaro, sob pena de perjúrio, que as informações acima são verdadeiras e corretas de acordo com o meu melhor conhecimento e crença.

Atenciosamente,

Paulo Roberto Prazeres 06/10/2026

How to Contact Us - You may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement.

Updating your contact information - We encourage you to keep your contact information up-to-date. This includes address, email and phone number. If your information has changed, the easiest way to update it is by visiting the Help & Support tab of Online Banking.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

April 30, 2026

Re: Letter of Support for Mr. Paulo Prazeres and Mrs. Claire Prazeres (Lombrozo

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Bob Ellis, and I am Claire's maternal uncle. I am writing to support their

I-130 petition to demonstrate their marriage is legitimate and bona fide.

I have known Claire since she was born in 1992 and have known Paulo since 2025. I first met them together in 2025 at our family Thanksgiving gathering, and I have continued to spend time with them as a couple since then. I have observed their relationship at dinners and at social gatherings. I have witnessed the love and support they have for each other, communicate openly, and clearly share a plan for their future together. Their relationship is consistent, affectionate, and stable.

Based on my personal knowledge and experience with them, I believe their marriage is genuine and entered into in good faith. I am pleased to offer this statement in support of their case. I am confident in the authenticity of their marriage and their intention to spend their lives together. I offer this letter as a testament to their bond. If you have any questions or would like additional information, I am happy to provide further details and can be reached at the contact information above.

Sincerely,

Bob Ellis

Re: Letter of Support for Mr. Paulo Prazeres and Mrs. Claire Prazeres (nee Lombrozo)

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Sally Lombrozo and I am the mother of Mrs. Claire Prazeres, nee Lombrozo. I am writing this letter in full support of the marriage between my daughter, Claire, and her husband, Paulo.

I have known Claire her entire life and have known Paulo since 2025. From the very beginning of their relationship, I observed a sincere and natural bond between them. I first met Paulo when he came to our extended family's Thanksgiving celebration in November of 2025, and it was clear to me that their relationship was genuine and meaningful. Paulo's interaction with the family was a delight, as we enjoyed our traditional dinner, chatted in the living room, and played games and cards after. The whole family loved Paulo right away and immediately noticed the strength of the bond between them.

Since that time, I have had several opportunities to spend time with them together, including an extended stay with us over the Christmas holiday, our Easter celebration, various phone calls, and of course at their wedding ceremony and the lunch afterward. A favorite memory was seeing them after the wedding luncheon, walking with their arms around each other's waist and their heads close together, talking happily as I watched unobserved. I have witnessed how they support each other emotionally, make decisions together, and plan their future as a couple. Their relationship reflects mutual respect, affection, and a shared commitment to building a life together.

Although we may not always be physically present with them, I remain very closely connected to Claire and have consistently observed the stability and authenticity of her marriage to Paulo. In my opinion, their union is real, loving, and intended to be permanent.

I am confident in the authenticity of their marriage and offer this letter as a testament to their bond. If you have any questions or would like additional information, I am happy to provide further details and can be reached at the contact information below.

Sincerely,

Sally Lombrozo

Re: Letter of Support for Mr. Paulo Prazeres and Mrs. Claire Prazeres (nee Lombrozo)

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Peter Lombrozo and I am the father of Mrs. Claire Prazeres, nee Lombrozo. I am writing this letter in full support of the marriage between my daughter, Claire, and her husband, Paulo.

I have known Claire since she was born and have known Paulo since 2025. From the very beginning of their relationship, I observed a sincere and natural bond between them. I first met Paulo when he came to our family's Thanksgiving celebration in November of 2025, where he also met most of my wife's siblings and their partners.

It was very obvious to me that their relationship was close and comfortable. Paulo's interaction with the family was a delight, as we enjoyed our traditional dinner, chatted in the living room, and he played games and cards with them after. The whole family loved Paulo right away and immediately noticed the strength of the bond between them.

Since that time, I have had several opportunities to spend time with them together, including an extended stay with us over the Christmas holiday, our Easter celebration, various phone calls, and of course at their wedding ceremony and the lunch afterward. I have had some very interesting conversations with him about what he would like to do, his experience in the Navy and some of the financial courses he is taking. I have witnessed how they support each other emotionally, make decisions together, and plan their future as a couple. Their relationship reflects mutual respect, affection, and a shared commitment to building a life together.

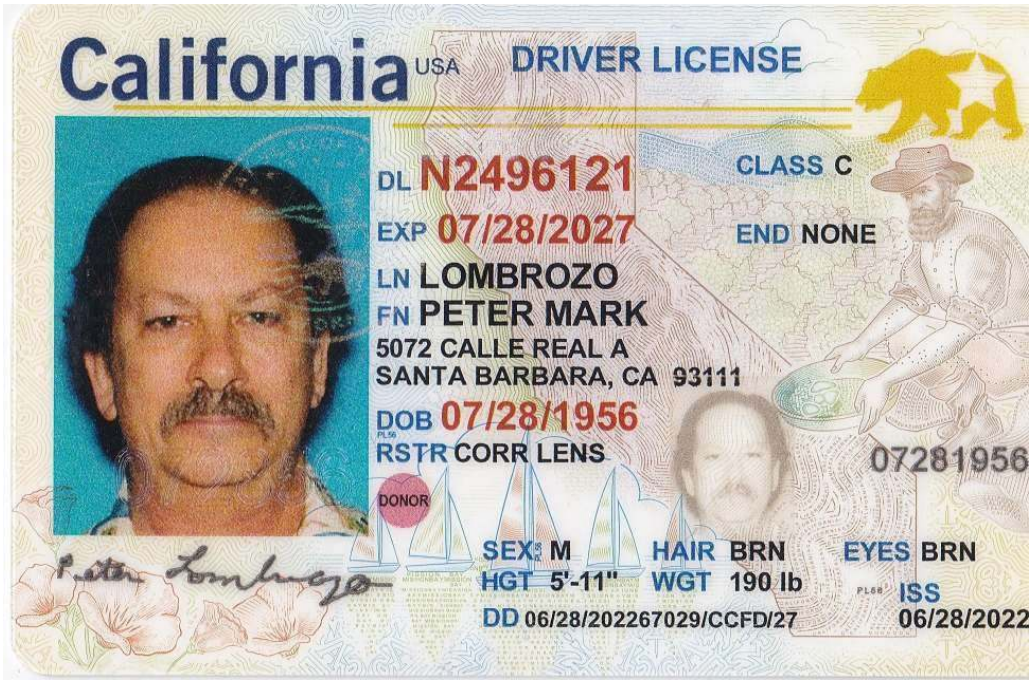

Although we may not always be physically present with them, I remain very closely connected to Claire and have consistently observed the stability and authenticity of her marriage to Paulo. In my opinion, their union is real, loving, and intended to be permanent. I feel very optimistic that they will do everything to make a good marriage.

I am confident in the authenticity of their marriage and offer this letter as a testament to their bond. If you have any questions or would like additional information, I am happy to provide further details and can be reached at the contact information below.

AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT FOR THE MARRIAGE OF PAULO PRAZERES AND CLAIRE PRAZERES

I, Thaynna Cristini Morais Moura, declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct:

I have known Paulo Prazeres since our time in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Over the years, I have had the opportunity to witness his personal growth and the values he carries with him, especially when it comes to relationships, family, and the kind of partner he always hoped to find.

After moving to California, Paulo met Claire, who I can confidently say is the love of his life. From the moment I met her, it was clear that their connection was genuine, deep, and built on mutual respect and affection.

I had the pleasure of meeting Claire in person during a New Year's celebration that I hosted at my home, along with a small group of close friends. It was an intimate gathering, but one filled with meaningful conversations, warmth, and unforgettable memories. During that time, I was able to observe firsthand the dynamic between Paulo and Claire.

Claire is incredibly kind, warm, and caring. She treats not only Paulo but also his friends and family with genuine affection and attention. It is evident that she values connection and makes an effort to create a welcoming and loving environment for those around her.

What stands out the most to me is the way Paulo looks at Claire. There is admiration, respect, and a deep sense of gratitude. I have always known that Paulo valued a partner who is loving, family-oriented, and kind-hearted, and I truly believe he found exactly that in Claire.

Their relationship reflects authenticity, companionship, and a strong emotional bond. It is clear to me that their marriage is based on love and sincerity.

I fully support their union and have no doubt that their marriage is genuine.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed,

Thaynna Cristini Morais Moura

Letter of Support for Mr. Paulo Prazeres and Mrs. Claire Prazeres

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Jozef Vasquez I am writing this letter to support Paulo Prazeres' I-130 petition to prove and demonstrate the legitimacy of his marriage to Claire Prazeres. I have known Claire since Freshman year of high school (2007) and we have been best friends ever since. I first met Paulo when Claire brought him over to Thanksgiving dinner last year (November 2025) one of many holidays and social events that Paulo and Claire have attended with me and my family over the past year. The most recent being Passover, This was Paulo's first time celebrating Claire's traditional holiday ceremonies and he did perfectly at reading the prayers before dinner.

I have observed their relationship at these events and I can say with absolute certainty that Claire and Paulo are very much deeply in love. They are very supportive and take care of each other. They are always cuddled up looking very cute and talking intimately with each other. My favorite memory is at Passover when Paulo brought a blanket for Claire when she was cold and wrapped them both up in it like a cocoon. They are very pragmatic about planning their future and are working hard to set themselves up for financial success. I believe their marriage is genuine and entered into in good faith. I am confident in the authenticity of their marriage and their intent to spend their lives together. If you need any additional information you can reach me at the contact info provided below.
